Editorial

Twice this century civilization has been shocked by the terrible devastation of world war. The intervening peace has been shattered by national upheavals, racial disturbances, economic depression, and now by a struggle infinitely more important than man has yet known—the battle of Science, personified in new armaments, careless of ethics. The latest discoveries and inventions have painted a new and infinitely more terrible face on war, and, whilst they have also provided us with many comforts, they have made life more complicated, peace more difficult and the human heart more troubled. Undoubtedly we have improved the means, but unfortunately we have not improved the ends of life.

All the high ideals underlying scientific gifts and inventions have exploded into elusive fragments, for we have had to face the fact that man can be, and is, so corrupt and insane that the greater the power given him, the more violently and widely will he destroy himself.

Consequently, the more we learn of Science the more we realize that there is a barrier in life where Science has to stop—but we must go on. It is undoubtedly true that we have made far greater advances in the scientific world than we have in the world of morals and ethics. Spiritually we have not kept pace with our rapid progress in the realm of scientific discovery and invention. Man has become so unbalanced that, unless a conception can be expressed in mathematical relationships, can be transposed from the latent to the concrete, it can claim no validity. We are now at the point where we see that progress simply must be made in the realm of morals and spiritual values if civilization is to be saved from destruction. The human conscience, which has rested anaesthetized by the mechanical advances of the last fifty years, has been awakened.

The psychologist teaches that man is largely influenced by his surroundings. We are, then, still in danger of a relapse into the coma of spiritual indifference unless we deny Science the predominance in life that the world of today dictates. We must either strive against the subconscious influence of environment on our personality and outlook, or, more probably, so change our surroundings that our conscience is governed by Christian ideals that will lead to the furtherance of spiritual research.

Thus only can we hope for a solution to the world's problems—the human problems . . .

the problem of selfishness called nationalism, the problem of licence parading as liberty,
the problem of lying disguised as propaganda,
the problem of deceit mistaken for loyalty,
the problem of materialism caused by lust for security . . .

These are the problems, the challenges which face us now.

How many of us will be following the call of Science in future life, prepared to seek open-mindedly, with patience and determination, to take a proposition and explore it through and through and then to report the findings! But not only scientific advances have come about as the result of dedication to need, but spiritual advances also. Science is now so developed, that in many things it is superfluous. Spiritually, however, we are in an era of dire necessity, of acute malnutrition.

The temptation of today is to become so caught up with the brutal, urgent facts of our world that Christian ideals seem but pious dreams, frail illusions. But remember the beginning of the dream, in a conquered, oppressed country, accepted by a little group who lived in two violently opposed worlds—Rome's and Christ's—and it was they who in the end proved conquerors.

The challenge today, accentuated only by nuclear arms, is the same—a challenge to spiritual research.

School Notes

A new class room in the Preparatory School was completed for the beginning of the school year. This has enabled us to have two III upper and two III lower forms. We welcome Mr. D. C. Kitney as an additional member of the Prep. School staff.

Mr. J. A. Brockoff, B.Sc., Mr. P. S. Kentish, and Mr. R. C. Perkins (an Old Boy) joined the staff of the Big School in February.

Mr. J. P. Keeves was granted leave of absence for a year and sailed for England in December. His place has been taken by Mr. Barry Smith, B.A., who is also acting Scoutmaster.

The school roll for first term stands at 808. Of this number 247 are in the Preparatory School. The increase is mainly due to the additional Preparatory class and to the larger number doing Leaving Honours.

This Chronicle includes reports on the Intercollegiate cricket and tennis. The cricket, played on our oval, was interrupted by rain, which affected the wicket. Congratulations to Walker and the members of the team on a well-deserved victory. Blight, with eleven wickets in the match (eight in one innings) was outstanding. B. M. Hurn, with a fine record as an all-rounder for the past three years, bowled well on the first evening. The tennis was played at Kensington Gardens, as part of the centre courts at the Memorial Drive was being re-turfed. S.P.S.C., with the more experienced team, are to be congratulated on their win after trailing at one stage 3 rubbers to 6. Williams and his team are also to be congratulated, as the result was in doubt until the end.

New sight screens have been much appreciated by the first eleven. Our thanks are extended to the Parents and Friends Association and to the Old Scholars' Cricket Club for their assistance.

The College Council has been able to purchase another cottage in Capper Street.

In November contracts were let for painting the College buildings, both Big School and Preparatory, and the Headmaster's residence. This work has been completed, much to the improvement of the appearance of the buildings.

The boys are making good use of the Ward Memorial Library. We are grateful to all who have responded so generously to our appeal for books.

It was with great regret that we heard of the passing of one of our younger Old Boys, Malcolm C. Chase, who was drowned while doing his National Service training with the Air Force. At school from 1945 to 1954, and a prefect in his last year, he had completed two years of his Science and Engineering course at the University.

Congratulations to two 1952 prefects on their successes at the University. David Evans was awarded the Rhodes Scholarship and Peter Hambly an Overseas Scholarship in Arts and Economics.

Members of Conference paid their annual visit to Assembly on March 7. We welcomed the new President, Rev. A. E. Vogt, who addressed us.

We were privileged to welcome Dr. Maldwyn Edwards, 1957 Cato Lecturer to the General Conference, to our Assembly on March 28. His address will long be remembered by those fortunate enough to hear it.

The President of the Old Collegians' Association, Mr. N. T. Todd, and members of the Committee, visited Assembly late in the third term. The President told the school of the work of the Association and urged boys who were leaving to become members.

The Late John F. Fleet

In the last week-end of the third term, 1956, the school suffered a sad loss in the death, as the result of a motor accident, of one of our VIA boys, John Frederick Fleet, John was born on 15th March, 1940, and entered form IIIA in the Preparatory School in February, 1952. He gained his Intermediate Certificate in 1955, and at the time of his death he had just completed the Leaving Examination, in which he passed in six subjects. He took a lively interest in many sides of school life, and his keenness in athletics gained for him a well-earned place in our strong 1956 athletics team.

Of a cheerful, lovable disposition, he was popular not only with his fellows, but also with members of the staff. The Upper Sixth of 1957 is the poorer because John Fleet is not in its ranks. The College extends its sincere sympathy to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Fleet of Golflands, on the loss of their only child.

Annual School Service

The twenty-fourth Annual School Service was held in the Kent Town Church on Sunday, 9th December, 1956. The School Chaplain, Rev. R. K. Waters, B.A., conducted the service and J. G. Jenkin, the Captain of the School, read the lesson, St. Luke 22, 14-30. The School Choir, conducted by Mr. Rolland May, Mus. Bac., and accompanied on the organ by Donald Perriam, rendered the anthem "Father we Praise Thee," two carols, "How Far is it to Bethlehem?" and "Rejoice and be Merry," and an excerpt from Handel's "Messiah," "The Trumpet shall Sound." The Headmaster, Mr. J. A. Dunning, M.A., M.Sc., gave the address. Mr. G. M. Bowen, A.U.A., was organist for the service.

THE HEADMASTER'S ADDRESS

At a time when I was wondering what I should make the subject of my address this evening, I happened to be reading an article where the author was discussing the English public schoolboy of the early part of last century—and, by the way, it would surprise most of you to know how many of the now famous English public schools had not been founded by 1840. In it I read that it was commonly said that the aim of the public schools was to produce Christian gentlemen.

When I read that, my mind turned to an address given this year to the Commonwealth Club of Adelaide by His Excellency the Governor-General, Field Marshal Sir William Slim. I am sorry I have not a copy of the exact words he used, but he said something like this: "What is a gentleman? I like to think that one can judge whether a man is a gentleman by the way he uses authority." He continued that he rather liked the word "gentleman," and then went on to say that who a man's parents were was certainly not the deciding factor in whether he was a gentleman. Though Sir William did not say so, I am sure that he would say that the school he had attended was also not the deciding factor.

Now, surprisingly enough, when we come to think of it, nearly every man in this community has to exercise authority in some way or other, and every one of the 100 or more boys here tonight whose schooldays are ending will exercise authority—some of course to a greater extent than others, for all are not fashioned on the same pattern.

So for a short time let us turn our attention to what is required of a Christian gentleman if he is to measure up to the term "gentleman" in the way he uses authority. It would be easy enough for you or for me to give a list of virtues we should expect the perfect man to possess, much as you would list the properties of a metal or of a gas in chemistry, and say that, if a man had these virtues, then he would exercise authority in such a way that we should all consider him a gentleman.

Rather, tonight, would I take just a few points and speak more fully on them, because they are so relevant to our time and generation, and relevant particularly to those who are stepping out on their big adventure as they leave behind the rules and regulations of what I hope has been an ordered school existence.

In the foreword to Mr. Ward's book on the history of Prince Alfred College, the then President of the College says this, as he writes of Mr. Ward: "He possesses a rare combination of industry, efficiency and a most lovable modesty," and it is on these—industry, efficiency and modesty, that I shall speak.

Industry: What better text for this than Ecclesiastes 9: 10. "Whatever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might." I have said before at these services, and I make no apology for saying again, that we Australians must learn again that there is virtue in doing a job with all one's might and to the best of one's ability. This is true for employer and employee alike, for everyone, from the general manager to the youngest apprentice, and those in authority must set the example. When at school, the advice to you young men, oft given and sometimes, I hope, heeded, has been to work while you work and then play while you play. As you leave school, I would give you the same advice. In these days of full employment, it is so easy to play at your work, and perhaps even to work hard at your play. Worse still, it is so easy to drift aimlessly along, like a ship, not so much without a rudder, but with a pilot who has no idea of his destination.

It is easy and almost customary for a speaker to give force to his advice by giving instances of men who, starting from scratch, have, by great industry, overcome obstacles and become great leaders. Such a man was Donald Smith. As a young lad fresh from his home in Scotland, he applied at a branch of the Hudson Bay Co. in Canada for a job. At eight shillings a week he was given one to count rat skins and told, "No mistakes, mind, or it will be the worse for you." Later he was ordered to a branch in Labrador—to a station almost entirely cut off from civilization, with only two mails a year. At first he was tempted to give it up, but he remembered the famed rallying cry of the Grant clan of which he was a descendant, "Stand fast, Craigellachie." As he thought on this, he remembered that he had come to Canada to earn his living and make good. He went to this lonely spot and toiled there alone for almost twenty years. He was then made manager of another branch.

One summer, he went for his holidays to the Rocky Mountains. There the idea of a giant railway across the plains and the mountains to link the two coasts of Canada came to him. People said the plan was impossible, but Smith devoted his life to the work. Time and time again he was tempted to abandon the scheme, but, remembering the cry of his forefathers, "Stand fast, Craigellachie," he battled on and overcame what appeared to be insuperable difficulties. At last the line was complete, and Smith had his great moment when he drove in the last spike, which was made of gold—and Donald Smith became Lord Strathcona.

But tonight I quote such an example to sound a warning. In the literature of the ancient world, the ant often appears as the symbol of industry. But be not deceived. Not everyone who practises the virtues of the ant goes from a post of lower to one of higher authority. As someone has expressed it—not every industrious engine cleaner becomes a cabinet minister. For most persons, the reward of virtue is the possession of that virtue, and the best reward for something done with all one's might is the satisfaction of a job well done—no mean satisfaction. In school life, hard work and application are sure to improve the marks you will gain in an examination. This is not always so evident in the great wide world upon which some of you are entering. You may think that your industry is not getting you the increased authority to which you are entitled. If you think this is happening to you, do not become sorry for yourself and deceive yourself by finding ready excuses for what is happening. If you do, it will soon lead to a slackening of your efforts, and you will learn the truth of what we read in the Proverbs of Solomon: "The hand of the diligent shall bear rule, but the slothful shall be under tribute." So I commend to you industry, if you hope to use authority as a gentleman should.

Efficiency. Remember what Jesus said: "And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, 'Lord, thou deliverest unto me five talents. Behold I have gained beside them five talents more!' His Lord said unto him, 'Well done, thou good and faithful servant'."

God has given to each of us talents, to some more talents than to others, but the important thing lies not in the number of our talents but in how we use them. We fail badly in our duty if we do not strive to make ourselves more efficient. Get to know your job, and as you proceed, get to know something of the work that those around you are doing. As you get control of men, become familiar with the work that those under you are doing. Do not give even one of them the idea that his work is unimportant. Take a real interest not only in their work, but also in them. This will add greatly to the smooth running of whatever you are concerned with, and help to remove sources of friction. To some men this comes easier than to others, but make the effort.

About the time that Mr. Baldwin was retiring from his position as Prime Minister of Great Britain and was being succeeded by Mr. Neville Chamberlain, I was playing golf with the late Peter Eckersley, at that time captain of the Lancashire County Cricket XI, and also a member of the House of Commons. He was asked a question about the two men. He replied that Mr. Baldwin would not only know all his backbenchers, but would know something about them and their interests. For instance, a few weeks previously, Mr. Baldwin had passed Mr. Eckersley and another member whose particular interest happened to be bee-keeping, in the precincts of the House, and, in greeting them had passed some comment on Lancashire's latest match and then another on honey. Mr. Chamberlain, on the other hand, would hardly know many of his backbenchers, let alone know what their interests were. What a difference just a spoken word or sign of interest makes! This is true even for a headmaster. Some of you have heard this story before. A certain Prep. boy, who shall be nameless came home one day and said to his mother, "Oh, Mummy, Mr. Dunning spoke to me today." His mother duly said, "Well, that was very nice of him. What did he say?" The boy's reply was, "He said, 'Get out of the rain, you silly blighter.'" You see what I mean of interest being appreciated. I fear today that, with full employment, many employees are not bothering to make themselves efficient, and, without the stress of keen competition, many employers are too casual and are not seeing that their side is efficient.

Time and time again in the last four or five years, when I get requests from heads of city firms for boys leaving school to join their staffs, I am told how hard it is to find young men willing to accept the responsibilities of executive positions. They are content to go along earning a reasonable salary without having the concern of more responsible work—they want nothing concerning their work on their minds between the closing of doors one afternoon and the opening of them the next morning.

Can we say that such men are using their talents and developing them? This was not the spirit of the pioneers who did so much for us in this fair land, and so I say to you young men: "Strive to become more efficient, develop your talents and use them by accepting authority, if opportunity comes your way." It is your bounden duty to do this. But do remember that, even with the advent of all our modern scientific equipment and machinery, the men you have to deal with are human beings, not machines. This is being forgotten in some countries today. Do not let us forget it in Australia.

The third quality was modesty. Many verses in the gospels would be most appropriate texts. Verse 26 in the lesson read earlier by the Captain of the School is the one I have chosen. "He that is greatest among you let him be as the younger, and he that is chief as he that doth serve."

As school we often wonder whether promotion to such a position as that of prefect, or a leader in the Prep. school, a captain of a sports team, or of a form will in the end be in the best interests of a boy. Instead of giving him a chance to develop his personality, to develop his talents, will it, as we say, go to his head? As we read about Jesus we find Him again and again stressing the necessity for and setting an example of humility. The complete lack of pride of the true Christian has never been better illustrated than by the washing of the feet of the disciples by Jesus. Yet even with His disciples, His lessons of meekness and humility often fell on deaf ears.

Down through history you will find that the kings of this world, proud and haughty though they may have been, have taken part in some traditional ceremony, peculiar perhaps to their country, which showed that at some time it was thought that, in being a ruler, one also had to be a servant. The Maundy Thursday service at Westminster is a survival of a service in which humility is part of true kingly dignity. What a magnificent example of modesty, yes, and of industry and efficiency is given by our beloved Queen.

However it is not necessarily wrong to be proud. Pride in good work, pride in doing the right thing, pride in being neat and tidy, all these are good, but beware of the pride of the peacock which seems to know it has gaudy plumage and likes to have notice taken of it. Beware of the pride of noble blood—kind hearts are more than coronets—and the pride of race as exemplified by Hitler.

Therefore, as you grow as a leader, so should your duties as a servant increase.

Time has permitted me to deal with only three qualities to be looked for in men exercising authority. All of you will readily agree that these and others are needed if authority is to be wisely used. But one thing further I must say. What is needed most today is that those exercising authority, whether it be in a large or a very small way, should be witnesses for Christ. This is true everywhere, in the realm of government, national, state or local, in business, in industry, in the professions, in our schools, and in the daily life of our churches.

We are all perturbed, perplexed, and bewildered by so much that is happening in the world today. So many of us feel helpless and powerless to do anything about it. We content ourselves by criticizing others. The enormous problems seem beyond us. What a different story it would be if all of us who style ourselves Christians, who call ourselves Church of England, Methodist, Presbyterian, Congregational, Roman Catholic, or any other Christian denomination, if we were all imbued with the spirit of Christ and gave active support to our church! What an easing there would be of tensions everywhere, right from the international to the domestic level!

Finally, boys here tonight who are leaving, imagine what an influence you will have on the life of this State if all of you, not just one or two, go to your life's work, be it on the farm, in the shop, in the factory, in the office, in the surgery, or in the school, and, I hope, for some, as a minister of the church, filled with the desire to follow Jesus and bear witness for Him. I know that this is the prayer of many fathers and mothers at this time, and may you do a better job for the world than those of my generation have done.

Speech Day

The Annual Speech Day was held at the School on Friday morning, the 14th December under the Presidency of Rev. C. J. Davis, President of the Conference. After the School Chaplain had offered prayer, the President addressed the gathering. The Captain of the School, J. G. Jenkin, read the report on the games, and the Headmaster then presented his report of the year.

His Excellency Air Vice-Marshal Sir Robert George, K.C.V.O., K.B.E., C.B., M.C., Governor of South Australia, who presented the prizes, said in his speech that education means not only the acquisition of knowledge but applying properly the faculties with which one is endowed. He spoke of the importance of the rural industries and urged that thought should be given to this occupation. After emphasizing the importance of the international sporting events held in Australia during "the greatest year of sport Australia has ever known" and speaking of the wonderful future there is for the young people of this country, he wished success to those leaving and urged those remaining to make the most of their splendid opportunities.

HEADMASTER'S REPORT

Mr. President, Your Excellency, Ladies and Gentlemen.

I have the honour of presenting to you the report on the work of Prince Alfred College in 1956.

I would first extend, on behalf of the school, a welcome to Your Excellency and Lady George. In doing this, I cannot do better than repeat the words used by a former headmaster of this school, Mr. W. R. Bayly when, over thirty years ago, he welcomed Sir Tom Bridges, who was Governor at that time.

"You, sir, represent much to us South Australians. You are one of the links that really do bind; you are a focus at which our loyalty to the throne can concentrate, at a time when there are all too many influences at work that would dissipate it, and even render it of no effective value at all. For yourself personally, as well as for what you represent to us, we welcome you, with the hope that you will be strengthened in your efforts on our behalf by the consciousness of our unwavering loyalty."

Last year in my report, I told of the retirement of Mr. David Waterhouse from the position of honorary secretary of the College Council. This year, I have to tell you that Dr. L. L. Davey retired from the position of honorary treasurer, and I now quote from the Minutes of Conference. "That the thanks of the College be presented to Dr. L. L. Davey on his retirement from the office of Honorary Treasurer of Prince Alfred College after twenty-one years of invaluable service." Mr. T. W. Cotton, a great-grandson of Hon. G. W. Cotton, first Secretary of the College from 1865 to 1886, and a grandson of Mr. G. S. Cotton, Secretary from 1886 to 1911, has succeeded Dr. Davey, who remains a member of the College Council. Only a few families have had four generations at P.A.C., but this short list includes the Cottons and the Daveys.

Results in the 1955 Public Examinations were most gratifying, especially as last year the work of examination forms had suffered to a greater extent than usual from interruptions due to illness of masters and of boys.

Thirty-nine boys gained the Leaving Honours Certificate, now awarded on a pass in one or more subjects, sixty-two the Leaving Certificate and eighty-three the Intermediate Certificate. G. D. Symons (second in State), M. R. Martin (sixth), and R. M. Gibbs (eighteenth) gained places on the General Honours List. Other awards were as follows: six Leaving Bursaries, thirty-three Commonwealth Scholarships, six Intermediate Exhibitions, eight Continuation Exhibitions. D. J. Perriam, with five credits at Leaving, and J. V. Lloyd with seven credits at Intermediate and with second place on the Exhibition List had our best passes.

This year has been fortunate in being very free from interruptions through changes in the staff or through illness of boys. Class results lead us to expect some very good results at both Leaving Honours and Leaving, but the masters consider that our Intermediate A form will not have quite as good a record as in the past two years. The standard of attainment in some of the examination forms has not been very high, but generally a reasonable effort to succeed has been made.

The number on the roll when school opened was 759, of whom 153 were boarders. Of this number 219, with 22 of them boarders, were in the Preparatory School.

In my report last year I gave an analysis of the ages of boys who had left at the end of 1954, and the figures showed that very few, if indeed, any parents were taking their boys away from this school at too young an age. The ages of those who left in 1955 confirmed this view. This year we have had fifty-three boys at the Leaving Honours stage, and for them we have provided two classes in English, Latin, Economics, Mathematics I and II, Physics and Chemistry, and one in French, Biology, Modern History and Geography. Seven boys remained at school for a second year in Leaving Honours and, once again, I should like to stress the advantages of such a course for boys who are rather young and immature to commence a University career.

With the choice of subjects indicated above, boys can be given a sound background for almost any University course. It is well known that there is a shortage of University graduates in almost every country in the world, and particular stress has been given to the shortage of science, engineering, medical, dental and technological graduates. As far as this school is concerned, I find that in the last few years nearly every boy with the ability to take a University course has had the opportunity of doing so. What perturbs me, and here of course, I speak for this school and not for schools in general, is not that so many boys are taking courses with a scientific basis but that so very few are taking arts or law or economics.

Mr. M. K. Secombe and Mr. G. J. Pridham, B.A., LL.B., joined the staff of the Big School, and Miss Wilkins that of the Preparatory School at the beginning of the year. Mr. Pridham, an old boy, came at short notice when Mr. A. R. Laurie unexpectedly left, and fortunately was able to remain for the whole year. Mr. Malcolm Gray, an old boy, was appointed part time art master, while Mr. W. L. Davies, after his return from a trip abroad, came back in March to help us by teaching three periods a day. Mr. C. R. Davies took one period during the first and second terms, but ill health prevented him from teaching in the third term. We say farewell today to Mr. Pridham and Mr. Hamilton Smith. The former intends going abroad and the latter is taking up a social service appointment in Victoria. Mr. Keeves has been granted leave of absence for 1957 and sails for England next week. Miss Dunn returned to duty in the Preparatory School in October on her return from overseas. We are indeed grateful to Mrs. Dakin for her valued assistance during the four terms that Miss Dunn was away.

It is with regret that I record the passing of Mr. J. E. Langley who died on May 31. He joined the staff in 1897, and for fifty years gave magnificent service to the school, first as an assistant master, then as Second Master, and finally as Bursar. Since his retirement at the end of 1946, he had maintained an active interest in the school. During Old Boys Week, a tablet to his memory was unveiled in the Assembly Hall.

In the first few weeks of the year and again in the last few days, there has been sadness in our hearts as two fine young men met their death in tragic circumstances. In February, William H. (Bill) Taylor, one of the most brilliant of our younger old boys, died as the result of injuries received when he fell as he was making his way up the cliffs at Hallett's Cove. At the time, he and his friend from school days, Barry Smith, were spending the week-end with the newly-appointed Patrol Leaders of our Scout troop. I use the words of Mr. Henry Rymill, Chief Commissioner for this State: "Bill Taylor was a brilliant scholar, a fine citizen and a true Scout and his loss will be grieved by the many who knew him."

Only last week-end, John Fleet, of VIA, received fatal injuries in a car accident. An able and industrious student, who had just completed the Leaving Examination, a promising athlete, a popular and lovable boy, his death came as a great shock to us all.

Religious instruction has been on the same lines as in recent years. The Chaplain, Rev. R. K. Waters, B.A., has continued his good work in the class room. Even more important has been the influence he has exerted on so many boys by his example of good, cheerful living and by his contact with and interest in them in their general life. It has delighted me to find so many parents telling me how much their sons admire our Chaplain.

I acknowledge with gratitude the receipt of a legacy of £100 from the estate of the late Mr. Lindsay Dawkins. This sum is to be devoted towards the cost of installing a pipe organ when our chapel is built.

I should like this year to pay a particular tribute to the fine work done in the Preparatory School by Mr. Close and his Staff. It is so easy for one who spends most of his time in the Big School to write an annual report without giving due prominence to the Preparatory School. Mr. Close has been of the greatest assistance to me ever since I came to Prince Alfred College. I admire, indeed I wonder at his patience, and I am sure that the happy spirit that pervades the Prep. is largely due to the influence of Mr. Close and the excellent staff that he has. In this tribute, I would certainly include Mrs. Close and Sister Rowe.

Next year, an additional class-room is being built in the Preparatory School. This has enabled us to accept many boys whose names had been on our books for several years, and who would not otherwise have gained admission until they had gained their Progress Certificates. For years, Form IIID has been a combined grade VI and grade VII class. The new class-room will enable us to have two grade VI and two grade VII forms.

The outstanding development of the year has been the opening of the Ward Library, a worthy memorial to my predecessor, Mr. J. F. Ward. This was opened during Old Boys Week by Mrs. Ward. Great credit is due to the architect, Mr. Colin Hassell, and to the builders, Hansen and Yuncken Ltd., for the way in which they converted the three old class rooms into the fine library that we have today. The school was fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. C. D. Mattingley as librarian, and I would thank her for all she has done. It is largely a lending library and boys are making good use of it. The Memorial Library is still in use as a reference library for boys in the Leaving and Leaving Honours forms.

The Captain of the School, J. G. Jenkin, has read to you the report on games. I cannot, however, let the occasion pass without paying a tribute to the performances of our athletics team and to its coach, Mr. G. F. Connell. It is left for me to tell you that Jenkin, who gains second prize in VI upper, was captain of football and a member of the first eleven and of the Head-of-the-River crew. While we are thinking of sport, I must say how sorry we at P.A.C. have been to know of the prolonged illness of Mr. L. R. Vollugi, sportsmaster of Saint Peter's College. We have missed him at our Intercollegiate fixtures and extend to him and to St. Peter's our sincere sympathy.

A full account of the various school activities is always given in the Chronicle and time does not allow me to speak at length on them today. They do play a vital part in the training of a boy and in the development of his character. Cadets, scouts, choir, dramatics, hobbies, games, all play their part. The increasing number of activities makes heavy calls on the members of the teaching staff. It would be impossible for me to make special mention of the work of one master without doing the same for a dozen more. The same holds for the senior boys who have done so much, but I will mention Perriam for the excellence of his work when he has accompanied the choir, particularly at the concert in "The Pirates of Penzance" and again on last Sunday evening in the church service.

It is not possible to speak in detail of the successes of Old Boys, but others will forgive me if I say how proud and delighted we are that David W. Evans has been chosen as S.A. Rhodes Scholar for 1957. He had a remarkable record at school in scholarship, sport and general school activities. At the University he has fulfilled his early promise, and we congratulate him upon this well-deserved honour.

It is now my pleasing duty to say a word of thanks to all—and they are many—who have helped the school and helped me during 1956—the members of the Council and in particular the Honorary Secretary, Mr. R. C. Hall, the College Chaplain, Rev. R. K. Waters, the staff, teaching, office, ground and domestic, the Captain of the School and the prefects, the Old Boys and the parents, and last, but not least, the boys.

So the school year 1956 draws to a close. To parents, friends, and boys I extend good wishes for the Christmas season, and to the boys the words we sing at the end of term:

"Let thy Father hand be shielding,
All who here shall meet no more;
May their seed-time past be yielding,
Year by year a richer store;
Those returning,
Make more faithful than before."

GAMES REPORT

Mr. President, Your Excellency and Lady George, Members of the College Council, ladies and gentlemen.

I have pleasure in presenting the Games Report for 1956.

The year began well with our unprecedented win of the B Grade Cricket Premiership. In A grade in which there are many fine players, both young and more experienced, R. G. Pearlman and Walker led the school team to an outstanding win. Noteworthy were the bowling performances of Kitto and Hurn and the centuries of Walker and Hurn.

The tennis team was far from disgraced, and in fact showed good fighting spirit in its 9-6 defeat in the first of the Intercollegiate contests against our old rivals. James led his team well, and it was not until late in the afternoon that Saints established the winning break, the scores being 3 rubbers 7 sets each at lunch. Williams (who subsequently won the School Singles Championship), Phillips and Hannam won their singles.

After a successful camp at Murray Bridge over the Christmas vacation, the rowers looked forward to a good term under their new coach, Mr. Mattingley. After some encouraging wins in early regattas, it was with a little disappointment that the eight went down to Scotch by a canvas in the Head-of-the-River, after the most exciting race of the afternoon. However, a brilliant win by the open crew and the fifth successive Wallman trophy success by the Clinker four revived our spirits. Saints, the Gosse Shield winners, were too good on the following Tuesday and the Blackmore Shield returned to their walls.

A new eight, purchased during the first term, was, much to our delight, named the "G. M. Potts" in recognition of the grand service which this untiring gentleman has given to P.A.C. rowing throughout the last ten years.

So brilliant was the school's year in athletics that I am unable to find sufficient space to tell of all that P.A.C. athletes have accomplished.

After outstanding successes in the State Championships, it was not surprising to see sixteen records broken and two equalled at our own School Sports. I mention Kitto, Harris, McLachlan, Hannaford and Watts because they won three or more events, usually in record time or distance. The first two fittingly tied for the Senior Cup.

Princes won the Intercollegiate encounter with a record number of points, creating six new records. Our congratulations must go to the Saints' Captain, Beck, on his two fine runs, and to our own "best-ever" team.

Accompanied by Saints, we entered the Combined Schools Athletic Sports for the first time, and made a most successful entry. Of the twenty-eight events contested, Princes won sixteen, and no other school more than four; of the twenty-four records broken, Princes broke fifteen, and no other school more than three.

Our success has been due, in no small way, to the energy and outstanding ability of Mr. Connell, now recognized as one of Australia's leading coaches.

Kitto led his team brilliantly to conclude an outstanding career on the sporting field for P.A.C., and at the term's end, Page won the annual cross-country run in another record time.

The First XVIII had a very successful season, winning all but one of its games, that loss being to Adelaide High, whom we subsequently defeated twice.

All who saw the Adelaide Oval match will not soon forget it. After trailing 1-4 to 6-4 in the second term, Saints fought back well to be less than two goals down at half-time. A similar second half saw Saints come from behind again to kick a point on the bell and tie a very exciting game. It was the first tie in seventy-seven years of competition.

Although we were beaten twice in Melbourne, it was not until late in the last quarter that the best Wesley College team for some years established its winning break.

The Intercollegiate cricket match has been an unusual one from the start.

Walker (35) and Hurn (43) batted well in Princes' first innings of 203 and Saints' innings began sensationally at the end of the first day's play when Hurn bowled venomously to take 4 for 35, and leave the opposition 6 for 49 at stumps. The next two days were interrupted by rain, and it was not altogether surprising to see Saints out for 105, and our own second innings closing at lunch yesterday after the last four wickets had added more than half of the 125 runs we made. Saints required 224 to win when they began their second innings, and they are now 176 runs behind with eight wickets in hand.

All this points to an exciting conclusion this afternoon, with the wet wicket favouring P.A.C. slightly.

Hurn capped a fine career on the cricket field by being chosen to represent the State in its Second Eleven.

On behalf of all, may I thank Mr. Leak, our Sportsmaster and cricket coach, and all the masters who have willingly given their time to coach us.

Finally may I thank both the ground-staff and the boys, who have unobtrusively given up much of their spare time behind the sporting scene.

Thank you.

Parents and Friends Association

There was a record attendance at the Annual Meeting of the Parents and Friends' Association held in the Assembly Hall on Friday, 22nd March.

The retiring President, Mr. J. P. Motteram, presented his annual report. Meetings had been well attended, and the Association had made donations towards the cost of sight screens for the oval, and of a floor for the gymnasium. Grants had been made to the Preparatory School Mothers' Club and the Scouts, and the usual prizes had been provided.

The election of officers for 1957 resulted as follows: President, Mr. W. B. Clark; Vice-Presidents, Mr. F. B. Lock and Mr. V. A. Edgeloe; Hon. Secretary, Mr. R. B. Cant; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. R. S. Howland; Committee, Mesdames R. T. Binns, S. Pearlman, H. C. Williams; Messrs. D. L. Chapman, R. L. Hains, H. N. Shearer, J. W. Stain, Dr. P. S. Woodruff; Hon. Auditor, Mr. H. E. H. Mutton.

The 1957 Rhodes Scholar

The South Australian Rhodes Scholar for 1957 is David Wyke Evans, B.Ec. (Hons.), son of Dr. Mervyn W. Evans and Mrs. Evans of Rothbury Avenue, Heathpool. His father, a former captain of the school, is a member of the College Council and a past president of the Old Collegians' Association, of which he is still a committee member. His maternal grandfather, the late Mr. Arthur King, was also an Old Boy.

Mr. Evans attended P.A.C. for thirteen years from February 1940 until December 1952, and his record in scholarship, in sport, and in leadership in the general life of the school was outstanding. Past Chronicles have given full details of his school career. Some idea of his remarkable record can be gained however, from the following list of his achievements in his last year at school: both Captain of the School and Dux of the School; gained Leaving Honours Certificate with a place on the General Honours List and Credits in English, Physics and Chemistry; played in the Intercollegiate cricket (top score for P.A.C.) and football; three first places and one second in the Intercollegiate athletics; merit badge for colours in three sports; cadet lieutenant, and won the General Rowell Prize for the most efficient cadet in Central Command; took the part of the Major-General in "Pirates of Penzance" (Act 1) at the School Concert; won the Keith Swann Memorial Medal for best all-round boy in Upper Sixth; Editor of Chronicle; President Student Christian Movement; H. J. Priest Prize for Mathematics; Harold Fisher Prize for English Literature.

This early promise of a distinguished career was maintained during the next four years at the University of Adelaide.

He graduated equal first in his year with first class honours in the Honours School of Economics. He took a prominent part in student affairs and gave good service to a variety of clubs. In 1955-56, he was President of the Students' Representative Council, the most important position in the student life of the University. During his year of office, he and another P.A.C. Old Boy, Mr. Michael Schneider, were the two South Australian students in the party of the Australian students chosen to visit Malaya and Indonesia. He continued his sporting interests and played cricket and football, as well as representing Adelaide University in athletics. For two years he was in residence at Lincoln College, and we rejoice that Lincoln can share in the honour. Mr. Evans is Lincoln's first and our twelfth Rhodes Scholar. He will leave Adelaide in August and will go up to New College, Oxford, at the beginning of October.

This is the Oxford College of our Headmaster, Mr. J. A. Dunning, and of two former P.A.C. Rhodes Scholars, Mr. Brian Hone and Dr. Doug. Allen.

It is of interest that the motto of New College, which, like Winchester, was founded by William of Wykeham, is "Manners Makyth Man," and this was the subject on which Mr. Evans wrote in the editorial when he was editor of the Chronicle. Old Boys of Mr. Bayly's time will know well that Mr. Evans's father is familiar with the motto.

While at Oxford, Mr. Evans will read the Honours School of Philosophy, Politics and Economics. At the conclusion of his studies, he hopes to enter the diplomatic service.

Our congratulations and best wishes for his future are extended to Mr. Evans.

FOUR GENERATIONS

Several fourth generation boys have been attending the school for some time, but this is the first time that we have a fourth generation boy at school while all four generations have been alive. Our congratulations to the Hobbs family, and in particular, to the great grandfather, Mr. J. Harris Hobbs, O.B.E., of Payneham.

J. Harris Hobbs at school from 1878 to 1884, No. 620 on the school roll.

Dr. Alan F. Hobbs, 1911-1916, No. 4,524, prefect, bursary, and fourth on General Honours List.

Dr. Ian H. Hobbs, 1934-1942, No. 7,075, Captain of the School, bursary, and eighth on General Honours List.

Trevor Ian Hobbs, 1957, No. 10,497.

Cadet Notes

The Cadet Year of 1956 was climaxed by an increased show of keenness and efficiency in the Ceremonial Parade held in the last term. Major-General Wilson inspected the ranks, and after commenting on the high standard of dress, he spoke to the cadets on his recent visit to the Atomic Bomb Tests at Maralinga. He gave us some idea of what warfare might mean in the future and of the devastation caused by these bombs. After presenting Crossed-Rifles to a considerable number of cadets, he took the salute as the Unit marched off. For the first time, a "Cadet Party" was held and all cadets were provided with refreshments after the Parade. We should all like to congratulate McLachlan on being chosen to be one of the two South Australian cadets to go to Duntroon.

During January many hand-picked cadets attended instructional courses at Warradale and we can all feel very proud of their fine achievements. Woodruff and Gower, who followed him closely, gained the first two places in the Senior N.C.O. Course. P.A.C. gained second and third in the Junior N.C.O. Course and very high positions in the Specialist Courses. Wheatley is to be congratulated on gaining the highest marks ever in the Medical Section.

Such results were due to the efficiency and interest of the cadets themselves and must prove to be of great benefit this year to the Unit.

Due to the small number wishing to enter, there are only two specialist sections, comprising one platoon of cadets, while an extra platoon has been devoted to advanced infantry training. To date only two new under-officers have been appointed, Wainwright and Woodcock; they join Johnston and Francis who are our two under-officers returning from last year. This year, with the acquisition of two new officers of cadets, Lt. Potter (A.R.A. Major, ret.) and Lt. Kentish, we are hoping to have a really enthusiastic Cadet Corps, ably commanded by Lt. Pridmore.

The annual camp in May promises to provide much training out of the camp area and is certain to give us all much valuable experience in both leadership and life away from home.

In conclusion, we should all wish W.O. Tot-hill well in his new appointment and thank him for the interest which he has taken in the P.A.C. Unit throughout many years.

Student Christian Movement

This year there is an unusually large committee, sixteen in all, with G. W. Bennett as President.

Rev. L. C. Parkin was our first speaker, his subject being "Why be a Christian?" His arguments were convincingly and attractively presented.

Rev. A. E. Green, who leaves in April to take up the position of Chaplain at Wesley College, Perth, gave an address on "The Scientist and the Seer," which all appreciated.

Our third meeting gave us special satisfaction because a former Master, Mr. Max Hart, entertained and instructed us with pictures of Kenya. He is stationed there as the Principal of a Teacher Training College where he is doing a very fine work.

We have had good attendances at each meeting and look forward to a successful session next term when we conduct discussion groups.

Library Notes

MEMORIAL LIBRARY NOTES

This year the Memorial Library will benefit from a strong and active Library Committee, most of whose members helped in the Ward Library last year. Under the Librarian's guidance the Committee has undertaken an extensive programme of stock and record revision, which has necessitated closing the Library for at least part of first term. Stocktaking has already been completed and now the whole stock is to be accessioned, re-catalogued and repaired where necessary. A large proportion of the stock is also to be re-classified.

C. R. M.

WARD LIBRARY

With the stock at approximately 2,000 books, it is now possible for each borrower to have two books on loan at one time. A number of boys are making regular use of the Library and the average number of loans is over 40 per day. But this figure could be much higher if more boys, particularly from the senior forms, would take advantage of the wide range of fiction and non-fiction available for home reading.

The Fourth and Lower Fifth Forms have regular library periods, in which they are learning how to make the best use of the Library. They are shown how to use the catalogue, how the books are arranged by Dewey Decimal Classification, and how to use reference books.

The Library stock is increasing daily. Over 150 new books were added in February alone. Borrowers who have had to pay overdue fines will be interested to hear that in five months their contributions were sufficient to purchase six new books. There also continues a steady flow of donations.

Thanks are due to a large team of assistants from all levels in the school who devote much time to checking shelves, processing and repairing books and magazines, issuing and discharging loans and many other tasks which are necessary for the smooth running of the Library.

Prefects' Palaver

1956: The year ended in a blaze of glory for the Prefects. Jenkin and Hannam, with support in the minor roles from Clarkson, James and McLachlan, did us full credit in an excellent performance of the school play, "The Man who came to Dinner."

The Red and White was, as usual, a great social success, thanks to the efforts of "Tank" Jenkin, Mesdames Clarkson and McLachlan, who provided the prefects with an excellent buffet dinner, and Mrs. Dunning and mothers who assisted in the preparation of supper at the dance.

Our congratulations go to Bruce Walker and the XI on their fine win in the Intercoll. cricket, and to Jenkin and Pearlman on their inclusion in the team. The prefects shone once again on Speech Day, when they took the first six prizes in VI U, collecting 30 prizes altogether. Congrats. to "Mike" Stobie, Dux of the School. Leaving Honours results showed Lawton, Bennett, Jenkin and Perriam all gaining places on the General Honours List.

Malcolm McLachlan is to be praised on gaining a scholarship to Duntroon Military College. We wish him every success in his army career.

Congratulations are extended also to John Lawton on his inclusion in the National Youth Orchestra as first violinist.

It may interest some to know that of the 14 prefects, seven are now studying Medicine, one Science, one Engineering, one Dentistry, Mac has gone to Duntroon, and Kitto is working on his father's farm. The two youngest prefects have returned to P.A.C. for 1957.

Finally, congratulations to John Jenkin, an excellent Captain for 1956.

1957: Although the year has barely begun, the prefects already show signs of excelling in all phases of school activities. They occupy once more the top six places in VI UA; "Oce" Williams is captain of tennis, and "Duffv" Oaten captain of cricket, while Bennett is in the Intercoll. Tennis Team and Steve Woodcock is the backbone of the First Eleven. With athletics looming in the near future, our faster members will have an opportunity to display their prowess on the track. Hannaford, Siegele, Deslandes and Perriam are all training hard?? Our rowing representatives are Kelly, Lloyd and McNeil.

After a riotous beginning this term has settled into its stride, the present crime waves being of a minor nature. It is pleasing to record that over 90% of school songs were said by new boys.

The following poem is dedicated to this year's prefects. We apologize for its inferiority to epics of the past:

There's Bennett whose friendships bade him be gay,
And Clark's at his best in the Scouts and the Play;

Whilst Deslandes, dubbed Fred, has the hands
for the ball,

The next of our number is Edgeloe tall.
Hannaford, "Shorty," puts athletes to scorn,
And Jordan's at home with a rook and a pawn.
Kimothy Kelly is goin' on the Pharm,
And "Sav" Lloyd is always collected and calm.
McNeil, in the eight, has not much to say,
And Oaten's time's full with his cricket and with certain other things.

Pete Rogers, poor fellow, a chill rules his life, While Siegele's low G will soon lead him to strife.

Williams, court captain, is good on the serve,
And Woodcock's desire is to make the ball swerve.

Only Perriam's left—we can go no farther,
So here's the last line of Prefects' Palaver.

House Notes

BAYLY HOUSE

1956: This year we were forced to surrender our position at the top of the House Competition to Cotton House. The third term, however, proved quite successful in most aspects of school life. In the inter-house cricket we ran second in the senior division and first in the junior division, whilst we were represented in the Intercoll. cricket by Jenkin and Pearlman.

Bayly again showed its scholastic worth in gaining for the sixth consecutive time, most points for school work. We trust that this record may be unbroken next year, and in years to come.

We should like to congratulate McLachlan, firstly for his selection as a recruit for Dunt-roon, and secondly for his fine effort in winning the Victorian Junior 120 Yard Hurdles Championship.

1957: A meeting early in the year elected Francis as captain of the House with a committee consisting of Clark, Newland, Payne and Simmons.

Francis is also to be congratulated on his election as Captain of the Boats for 1957. Morgan also has a seat in the Eight, and we hope that a captain from Bayly will bring home the Blackmore shield.

Tennis also sees us well represented in Simmons and Moyses who, we feel sure, will more than justify their inclusion, and the first eleven contains young blood in Trowse and Chapple who, with the aid of others, have good chances of being victorious in the house cricket.

Our military record is upheld by Under-Officer Francis, whilst in the scouts we have Clark, who has gained his Queen's Scout Badge.

This year, although not altogether unrepresented, we are not as strong in the sporting field as we have been in the past, but we are sure that, if all pull for the house, we can, with the aid of Mr. Smith and Mr. Provis, retain our scholastic supremacy and do extremely well in the House competition.

COTTON HOUSE

1956: This year Cotton again proved itself to be the top house in the School by winning the cup for the third time in four years.

In cricket, we came only third in the senior and second in the junior division. Morton made a fine 121 not out in one of the junior games, We should do better in 1957 with some promising juniors coming up.

The Inter-coll. cricket team contained four members from our house. Congratulations to Corbet, Paul, Shuttleworth and North (twelfth).

Cotton boys showed their scholastic ability when they excelled in the Leaving Honours examination. Three Cotton boys came in the top twenty candidates in the State. Lawton was third, Bennett fifth and Edgeloe twentieth.

1957: This year we find our house has five school prefects. Congratulations to Bennett, Deslandes, Edgeloe, Siegele and Williams.

The House Committee was elected early in the term, Deslandes was appointed House Captain, with Bennett, Edgeloe, Hopkins, Moore, Siegele and Williams as committeemen.

In Cadet U/O Johnston the house has probably the most efficient under-officer in the Cadet Unit. We also have several sergeants and corporals. During the holidays, certain members of this House did brilliantly in Warradale camps. Wheatley came top in the medical course with over 90%. Gower, after coming top in the signals course, remained in camp in order to come second in the senior N.C.O. course. Thus Cotton should do well in the cadet competition this year.

In the first Intercoll. for 1957, viz., the tennis, we have over half the team, with Williams (Captain), Bennett, Davies and Prisk (reserve). With Deslandes also in the squad, we should have no trouble in winning the house tennis.

This year the strength of other houses has increased. Thus full co-operation and support from all members, especially the younger ones, will be necessary for Cotton to remain in its usual and rightful place as top house in the School. With the help of our masters, Mr. Mutton and Mr. Duff, this no doubt will be achieved.

WATERHOUSE HOUSE

COMMITTEE—Messrs. H. E. Coombes and E. L. Glancey (Masters-in-Charge), D. J. Perriam (Captain of the School), S. J. Woodcock (House Captain), J. V. Lloyd, G. J. Page, M. J. McNeil, P. L. Rogers, J. D. Swain, J. L. Williams.

Waterhouse House finished the year 1956 in a rather disappointing vein after a keen and enthusiastic beginning. Early promise was not fulfilled, and the house was a very poor fourth in the House Competition. The contributing factor to the failure of the house, was the lack of team work and house spirit, with the inevitable result that the bulk of the work fell upon too small a number of reliable boys.

Rowing was the first inter-house contest for the third term, and although the senior crew finished last in its event, the juniors performed very creditably to finish second, thus regaining some prestige for the house.

The house cricket provided another disappointment, and again we had to be content with last place. In the opening match against School, the team was completely over-awed by the opposition fast bowlers and a collapse soon set in. School in reply hit up over 200, thus winning the match very comfortably. The play-off for third and fourth positions with Cotton was a more even affair. Cotton, batting first, scored 156, Woodcock taking 5 for 39, and in reply Waterhouse made 92, of which Walker made 55.

We congratulate Walker (captain), Blight and Causby on their inclusion in the successful intercollegiate cricket team, and extend added congratulations to Blight on his excellent bowling effort in taking 3 for 2 and 8 for 52.

The house was more successful in the academic field and Stobie is to be congratulated upon being Dux of the School.

Fine results were obtained by Waterhouse cadets in the January Under-officer and Senior N.C.O. courses. We therefore look forward to a successful year in the Cadet Unit.

Waterhouse is well represented with prefects this year, in addition to providing the Captain of the School. Congratulations to Don Perriam (Captain of the School), Lloyd, Jordan, McNeil, Rogers and Woodcock.

With a more even distribution of talent throughout the four houses this year, it is reasonable to expect a fair degree of success for Waterhouse. This success will only be gained, however, by increased teamwork and greater co-operation being shown by all the members.

In conclusion, we extend our grateful thanks to Mr. Coombes and Mr. Glancey for their interest and support, and hope that this year their efforts will be rewarded by the winning of the House Cup.

SCHOOL HOUSE

Third Term, 1956:

This term we gained enough points in the House Competition to come third instead of our usual last. Our school work was not up to the standard of the other houses but we do not blame lack of brains for this.

We managed to gain first place in the cricket competition by defeating Waterhouse in the first round and Bayly in the final. Bayly provided strong opposition and we got home by only five runs. We were unfortunate not to have the services of Brian Hurn for the whole match, but we congratulate him on his selection and success in the State Second XI, which coincided with house matches.

In the house regatta, we were successful in winning both Senior and Junior events, and we hope we can repeat the performance this year with four members of this year's Eight in the house.

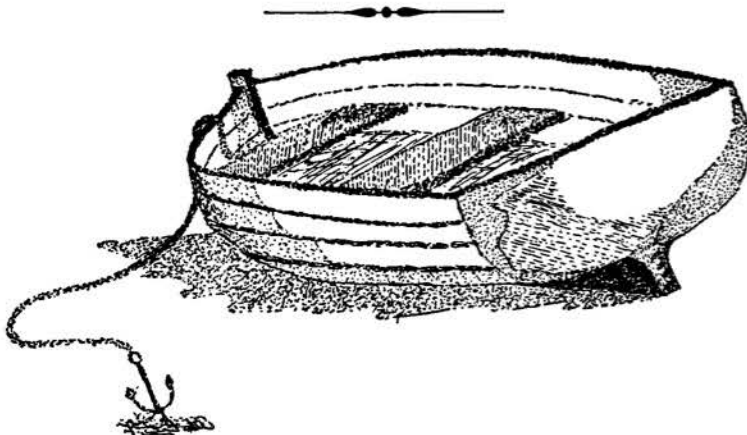

Tournaments which were held for boarders this term included billiards and chess. The two younger Hurn brothers shared the honours—Malcolm the billiards and Richard the chess.

At the end of the term, we were sorry to hear that Mr. Keeves was leaving us for a year, but we wish him all the best and an enjoyable trip abroad.

First Term, 1957:

This year we have 44 new boys in the boarding house and with 85 boys returning from last year, we have only 129 in all—about 20 short of each day-boy house. We are also a comparatively young house with only 25 boys in the Leaving and Leaving Honours forms. This does not deter us, as we are all going to make a special effort in the classroom and on the sportsfield to see if we can improve our last year's position in the House Competition.

Mr. Keeves's position as Housemaster has been ably filled by Mr. Peard, and we look forward to a successful year with him. We welcomed back Mr. Connell, Mr. Jenkin and Mr. Scott as resident masters. We also welcomed Mr. Barry Smith into the House as a full-time master.

Scout Notes

As a finale to our 1956 scouting activities we were visited in November by Maj.-Gen. D. C. Spry, Director of the Scout International Bureau. We were greatly honoured to be one of the few troops he visited during his short stay in Adelaide.

This event was closely followed by the Scout Party, which, due to the efforts of the parents, and unfailing energy of Roger Rowe, was a tremendous success. On this occasion we officially said good-bye to Mr. Hamilton-Smith, who has been with us for two years and who as Scoutmaster of 3rd P.A.C. made an outstanding contribution to our Senior Scouting.

It was here also that we heard of further misfortune awaiting us. Mr. Keeves was to go to England for a year's leave, and it was with regret that we heard of his decision. Mr. Keeves has performed wonders as G.S.M. and we look forward to many more years under his guidance when he returns.

Mr. B. W. Smith has taken over the responsibilities of running the Group and has commenced the year with great success. He has for several years been A.S.M. of 1st P.A.C. and was earlier a Patrol Leader and Queen's Scout. We are very grateful to him for filling the gap so generously.

The new year—the Baden-Powell Centenary and Scouting's Jubilee Year—has commenced with much activity. On Friday, 22nd February, State Headquarters held a pageant at Elder Park in the "Advertiser" Sound Shell, in which some 600 scouts took part before a crowd of over 20,000. It was a most moving pageant and served to remind us all of what we owe to our founder. This activity preceded "Good Turn Week," during which members of all troops did odd jobs for "Resthaven" and several churches, and helped clear up after the Red Cross Fete.

All troops were filled beyond capacity and troop programmes were soon under way. On the whole a most successful year is anticipated. (Already proved by Roger Bartholomaeus and Ron McKittrick of the Sea Scouts, who are to be congratulated on gaining their Queen's Scout Badges.)

S. D. C.

1st P.A.C.

At the end of last year we held our annual Field Day, which took the form of an inter-patrol cycle trial. We congratulate the "Kangaroo" patrol, ably led by T. L. P. G. Chapman, which proved supreme after a very close struggle for the Abotomey Cup.

The beginning of this year saw Mr. B. W. Smith relieve Mr. Keeves as G.S.M., as the latter has gone to England on a year's leave of absence. We also welcomed "Skip" Lockyer as an A.S.M. The Patrol Leaders for 1957 are: H. D. M. Combe (T.L.), D. E. Barker, R. J. Lang, S. S. Vandepuer, and J. M. Vardon.

A very enjoyable week-end for the Court of Honour and Scouters was held at the shack at the beginning of the term. For its good turn in conjunction with the B.-P. Centenary celebrations, 20 members of the troop assisted the Red Cross Association after their fete in the grounds of Government House.

Nineteen recruits joined the troop this year, and all succeeded in gaining their tenderfoot within a fortnight. On the whole the complete troop is willing and enthusiastic, and with the Easter camp to be held at Mt. Crawford, the year promises to be very fruitful for 1st P.A.C.

H. D. M. C.

2nd P.A.C. Senior Sea Scouts

Owing to the public examinations, very little sailing was accomplished last term. The "Sea Prince" was repainted and the moorings reset. Several boys went sailing on the second-to-last week-end of the term in Jim Bullock's "Derwent Class" yacht, "Nereid." This was a farewell outing for Mr. Keeves before he set sail for England on the following Saturday. We were all sorry to see him go and hope he had a calm trip.

In the Christmas holidays Roger Bartholomaeus and John McNeil flew over to Tasmania to join Norm. Howard's crew on "Southern Myth" after the Sydney-Hobart Yacht Race. They sailed home via the east coast of Tasmania, across Bass Strait to Portland and up the coast to Adelaide, a journey of just over 900 miles in eleven days—nine days at sea.

This term we welcome Mr. Barry Smith as Scoutmaster and hope that we do not give him too many worries. He is supported by A.S.M.s John Hoepner, Geoff. Peters and sailing assistants Norm. Howard and Jim Bullock.

After an afternoon sailing in a "Yachting World Cadet" dinghy a few boys have been so greatly impressed that they have been willing to give up their Friday nights and many lunch times to building our own Y.W.C. yacht. We thank them for their help and hope that many others will come, as there is plenty to do.

Patrol leaders for 1957 are R. F. Bartholomaeus (T.L.), P. G. Chapman, R. B. McKittrick and D. R. Oaten.

M. J. McN.

3rd P.A.C. Senior Scouts

The traditional Senior Scout investiture ceremony was held on the summit of Mount Lofty at midnight one Friday early in the term. New members were welcomed into the troop, and this activity provided an early opportunity for the patrols, under the leadership of P. W. Bumford, C. G. Luke, A. C. W. Mitchell and P. J. Whitham, to show their worth.

The troop is aiming this year at the Hiker's Badge, the difficulty of which renders it uncommon. To this end a venture is being planned for the vacation, possibly on the South Coast.

An Ambulance Badge course is being considered for the second term and we hope thus to increase our number of Queen's Scouts quite considerably.

The long waiting list for all troops is good for all, and we therefore expect a most successful and enjoyable year of scouting.

Club Activities

CHOIR

3rd Term, 1956

The annual School Service was opened with the introit, "Father, we praise Thee now the day is over" (Thiman). The climax of the singing came in the anthem, "The Trumpet shall Sound," an aria from Handel's "Messiah," which was sung by the tenors and basses, Mc-Intyre singing the recitative preceding the aria. The trumpet obligato was excellently rendered by the experienced trumpeter Ron. Greer.

Later the Preparatory School choir joined in the singing of the carols, "How far is it to Bethlehem?" (Geoffrey Shaw) and "Rejoice and be Merry." Donald Perriam, now an accomplished organist, accompanied the choir. He has been of great assistance to Mr. May throughout the year.

Finally, the choir would like to express its appreciation for the hard work that Mr. May has put into its training.

R. B. S.

WOODWORK

Although the year is only young, the Woodwork Club has made a promising start. Mr. Welby, the able supervisor, is very helpful to the younger members in their early efforts, showing them just how it is done. By the time the mid-year exhibition arrives, the Woodwork Club should have some very fine exhibits to show. Models range from egg-racks and boot-boxes to book-shelves and coffee tables. One member's objective is an electric Hawaiian guitar and is showing promising results.

R. C. U.

LIBRARY GROUP

A small but select group of boys uses the hobbies period to assist in the Library. Each puts to good use his particular skill in book-binding or poster making, or his knowledge of book-processing in accessioning or cataloguing.

SENIOR DEBATING NOTES

3rd Term, 1956

At the beginning of the term's activities the following committee was elected:—President, J. D. Thomson; Vice-President, P. L. Rogers; Organizing Secretary, J. M. Fielding; Minute Secretary, R. A. Carr; Committeeman, J. V. Lloyd.

Debates and impromptu discussions were largely held during the term, a discussion on "Is Cricket a Gentleman's Game?" being one of the highlights. The work for the term was, on the whole, steady, and all members derived much profit from it.

1st Term, 1957

This year promises to be an excellent one for the Senior Debating Club. Already two debates have been held, and the promise shown by the new members augurs well for the future. The first debate, "That National Service should be Abolished" produced many varying opinions from the speakers, ranging from the obsolete nature of the weapons used in training to the benefits of neatness, punctuality and discipline gained from it.

The committee is as follows:—President, G. W. Bennett; Vice-President, J. V. Lloyd; Organizing Secretary, J. D. Thomson; Minute Secretary, S. N. Gower; Committeeman, W. M. Wainwright.

S. N. G.

JUNIOR DEBATING SOCIETY

We are pleased to report that our members are greater than they were in 1956, for there are 22 of us. Our Committee consists of two boys from Intermediate Forms, and one each from the Lower Fifts and Fourths. The names are R. G. Brandwood, J. K. Pearlman, J. H. Whitwell, and R. H. Cowham. The Minute Secretary for this term is G. J. Alexander.

We have drawn up what should be an interesting and instructive programme, and the prospects for a successful year are particularly bright.

RADIO AND SCIENCE GROUP

There are 28 students in the group this year, the largest number to date, under the guidance of Mr. R. T. Smith and Mr. G. M. Bowen. The larger numbers have been absorbed by choosing the laboratory monitors from this group, and these students are doing an excellent job in keeping the equipment and laboratories clean and tidy.

Those whose interest is in radio work on their own projects and receive tuition in the correct methods of construction. Electrical testing instruments are available for their use.

Two of the older members, G. P. Bowen and C. G. Luke were successful in the January examinations held by the P.M.G. Department for the Radio Amateur Licence. Bowen obtained the Amateur Operator's Certificate of Proficiency and is now licensed under the call sign of VK5XV, while Luke, who did not sit for the Morse Code examination, has received his Limited Licence. His call sign is VK5Z.

C. J. Calderwood is studying the Radio Technicians Course at the School of Mines, with the object of eventually obtaining his licence. Moxham is particularly interested in radio controlled model aircraft and is busy constructing the transmitter section.

The college has been most fortunate in receiving from Mrs. Seymour Hawker of "Bungaree" Station, Clare, the aeriels and masts which belonged to her late husband, who was a keen short-wave listener. These will be a valuable asset to the Club and we are indeed very grateful for the gift.

Mr. Smith has his Science group repairing apparatus and working on some new and interesting projects. As time is limited, the larger projects may take a full term to complete. One aim is to duplicate equipment, so that there will be enough complete sets of Physics apparatus to enable a form to carry out the same practical experiment in the one lesson.

LEATHERWORK

We regret that this year, as in other years, it has been difficult to accommodate all those who would like to become members of the club. This year we have boys quite keen on making something useful during the lessons, which are held under the guidance of Mr. Steele and Mr. Duff. This year we have purchased some more equipment, and trust the boys will use it to the best of their ability. The club is looking forward to another very successful year, and already many useful articles have been made.

THE MODEL AIRCRAFT CLUB

We are very pleased to report that 1957 has started very well for the Model Aircraft Club. Interest is mounting and this year the number of members has increased to such an extent that they had to be divided into two groups, one with Mr. Mattingley, and the other with Mr. Turnbull, both of whom we thank for the help and guidance they have given to the members. Many 'planes have been flown, from gliders and "Jetex" models to aircraft with 2 foot 6 inch wingspan. One of these 'planes, Hutchinson's "Sorcerer," reached the remarkable speed of 64 m.p.h., the fastest any plane has flown at P.A.C.

T. J. W.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

We are pleased to see a sprinkling of new members this year.

Once again we are privileged to have Mr. West, a lecturer from Kodak, as an instructor for the first term. So far he has delivered several talks on History of Photography, Camera Types, Exposure and Focus, Composition, Common Errors, and Film Types.

Mr. West has illustrated most of these lectures with interesting and instructive slides.

As the year progresses, we hope to put our knowledge into practice, and expect good results.

JUNIOR CHESS CLUB

This year the club opened with eighteen members. Most of the boys were new to the game but a few had already taken an interest in it. The first two periods were spent in showing the moves of the different men. I am sure that we are all very grateful to Mr. Kurtz for teaching us the beginnings of the game of chess.

R. L. F.

STAMP CLUB

The first meeting of the club was on the 22nd February. During this meeting the members of the committee were elected:—Secretary, Maynard; Treasurer, Kallin; Committee, Read, Linn. There have been several auctions of stamps by members and a stamp quiz has been held. Edgeloe will be attending our meetings for the first half of the year, and we appreciate his help.

We look forward to a busy and successful year.

N. A. B. M.

ENGINEERING CLUB

The club began this year with about fifty enthusiastic, budding automobile engineers. Already many of us have gained a sound knowledge of the main working components of the modern auto. We seem to revel in pistons, con-rods, valves and cylinder heads. Very keen interest has been shown in both the theory and practical sides of our work—thanks to the interesting and instructive lectures given by Mr. Bennett and Mr. Perkins.

Visual aids such as actual car parts, old motor cycle engines and magazines have greatly assisted us to appreciate more fully this wonder of the modern age. Even so, one of our number finds added interest in talking—"tractors." With our interest already kindled, we are all looking forward to many more instructive lessons in our hobby in the remaining months.

J. D. T.

LIFE SAVING

The popularity of aquatic sports has been proved by the large application to the Life Saving Squad this year. The enrolment had to be limited to thirty boys, half of whom have been selected to train for the bronze medallion, the rest for the resuscitation certificate. Weekly training was held in the new Norwood pool. Added training for four members of the senior squad was received from Olympic Coach, Mr. Harry Gallagher, two nights a week, expert advice and demonstrations were given by prominent Australian and Olympic champions, including Murray Garrety and Dawn Fraser.

INTERCOLLEGIATE CRICKET, 1956

This year the Intercollegiate cricket match was played on our grounds, and as both teams had had about the same degree of success in "B" Grade, it was felt that a really tense struggle might develop, although we were very conscious of our rival's strength. It turned out to be a great struggle and a most enjoyable match.

On the first day, Walker won the toss and elected to bat, and with Paul, gave us a good start with an opening partnership of 46. When this pair were separated however, wickets fell with regularity and although nearly all of the side reached double figures, and Hurn made a bright 43, we were dismissed for 203. The bowling honours for Saints were shared by Bradman and Moorhouse, who both bowled steadily and with penetration. It was the remaining part of the first day which probably tipped the scales of victory in our favour. Brian Hurn bowled with fire and control in a devastating spell, and ably assisted by Jenkin and a tight field, had six of the opposition back in the pavilion for 42 at stumps.

During the night there was rain, and the pitch was quite sodden for the second day's play. Saints defended grimly, Meyer in particular playing a splendid knock, but when this partnership was broken, Blight came on for his first spell of bowling and quickly ran through the last batsmen, finishing with the excellent figures of 3 for 2. Saints total reached 105, so that they trailed on the first innings by 98 runs.

An early break through by Martin and Starr in our second innings found us in difficulties, and at stumps we were defending grimly, having lost 7 wickets for 44 runs at one stage.

We were saved on the third day by grim defence from Causby and Blight and some intelligent hitting by Corbet at the close of the innings, so that we finally managed to scrape together 125 runs. This left us with a lead of 223 and with the pitch steadily improving and in view of Saints formidable batting array, the stage was set for an exciting finish. However, further rain interfered with play during the afternoon and Saints at stumps were 2 for 46.

On the final day, Hurn managed to dismiss Saints captain Moorhouse, who was batting very well and looked like proving a real thorn in our sides, but the rest of the story is Chris. Blight's. Keeping an immaculate length and spinning the ball well, he bowled practically all day to finish with the wonderful figures of 8 for 58. In spite of the Saints tail, which wagged furiously, Martin especially batting extremely well, we managed to dismiss them with over an hour to spare for 162, so that we won by 61 runs.

It was a tense struggle, played in the best of spirits, in the best traditions of Intercollegiate cricket.

Critique of Intercollegiate Team

Walker, B. G. (captain)—Captained the side with intelligence and inspiration throughout. A very good bat, he adopted the role of opener when needed, and played many fine innings. His slow leg-break bowling has unaccountably deteriorated. A quick and sure field.

Pearlman, R. L. (vice-captain)—A very fine deputy, steady in a crisis. A punishing right-hand batsman who played some fine innings. Right arm fast medium change bowler who lacked opportunity. Brilliant fast-moving cover field who won our Intercollegiate fielding trophy.

Jenkin, J. G.—An invaluable all-rounder. Left arm medium-pace bowler with ability in both spin and swing. A dour defender with the bat when occasion demanded. Safe field and an excellent team man.

Hurn, B. M.—A brilliant all-rounder with the capacity to swing the fortunes of a game suddenly. An accurate and penetrating fast medium right-hander who took over 50 wickets in the last "B" Grade season. A brilliant left-hand batsman, who only has to learn when not to play favourite strokes.

Corbet, A. J. S.—A very steady right-arm off spinner who can vary pace and spin effectively. Capable of keeping an end going inexpensively for long periods. A steady bat lacking confidence against fast bowling. A brilliant throw but slow in the field.

Blight, C. J.—Off-spinner who had marked success in the Intercol. can make the ball move in the air and off the pitch. A punishing right-hand bat who must learn discretion. Fair field.

Causby, J. P.—A young player of considerable promise. A correct and steady right-hand bat who studies his game carefully. Gaining confidence rapidly. A very promising fieldsman with good return to wicket.

Harris, P. G.—Played his way into the Intercol. side with some good scores at the right times. Plays rather stiffly but straight along the line. Right arm medium-pace swing bowler who lacked opportunity. Slip field.

Oaten, D. R.—A very promising young right-hand batsman with ability to hit the ball hard but showed a tendency to drag his shots to the on-side. A safe field but poor throw. Should be an extremely useful player next year.

Paul, D. B.—A young all-rounder of considerable promise. A right-hand opening bat with short back-lift whose only fault is a tendency to shuffle too far over when playing back. A right-arm medium pace bowler with plenty of nip. Good field.

Shuttleworth, C. R.—Wicket-keeper. He has worked hard to retain his place and had his reward in the Intercol, in which he kept brilliantly. A good bat, lacking only confidence at present.

THIRD TERM 1956

FIRST XI

The school team began its third term cricket rather badly this year, but results improved as the season progressed. Excluding the Intercollegiate match we played five games, winning two, drawing two, and losing one. Competition for the last few places in the Intercollegiate team was very keen, and the enthusiasm of all members of the team resulted in the team playing very steady cricket. Walker captained the side very intelligently, and his keenness and concentration set an excellent example to the rest of the team.

A pleasing feature of the term's cricket was the uniform performance of the players. Instead of having to rely on one or two members to hold the batting and bowling together, we were in the happier position of seeing most of the side perform well at some time or other.

RESULTS

October 6 and 13—P.A.C. v. Teachers' College
Teachers' College 6 for 254 (Hurn 3 for 102, Harris 2 for 30), defeated P.A.C. 119 (Walker 53, Hurn 26) and 105 (Pearlman 27, Hurn 26, Oaten 20).

October 8—P.A.C. v. East Torrens "B"
East Torrens 6 for 250 (Hurn 2 for 70, Corbet 2 for 37, Blight 2/63), drew with P.A.C. 9 for 150 (Pearlman 52 n.o., Oaten 29).

October 20 and 27—P.A.C. v. Port Adelaide "B"
Port Adelaide 7 for 349 (Hurn 3 for 95, Paul 3 for 60), drew with P.A.C. 6 for 216 (Hurn 74, Walker 54, Pearlman 39).

November 10 and 17—P.A.C. v. Prospect "B"
P.A.C. 229, (Harris 54 n.o., Pearlman 47, Oaten 40) and 0 for 24, defeated Prospect 148 (Corbet 3 for 20, Blight 3 for 24, Hurn 2 for 20).

December 1 and 8—P.A.C. v. University "B"
P.A.C. 214 (Jenkin 40, Pearlman 31, Harris 30) and 3 for 84 (Causby 29), defeated University 122 (Jenkin 5 for 30, Corbet 2 for 15).

SECOND XI

The year for the Second XI was hardly a full one. The first term season was limited to three matches, while the schedule for the third term provided for only four matches, two one-day and two two-day games. The interruption of the season by the Christmas vacation causes this to a large extent, no doubt.

The first of the one-day games scheduled for the term was cancelled by S.H.C. The second was cancelled by agreement with A.B.H.S. because of Public Examinations. A two-day match scheduled against our own U 16 XI was treated as a practice game, leaving only one contest against another school.

S.P.S.C. 3rd XI invited us to contest a one-day game at S.P.S.C., the results of which are shown below.

Thus, apart from lighthearted practice matches against other P.A.C. teams, the 2nd XI played only two games in the Third Term, making a grand total of five for the year.

RESULTS

P.A.C. 69 and 4 for 134 declared (Doley 40 n.o. Clarkon 36, Perriam 29), lost to S.P.S.C. U 16 XI 76 (Mitchell 7 for 39, Perriam 3 for 5) and 9 for 117 (Mitchell 6 for 40).
P.A.C. 63 defeated S.P.S.C. Third XI 32 (North 5 for 1, Mitchell 5 21).

D. J. P.

Under 16 XI

The U 16 A team had a most successful season this year winning four matches very comfortably and drawing the fifth. A pleasing feature of the team's success was the keen spirit and enthusiasm displayed by all the players. We congratulate Parkinson for his intelligent captaincy and splendid wicket-keeping, and thank our coach, Mr. Coombes, for his help and support.

The first two matches for the season were against our own 2nd XI, who, after very weak displays, were easily defeated on both occasions. The results of the three inter-school games were:—

P.A.C. 79 (Woodcock 22), defeated S.P.S.C. Second XI 56 (Woodcock 5 for 23).
P.A.C. 213 (Todd 65, Woodcock 39, Carr 37), defeated Rostrevor Second XI 37 (Carr 6 for 11, Woodcock 4 for 16, and 64 (Woodcock 6 for 18, Carr 3 for 20).
P.A.C. 8 for 94 (Rogers 20), drew with S.P.S.C. 94 (Rogers 4 for 15).

Boarders' Third XI

Captain: K. S. Kelly

This team continued their run of success from the first term, winning each match they played. Our closest match was against Scotch, whom we defeated by five runs, and our best win was against Sacred Heart, whom we defeated by 70 runs. Our other victories were over Rostrevor and Saints. The team is very grateful to Mr. Keeves and Brian Hurn for the care and trouble they took over us, and to Kim Kelly and Bob Venning for the parts they played as captain and vice-captain respectively.

K. S. K.

Under 15 Whites

Captain: R. C. Smart

We played three matches this term, and two out of the three were one day matches, against A.B.H.S. These were one day games owing to the Boarders' Picnic and Public Examinations.

We lost the first match, a two day game against S.P.S.C. Smart batted well in the second innings making 56 not out.

The next two matches were one day games against A.B.H.S.

The first match was a good game with both sides being even in strength but A.B.H.S. finished by winning the game by 10 runs. Coombe battled well for 22 runs; and Reschke bowled well, taking 5 for 33 runs.

Our last match for the term was against A.B.H.S. and it was our first victory for the term. Smart batted well forcing runs where ever he could to finish up making 22 runs out of 31 runs for the opening partnership.

O'Shaughnessy bowled exceedingly well to take 4 for 25 runs.

We would all like to thank Mr. Bennett for his valuable coaching of our team, and the interest that he has shown in our cricket.

Under 15 Reds

Captain: G. R. Hill

We started off the first term extremely well by winning all three matches played, our nearest opponent being A.B.H.S. who scored within 50 runs of us. Our best victory was over Saints, when we made 130 and dismissed them for the low scores of 30 and 50. The best all-rounder for the day was Paul, who made 43 and took 3 wickets for 20. Inglis also bowled well taking 2 for 18.

The first two matches of the third term looked even better for us as we won each by an outright win, A.B.H.S. and Saints being our opponents. Both Paul and Trowse were then selected to play in First XI matches, so this drew our winning margins down to about 30 each match. However in the last match before the Public Examinations, there were only four regular players in the team and this was a vital match to us as up to that match we were undefeated. We just pulled through winning by the small margin of 10 runs.

Woodruff kept wicket extremely well throughout the season with Inglis, O'Shaughnessy, R. Hurn, and Paul all bowling well. The best batsmen were Trowse, Hopkins, Pickering (who made 94 against Saints) and Hill.

We would like to congratulate both Paul and Trowse on their selection to play in the Inter-collegiate match.

Everyone who played in any under 15 team has benefitted greatly by the patient coaching of Mr. Bennett and I would like to thank him very much for his interest in the team.

G. R. H.

Under 14 A

Captain: R. J. Angel

The U 14 A had only a fair season this term, winning only four out of eight matches.

We defeated Rostrevor, Christian Brothers College and Adelaide High (twice), and lost to St. Peters, Pulteney Grammar, Sacred Heart and Scotch. The games against Pulteney and Sacred Heart were lost narrowly by less than ten runs.

On behalf of the team I should like to thank Mr. Provis for his helpful guidance and assistance throughout the season.

R. J. A.

Under 14 B

Captain: R. J. Humphris

The under 14 B team had a very successful term's cricket, winning five out of the six games they played. We defeated Rostrevor, Immanuel, Saints, Scotch and Adelaide High and lost to Sacret Heart by only 12 runs.

R. J. Humphris captained the team and J. A. Haslam was vice-captain. R. J. Ashby topped the bowling list taking 13 wickets in two games with an average of 2 runs per wicket. R. J. Humphris topped the batting averages with 23.5 and made 94 runs for the term. J. A. Haslam and G. Whitwell batted consistently throughout the term. I would like to thank Mr. Provis and Brian Hurn for coaching the team and for the interest they took in our cricket.

R. J. H.

Under 13 A

Captain: D. Shearer

During the third term the U 13 A lost only one match, making a total of two losses for the whole year.

Chappel was the most consistent batsman with a total of 298 runs for the third term, while R. B. Smith had an aggregate of 190 for the third term.

The most successful bowlers for the third term were Chappel with 17 wickets, Shearer with 16 wickets and Simmons with 15 wickets.

On behalf of the team I would like to thank Mr. Smith for spending so much of his time in assisting and coaching us.

Under 13 B

Captain: R. J. Jeffery

The Under 13 B team did not have a very successful season, losing three of the six matches played. We were successful against Adelaide High, Rostrevor, and Saints and lost by narrow margins to Sacred Heart and Scotch. Best of our performers for the team were Bastian and Lovell, the former recording our highest individual score for the term, 59 retired. Jeffery was the main wicket taker.

We should like to thank Mr. Smith and Mr. Bennett for the invaluable assistance they have given us this term.

R. J. J.

FIRST TERM 1957

This has been in some respects a disappointing term for us. The First XI has had rather a lean time during the inevitable rebuilding process, but already there are hopeful signs of recovery. The loss of seasoned players like Walker, Pearlman, Hurn, Corbet, Jenkin, Shuttleworth and Harris left our side very depleted, but we look forward to the third term with rather more confidence now, realizing that the experience gained by the younger players will stand them in good stead then. Oaten and Causby were appointed Captain and Vice-Captain respectively and have done well under difficult conditions.

Another reason for a certain amount of disquietude about the state of cricket in the school is the increasing apathy of the senior boys towards sport generally. This far from healthy attitude looms as a distinct threat to progress, and makes the task of the Second and Third XI captains far less enjoyable than should be the case. It is sincerely to be hoped that there will be a marked improvement in this regard in the near future.

It is much more pleasing to consider the situation of the under age teams, where a greater degree of enthusiasm, backed by the excellent coaching of Mr. Coombs, Mr. Bennett, Mr. Smith and Mr. Provis, has resulted in all-round improvement, and the discovery of some really good players.

The long dry season has made the task of the groundsmen difficult, and wickets generally have been below par, but a distinct improvement was appreciated towards the end of the season.

First XI

January 26 and February 2—P.A.C. v. Woodville "B"
Woodville 279 (Woodcock 6 for 62), defeated P.A.C. 100 and 5 for 122 (Causby 63, Oaten 20).

January 28—P.A.C. v. West Torrens "B"
West Torrens 6 for 335 (Gower 3 for 62, Causby 2 for 31, defeated P.A.C. 133 (Causby 36, Parkinson 29, Woodcock 21).

February 9 and 16—P.A.C. v. Adelaide "B"
Adelaide "B" 9 for 261 (Woodcock 4 for 48, Blight 3 for 55, Gower 2 for 30), defeated P.A.C. 123 (Oaten 74 not out, Causby 30) and 3 for 118 (Causby 61).

February 23 and March 2—P.A.C. v. Glenelg "B"
Glenelg 5 for 203 d. P.A.C. 70 (Woodcock 26 not out, Paul 22), and 95 (Causby 21, Blight 20).

March 9 and 16—P.A.C. v. Sturt "B"
Sturt 9 for 272 (Woodcock 4 for 64, Gower 3 for 42), defeated P.A.C. 85 (Woodcock 37), and 77 (Causby 45, Trowse 24).

Second XI

First term 1957, has proved a very successful one for Second XI cricket. At the beginning of the year D. J. Perriam was once again appointed Captain, while Mr. Pridmore worked hard to get practices under way. We thank him for his assistance.

Our first match was against the U16 XI and took the nature of a trial match. The Second XI showed encouraging form in trouncing the U16 XI. The result of the match is shown below. The next scheduled match was against S.P.S.C. U16 XI. Although we were beaten, we were far from disgraced. Luck was not with us, although the team showed good fighting spirit.

Immanuel College First XI were our next opponents. Despite an unfortunate accident to two of our fieldsmen, we managed to defeat Immanuel comfortably. Because of the Inter-collegiate Tennis, our final match, against Rostrevor College Second XI, was contested as a one-day game. After a remarkable collapse, R.C. were defeated outright in four hours. Our victory was due largely to the efforts of Steve Woodcock and thirteen-year-old Ivan Simmons, whose bowling carried the day.

Best batting performances were returned by Henderson, average 31.7, Kelly, 28.5, Perriam, 25.3, Rogers, 22.6, while bowling honours went to Chapman, average 5.6, Kelly, 6.1, Henderson, 8.2, Trestrail, 9.2.

RESULTS

- P.A.C. 213 (Kelly 53, Perriam 38, Trestrail 33), defeated P.A.C. U16 38 (Perriam 3 for 6, Kelly 3 for 12).
- P.A.C. 157 (Clark 44, Perriam 31, Henderson 31), lost to S.P.S.C. U16 XI 206 (Chapman 5 for 27, Kelly 4 for 31).
- P.A.C. 123 (Henderson 54, Rogers 24), defeated Immanuel College First XI 75 (Henderson 3 for 4, Chapman 3 for 13, Trestrail 2 for 24), and 9 for 122 (Trestrail 5 for 44).
- P.A.C. 4 for 117 declared (Henderson 42, Rogers 35), defeated R.C. Second XI 14 (Woodcock 7 for 6, including hat trick; I. Simmons 3 for 8), and 68 (Simmons 5 for 26).

Under 16 A

The U16As played four matches during the first term, one of which was won and three lost. Details are:

Feb. 16, P.A.C. U16A v. Seconds.—Due to good fast bowling by Perriam and Kelly, the Seconds dismissed the U16As for only 38. The U16's bowled quite creditably although the Seconds made 213.

Feb. 23-March 2, P.A.C. U16A v. S.P.S.C. Second XI.—Saints batted first and very bad fielding by Princes allowed them to make 6 for 308 declared, and Princes, replied with 136 (Pickering 49), and 9 for 108 (Hopkins 42) in the second innings, narrowly averting outright defeat.

March 9-16, P.A.C. U16A v. S.P.S.C. U16A—Princes batted first and, on a soft but docile wicket, scored 86 of which Hurn made 31; Evans and Hurn brought the score up to a reasonable total by making 30 for the eighth wicket. Hurn bowled aggressively in the thirty minutes for which Saints had to bat on the first Saturday and in one burst captured 3 wicket in four balls. On the second Saturday, Saints resumed at 3 for 23. Despite accurate bowling and excellent fielding, Saints' score mounted steadily until 7 for 75. Then an inspired burst from Resche and Hurn saw the last three wickets fall for only 5 runs, giving Princes victory by 7 runs.

March 23-30, P.A.C. U16A v. A.B.H.S. XI.—Princes were put in to bat and, despite a good start (4 for 75) were dismissed for 92. Read batted very well for his 39. Attacking batting and inaccurate bowling allowed A.B.H.S. to score 5 for 82 at stumps. The game resumed on the second Saturday with A.B.H.S. needing 11 runs to win. Despite vastly improved bowling by Carr and Hurn, A.B.H.S. passed our score with 3 wickets in hand and were all out for 109—17 in front. P.A.C. fared even worse in the second innings, scoring only 77, of which Carr made 40, top score for the match. A.B.H.S. failed by 10 to obtain the necessary 51 runs for an outright win, losing 5 for 41 in the second innings.

The team's performance was actually much better than the results would suggest, because of the abnormal number of U16 players in the First XI and the interference of boarders' exeat. We wish to congratulate Read, whose 142 runs in seven innings gave him the creditable average of 20.3. We also wish to thank Mr. Coombes for giving up so much of his valuable time to assist us at practice.

Under 15

Red: Under the captaincy of R. Angel, the team won two of its three matches and played good cricket generally. A little more determination and concentration would make this a very good team.

Barratt shows promise of developing into a good pace bowler, his 16 wickets for 96 runs including 5 for 5 and 4 for 15 against S.P.S.C. and 4 for 28 against A.H.S. Keal, Mooney and Hains bowled well.

Morton, still an under 14, batted brilliantly on occasions, scoring 132 runs at an average of 66 per innings, and Pearlman, Buttery, Angel and Saddler made useful scores when runs were needed.

Dunn's wicket-keeping has been of high standard.

White: Led very ably by Whitwell, this team won one of its three matches but was much affected by exeat week-ends. Haslam, Humphris and R. Smith batted well while the leading wicket-taker was Brandwood.

Both teams join in thanking Mr. Bennett for his coaching.

Under 14

This year, for the first time, the under 14 A team has played two-day games. This innovation has made for a higher standard of cricket, for matches are now won by the team which plays the better cricket and not the team with the greater number of "sloggers." The team has been successful in winning each of the three matches played.

At the beginning of the year R. B. Smith and D. Shearer were elected captain and vice-captain respectively. Both have had a successful season, the former as an opening batsman and the latter as a bowler.

Others who have done well include Simmons (a very promising batsman and fast bowler), Blake (another useful all-rounder), and Angel (left arm bowler).

The leading aggregates and averages are as follows:

BATTING
	Aggr.	Avge.
R. B. Smith	237	46.7
Simmons	87	21.7
Blake	66	22.0

BOWLING
	R.	W.	Avge.
Simmons	69	10	6.9
Angel	53	8	6.6
Shearer	32	7	4.5

The under 14 B, with Walkley as captain, has also had an enjoyable and successful season. Bridges made a vigorous century in one match, and others who have done well include Lovell (batsman) and Combe (an excellent swing bowler).

Both teams have benefited considerably from the interest and enthusiasm which Mr. Smith has shown throughout the term.

Under 13 A

The Under 13A team, under the captaincy of Malcolm Shearer has had a successful term's cricket, winning both matches played. The alteration to the programme arrangements means that we now play two-day matches, and we have had two very good games. P. Day (33.0) and R. Day (18.5) head the batting averages, while the most successful wicket-takers have been D. Angel and M. Shearer, both of whom have taken eight wickets.

The team would like to thank Mr. Provis for the kindly interest he has shown in our efforts.

Under 13 B

The Under 13 B team has had an enjoyable season, although we won only two of the five matches played, and we hope that we shall improve on this record in the third term. With the idea of giving as many as we could a chance to represent the school, we have been changing our team quite a lot. Philpott and Jory were our most successful batsmen, while Goudie and Philpott took most wickets.

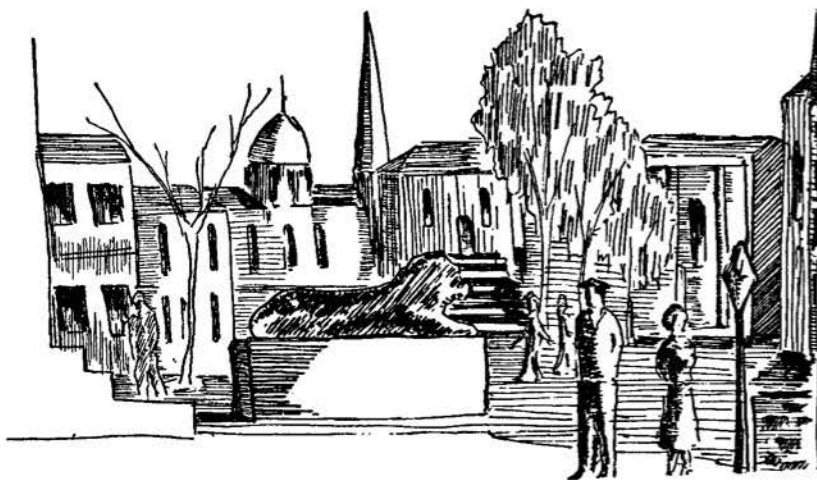

Mr. Provis has helped us considerably in our cricket, and we thank him for his efforts on our behalf.

COLOURS

The following colours have been awarded this year:

Cricket—Full Colours: Blight, C. J., Causby, J. P., Harris, P. G., Shuttleworth, C. R.
Half colours: North, B., Paul, B., Trowse, D.

Tennis—Full Colours: Williams, O. C., Phillips, W. D. Bennett, G., Simmons, D. W. Davies, D., Moyse, R.

R. N. W., VLB

Tennis

INTERCOLLEGIATE TENNIS

This year the Intercollegiate Tennis was held at Kensington Gardens Courts on Saturday, 23rd March, because of the damaged condition of the front courts at Memorial Drive. The weather early was overcast, but the clouds were quickly driven away, resulting in ideal conditions.

The teams were:

P.A.C.—Williams (Captain), Phillips, Bennett, Simmons, Davies, Moyse, Prisk (reserve).

S.P.S.C.—Lahey (Captain), Codd, Roder, Bills, Angus, Sangster, Gibson (reserve).

The opening round of doubles at 10.15 a.m. saw our first double, Williams and Phillips, have little trouble to defeat Roder and Angus (third). They broke through at 2-1 and took the first set 6-2. In the second set they went to a 4-1 lead, and won the set 6-2. In this round both second doubles met. Unfortunately, our players, Bennett and Simmons were out of touch in the first set against Lahey and Sangster, mainly due to nervousness. They lost the set 6-2. Saints went on to a 5-2 lead in the second set, but our pair fought back to 5-4; however, Saints ran out the winners 6-4. Davies and Moyse (third) played Codd and Bills (first). Both played steady tennis but the experienced Saints pair won 6-3, 6-2. After round one the scores were:

S.P.S.C. .... 2 rubbers 4 sets

P.A.C. .... 1 rubber 2 sets

The second round consisted of the fourth, fifth and sixth singles. Simmons (fourth) played Bills, who had represented Saints before. The first set was very even with Simmons playing much better than in the previous double. Bills won the first set 6-5. In the second set Simmons tossed well, forced Bills into errors, and went on to a 4-2 lead. He again broke Bill's service and won the second set 6-2. Simmons went to a 4-2 lead in the third set, but Bills fought back. Simmons won the set 7-5, taking the match 5-6, 6-2, 7-5. Davies (fifth) played too consistently for Angus and won the first set 6-0. Angus then lifted his game and won the second set 6-3. In the final set, both players were content to keep the ball in play. Nevertheless, Davies broke service to win the set 6-3. Our sixth single, Moyse, played Sangster. The first set was even to 3 all but Sangster volleyed strongly and took the set 6-4. With better placements, Moyse won the second set 6-1. In the third set we saw a great fight from both players, but Moyse caught up after being 5-2 down, broke Sangster's service at 8 all, and went on to win the set 10-8, thus taking the match 4-6, 6-1, 10-8.

At lunch the scores were:

P.A.C. .... 4 rubbers 8 sets

S.P.S.C. .... 2 rubbers 7 sets

Play in the afternoon commenced at 1.45. Phillips and Williams played Codd and Bills. The first was even but our pair broke through and won the set 6-4. In the second Phillips and Williams went to a 4-1 lead, but Saints, renowned for their fighting ability, recovered to 4 all. Our boys went on and won the set and match 6-4, 6-4. Bennett and Simmons played Roder and Angus. In this match Princes won the first set 6-4. In the second, Bennett and Simmons tossed strongly and went to a 5-0 lead. Finally, they took the set and match 6-4, 6-2. In the other match the experience of Lahey, who combined well with Sangster, was too much for Davies and Moyse, who went down 6-2, 6-3. At the end of this round the scores were:

P.A.C. .... 6 rubbers 12 sets

S.P.S.C. .... 3 rubbers 9 sets

In the next round the two captains met at first single. Lahey settled down very quickly and, with Williams not driving very well, took the first set 6-0. In the second set Williams led 5-4, but Lahey fought back to take the set and match 6-0, 6-5. At second single Phillips played Codd. Phillips could not get his first service in and was playing too carefully. On the other hand, Codd was coming to net as many times as possible and made telling use of his long reach and volleying ability. Codd won the match 6-4, 6-0. At third single, Bennett played Roder, who took the first set 6-1. Bennett had much better control in the second set and won 6-4. In the last set Bennett tired and Roder went on to victory, 6-2. With one round to go, the scores were:

S.P.S.C. .... 6 rubbers 15 sets

P.A.C. .... 6 rubbers 13 sets

After the break, our players came out very determined, indeed. Williams and Phillips wasted no time, and quickly won the first set from Lahey and Sangster 6-2. After being down in the second set 5-3, our pair caught up and just got home 6-5. Bennett and Simmons played Codd and Bills. They were out-classed, mainly due to the over-head work of the Saints' pair. Saints won this rubber very easily, 6-1, 6-2. The final match between the two third doubles was played on the centre court. Our pair won the first set 6-4. In the second set Roder and Angus went to a 4-0 lead. Davis and Moyse fought back to 4 all, but the Saints' pair won the set 6-4. In the third set the atmosphere and tension proved too much and Saints won this set 6-1, thus taking the match and retaining the Gosse Cup for another year. It was a most exciting match, played in an excellent spirit, and the supporters of both sides were treated to an excellent day's sport.

Final scores:

S.P.S.C. .... 8 rubbers 19 sets

P.A.C. .... 7 rubbers 16 sets

Congratulations must go to Saints for their grand fight, especially to their experienced players, Lahey and Codd. Williams and Phillips must also be congratulated on winning all three doubles.

The team would like to thank Mr. Turnbull for coaching, and Mr. Pridmore for conditioning the team. In view of the great fight our team put up this year we are hopeful that 1958 will be Prince's year, and that we shall see the end of our rivals' winning run.

Tennis Critique

Williams, O. C. (Captain of Tennis): An aggressive left-hander, with a well-controlled swinging service and a good forehand, but his backhand can be improved. He has discharged his duties as captain of tennis with care and diligence.

Phillips, W. D.: A sound, purposeful all-court player. Excels at net play and has strong return of service. Possesses powerful service, and has the ability to mix his game well.

Bennett, G. W.: A strongly-built, powerful player. Accurate, swinging service and powerful backhand. He possesses a large repertoire of shots. His concentration tends to lapse under pressure.

Simmons, D. W.: A tigerish player with well-controlled shots from both wings, although he can improve his backhand. Tosses very well, and is quick to seize on any weakness displayed by an opponent.

Davies, D. C.: Youngest of the Intercollegiate players. Has strong shots on both wings, an accurate service, and a good return of service. Must learn to concentrate more when in a tight spot.

Moyse, R. M.: A second player with a good forehand return of service. Good volley and smash. Must aim to improve back-hand return of service, and his own service.

Prisk, C. J.: This year's reserve. Is an aggressive player, with a good service and sound shots from both wings, although his backhand can be improved. At present loses concentration too easily.

Drive Tennis Team

The Drive Tennis Team has had a very successful term, winning all matches played, with the exception of the Intercollegiate. The match scores were as follows:

1. P.A.C. 8 sets Adelaide Technical 1 set
2. P.A.C. 8 sets C.B.C. 1 set.
3. P.A.C. 9 sets Scotch 0 set
4. P.A.C. 6 sets Pulteney Grammar 3 sets
5. P.A.C. 7 sets Adelaide High 2 sets.
6. P.A.C. 8 sets U.H.S. 1 set

Williams (Captain) and Phillips have had an outstanding season, winning all their doubles, and Phillips lost only one single. Bennett and Simmons performed very well in winning all their doubles, while Simmons won all his singles, and Bennett lost only one. Moyse, first with Prisk, and then with Davies, won all his doubles and lost only one single, while Davies was undefeated in both doubles and singles. All in all, it was a very successful season indeed, and all of the above players are to be congratulated on their fine records.

Seconds Tennis Team

The Seconds Tennis Team has had a very successful season, winning all matches played (in fact, this team has been undefeated since the third term, 1955). The only close match was against A.B.H.S. 2 when the scores were: P.A.C. 6 sets 55 games, A.B.H.S. 2, 6 sets 43 games, but the other matches were won by comfortable margins. Players to do well include Deslandes (who acted as captain for most of the term), Rowland, Newland and Walter, while other members of the team were Craig, MacArthur, Treloar, Bassham and Russell.

Under 15

The Under 15s have had a very successful season in winning all of the five matches played and losing only twelve of the sixty sets played. The most successful players were Kerr, Watts, Brown and Woollacott. The team wishes to thank Mr. Glancey for his keen interest and assistance throughout the term.

Under 14 A

After opening the season with a twelve sets to love win over Enfield High, we went on to defeat Pulteney Grammar School nine sets to three and Norwood High eleven sets to one.

The most successful players were Lyle, Carrier, Williams, Wait and Macnab, all of whom won all singles played. The team would like to thank Mr. Dennis for his constant interest and help.

Under 14 B

The team had a reasonably successful season in winning five of the six matches played, and losing twelve of the seventy-two games. The most outstanding players were Woollacott, Watts and McEwen, all of whom lost only one of their singles. The team wishes to thank Mr. Dennis for his keen interest and co-operation throughout the term.

Under 13 A

The team has had a very successful term winning all five matches with the loss of only three sets. In our first match, we defeated Pulteney ten sets to two. Unfortunately in our next match we received a forfeit from Woodville High. In our remaining matches we defeated Urrbrae 12—0, Enfield High 12—0, and Unley High 11—1. Our best players were Jackson and Cranston, who each won all four singles played. We thank Mr. Brockhoff for his help in coaching us this season. Dennis was the winner of the Under 13 Tennis Cup when he defeated Jackson 9—6 in the final.

Under 13 B Team

Of the three matches played we were successful in only one. We played Pulteney Grammar twice, which resulted in a win each and the other match was lost to Norwood High A team. The most outstanding player was McNeil, who won all his singles. The team would like to thank Mr. Brockhoff for coaching us.

Rowing

Third Term 1956

The only rowing in which the school took part this term was our own House Regatta. This was held one afternoon after school, two races being rowed. These were junior fours, rowed from the University landing, and senior fours from the City Bridge, the finishing line being our own landing in both cases.

The afternoon started in a spectacular fashion when Waterhouse and Cotton junior crews collided after the start of the first heat and rowed half the distance with the oars of both boats interlocking. The race was re-rowed and Waterhouse won by three feet. Waterhouse was not so lucky in the first heat of the senior fours, when it lost to Cotton by four feet. School won both its first heats very comfortably by two lengths.

In the finals, School, who were superior throughout the afternoon, won both races, the junior fours by three lengths and the senior fours by four lengths. The teams finally sorted themselves into the following order:

Senior Crews	Junior Crews
1 - School	School
2 - Bayly	Bayly
3 - Cotton	Cotton
4 - Waterhouse	Waterhouse

Rowing Camp

Usually we have a rowing camp at Murray Bridge towards the end of the Christmas holidays. This year we were unfortunate, as the recent floods made things too wet even for rowers. We were, however, able to do much hard training on the Torrens during the last week of the holidays. About eighteen of us spent our time rowing down to the weir and back to the boat-shed about seven times a day. This tends to become rather monotonous, and, if it had not been for various attractions on the banks or, perhaps, the thought of the valuable training we were doing, we should not have enjoyed ourselves. As it was we gained much experience and some expert coaching from Mr. Mattingley and Bob Gill, who were kind enough to give up much of their time to us.

Memories may be stimulated by the following:—

Who went for a swim at the weir?
Who lost a bet?
Who hasn't been thrown in yet?

First Term, 1957

Since the holidays everyone has been training very hard for the Head-of-the-River Regatta. The eight has been chosen as follows:—L. R. Gregurke (stroke), R. N. Francis, T. O. Moore, K. S. Kelly, M. J. McNeil, W. B. Ashby, R. F. Bartholomaeus, R. G. Morgan (bow), and D. F. Bowen (cox). With four from last year's eight, we have what we hope is a winning crew. This year a second eight will row as well as the clinker four and under-age crews.

We entered two crews in the Henley-on-Torrens Regatta, which was held soon after the term commenced. These were an eight and a clinker four. The four rowed in fine style at a very high rating to win the first heat, but were unexpectedly defeated by Scotch in the second heat. The eight was defeated by two older and more experienced crews in the first heat. Later on in the term a four from Princes beat an Urrbrae crew to win the schoolboys fours in the Railways Regatta.

With the final weeks of hard training still left before the Head-of-the-River, we are all looking forward to the day, and hoping that success will crown our efforts.

A HOLIDAY IN LAUNCESTON

Launceston is a small city situated on the banks of the River Tamar, Northern Tasmania.

It is a city of great natural beauty. The population of Launceston and the surrounding districts is approximately 40,500 people.

For a tourist staying in Launceston, there are many interesting trips which can be taken in and around the city as well as to the numerous country centres.

When I was there, I think the most interesting place I saw was Cataract Gorge. This is one of Australia's most famous beauty spots, reached in a few minutes, by car from the city. The pathway for about a mile has been constructed along the face of a towering cliff. A tea-house is situated in the gardens, and across the river (South Esk) is an Olympic-sized swimming pool.

An attraction which many people wish to see is Beauty Point. This town is fifty odd miles from the city. At Beauty Point a ferry can be caught to cross the Tamar River to Georgetown.

The longest trip we did was to Bridport via Scotsdale, returning via Lilydale. Around Scotsdale are many farms. From Bridport there are many wonderful coastal and rural views. Lilydale is also important for dairying.

There are many more wonderful places to be seen, but unfortunately my holiday came to an end all too soon. Some day I hope to be able to go back again and visit this wonderful part of Tasmania.

PRO NOBIS OMNIA SACRIFICAVIT

Were you there on that fateful day?
Heard you the cries, the venom hurled from snarling lips,

The dismal thuds of the hammer
Re-echoing from the city walls?
They all stood there that day; both friend and foe,

The priest, the scribe, the greedy Sadducee,
The hypocrite, the harlot, the lordly Pharisee.
Each attitude, each thought and deed which yet we know

Were there to shout and mock, their hate and scorn to show.

Each sin was in a nail, a spear, a thorn,
And pardon for them in the torment borne.

Many years have since then flown past
The cursed Tree, now crumbled into dust.
Yet, nailed by us, He writhes there every day anew,

I stand there now—do you?

THE LONG DROP

The day dawned on a huge monolith, a sheer, craggy expanse. The first beams of a golden dawn struck the peak of the huge cliff, its be-whiskered ledge suddenly sending forth a radiance as if of its own, a sudden golden glow. Every rock, tuft and shrub overlooking the giddy, unfathomable drop burst into amber light, like a fire cresting a hill.

Below, in the deep plain, the valley slumbered on, still shrouded in their misty cloak of night, the mottled surface representing the scrub far below.

Undaunted by this drop, a pair of whistling eagles had built their rough nest in a small hollow ledge a few feet below the regal crest of the precipice. As the sun struck their craggy abode, they stirred uneasily, and at length the superb cock stretched upright, his amber, blazing eyes surveying all around him. Then he began his meticulous toilet, preening every brown-black wing feather, and thoroughly ruffling and re-ruffling his feathers.

By this time his mate had risen and, instead of paying so much attention to herself, she was looking to the shaky, barely feathered youngster between her feet. This recipient was apparently enjoying every minute of it, with his head back, and eyes half closed.

At last the pair launched themselves from the ledge on their morning quest for early-rising fauna in the depths below, leaving the scrawny young thing to work up a suitable appetite. The young eaglet watched them glide out effortlessly over the still dark plains. The sun had not yet begun to tinge the tops of the silent trees, and the pair looked like glittering, golden stars, suspended on invisible strings, as they sped out over the contrasting gloom.

The eaglet, his wing feathers almost at the stage of usefulness, began to explore his nest for any stray bits of rotting meat, but none was to be had, although there were an abundance of gruesome remains of hapless victims in the form of bleached bones scattered among the rough sticks. He explored farther. He climbed on to the ledge itself and began walking along it. He came to a sloping section and lost a little ground, then found himself tumbling over and over. The next thing he knew, he was falling into very empty space.

The precipice, formed aeons ago, was a fault line, which had been pushed up by some volcanic eruption, and was the culmination of a plateau. Therefore it was very steep, sheer, in fact. It met the valley nearly five hundred feet below.

The young eaglet did not know this, nor did he want to know it, as he tumbled helplessly over and over for about fifty feet. Then he began to regain control instinctively, and his trajectory began to veer out of the vertical. But by this time he was travelling at a seemingly enormous speed, and his untried wings were straining. The tree-tops, once so far away, now loomed up, terrifyingly material. Now they were no longer seeming to come straight at him; they were beginning to slide underneath him. The wind tore at his loose, heavy young body, and screamed through his unsymmetrical first feathers. Now the tormented eaglet was hurtling over the tops of the trees like a comet; he had just flattened out in time. Each tree seemed to be about to rise and smite him, but gradually he rose, and he was master for a moment. But, as his speed slackened, he stalled, tumbled over again and plummeted into a bushy tree-top. He managed to grasp a branch, and, bliss! he was still once more.

For a long while he lay gasping for breath, his soft muscles aching from their exertion. Then, his hunger at the surface once more, he set up a lusty squawking.

His harassed parents, desperately searching over the now day-lit forest, soon heard him, and, with some difficulty, transported him to a nearby hollow tree, where he was soon gorging upon a plump quail, not much the worse for his uninvited ride.

The world is a hedge,
Branches trying to attain a height
Above the merciless clippers of fate.
Though we cannot reach so far,
Be not discouraged.
For that which does not outgrow the rest
Is the substance, the life of the hedge,

Happy in self-sacrifice,
To the beauty of the whole.

We strive
In work, in sport, in love, in war,
And often fail to attain the height
Of our ambition.
Spend not your time turning lead into gold;
Happiness really is not to be found.
Seek to battle for the glory of God,
Seek to win this noble fight
And joy shall come to you.

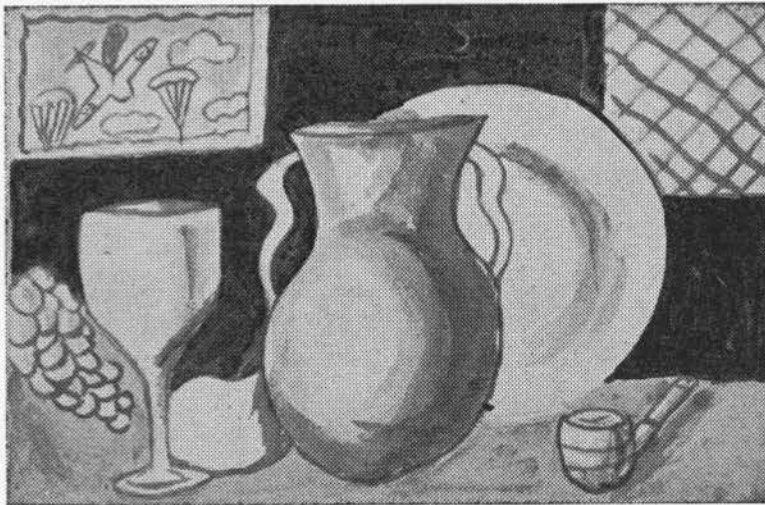

And be not vanquished!
For though our minds fail their tasks,
And bodies strive in vain the race to win,
If our souls do conquer evil and sin,
We have conquered all.

A PLEA

If perchance your loved possessions
Fail to stir your heart,
And all your favourite obsessions
Pall, and so depart;
If, when old friends call, you find
You're wanting them to leave;
To possible enjoyment blind—
Then you have need to grieve.
Any time you want to be
Away from everything,
Where nothing interrupts — a plea
That anyone might bring—
Think why you loved them so, and then You'll find your love refreshed again.

BABY-SITTING

Our Church Youth Club wanted to raise money in a hurry. A committee was formed, and decided upon a baby-sitting plan. There were approximately three times as many children of a tender age as there were members of the club, and we pride ourselves on our large attendances.

Members were allotted various nights, and the club settled back to await the rush for sitters.

About three months later, when I had forgotten all about the campaign, I was asked to baby-sit at a place out past the circuit boundaries. It was almost a quarter of a mile to the next house.

I arrived at half-past seven. Mrs Thomas showed me over the house, where the light switches were, and where the telephone was. As an afterthought, she showed me the refrigerator. After this detailed inspection of the house, she left me with two little boys—"Perfect dears," she assured me.

I settled down to some solid swotting, but was unable to concentrate because of the strange surroundings. Suppose a fuse blew, I thought to myself. I looked for a torch, but found none. I looked for the switch-board, and inadvertently woke one of the "little dears" who started bawling, and so woke the other, who followed in like manner. As soon as I quietened one, the other would start. Then the telephone rang. I replied to the questioner that he had not rung up the Walkerville picture theatre. The "little dears" were wide awake now, and, although they had stopped crying, they were determined not to stay in bed.

I was scared to tell them to stay in bed or else, because they might have disarmed me with tears again. Eventually I coaxed one to bed, but the other persisted in watching me "study." He asked question after question and pestered me to come and have a look at his golliwog. He started to cry when I said "No!"; so I condescended to look at his golliwog. After that he wanted a drink of water.

About half-past ten he heard the sound of the key in the front door lock. He scampered into bed and was as sound asleep as his brother when his mother looked in.

"There," she said proudly, "no trouble at all, were they?"

TYROLEAN JOURNEY

The thought of snow had not entered our heads as we drove from Bolzano under a cloudless blue sky. But half an hour later, we were driving through a light snowstorm as we neared the Brenner Pass, on our way from Italy to Switzerland. White monsters with two shining eyes revealed themselves as cars covered with the loose, powdery snow which seemingly wrapped everything in a blanket of white.

We passed through the customs without difficulty, and once into Austria soon found a delightful little inn called the "White Horse." We went inside, and settled ourselves on huge wooden benches before a large table. There was then served a bowl of steaming, thick, vegetable soup, and four steins of Austrian beer were placed before us; the first of these was delicious and the second, I am told, was even more so.

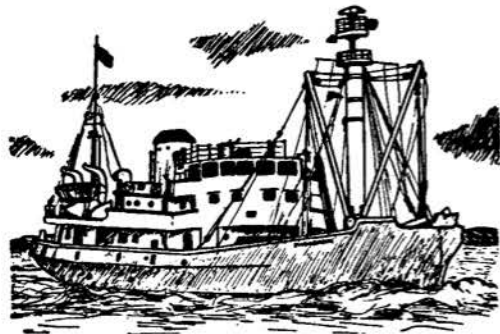

Thence we went on to Innsbruck, the city claimed to be under the shadow of one thousand mountains. How beautiful it looked, nestling in a valley surrounded by the snowcapped peaks. The following day we went, first by funicular railway, and then by two cable cars almost to the top of one of those majestic peaks, a haunt of skiers. It being a Sunday, they were there in large numbers, pursuing that graceful sport of ski-ing. How odd they looked, sitting in the ski-lift, a series of chairs suspended on an endless rope, which carried them across and up to the deeper snow!

We were blinded at first by the dazzling whiteness of the snow around us, as we tried to walk to the summit of the mountain. I say tried, as many had been up before us, turning the snow which covered the path to ice, and making it almost impossible to move upwards. After much slipping and sliding, we reached our destination, where we read from a wooden cross of the mountaineer who had first ventured to the top, and the date of his climb. After that, naturally, a snowfight ensued, and I succeeded in falling backwards into a snowdrift by the chalet and cable-car station. We then tried the renowned wiener-schnitzel as we sat and watched the skiers speeding down the hills.

Our fears were not realized in either ascending or descending the mountain; the cable did not break on either journey, as many people half expect it to. The view of the city, with the grey River Inn winding through it, provided a never-to-be-forgotten scene.

I was sorry when, next morning, we left Austria, that country of beauty and charm.

LIFE

'Tis like a fragrant flower,
 In youth with beauty filled,
 Until the final hour,
 In which its life is stilled.
 Life dawns as does the day,
 With beauty it is wed.
 But soon the last sun ray,
 Has gone and day is dead.
 'Tis like a cloud soaring
 Immense and unconfined,
 But in the storm roaring
 Its life span will decline.
 So while we're in the youth of life,
 Let's waste not beauty in the strife.

HAMLET

If Hamlet lived in present days
 And sought to scheme and plan,
 He'd have to sharpen up his ways
 To dwell with fellow man.
 While he was dreaming of his rose
 His friend would make a date,
 And while love sonnets he'd compose
 She'd go out with his mate.
 If someone threatened to destroy
 The house in which he dwelt,
 He'd ponder with the facts and toy
 With how and why he felt.
 And when the house was tumbling down
 And falling round his ears,
 He'd cry, "O Woe!", and show a frown
 Then splash the place with tears.
 If atom bombs were falling down
 And bullets flying round,
 He'd wander vaguely thru' the town
 And rave about the sound,
 But would he up and join the fray,
 And would he help the boys?
 Nay, he would start a lecture tour
 And call for peaceful joys.

A CRUISE

Five years ago I was living in Hobart with my mother for a short time. Friends in Hobart recommended the ferry trip up the Derwent River as one of the best ferry trips anywhere.

The day turned out fine, and Mother was up early preparing our lunch. We left our flat at half-past eight and boarded the boat at nine o'clock. The ferry left almost immediately, and there was great excitement on board, especially among the younger children. It sailed out to the middle of the river, which was a mile wide, and headed up stream towards New Norfolk, forty miles up the river.

The scenery on both sides was simply beautiful. The Derwent Valley is really something to see, with vineyards and hop fields on one side, and apple orchards on the other. The valley is one of the best apple-growing areas in Tasmania. Further up the river, as it narrowed, wild-flowers became more abundant.

We reached New Norfolk at half-past eleven and so, with over an hour to spare before the ferry left, we went for a walk around the town, a charming little place, with tall pines prominent everywhere. We ate our lunch by the river side, the swans on the river getting a fair share of our lunch.

After lunch we boarded the ferry, looking forward to a pleasant afternoon. We retraced our way to Hobart but went straight past. Mount Wellington looked wonderful, towering above us. We were now coming to the place where the Derwent widens. The ferry took us down the D'Entrecasteaux Channel and stopped at Risdon where we were shown former convict settlements, which were most interesting.

We sailed on towards the heads until we came to Bruny Island. Here we boarded a bus and were taken around the island, which was about eight miles in circumference. On the island there were old stone quarries on which the convicts were made to work. I found a rock which had little carvings on it. I asked the driver what they meant, and he told me that they were the initials of a convict on one side and those of his girl friend, probably back in England.

We were shown many other interesting places on the island and then the time came for us to go back to the ferry. We boarded the ferry and went back to Hobart, which we reached at six-thirty. I walked off the ferry thinking what a wonderful day it had been, and I recommend it to others.

HONOLULU

Recently I was lucky enough to win an essay competition entitling me to a fourteen-day tour of California in the United States. As I have not time to write of all my experiences, I shall write only of one, namely my short stay in Honolulu.

It was seven o'clock in the evening when the wheels of the Qantas Super-Constellation touched down on the runway of the Honolulu International Airport. I stepped out of the cool, air-conditioned 'plane into the hot drizzle of the Hawaiian summer. The temperature, although warm, was not uncomfortable. At the gate on the edge of the tarmac, the flight hostess placed a floral lei around my neck, and I was then told to proceed to the customs department and declare what I was taking into America, Honolulu being the first American port of call. After a hasty look through my baggage, I went to the Sky-Room of the airport to have my evening meal.

And what a luscious meal it turned out to be! The first course consisted of Hawaiian oyster soup, and then came roast chicken. For sweets, we had all types of tropical fruit and nuts. From the Sky-Room there was a glorious view of the 'planes taking off from behind a row of palm trees into the still Hawaiian night.

Over a loud-speaker came a voice requesting those on the Qantas Super-Constellation VH-EAH to move toward the baggage counter on their way to board the 'plane. It was with much reluctance that I slowly made my way to the 'plane. We took off at 10.30 and, as I felt the 'plane climbing, the pilot turned it around so that we could catch our last glimpse maybe for quite a while, of Honolulu on the island of Oahu.

CUTTING OUT

It was early May and the muster was in full swing on Elkedra Station. My father had to make a trip to Earlpunda, the water hole at which the mustering camp was situated at that time, and he decided to take me along with him.

We arrived at Earlpunda at about nine o'clock that morning and just had time to look over the cattle which they had collected, about six hundred head all told, before they began to cut out. The cutting out consisted of dividing the mob into two lots, one to let go again and the other to keep and eventually send to the Adelaide market.

The cattle were driven out of the yard and on to the Earlpunda flats. These flats are almost treeless and cover a great area, and so are used for jobs such as cutting out and horse-breaking, where a large area is needed. All the men on the camp had turned out on their pet horses and the job began.

All the relatively quiet old cows were cut off from the main mob of cattle until a group of about thirty to forty was collected. The camp, which consisted of ten men, was divided so that there were four men looking after each mob of cattle. That left one to do the actual cutting out and another to help in transferring the beast from one mob to the other.

Nelson, a native, rode a specially-trained camp mare, which was trained for the sole purpose of cutting out. He would select a cow in the main mob and then ride through the other cattle after it. Soon the horse would realize which animal they were after, and would gradually work it to the outside of the mob. Here another rider would give him a hand to direct it over to the other mob of cattle.

This transferring of the beast was one of the trickiest parts of the whole job, as it did not always want to leave one mob for the other and often made a fuss over it. If by any chance the cow got away from the two men and got past the four minding the main mob and back with the mob, it would be a very difficult as well as dangerous job to cut it out again. Often a cow which had been cut off from its calf would try to horn the horse that was either driving or guarding it.

After the lunch break the cutting out was resumed, but this time fresh horses were used, as the job was much faster and harder. All the quiet cows had been cut out and there were only a few wild and restless cows left; the rest were bullocks which were not altogether co-operative.

At about three in the afternoon the job was finished and we had all the cows and calves in one mob and all the bullocks in the other. The former were then bushed and the bullocks kept, as they were wanted for the market. After tea, Father had done all that he wanted to and we set out on the twenty miles back to the homestead after a very interesting day.

A BENEFACTOR

Many men have done the world a great service by giving up their lives for their ideals. Henry Ford, who pioneered the motor car, Edison, who invented electric light and many other marvellous things, and Marconi, who invented the radio, are examples of men who have been famous scientists and inventors. But I think the men who have done most are those who are responsible for the wonder drugs.

I am particularly interested in these drugs because one of them has very much affected my life, in fact, saved it.

I was hiking in the Flinders Ranges with our scouts when suddenly I felt a crippling pain in my stomach. At that time we did not think it was anything serious; so we went on with the day's sixteen-mile hike over extremely rough country.

It was eight at night when we reached our camp-site; so I crawled into my sleeping-bag and went to sleep. In the morning I was unable to walk at all; so I stayed in a sleeping-bag all day while one of the scout-masters hiked twenty miles to a station homestead to get help, and the other stayed to keep an eye on me. At six-thirty that evening the scout-master arrived with a station hand in a jeep. They lifted me in and off we went.

It was agony as we bumped over the dirt track that had been graded only once, and that was eighteen months ago, and the occasional creek or creek-bed. Suddenly, when we were seven to nine miles from the homestead, the jeep coughed and stopped. We had run out of petrol. I was then lifted out of the jeep and laid on the ground. The driver set out to walk back and get some more petrol; so the scout-master with me built a large fire to keep us warm.

It seemed hours before another jeep and three other men arrived. I was then transferred to the new jeep and driven to the homestead, where they brought me a mattress, a pillow, and some blankets for the trip to Hawker.

We started the fifty miles to Hawker in the jeep but before long we met the manager of the station returning from Hawker in his Holden utility. I was transferred to it, as it would give me a more comfortable ride as I lay on the back. Most of the way to Hawker I was sick and feeling particularly miserable, as this was my second day without any food.

It was half-past-three in the morning when we arrived at the Hawker Hospital. Once I was there, they gave me an injection to deaden the pain and put me to sleep. The doctor there diagnosed the trouble, which might well have occurred at home or at school, instead of a hundred miles from help. He rang the doctor at home, that is Mount Gambier, and told him the trouble and advised as to which doctor and hospital in Adelaide I should go to. The doctor at home rang my parents and they rushed up to Adelaide in the morning.

Early that morning, the Flying Doctor arrived and I was flown down to Adelaide where I arrived at eleven-thirty in the morning, this being my third day of illness. An ambulance was waiting and I was rushed to hospital.

That evening I was operated on, and had some of my intestines removed. For about a fortnight after, the only food I had was liquid, fed through veins in my arms and legs. I have no idea how many injections I had either. But a week after the operation I had to have another, as there was another blockage inside. Again followed the liquid feeding, blood transfusions, and injections of wonder drugs to keep me alive. Mother and Father visited me three times each day and Mother bought a portable wireless to keep me company during the rest of the day.

At the end of a month I was allowed to eat solid food again and get out of bed and sit in a chair. After a few days of this I started to learn to walk again, with a nurse each side of me for support. After a few more days I could hobble a little way by myself. After five and a half weeks I was allowed to leave the hospital, but not yet better, as a wound in my stomach was not yet healed and did not heal for over a month. At home I became steadier on my feet and gradually I got some strength back into my limbs. During my stay in hospital I lost about two stone, which I have not yet caught up.

With gratitude now, I think of the men working in their laboratories, finding out new things that will save many lives. Some of these things take years of hard work to achieve, but others are found by accident.

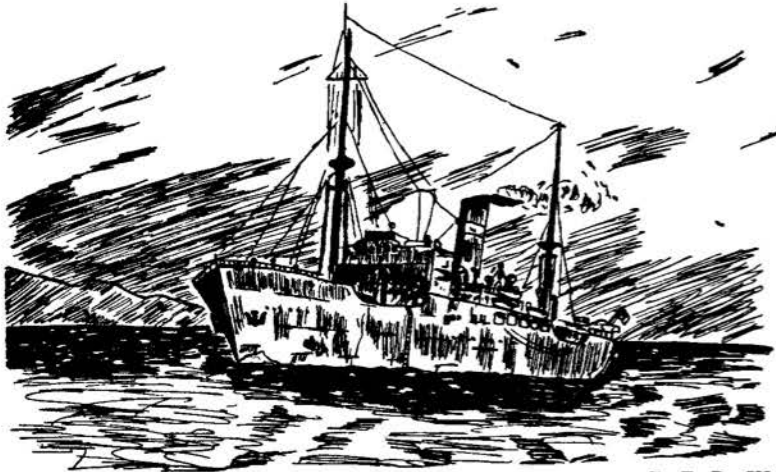

Footnote: I wish to thank the scout masters, Mr. J. P. Keeves and Mr. G. Bridge, the doctor at Hawker (Dr. Turner), the manager of Orparinna Station, Mr. Kemp, Mr. Frank Ireland of Arkaroola Station, Guinea Airways, Dr. O. W. Leith, and the sister and nurses of Calvary Hospital for their parts in saving my life.

THE RUNAWAY

Young Richard, at the age of two,
Looked round him, wondering what to do.
Scattered around lay battered toys
—These instruments of childhood noise—
Peeped through the window down the lane,
How nice to paddle in the rain!
Out through an open door he steered,
Looked right and left, then disappeared.
Then one hour later Mother said,
"And now it's time that boy was fed."
They searched the house and garden round—
No sign of Richard could be found.
They searched in every lane and street,
But still no sign of straying feet.
One more hour passed, then oh! what joy!
A sturdy policeman brought the boy
Back up the path and to the door,
While Richard grinned and asked for "more."
He clutched a ha'penny in his fist,
And held his face up to be kissed.
Then the family once more united Showed mother and son both delighted.

The Preparatory School

Staff: We welcome to our staff Mr. D. C. Kitney, who has been given charge of IIA. Mr. Kitney is an Englishman who comes to us after teaching for a year in the Education Department. He replaces Mr. Watson in the Boarding House. We trust that he will be content to stay with us for a long time.

Mr. Watson left the Boarding House in December to be married. We congratulate him on the step he has taken and express the hope that Mrs. Watson and he will have many happy years ahead of them.

We also welcome Mr. Malcolm Gray, the Art Master from senior school, whose enthusiasm for his subject is already kindling a similar flame in the hearts of our upper classes.

Leaders: We congratulate D. C. Hassell (Capt.), O. Crompton, I. R. C. Kerr, D. B. Lock, K. B. Lower, G. A. T. Talbot, D. A. Trim and D. R. Wagner on their appointment as Leaders in the Preparatory School.

Mothers' Club: One meeting, to which the mothers of boys starting at the Prep. in 1957 were invited, was held during the third term. The speaker was Miss Edna Dunn, newly returned from abroad, who gave a most entertaining account of her months overseas. Hers was not the usual travel talk, but was rather a chronicle of the amusing and sometimes embarrassing things that happened to two innocents abroad.

Our thanks and congratulations are due to the Club for its enthusiastic response to the Prep's request for £60 for additional lockers in the Tog Room. Members by individual efforts raised the astonishing total of £196.

The Boarding House wishes to thank the Club for its gifts of a drying cabinet, which will be of inestimable value in the winter months.

The Annual General Meeting was held on 28th March in the Senior School Assembly Room. The new Committee was elected and a talk was given by the Master-in-Charge. A record number of mothers attended.

A very successful Carol Evening was held on the back lawn of the Prep. in November. This was arranged at the request of the Mothers' Club.

On 8th December, Father Christmas visited the Prep. School and gave presents from a tastefully decorated tree, to the boys of IB and IC and their little brothers and sisters. At the same time the Fathers' and Sons' Cricket Match was played on the back oval. This was won by the Fathers. It was brought to a conclusion when the square leg umpire fielded briskly and threw down the wicket with Mr. Lock yards out of his ground.

The New Classroom: A new classroom, beautifully decorated and furnished, was ready for the opening of school. This now houses one of the Grade VI classes, III LA, which is very proud to have been chosen to occupy it.

We now have two Grade VII, III UA and III UB, and two Grade VI forms, III LA and III LB. The introduction of the additional class gives us two main intake places for new boys—Grade I and Grade VI.

A porch has been built at the entrance to the kindergarten room to provide some shelter on wet days, and also cloakroom accommodation for the smaller boys.

During the holidays, Miss Dunn's room was redecorated and the whole of the exterior of the Prep. School was repainted.

Natural History Club: A party of about twenty boys, in charge of Mr. Kesting and Mr. Houston, left for Melbourne by bus on Friday, 14th December. It stayed at the Y.M.C.A., and through the kindness of Mr. T. Plummer and the staff of Wadhurst, Melbourne Grammar School, was able to see in the few days at its disposal much that was interesting in Melbourne, and to make visits to the Vacuum Oil establishment at Altona, the Maroonda Dam, the Healesville Sanctuary, Rickett's Mountain Steps, and the Television Station at Mount Dandenong, and Sherbrook Forest.

Grantley Page, Tom Chapman, Robert Johnston and Neil Hallett, of Senior School, helped considerably with the supervision of the party.

A short camp is projected at the Toc H Camp, Victor Harbour, in the May holidays.

Cricket: The Prep. team had a very successful 1956 season. Thirteen matches were played, of which twelve were won.

R. Day, with 282 runs in ten innings, and M. Shearer, with 173 in thirteen, registered the best performances with the bat.

Bowling honours were shared by Shearer, 33 wickets (average 5.8), Day 29 (5.2), Webb 24 (8.7), and Angel 22 (7.2).

House matches in the third term were won by Chapple (two senior), Mitchell (one senior, one junior), and Robertson (two junior).

During the first term, 1957, our team played five matches and has won two of them. The second team lost its only match to S.P.S.C. House matches have been won by Robertson (two senior), Chapple (one senior, two junior), and Mitchell (one junior).

Cricket Afternoon at St. Peter's: In December, we were guests of St. Peter's Preparatory School. Seven matches were played, of which we won three and drew one.

A tennis team defeated S.P.S.C., ten sets to two.

Tennis: R. P. Dennis is to be congratulated on winning the Tennis Cup presented by J. E. C. Stephens, Esq.

House Competition: The A. W. Welch Cup was won by Robertson House.

SCHOOLDAYS

Prince Alfred College is so fine,
I would not change this school of mine.
My teacher is so kind to me,
He lets me out soon after three.

On Mondays and on Fridays, too
Our P.E. we are pleased to do.
It makes us fit and strong boys, so
That into healthy men we'll grow.

When we get home we have a play,
Then as the daylight fades away,
We come to tea, to eat and drink,
To give us strength to sit and think.

On homework then we wrack our brains
Until our heads are full of pains.
And then we weary go to bed,
Our time at school has quickly sped.

O. F. D., III LA.

WINTER

The trees waved gently in the breeze,
The leaves all fluttered down;
The ponds and lakes began to freeze,
And snow fell on the town.

I. M. R., III LA.

THE BIRD

As I wandered through the hills,
I saw a bird upon a tree;
I listen to him as he trills,
It makes me glad that he is free.

I do not know what makes him sing.
The sun, the rain—some other thing—
But when I hear his glad refrain,
I wish that I was young again.

R. W. C., III LA.

THE BUSH CHATTERER

Murray Magpie sang and twittered
From the sunrise to the sundown,
Sang of tales of ghostly creatures—
How the bunyip lost his temper—
Why the devil killed his fellows—
Thus he sang for hours and hours
Till the moon rose from the hilltops.

THE BUSHFIRE

Through the bushland spread the fire
Burning all that blocked its pathway;
Burning shrubs and lovely wattles,
Killing birds and frightened creatures;
Till it reached the River Loden
Where it died in steam and ashes.
(With apologies to H. W. Longfellow)

D. M. C., III LA.

THE SWAGMAN

Trudging along with my swag on my back,
A ragged old swaggy, I roam the bush track.
The corks on my hat always help me to think,
So I think about tucker and something to drink.

It may be a dream, though I always have hope,
But all I am offered is water and soap.
They say I am dirty but that is not true,
For I wash every Easter and Christmas-time too.

The Objects of the Association are: To keep Old Boys, wherever they may be, in touch with one another and with the boys at the School; also to foster and maintain their interest in the School.

"Old Boys' Week" is observed annually towards the end of July, during which a dinner and other social functions as well as sports contests are held. Also social gatherings are held whenever occasions arise that make them desirable.

"The P.A.C. Chronicle," of which a large part is devoted to matters of special interest to Old Boys, is forwarded to each member of the Association.

The subscription is ten shillings per annum. It is suggested that Country Members should remit sufficient to cover four years' subscription or become Life Members by payment of £10/10/-. Any Old Boy wishing to become a member can do so by forwarding his name and address to the Head Master, or to any member of the Staff, or to the Secretaries.

The Association has donated the following Scholarships, which are awarded from time to time at the discretion of the School.

H. W. A. Miller (Old Collegians') Scholarship
J. A. Hartley Scholarship
Fredk. Chapple Scholarship
W. R. Bayly Scholarship

Our President

Mr. Colin Hassell was elected President at the Annual Meeting held in November last. He attended the school in 1919 to 1928, was a school prefect and represented the school in the Intercollegiate Athletics in 1928. Upon leaving school he entered the University of Adelaide, where he took his degree as Bachelor of Engineering in Architecture.

Mr. Hassell served his Articles with Mr. H. H. Cowell, a former President of the Association, and gaining a Travelling Scholarship as a result of his University course, proceeded to England where he did post-graduate work from 1935-1937.

Enlisting in the A.I.F. he saw service in the Middle East and New Guinea with the Army Engineers for five years, holding the rank of Major.

Mr. Hassell, who is a partner of Messrs. Hassell and McConnell, architects, has just completed a year as President of the Legacy Club of Adelaide. He played football with the Old Scholars' football team, and has two sons at the Preparatory School, the elder being Captain of the Prep.

New Year Honour

Mr. Norman Chinner who was honoured in the New Year's List with the award of Officer of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire (Fourth Class) was invested by Her Majesty the Queen at Buckingham Palace on the 26th March, 1957.

Mr. Chinner has been a prominent S.A. orchestral and choral conductor for many years.

He was musical director at the school from 1934-1939, and organist and choirmaster of the Pirie Street Methodist Church from 1939-1947.

Since 1940 Mr. Chinner has been conductor of the Adelaide Philharmonic Choir.

He was deputy conductor and acting conductor of the Adelaide A.B.C. Light Orchestra from 1940-1949, conductor of the A.B.C. Adelaide Singers since 1945, and conductor of the A.B.C. Adelaide Chorus.

During the recent Royal Visit Mr. Chinner conducted the S.A. Symphony Orchestra and combined choirs at the Royal Music Festival.

He also conducts school matinees of the S.A. Symphony Orchestra.

Social Evening

The annual get-together for new Old Boys was held at the school on Friday evening, the 22nd February, with the Headmaster, Mr. J. A. Dunning, in attendance. There were approximately 100 Old Boys present, and the evening once again proved most successful.

The President, Mr. Colin Hassell, was in the chair, and took the opportunity of telling those present of the many activities of the Association, and the help which it had given to the school over the years. He urged every Old Boy to give the school and the Association their maximum support.

The Chairman then asked the following members to address the meeting: Mr. Bob Piper (convener of the Old Collegians' Club Ball), Mr. Chester Bennett (Captain of the O.S. Cricket Club), Mr. Dene Perrott (on behalf of the O.S. Athletics Club), Mr. Don. Davies (on behalf of the O.S. Football Club), Mr. Colin Rungie (on behalf of the Old Collegians' Rugby Club). All gave very excellent addresses and members were fortunate in hearing from present or past players who are or have been prominent in their respective fields of sport, and who gave sound advice to the younger members present.

The Headmaster then spoke and referred to the probable extension of the back oval in due course, which he hoped would in some measure relieve the position as regards playing areas.

Three films were then shown, through the courtesy of Slazengers (Aust) Pty. Ltd. featuring cricket, golf, and the Barrier Reef and Cairns. The President then thanked the Headmaster for allowing the evening to be held at the school, and said he hoped all present had had a pleasant time. He also thanked the sub-committee, consisting of Michael Perry (convener), Bob Piper, Alan Crompton and Don. Davies for making the necessary arrangements, and thanked the school for the use of their film equipment. A successful evening concluded with some light supper refreshments.

Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting was held at the school on Thursday, 15th November, 1956, when the seventy-eighth annual report and statement of accounts were presented.

The attendance showed an increase of fifty per cent over last year.

It was proposed and seconded that Mr. L. B. Shuttleworth be elected President. Mr. Shuttleworth was elected to the office and expressed his appreciation but advised he could not see his way clear to accept the honour.

Mr. F. C. Hassell was elected President, with Messrs. P. E. Clark, N. S. Angel and Norman Todd as Vice-Presidents.

Mr. E. F. Hunwick was elected Hon. Treasurer, and Messrs. Harold Shuttleworth and Ross Johnston as Joint Secretaries.

The following members were re-elected to the Committee: Messrs. A. W. Crompton, D. L. Davies, C. L. McKay, N. A. Walsh, and Dr. M. W. Evans. Three new members elected were Messrs. Jack Gerard, John Gilbert and R. W. Piper. Senator R. W. Pearson and Mr.

F. E. Piper, Q.C., retiring committeemen did not seek re-election.

Messrs. C. W. L. Muecke and Geoffrey T. Clarke, M.P., were elected Hon. Auditors.

Mr. P. E. Clark proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Norman Todd in appreciation of his year in office, to which Mr. Todd suitably responded and expressed the Association's thanks to the Headmaster (Mr. J. A. Dunning) and Mrs. Dunning for their great help and co-operation during the period. Mr. Dunning thanked the meeting and congratulated the Association on its activities.

A vote of thanks to the retiring committeemen, Senator Pearson and Mr. F. E. Piper, Q.C., and also to Mr. Harry Williams was proposed by Dr. Evans. Mr. Williams was not due to retire but owing to unforeseen circumstances felt unable to continue. The meeting then adjourned to give members an opportunity to inspect the J. F. Ward Memorial Library and for supper.

Mr. Joe Crompton then gave a very interesting commentary on his recent overseas visit which was illustrated by films taken on tour.

New and Retiring Committeemen

Jack Hamilton Gerard attended the school from 1929-31, and then went into the family business where he is now a director. He is a past president of the Illuminating Engineering Society of Australia (S.A. Division), past president of the Brief Club and Adelaide Rosstrum Club No. 1, and Past Master of Fitzroy Lodge. He has always been a keen and enthusiastic member of the Association, and for recreation plays golf, bowls, and has latterly become interested in fishing.

Robert William Piper comes from a family who have given wonderful service both to the school and this Association—his father, grandfather, and uncle having all been presidents of the Association. He attended the school from 1938-1947 and took part in cricket, football and athletics. He then went on to the University where he studied law and took his LL.B. degree. He is a member of the South Australian Lawn Tennis Association Ground Committee, and was a member of the Ground Committee for the 1956 Davis Cup. His regular sporting interests are now tennis and golf.

John Scollard Gilbert attended the school from 1932-42, and then proceeded to the University where he took his B.E. degree. Since then he has moved around very considerably, having spent some time in the United Kingdom, Manus Island, and various parts of Australia.

He has already done good work for the Association as secretary of the Broken Hill Branch 1948-49, and on the committee of the Victorian Branch 1952-56, where he was president at the time of his transfer to Adelaide. He is a son of W. S. S. Gilbert, formerly Master-in-charge of the Preparatory School.

Three very valued members of the committee gave notice of their retirement at the Annual General Meeting last year. Firstly, Mr. F. E. Piper, Q.C., a past president and member of the School Council, who had been on the committee for more years than most of us could remember. Mr. Piper was appointed a Queen's Counsel in 1953, and was awarded the C.B.E. in 1956. He is a past president of the Law Society of S.A., and has been for many years president of the S.A. Lawn Tennis Association. Secondly, Senator Rex Pearson, also a past president, and one who had a long term on the committee. Senator Pearson was formerly a member of the State Parliament, and is now a prominent member of the Senate in the Federal Parliament. He has, over the years, given many interesting addresses at old boys' luncheons in the city, and at re-unions in the country. Thirdly, Mr. Harry Williams, who was a most conscientious and hard working member of the committee. He served on numerous sub-committees, and is a past president of the Parents and Friends' Association.

Sports

PERSONAL

Dene Perrott (Captain), Brian Dyke and Bob Skinner were members of the State Athletic Team. The club has had a most successful season, details of which appear under the heading Athletics Club Report.

Ern. Dawkins, of Gawler, first gained selection in the States Bowls team when only 33 and has been in ever since. He was formerly a prominent footballer and cricketer—a dislocated knee forced his retirement from those sports.

Mr. Clarrie Tideman, a life member of the S.A. Amateur Football League, commences his thirtieth season as treasurer of that body.

Peter Michelmore, who was in England for some years, is now prominent as a feature sporting writer for "The News" and "The Sunday Mail." He formerly played football for the Old Scholars' team.

Clem Blanche, a former Interstate player, is now treasurer of the S.A. Water Polo Association.

Peter Humble was a member of the Adelaide Rowing Club crew which won the State Senior Eight rowing title. It was the club's first victory for eighteen years.

In addition to Ern. Dawkins, N. W. Royal, of Caltowie, was selected to represent South Australia against Victoria in the Interstate bowls match, and also played for the Combined Country Team against the city. Other old scholars in the country team included R. M. Tiddy, J. Harkness and L. C. Greenslade. Dr. M. W. Evans was a member of the city team.

Don Candy won the South Florida Tennis Championship, was runner-up in the Florida West Coast tournament, and reached the semi-finals of the University of Miami tournament.

Doug. Young, of Wilkawatt, won the country singles title. This was his first victory, but his third successive year as a finalist. He was also successful in the doubles title.

Brian Hurn was selected in the S.A.C.A. team which played against a combined country eleven. Playing for the combined country side in the same match, Peter Eaton scored 66. Graham Fuller was appointed captain of the team, and is a former captain of the school first eleven. After leaving school last year, Hurn has had remarkable success with Senior Colts and finished third on the District cricket bowling averages.

Don. Gunning was a prominent member of the Yorke Valley team which played in the Country Cricket Carnival.

Peter Eaton scored a century for South-Eastern against Upper North in the Country Cricket Carnival.

Ron. DeGaris was captain of the Millicent team in the Country Cricket Carnival.

Ron. Curtis, playing for Kangaroo Island in the Country Cricket Carnival, took 14 wickets for 26 runs off 13 overs in the match against Alfred District.

Bill Johnson, Norwood footballer, was runner-up in the State Close Tennis Championship, and with his partner, was successful in the doubles.

Barry Sumner reached the semi-finals of the Men's Plate in the Close Singles Championship.

Geoff. Burfield was a member of the University rowing crew which won the maiden eights and junior eights in the annual Mercantile Memorial Regatta.

During the indisposition of the chairman, Councillor Jack Glover has been acting as Deputy Chairman of the Adelaide Racing Club.

Ian Day and Dean Collins won the Strathalmond Australia Golf trophy for the four ball best ball competition between pairs of C.O.R. employees. The match was played at Royal Melbourne.

The Headmaster, Mr. J. A. Dunning, who is on the Ground and Finance Committee of the S.A.C.A. is a Vice-President of the Adelaide Turf Cricket Association. In the same Association, Don. Bartlett is Vice-Chairman, and a member of the Executive Committee. Lloyd Letcher is a member of the Finance Committee.

Don. Bartlett, Chester Bennett, Bob Gibbs, and Don. Davies were selected to play in the Combined Turf Association team which defeated Senior Colts. Ray. Lyon top scored for Senior Colts in this match and Chester Bennett did likewise for the Turf side.

In the Victorian Amateur Athletics Championships, Malcolm McLachlan won the junior shot put. His distance was 48 feet 6 inches—7 feet better than his nearest opponent.

Mr. Tom Cooper has now joined the select band of big game fishermen who has caught a shark weighing over 2,000 pounds on a 39-thread line. He is a former treasurer and committee man of the Game Fishing Club of South Australia.

Vin. Nimmo represented South Australia in the bowls match against New Zealand.

Prior to the District premiership match, John Lill, Captain of University, headed the District cricket batting aggregate with 605 runs.

John Ducker was selected in the Sheffield Shield side for several of the matches in Adelaide, and also went on the Eastern States tour.

Kensington scrambled into the final four after defeating University outright due to a whirlwind partnership by Brian Pittman and partner who scored 36 runs off the last three overs of the day.

Colin Webb, former State batsman, made a century retired for the Executor Trustee Co in their annual match against Elders Trustee Co.

Bill Leak, a former Talbot Smith trophy winner, gave special coaching to the S.A.C.A. schoolboys' squad on fielding during the Christmas holidays.

John Pitman and partner were runners-up in the men's doubles of the Insurance Institute Tennis Tournament.

Jim Freeman, a former Commodore of the S.A. Speedboat Association, and now President of the S.A. Council of the Australian Power Boat Association, has been prominent in races this season. His boat is called the Southern Maid.

The Crossing family have for many years been prominent in racing circles at Broken Hill and the West Darling. Mr. Ron. Crossing is the Association Branch President at Broken Hill.

FOOTBALL

The football season for 1957 is upon us again and the Old Scholars' Club will be fielding two teams in Amateur League.

We have been extremely lucky in maintaining our A team in grade A2, the B's will be playing in grade A5.

For many years this club has been rather inactive. Socially, however, under the impetus of our "evergreen" Leighton Williams, we will be holding many and varied functions throughout the year.

Another "evergreen," Peter Dalwood, has been appointed coach of the club for this season. Under his wise and experienced tuition both teams should finish well near the top this year.

Of course, before we can achieve success in either our social or premierships aspirations we must have the active support of both young and old old scholars. The young for our premierships hopes. The old to enable us to make a financial success of our social functions and to assist us in capable administration of both our teams. There has been for many years now a great need for an older old scholar to accept responsibility for our 'B' team at its Saturday matches. If there are any old scholars who can help in this respect or any younger ones who are interested in helping in any way with the club, contact the secretary, Ian Murkey, W5192 or U5209.

CRICKET CLUB

The Old Scholars' Cricket team again competed in Grade A1 of the Adelaide Turf Cricket Competition this season.

At the end of the minor round the team was lying fifth on the premierships table with two outright wins, two first innings decisions, and seven losses.

Our skipper, Chester Bennett, once again topped both the batting average and aggregate with Peter Dalwood a close second. It was pleasing to note that the bowling average went to one of our younger players in Bob Gibbs, whilst Don. Davies took out the aggregate. Murray Wellington also performed well with the ball.

Several of the younger members of the Old Scholars' Association turned out with the team this season, performing creditably, and we are hoping that this encouraging trend will continue next year.

The following are the main batting and bowling averages:

BATTING

TENNIS MATCH v. SAINTS

Some good tennis was witnessed at St. Peter's College when the annual match was played on Wednesday, 27th March, in very pleasant weather. This Association was represented by G. Battye (Captain), W. Johnson, R. Lock, D. Rowe, G. Schwartz, D. Babidge, A. Morris and T. Richards. The match was again closely contested. At the end of the first round the scores were two rubbers all, with Princes one set up. A fine win by Gordon Schwartz and Bill Johnson in the second round after being 5—3 down in the second set and having lost the first set, kept us well in the picture. The rubbers were again halved in the second round and we eventually won 4 rubbers 10 sets 93 games to 4 rubbers 9 sets 76 games.

In the evening a dinner was held at the Hotel Rundle, with the President of Saints (the Hon. Mr. Cecil Hincks) in the chair. also present were Mr. F. E. Piper, Q.C., the President of the S.A.L.T.A., Mr. Phil. Clark, Senior Vice-President of this Association, Mr. Bob Barwell, Chairman of S.P.O.C., other members of the Association Committees, and the teams. After the Loyal Toast the Chairman welcomed everyone and congratulated Princes on their victory. He also thanked Mr. Piper for what he and the members of his various committees had done for tennis in this State. Mr. Piper responded and referred to the prominent part which old boys of both schools had played in tennis in this State over the years. The Chairman then presented the E. T. Rowe Trophy (a handsome cup) to Mr. Phil. Clark, who, in the due course passed it on to Gavin Battye. Both he and John Mehaffey (Captain of Saints) offered congratulations to their opponents and referred to the wonderful spirit in which the games were always played, and hoped the match and the dinner would be continued for many years.

Full details were as follows:

G. Batty—R. Lock	lost to J. Mehaffey—G. Kerr	3—6, 2—6
G. Batty—R. Lock	lost to C. Mehaffey—D. Forster	5—6, 6—5, 6—2
G. Schwartz—W. Johnson	defeated D. Forster—C. Mehaffey	6—3, 6—4
G. Schwartz—W. Johnson	defeated J. Mehaffey—G. Kerr	5—6, 6—5, 6—2
D. Babidge—A. Morris	defeated K. Bowman—A. Wilson	6—3, 6—2
D. Babidge—A. Morris	defeated G. Whitehead—J. Selth	6—0, 6—1
D. Rowe—T. Richards	lost to J. Whitehead—J. Selth	6—1, 5—6, 3—6
D. Rowe—T. Richards	lost to K. Bowman—A. Wilson	1—6, 5—6

BOWLS MATCH v. SAINTS

This very popular fixture was, as usual, played at South Park, on Wednesday evening, 27th February. The weather was excellent and the competition very keen. Princes avenged their defeat of the previous year—as the first scores came to hand the points were fairly even, but Princes improved later and a big win on one rink put the issue beyond doubt—the final scores being P.A.O.C. 202, S.P.O.S. 167. This year two rinks between the officials of the two Associations were played and it was again very pleasing to have the Headmasters of both schools (Mr. C. E. S. Gordon and Mr. J. A. Dunning) playing in those rinks. Princes were successful in these two matches, but the scores are by arrangements with both Associations, not included in the match scores. At the conclusion of the game supper was served on the verandah when Mr. Bob Barwell (Chairman of Saints) presented the shield to Mr. Colin Hassell (President of Princes) and offered congratulations on their victory. Mr. Hassell responded, and a general vote of thanks was extended to South Park Bowling Club for once again allowing us to play the match there. The ladies had supper in the club house, and the Committee extends a very welcome invitation to any ladies who would care to come along on future occasions as guests of the two Associations for that evening.

CLOSE BOWLS MATCH

This very popular function was held at the Toorak Bowling Club on Wednesday, 13th March. Although a good deal of rain had fallen during the day, the evening was fortunately fine and the greens appeared to be in excellent condition. The President (Mr. Colin Hassell) addressed members before the start of play, and members then set to—some to settle old scores. The President of Toorak, Dr. Mervyn Evans, skipped a rink against a committee rink which included the Headmaster, Mr. J. A. Dunning. The winners (i.e. the rink winning by the biggest margin) on this occasion were Messrs. G. Ryder, S. Walker, O. South, and N. Rutherford. A young old scholar in Wilbur Harvey won the "spider," which was decided at the close of play. Everyone then adjourned to the club house for supper, which had been provided by the ladies committee (with Mrs. Gaetjens as convener) as had also the floral decorations. During supper the President thanked the Toorak Club for once again allowing us the use of their greens and club house. Dr. Evans in responding, commenced with "Gentlemen and Masters," and said the club was very pleased to have us there and hoped we would continue to hold this function at Toorak. The President then thanked the ladies' committee, and the sub-committee (Messrs Bon Gaetjens, convener, Phil. Clark and Colin McKay), for making the arrangements. He then presented the winning rink and the winner of the "spider" with O.S. ties, and "ordered" them to the kitchen to help with the washing-up. Finally he thanked everyone for their attendance and said he hoped to see them all next year.

Any Old Boy who has not played previously in this match (and he need not be a regular bowler) and who would like to do so is asked to forward his name to the secretaries. The committee was pleased to see some ladies present and desires it to be known that it would be pleased to welcome any others who might care to come along.

RUGBY

Rugby is on the up grade, and the Old Collegians' Rugby Club intends to play its part in the building programme. Last year, we were successful in winning the "A" grade Premiership, and this year, with almost the same players, and near the same number, the Club will in all certainty try hard to maintain a high standard of play.

Two teams have been entered into the competition rounds, and if sufficient players are available a third team appears likely to be formed.

We are fortunate in again having Dr. Michael Hone as coach—he did a splendid job last year with the teams. Two Old Boys, Blair Nienaber and David Sheppard, played well to receive the trophy for best player 1956 in "A" and Reserve Grades respectively, and we had a fair representation from the club in the State team matches last year.

Any new faces are welcome out at practice on the back oval at Princes, Tuesdays and Thursdays at 5 p.m. A few have already appeared from among the number of boys who have recently left school. If any Old Boy is at all interested in the game, would he please contact the secretary, John Sheppard, 126a Woodville Road, Woodville, who will be pleased to hear from you.

ATHLETICS CLUB REPORT

The Athletics Club to date has had a most successful season. We won the cup presented to the team gaining most points—for place-getters—in the State Championships by a clear margin.

At the time of writing, the Club is at the top of the premiership table in the Inter-club competition, and we are hopeful of maintaining our position.

Congratulations to Dene Perrott, Bryan Dyke, and Bob Skinner on being selected in the team to represent South Australia at the Australian Amateur Athletic Championships in Melbourne. We are very proud of the fact that three of the team of nine were Old Reds!

Congratulations also to Dene Perrott on being elected captain of the team.

South Australian Championships

Once again this meeting was held on the University Oval and our boys took many honours. As the track was somewhat spongy the times recorded were not as fast as the standard of the runners warranted. Altogether the Old Collegians' Club took 16 State titles, 11 of which were Junior and Sub-junior.

Kitto showed fine style in winning the Junior Hundred, whilst Page was narrowly defeated by J. Keenan, a Victorian, in the 880, but he is nevertheless State titleholder. Graham Taylor performed admirably in gaining the Junior long jump and hop, step, and jump titles.

In the field games Koch followed up his Victorian success by winning the discus and the shot-put with a record throw.

In the Sub-Junior events, Hannaford took all the honours, winning four events, breaking one record and equalling another.

SENIOR EVENTS—

- 100 Yards—2nd, T. Siegele.
- 220 Yards—2nd, T. Siegele.
- 120 Yards Hurdle—1st, R. Skinner; 2nd D. Perrott; 3rd, D. Fox. Time, 15.5.

- Hop, Step, Jump—2nd and Residential Titleholder, G. Taylor.
- 220 Yards Hurdles—2nd and Residential Titleholder, D. Walsh.
- Discus—1st, B. Koch; 2nd, G. Taylor.
- High Jump—2nd, M. Aitken.
- Shot Put—1st, B. Koch.
- Mile Medley Relay—2nd, P.A.C. (Harris, Kitto, Hannaford, Taylor).

SUB-JUNIOR EVENTS—

- 120 Yards Hurdles—1st, I. Hannaford 16.2 secs. (record).
- Broad Jump—1st, I. Hannaford. 21 ft.  $\frac{1}{2}$  in. (record).
- Shot Put—1st, I. Hannaford. 40 ft. 2 in.
- High Jump—1st I. Hannaford. 5 ft. 4 in.

Victorian Championships

At this meeting, held over the Australia Day week-end at Olympic Park, we were represented by three members, two of whom returned with Victorian titles.

J. B. Koch was victorious in the junior shot-put, winning in fine style by some five feet.

Malcolm McLachland, who is now at Duntroon, won the Junior 120 Yards Hurdles Championship, whilst G. J. Page, who was forced to run senior, ran his fastest 880 time of 2 mins. 0.4 secs. in his heat.

Page is also to be congratulated on his inclusion in the State team for the Australian Championships, in which he was again unfortunate in drawing by far the fastest heat for the 880, thus being eliminated from the final.

ATHLETICS CLUB

STOP PRESS: It is very pleasing to report that on Saturday, 30th March, the Club won its first premiership at the Western Districts track when they defeated Saints in a very close contest and thus won the Oriental Shield the final scores being 112 points to 106. Though Saints won eight events, Princes with their more even team often took the minor placing in these events. The team got away to a good start with first and third placings in the 100 yards (Siegele and Perrott), first and second placings in the hop, step and jump (Taylor and Dyke), and first and second placings in the 220 yards hurdles (Perrott and Bob Skinner). Then Saints took a hand, including all three places in the mile. Princes again took the lead with first and second in the 120 yards hurdles (Perrott and Hannaford). Harris was just beaten by Gregory in the 440 yards flat, and excitement ran high when the teams took up their positions for the medley relay. Page, Harris, Perrott and Siegele ran like men inspired, and defeated a very strong Saints combination. This win, together with Koch and Dyke taking second and third placings in the shot put, made the issue beyond doubt. Dyke was a tower of strength all the afternoon with a first, two seconds, and two thirds,

Interstate Branches

BROKEN HILL

The Branch President is Mr. Ron. Crossing. The Secretary is Mr. Jack Prider of 2BH Broken Hill.

Arrangements are in hand for the Annual Re-union Dinner, which will be held on Thursday, 25th July, to coincide with the Adelaide function. Dr. Bill Dorsch, who is leaving the district, will carry with him the good wishes of every Old Boy of the Branch for success in his new practice.

VICTORIA

The Branch President is Mr. Howard Manuel of No. 22 Jolimont Street, East Melbourne.

The Branch Secretary is Mr. Neil Effick, of 90 Beach Road, Sandringham.

Annual Golf Match—The annual match against Saints' Old Boys was held on Sunday, 4th November, 1956, again at Riversdale Golf Course. It was a beautiful day and the course was in excellent condition.

We hit off at 10 a.m. and after the first nine holes we adjourned to the dining room where we were served with a first-class chicken dinner.

Only three official matches were played as, although Princes had nine players present, the opposition could only manage six. Nevertheless it appears that quality not quantity was the order of the day and Saints finished victorious, two matches to one. The private match between the three left-overs resulted in a victory to John Rowland by a margin we would rather not disclose. The nineteenth was well played by all players, and proved an excellent finish to a most enjoyable day.

Annual Cricket Match.—The gods were not at all kind to us in regard to the annual match against Saints Old Boys, which had been arranged on Saturday, 15th December, 1956, at Grimwade House. Although the forecast was for rain, we awoke to a lovely morning and were full of hope. But this was dashed when at one o'clock it began to rain cats and dogs, and did not let up until late in the afternoon. Better luck next time we hope.

Personal.—Rob. Hill, one of our stalwarts from the country, has received a transfer back to Melbourne, and his address is now C/- Dalgaty & Co., 461 Bourke Street, Melbourne.

QUEENSLAND

The Branch Secretary is Mr. P. D. Coles, Room 12, Fourth Floor, National Mutual Building, 293 Queen Street, Brisbane. Telephone B 8017.

Monthly luncheons are held on the last Thursday of each month at the Commercial Travellers' Association Club, Elizabeth Street, Brisbane.

NEW SOUTH WALES

The Branch President is Dr. Henry L. Brose, Clithero, Reid Park, Mosman, New South Wales.

Mr. E. A. Kesting, who has been Branch Secretary since 1940, has reluctantly announced his resignation of this office, which all who have been associated with him, know he has carried out with great credit to himself and the marked benefit of the Branch. He has kindly offered to carry on until a successor is appointed.

Correction to October, 1956, issue: "E. B. Wreford has been transferred to the National Bank at Reservoir, Victoria, as manager" not "E. C. Gifford has been transferred to Queensland, etc. . . ."

Personal—W. A. W. Lang writes that he regrets his inability to attend our functions as it is not possible for him to visit the city at night. He says he meets Xavier Seppelt each week, and left school in 1889.

R. Wilson is another old Old Boy who has found he has had to discontinue some of his activities as he writes to the effect that his 82 years are starting to play up with him.

K. E. Hockley is welcomed to Sydney, having been transferred here by the A.N.Z. Bank.

Bruce Heath merits our congratulations on being appointed to the managership of the new branch which the National Bank has recently opened at Rydalmere.

Will Ashton now advises that his wife is making slow but steady recovery from the serious illness which befell her in October last year. She became ill a few days prior to the sailing of the s.s. "Kanimbla," on which she and Will intended to sail to Western Australia for a long-awaited holiday.

The Art Gallery of Western Australia had recently secured a second example of Will's work, and he had been invited to give a public address to mark the occasion. Unfortunately all this, including the trip, had to be cancelled.

Family Barbecue—In response to a request that an opportunity should be provided for Old Boys and their families and friends to meet, it was decided to hold a barbecue. This took place in November last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Buring, who very kindly and graciously made their barbecue available for the purpose.

Leo lives at Leonay Chateau, Emu Plains; far enough away to provide an enjoyable drive through the country, and near enough to allow sufficient time during the day for social enjoyment around the barbecue which was beautifully situated in Leo's lovely garden and private zoo.

The arrangements for the day were in the hands of an enthusiastic barbecue sub-committee comprising Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tuck, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Fuller, and Peter Tanner and his fiancée.

Eighty-five Old Boys and their families and friends attended. The weather was perfect, and the day was thoroughly successful, so much so that after passing an appreciative vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Buring for their kindness, it was decided to make the barbecue an annual event.

Birthdays Luncheon—On Thursday, 18th October, 1956, we held a luncheon at the Hermitage Restaurant, in honour of the 80th birthday of Leo Buring, which he celebrated on 7th October.

Leo, as Managing Director of Leo Buring Pty. Ltd., is the grand old man of Australian wine makers, and as such has carved a particular and well-known niche for himself in the life of Sydney.

He has been married for fifty-four years to the former Ida Sobels, herself a member of a well-known South Australian wine-making family.

Our President, Dr. Henry Brose, presided at the luncheon and proposed the toast of good wishes to Leo, ably supported by Les Cowan.

The luncheon was notable for the fact that another member was present in Maurice Ralph who is 82 years of age, and we took advantage of the occasion to say farewell to Jim Grant, who is leaving Sydney to live in New Zealand, owing to ill health. We are all extremely sorry to have to lose sight of Jim Grant, who has been a good companion and a staunch supporter of the Branch. Jim's address is now 40 Koraha Street, Remuera, Auckland, N.Z.

WESTERN AUSTRALIA

The Branch President is Mr. R. H. Buttery, C/- Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society Ltd., 55 St. George's Terrace, Perth.

The Branch Secretary is Mr. L. E. Thurston, 11 South Terrace, Como.

Bowls Match—For the first time since the commencement of this annual fixture we were able to beat our old rivals Saints, the final scores being Princes 96, Saints 41.

Buffet Tea—On Saturday evening, the 23rd March, a very successful Buffet Tea was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Waldeck. This was a combined function with our old friends, Saints, and there was an attendance of approximately seventy members and wives and friends.

Cricket Match—Once again this game was played under ideal conditions on Saturday, 2nd February, at Christ Church Grammar School Oval, Claremont, and after one of the closest and most exciting matches for years we won by two wickets and two runs. The score board read:

London Branch

Dr. Stanford Howard, of 49 Wimpole Street, London, W.L., is desirous of meeting all Old Boys who may be visiting London.

Committee Visits School

The Headmaster (Mr. J. A. Dunning) extended an invitation to the committee to attend morning assembly at the school on Wednesday, 14th November, 1956. This annual event is a great privilege and of great assistance to the Association, and your committee is always grateful to the Headmaster for his help and support in this matter. After morning service the Headmaster welcomed the President (Mr. Norman Todd) and other committee members, and extended congratulations to the President on his successful year of office. He asked the boys to remind their fathers or relatives, who were old scholars, of the annual meeting of the Association which was to be held the following evening. He then asked the President to address the school. Mr. Todd first thanked the Headmaster for the opportunity of speaking to the boys, and then went on to detail the various activities of the Association, covering the sporting clubs, Old Boys' Week, monthly luncheons, re-union dinners, contests against Saints, etc. He congratulated Holland, the editor of the Chronicle, and said that what the school does is of interest to all old boys. He urged all boys leaving the school to join the Association, as in some measure the strength of the school is in the strength of the Association, and that what we have achieved in the past has been through enthusiasm and co-operation, and that the success of each year inspires the success of the next year. In conclusion he wished the first eleven the best of luck in their match against Saints.

The Headmaster thanked Mr. Todd for his thoughtful address.

THE HISTORY OF THE COLLEGE

Old Scholars are reminded that copies of Mr. Ward's most interesting and valuable book of the first eighty years, 1867-1948, of Prince Alfred College are still available. No Old Scholar can afford to be without a copy of this valuable record. Copies are available bound in red cloth at £1/1/-, plus 6d. postage. Order forms are available from the Association Secretaries, 77 Grenfell Street, Adelaide, to whom remittances may be sent.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Subscription for life membership is £10/10/-.

TOKENS AND TIES

Supplies are now available for Association members.

Tokens are available at £1, and new Association Ties are 12/6 for woollen and 5/- for silk.

EDUCATION FUND

This fund has been raised for the purpose of educating the children (boys and girls) of Old Boys who lost their lives on Active Service.

Messrs. C. J. Glover, N. S. Angel and L. B. Shuttleworth have been appointed trustees to administer this fund, under direction of the Association Committee.

Several children are now receiving the benefits of this fund and making satisfactory progress. Arrangements are in hand for others to attend in the near future at Prince Alfred College or Methodist Ladies College, or other approved school.

All enquiries should be addressed to the Association Secretaries, 77 Grenfell Street.

MONTHLY LUNCHEONS

The Monthly Luncheons are now held at Balfour's Cafe, King William Street, on the third Tuesday in each month at 1 p.m., and satisfactory attendances have been maintained. Interstate and country members are especially invited to attend when visiting the city.

Interesting addresses have been given by following guest speakers:

Mr. F. E. Piper, Q.C., "Preparation for the Challenge Round of the Davis Cup"; Senator R. W. Pearson, "My Impressions whilst Abroad"; Dr. W. A. Dibden, "Aspects of Modern Care of the Sick"; Rev. C. J. Perry, "An Australian's Impressions of England"; Mr. R. Horton Wallman "The Olympic Games in Australia."

The Committee is again indebted to Mr. David Clarkson for having arranged the programme of speakers.

SPORTING CLUBS BALL

The Cricket, Football, Athletics and Old Collegians Rugby Clubs have combined to hold a ball at Burnside Town Hall on Wednesday, 15th May, 1957. Invitations will be issued shortly and will be distributed by members of the above sporting clubs.

ASSOCIATION BLAZERS

Blazers are now obtainable by members of this Association, but a certificate of membership must be obtained from the Association Secretaries.
