Planning for the RED Centre

2013 has been another significant year in the life of Prince Alfred College. The College has been a leader in the education of boys since 1869 and we remain committed to the development of the Princes Man — intellectually developed and all-rounded, ready and able to contribute to his community and the world.

At the beginning of the year, the College began the implementation of its Strategic Plan 2013–2015 titled Boys First. The Strategic Plan identified areas for continuous improvement and new initiatives in our goal to sustain and improve the College for the benefit of the boys and the College community. Six priorities for our development to 2015 were determined after a six month consultative process during 2012. We remain guided by our Vision, Purpose and Values and project the College forward to sustain a culture of achievement and wellbeing. Our six strategic priorities are in the key areas of learning and achievement, wellbeing and character, participation and engagement, community and culture, communication and connection, and space and place. Overall there are 15 strategies, each supported by a number of specific actions which project us into the future. Each action is sponsored by a member of the Executive, and we have seen considerable progress in the implementation of the Strategic Plan during the year.

During the year I was privileged to attend two international conferences of significance to our Vision and Purpose here at Prince Alfred College. The International Boys' Schools Coalition Conference titled Brother to Brother — Looking In, Reaching Out was held in Richmond, Virginia.

The major focus of the keynote addresses and the workshops was on the importance of wellbeing in a boy's education. Character development was strongly emphasised in relation to achievement, communication, participation and relationships. It is not only character development in young men that is important, but the development of character in a school. It is ultimately the school's reputation which is the strongest determinant of an effective school. I was particularly impressed with a number of presentations on innovative models of schooling. These reinforced the initiatives included in our current Strategic Plan. The importance of internationalism was identified as an important trend for schooling.

The second conference, for Heads of IB Schools, was held in early October and focused on the impact of digital learning, and also reinforced the importance of wellbeing, particularly adaptability, resilience, creativity, and self-awareness. A 21st Century education needs to have the right mix of knowledge, metacognition, and the development of both skills and character. A keynote speaker of great significance was Alan November who spoke to his newly-released book Who Owns the Learning? He reinforced the shifting of the control of learning to the student and the recalibration of schools. In this century, schools need to commit to the development of life-long learning and new skills such as creativity and problem-solving. Learning in this century also needs to consider brain-based learning technologies, use inter-disciplinary projects effectively and ensure that collaboration is the norm.

On 30 April the whole school and some three hundred special guests gathered for the official opening of our new $15 million RED Centre. This magnificent facility was opened by old scholars Ian and Trevor Chappell, two of Australia's most noted cricketers. Unfortunately, their brother Greg, at late notice, was unable to join with us for this event. I pay tribute to the Building Committee of the College Council and to our Project Manager, Mr Alan Daws, for their commitment to what is the most significant building project in the history of the College since the completion of the Main Building in 1885. On the same day, we were pleased to open the Old Collegians and Cooper Family Sporting Hall of Fame which features more than 500 State and National sporting heroes of our College. The Arrowcrest Aquatic Centre is now home to Kent Town Swim, an exciting community initiative for Prince Alfred College.

A significant initiative in 2013 has been the development of a Wellbeing Framework for our College. The Framework is based around our vision for Inspiring Excellence and the notion of the Princes Man, and reinforces the critical link between teaching and learning and wellbeing. Teaching and learning at Prince Alfred College is an interactive process in which teachers engage with students in an ongoing quest for understanding that with effort and application translates into expert knowledge, transferable skills, and productive attitudes for life-long learning. Hand in hand with our commitment to teaching and learning, is a recognition of the importance of wellbeing programs which support the physical, cognitive, emotional, social, and spiritual development of boys. A strong sense of wellbeing fosters a love of learning and the personal growth of the well-rounded Princes Man.

Our Wellbeing Framework identifies six traits of the Princes Man: character, connection, competence, confidence, courage, and compassion. In 2014 the Framework will be implemented across the College from ELC to Year 12, and also applied to our school community of boys, parents, staff, and old scholars. I express my sincere thanks to Mr Sean Watt and members of the Wellbeing Directorate who have worked throughout the year to develop the Wellbeing Framework. Mr Watt is to be congratulated on his involvement in the International Boys' Schools Coalition Action Research Project which is investigating character education in boys' schools, and also for his development of a Wellbeing Workshop for the International Baccalaureate Organisation.

The Directorate of Teaching and Learning has been strengthened in 2013 under the strong leadership of Mr Kelvin Sparks, Director of Teaching and Learning, and his assistants Mr Martin McKinnon, Mr Jeremy Rylatt, and Mrs Joanna Cardinal. The work of the Directorate this year has seen further development of the teaching and learning leadership model which seeks to support the curriculum and teaching and learning needs of our three schools, Preparatory, Middle and Senior. The Directorate has also translated our model of teaching and learning for staff, known as Princes Pedagogy, into something more appropriate to the boys. Six elements of learning are now established to guide the boys in their learning, and they are: investigate, create, solve problems, reflect, collaborate, and communicate. These are designed to support our boys in our vision for Inspired Excellence, and to maximise their academic potential.

The Year 12s of 2012 achieved highly commendable results which saw over 6% represented in the top 1% of the State, more than 25% in the top 5% of the State, and 63% in the top 20% of South Australia. For the first time, three students were awarded Dux of the College — Tien Chen and Dao-Shi Guo in the International Baccalaureate Diploma, and Shashank Murali in the South Australian Certificate of Education. Each of these young men achieved the maximum possible ATAR of 99.95 and a minimum of five subject merits. The E.B. Colton Prize for Proxime Accessit was awarded to Daniel Foo who achieved an ATAR of 99.90 and three subject merits. Shashank Murali was one of only 25 students in the State selected for the Governor of South Australia SACE Award. 39 students were welcomed into our Over 95 Club for their success in achieving in the top 5% of the State. There were 27 merit scores achieved by students who studied the SACE and 23 for those who completed the International Baccalaureate Diploma.

Once again, the significant majority of our students were granted places in tertiary institutions across the nation. Nicholas Broadbridge won an Officer Training Scholarship to the Australian Defence Force Training Academy in Canberra, and George Burford and Kong Kea Phon were both awarded scholarships at Le Cordon Bleu Australia. We congratulate Jack Kelly, Corey de Candia, and 2011 graduate, Kieran Altmann for their success in being offered places at international universities. Corey accepted a Tennis Scholarship to Winthrop University, and Kieran was accepted into the prestigious New York University School of Film and Television. Jack Kelly, a member of our First XVIII Football team, Captain of Boats, and a member of a Head of the River winning First VIII crew, was offered Ivy League scholarships to Yale, Princeton, and Columbia Universities and has accepted an Academic and Rowing Scholarship to Harvard University. We also congratulate Jonathan Colak who was awarded the Vice-Chancellor's Scholarship to Bond University on the Gold Coast.

Our vision for Inspiring Excellence, which creates a challenge for every boy regardless of his ability, has been tested across the school. In the RACI Chemistry Quiz, five Year 12 boys achieved Distinctions, and eight boys High Distinctions. Hank Ly and Henry Bui were the highest achieving students across the nation, as was Louis Xiao in Year 11. Seven Year 11s achieved Distinctions and five High Distinctions and two boys in Year 10, Jack Geyer and Hrshikesh Rajaram gained Distinctions. There was similar success in the Australian Mathematics Competitions, best illustrated by Henry Bui who received a Distinction in the Australian Mathematical Olympiad Senior Contest which is a selective competition for 100 senior students Australia-wide. William Cheng finished in the top 1% of the Australian Mathematics Competition and four other boys received High Distinctions finishing in the top 3%. In the South Australian Mathematics Competition, Henry Bui came equal fourth and William Cheng equal seventh. In the Australian History Competition for Year 10 students, Tri Nguyen gained a High Distinction, and seven boys a Distinction. At Middle School level, two boys in Year 9, Nathan Doun and Eddie Han, achieved at the highest level winning a Prize Award, joined by five boys with High Distinctions. Eddie Han in Year 9 was First in the State in the Intermediate Division of the State Mathematics Competition. Prince Alfred College students have continued to display their academic abilities in a wide array of subject competitions, including the Science Olympiad, the Science and Engineering Challenge, and the annual Olive Awards, of which two students achieved first prize.

Preparatory School boys achieved our best result ever in the IPSHA Poetry Recital Competition with Edmund Black and Elias Raptis taking out first prize in the Year 5 and 6 Competition. Preshaan Thavarajah received a prize for the second year running in the Australian Mathematics Competition with the school achieving two High Distinctions and 20 Distinctions in the Primary Competition. Of the 42 boys who entered the ICAS Science Competition, we achieved one High Distinction, eight Distinctions, and 21 Credits. Blake Cranna won first place in the Year 6/7 category of the Olive Science Award and Joshua Fedele was awarded the Australian Society of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology Prize for Science Writing.

In September we were thrilled to hear that old scholar from 2007, Maresh Umapathysivam, had been awarded the South Australian Rhodes Scholarship for 2014. Maresh, a medical student, will study a Masters of Evidence Based Health Care at Oxford University. He will take an internship at Queen Elizabeth Hospital next year before travelling to the UK where he will study at the Oxford Centre for Diabetes, Endocrinology and Metabolism. Maresh is our eighteenth Rhodes scholar.

2013 has seen considerable success in Public Speaking. Theodore Squires, Year 12, won the Senior Division of the King's Speech Competition for the third year in a row, and was awarded second place in the Rostrum Voice of Youth and Plain English Speaking Award. Five boys, Shaun Gerschwitz, William Campbell, Cale Amos, Tim Hobbs, and Andy Nguyen represented the State in the National United Nations Youth Conference and also made the State Finals in the UN Youth Evatt Trophy Competition. Blake Cranna won the King's Speech Award in the Preparatory School, and Thomas Johnson won the Lodge Short Talk Competition. I express my sincere thanks to Mr Mark Bailey for once again coordinating our annual King's Speech Competition in tribute to old scholar, Lionel Logue.

Our concept of one College and Three Schools has been strengthened throughout the year. I express my thanks to the Preparatory School leadership team led by Mr Neil Andary and Mr Sean Watt, and in the Middle School Mr Peter Karamoshos and Mr Beau Muzik, and in the Senior School Mr Nicholas de Dear and Mr Mark Dell'Oro. From the beginning of Term Three, Mr Neil Andary assumed the role of Deputy Headmaster/Head of Schools in support of our one College approach. We extend our best wishes to Mr de Dear who leaves the College at the end of this year to take up the role of Head of Senior School at Caulfield Grammar School in Melbourne. Mr Peter Karamoshos concludes his term as Head of Middle School and will move to Pedare College to be Assistant Head of Senior School next year. We thank him sincerely for his contribution to the first five years of development of a Middle School at Prince Alfred College. There is now a strong sense of identity amongst the boys and staff at Preparatory, Middle and Senior school level which seeks to cater specifically for the unique age-related needs of the boys.

This year we were pleased to welcome Mr Darren

Roylett as Head of Boarding. Darren was previously the Head of Boys Boarding at Westminster School and prior to this was involved in boarding at Canberra Grammar School. The Boarding House has been full this year with boys from across the State, Western Victoria and New South Wales, the Northern Territory, and from overseas. The annual Boarders' Herald, distributed on Boarders' Day, gave a full account of the activities and achievements of our boarding community. I express thanks to Mr Stuart Murdoch, who has been the President of the Boarders Parents Consultative Committee this year.

Our academic program is balanced by a comprehensive co-curricular program which has allowed our boys another opportunity for success and to grow and develop their confidence and competence. 2013 is perhaps our most successful year for Music. At the Generations in Jazz National Festival held in May, Big Band One competing in Division One, was awarded equal third out of 11 schools, which is our best-ever result against the nation's best, including many special-interest music schools. Big Band 2A came fifth out of 25, Big Band 2B 20th out of 25, and our two Division Three Bands were placed fifth and seventh respectively. Big Band Four which comprised boys attending their first Generations in Jazz Festival, came a creditable 14th out of 24. The highest individual award possible is the Future Finalist which is only given to the top six or seven students of the nearly 3000 students who attend the festival. Two of our Year 12 students, Matthew O'Brien and Trevor Adelson were selected for this honour by festival host, James Morrison. Congratulations also to Brandon Reynolds who was selected for the Division Two Superband. Congratulations also to the Jazz Choir who performed at the festival for the second time.

Prince Alfred College bands performed strongly at the State ABODA Competition and achieved Gold, Silver, Bronze or Merit standard in every category. Gold Awards were won by the Intermediate Band, Senior Band, and Big Band One and Big Band Two. Our Strings Ensemble gained a Silver award and Big Band Three a Bronze award. Big Band One was the best band from an independent school in South Australia, beaten only by two special-interest music schools. The annual All That Jazz concert was held at the end of Term Three to a full crowd of parents and friends of Music at Princes. James Morrison, was our special guest, and inspired our bands to perform at their absolute best. Our success in Music is attributed to the passion and dedication of our Director of Artistic Performance, Mr Andrew Newhouse, with dedicated support from Mrs Kerry Peterson.

Our sporting highlights for the year include winning the First VIII of the Head of the River regatta for the second year in a row, winning the Intercollegiate Tennis Cup for the seventh year in a row, and the Intercollegiate Hockey for the sixth year in a row, and being runners-up in the SSSSA Knockout Football Cup. The Prince Alfred College Tennis team won the National Tennis Team Championship and represented Australia in the School Sport Australia International Tennis

Federation World Challenge, coming in twelfth place. Apart from winning the Head of the River, our First VIII was awarded the Champion Schoolboy Crew of 2013 and the PAC Rowing Club won the Rowing SA Schoolboy Super Series Premiership for the second year in a row. Our First XI Cricket team were runners-up in the SAAS One-Day Knockout Final and were quarter finalists in the Messenger Press T/20 Competition. The First XI Hockey team were runners-up in the State Knockout Cup, following up from their championship win in 2012.

Football at Princes continued to be a highly successful sport which saw us losing to Sacred Heart in the Knockout Cup to be runners-up for the season. Prince Alfred College lost the Intercollegiate Football Cup to St Peter's in a hard fought contest under extremely difficult and wet conditions. Interest in Rugby has grown and our Under 16 team were runners-up to CBC in the grand final. In Soccer, Lachlan Duffy was judged as the best player, John Dongas the most consistent player of this year's Intercol, and Tyson Bateman won the coaches award. PAC lost the Soccer Intercollegiate 3-1. In Squash we proved to be the strongest schoolboy team in the State. PAC fielded two teams in Division One and were runners-up and winners respectively. The 9A team and Year 7/8 team won their grand finals.

Our Intercollegiate matches with St Peter's College are always a highlight of the year. Overall, PAC won 16 matches and St Peter's College 16 matches. Both schools express their sincere thanks to all players and coaches for their commitment to the high standard of sporting prowess evident in the Intercollegiate games. These matches are a great source of school pride.

There were many individual sporting achievements of great note. Tyson Beauchamp and Nicholas Parletta were outstanding rowers and contributed to our success on the water this year. Tyson was selected in the Australian Junior Development Team, and Nicholas in the South Australian Youth Olympic Squad. Both were presented with Honours Colours for Rowing. Three of our Tennis players gained State and National success. James Ma was awarded the Independent Schools Sports Association Player of the Year for most wins in the season at number one. Li Tu and Kurtis Willson competed in the Mildura Open with Li winning the singles and the doubles with Kurtis. Kurtis also won the doubles of the Gallipoli Youth Tennis Cup, an International Tennis Federation Under 18 Tournament. Three footballers, Campbell Combe, Cameron Giles, and George Hewitt, were awarded Honours Colours and were selected in the South Australian Under 18 Football side which won the overall competition. Our two best hockey players for the season were Simon Brown and Dalton Casey who were selected for the State Under 18 team. Dalton was also a member of the State Under 21 Hockey team. Other State representatives in sport included Joel Thiele and William Daniel in Cricket, James Cleggett in Indoor Cricket, Sam Jackson and Sebastian Higham in Water Polo, and Jared Lundy who was named the Male Coxswain of the Year. In the junior years, Daniel Sladojevic was selected in the SAPSASA Football team, Joshua Cameron was selected into an elite swimming talent squad, Angus Marshall and Joshua Benn played in the State Soccer Carnival, and Charlie Keeves, Cormac O'Brien, Ethan Brewerton, Angus Chalk and Harrison Cerchez were all represented in the East Adelaide SAPSASA Hockey side.

The Prince Alfred College Chess team followed on from a highly successful season in 2012 with further acclaim this year, which saw them winning the Intercollegiate contest, Secondary Division One, Primary A Grade, and the E.K. Primary Shield. Both the Senior and Junior teams will represent South Australia in the National finals to be held in December. The overall success of the teams has much to do with the combined efforts of Mr Peter Serwan and Mr Richard Thorne who deserve our heartiest thanks.

PAC fielded ten Debating squads in the Senior section of Debating SA in 2013. Our 42 speakers came from across the Middle and Senior Schools — from Junior 6/7s to our talented Year 11s who formed the Senior team. Warm thanks must go to the conscientious coaches. Ms Sandra Caudal, Ms Deb King, Ms Mani White, Mr Mark Wilde and Mr Greg Zheng have been dedicated guides to our students and a marvellous support to the Coordinator/Coach, Ms Marilyn Hunt.

Other elements of our co-curriculum have also seen inspired excellence in the form of Shades of Red, our literary journal, the Jack de Vidas Art Prizes, the Year 12 Design Exhibition, and drama performances such as the Year 7 play of Robin Hood and His Merry Men. This year saw the 69th edition of the Science Journal, which is once again a unique publication of student writing and research.

Prince Alfred College is blessed with excellent outdoor education facilities at Morgan on the River Murray and Point Turton on the Yorke Peninsula. The Scotts Creek Outdoor Centre, under the leadership of Mr Micha Jensen, continues to provide unique opportunities for our students from Years 4 to 8 and also leadership development training for our

Year 11 students. The Extended Stay experience at Wambana is an exceptional program catering for the unique social, emotional, physical and intellectual development of adolescent boys. Mr Dale Hobbs and his team are once again to be congratulated for their work in this area.

This year there were a number of overseas excursions including a Father and Son trek in Nepal, and a language and cultural trip to France. An Outdoor Education trip to New Zealand and a Basketball Tour to the United States will be held in December. I thank the staff involved in these programs which are an important component of the extra-curriculum here at PAC.

Community Service activities have become an important feature of the educational experience at Princes. In support of Year 7 student Hamish Greenslade, more than $14,000 was raised for the Leukemia Foundation through the World's Greatest Shave. Nearly $17,000 was raised for the Starlight Foundation through the Year 7 Billy-Kart Challenge as part of the Clipsal 500. The Year 10 Community Service program in Terms One and Three saw our boys working with charity groups and agencies from which they gained a better understanding of their responsibility to others, and their role in society. The fathers and sons involved in the Nepal Trip raised $4,000 to donate to the Himalayan Education Foundation which was founded by old scholars Mr Duncan Chessell and Mr Greg Perks. The Preparatory School boys continued with their mighty contribution to Community Service through activities such as Walk a Mile in My Boots for the Hutt Street Centre and Relay for Life. Over our three years of participating in the Cancer Council fundraiser we have donated more than $30,000. The boys also supported the Uniting Church with the NSW Bushfire appeal.

Student leadership across the College has continued to meet the high expectations set by predecessors. Simon Brown has been an outstanding Captain of School, with strong support from Vice-Captain Charlie Hall and the Prefects. The Wellbeing Wall developed as a Prefect initiative, will be a lasting testimony of their leadership ability and commitment to the College. The Captain of the Middle School, Zachary Heim and Vice-Captain Alasdair McFarlane, have shown strong leadership and represented the Middle School effectively in all public events and been an important conduit for student voice throughout the year. Similarly, the leaders in the Preparatory School headed by Captain, Charlie Dangerfield, and Vice-Captain, Charlie Keeves, have worked closely with Mr Andary and Mr Watt on many diverse projects. The Boarding House Prefects and House Captains have made an equally important contribution to the College.

An exciting initiative in 2013 has been the Nation2Nation project. Chaise Eade and Shae Haseldine, along with Bridget Mason and Tikari Rigney from Seymour College, have pursued a dream to visit the United States of America and visit the nation's capitol as well as work with the National Congress of American Indians. This indigenous leadership program has been strongly supported by the PAC Careers Counsellor, Ms Monica Magann.

Prince Alfred College is a highly diverse educational environment, including the Early Learning Centre, the Out of School Hours Care program, and a large School Operations staff in support of our teaching and learning program. The College community is also expansive, including the Parents & Friends Associations (Preparatory and Senior), the Old Collegians Association, and the Foundation. The P&F, led by Mrs Lisa Rasheed and Mrs Rachel Walsh, held a highly successful Quiz Night and a number of other events to raise both friends and funds in support of the boys. The PAOCA has been led ably by its President, Mr John Jovicevic, along with Vice-Presidents Mr Thomas Huxtable and Mr Andrew Clarkson. This year, reunions and gatherings of old scholars have been held throughout the State, in every capital city and around the world in New York, London, and Hong Kong. The inaugural Old Scholars Dinner in New York saw 30 former scholars attend with old scholar from 1945, Mr Brian Skinner, offering the Toast to the School. The Honourable Alexander Downer was the guest at the Annual Dinner where over 400 Old Reds were present. One of the highlights of the year, the Old Old Boys Assembly was this year held in the RED Centre to accommodate the growing number of old boys who began at the College sixty and more years ago to join with the whole school from Early Learning to Year 12. The Prince Alfred College Foundation contributed $3.5 million to the cost of the RED Centre and I express sincere thanks to the President, Dr Janet Young, and the committee.

There is no question that the effectiveness of Prince Alfred College is dependent on one major factor and that is the quality of the staff, both teaching and non-teaching. I thank each and every employee for their commitment to our vision of Inspiring Excellence and their dedication to our purpose, to maximize every boy's academic potential and to enable his all-round development. To those staff leaving the College, Mr Shane Reidy, Mr Alex Crawford, Dr Andrew Randell, Mr Nicholas de Dear, Mr Peter Karamoshos, Mr Graham Baird, Mrs Mon Saunders and Ms Patricia Cook we extend our sincere thanks and best wishes for the future.

The College has been governed well this year through the dedicated efforts of Chair of Council, Dr Ben Tidswell, and by Mr David Sanders as Treasurer, and Mr John Keeves as Deputy Chair. The three Council Committees of Finance and Audit, Risk and Compliance, and Building have worked tirelessly in the best interests of the College. I thank all members of Council for their commitment and express thanks to retiring members, the Rev Rob Williams and Ms Karen Tierney. At the November meeting we welcomed Dr Deidre Palmer who has recently been appointed as Moderator of the Uniting Church Synod of South Australia. I pay further tribute to Dr Ben Tidswell, who steps down as Chair at the end of this year and also to Mrs Margaret Gleaves who has undertaken the demanding role of Minute Secretary for Council and its Committees throughout the year. 2013 saw the establishment of the Prince Alfred College Advisory Committee under the leadership of Mr David Hallett, which has led to improved governance procedures initiated by a new Constitution which has operated since the start of this year.

Finally, I pay tribute to the College Executive, the three Heads of School, Mr Neil Andary, Mr Peter Karamoshos and Mr Nicholas de Dear, the Executive Director School Services, Mr Steven Bacon, Director of Teaching and Learning, Mr Kelvin Sparks, and the Director of Organisational Development, Ms Terry Learmonth. In recent years the College has adopted a model of distributive leadership which has been demonstrated competently by the Executive and members of the Senior Management team.

2013 has been a highly successful year at Prince Alfred College and we look forward to the year ahead as we continue our mission to develop the Princes Man. In October I was thrilled to receive an email from an old scholar of 2009 who said, 'Ever since leaving the College, I have considered it my mandate to exemplify to the world the values of what it means to be a Princes Man. A Princes Man carries himself into the world with a level head, driven by a robust heart. He has a keen analytical eye and yet is able to show compassion and empathy. He continually questions things around him, until he is satisfied with his understanding and explanation. The Princes Man has no colour, no creed. He comes from all walks of life and holds insignificant wealth or social status. He is able to connect with all people on their level; he is an organizer, a facilitator and a leader. He is a creative thinker and solves problems with an acute sense of justice. He is forever learning, forever growing, and forever building a better world for his fellow human beings. Fac fortia et patere — do brave deeds and endure, or as more recently and simply enunciated, go beyond, encapsulates this perfectly.' I cannot think of a better measure of our standing as a great school. With best wishes to you all for a Happy Christmas and successful New Year.

School Captain's Report

Inspiring excellence: a phrase that epitomises Prince Alfred College. Princes is a school that stimulates excellence in all facets of learning, be it sport, academics or the arts. It is not simply a school looking to educate its students, but to ensure they are given opportunities to develop and grow to their full potential. As Princes men leave the gates for the final time, they know they are prepared for the challenges that life throws at them.

As we near the completion of another year at Prince Alfred College, we are able to reflect on what became of 2013. This has been a year to remember at PAC. It has been a year full of new challenges for the teachers and students alike, sporting achievements and academic success.

The official opening of the RED Centre, with special guests including Ian and Trevor Chappell, was an outstanding event that will be cherished in the College's history. This state of the art facility provides the students with fantastic opportunities to be able to grow and learn in the best possible environment.

Another highlight of the year, especially for the senior students was the formal. The 007 themed night, headlined by an Aston Martin in the dining area, proved a great way for the students to relax after a busy first term and also to support the cause of violence against women through the white ribbon foundation.

Our sporting teams have continued to achieve excellence throughout this year. The 1st VIII rowers enjoyed a much deserved second consecutive Head of the River win. Our 1st XVIII football team enjoyed much success throughout the regular season, narrowly losing the State Knockout Final to Sacred Heart and suffering defeat in the Intercol against counterparts Saint Peters College.

The 1st XI hockey team continued in their winning ways, with a record seventh straight Intercol win. Unfortunately, the boys were unable to retain the State Knockout Title, with a tight 2-1 loss in the final against specialist sporting school, Henley High School.

Our music department has continued to thrive throughout 2013, with great success at the annual Generations in Jazz Festival at Mount Gambier. Playing in division 1 against the likes of renowned music schools such as Marryatville and Wesley College, PAC Big Band 1 placed third making them the 3rd best school big band in Australia, a truly fantastic achievement. This result is a credit to the dedication from both the boys and director Mr Andrew Newhouse.

The school has continued to support the community through events such as Relay for Life and has remained involved with the annual trip to Cambodia and fundraising for Habitat for Humanity. This gives students the opportunity to help those who may be less fortunate and is something we can be proud of as we move through our schooling.

I would like to thank the other 17 prefects for what has been a fantastic year. There is no doubt that through our team work and commitment to each other, we have had a positive impact on both the school and wider community. I would also like to thank my Vice Captain of School, Charlie Hall. It has been a pleasure to work with him throughout the year and his support and has been outstanding. I have been lucky to share this role with such a great mate and I have really appreciated his constant hard work this year.

My appreciation also goes to Mr Tutt, Mr Parker and Mr de Dear for their mentoring and advice throughout the year. It has been a privilege to be able to learn from their leadership and is an experience I will value for the rest of my life. This year has given me the chance to give back to a school which has given so much to me and for that I am very thankful.

Prince Alfred College has been such an important part of my life and with the support of students and staff I can take pride in walking out of the same gates I walked through five years ago, as a Princes man. There is no doubt that Princes is a school which allows its students to prosper and I have been privileged to be able to attend a school of this quality. I wish the best of luck to all of the students for the remainder of this year and the future. I have witnessed first hand the hard work the year twelves have put into their studies this year and I'm sure this will pay off in their exams in the coming weeks.

College Captain

Patricia Cook

Throughout the nine years that Trish has worked at Princes, we have seen many changes within the way the Operations team perform to deal with events and day to day requests. Trish has truly been a front line soldier in the development of our strong team. Many times Trish has come into work, out of hours to ensure that events run smoothly and always strives to show the College in a good light to our guests.

We speak for the entire College when we say we will miss you, but you leave us in the knowledge that you have made a difference to Princes and that our College is a far better place now, than when you first commenced here. We wish you all the best in your retirement and we are sure that whatever you decide to do, you will as always give it 100%.

Nicholas de Dear

After five years we say farewell to Nicholas de Dear as he returns to his native Victoria and takes up his new position as Head of Senior School at Caulfield Grammar. Since 2009, Nick was the co architect of a number of initiatives in a reconstituted senior school model within a three school structure.

As the foundation Head of Senior School, Nick was instrumental in the introduction of a revitalized culture which led to a rapid improvement in student academic achievement at Prince Alfred College. He is an astute man whose insights to education and the development of adolescent boys and young men set him aside at Prince Alfred College. His thoughts regarding educational issues were clearly expressed and realized and, importantly, always taken from the perspective of what was best for the boys. A determined and forthright person, Nick would always clearly present his views and opinion with professional courtesy and diplomacy.

On behalf of the school we would like to thank Nick for not only his professional leadership and guidance but also for his wonderful sense of humour and patience. As a passionate Richmond supporter he will need every bit of it!

Andrew Randell

There are many people at Princes that make this school a special place for not only the boys but the whole community. This year we farewell one of those people as Dr Andrew Randell leaves the College after four and a half years of dedication and service. Andrew joined us in July 2009 as the Director of Rowing and brought with him a veritable boat load of experience and enthusiasm for which the PAC Boat Shed is truly thankful.

Under his direction, the PAC Boat Shed has flourished. This is evidenced not only by record numbers in the shed, but back to back First VIII Head of the River wins. However, Andrew never focused solely on the major prize but worked hard to foster a sense of pride and camaraderie in all teams which bred further success in many junior crews. Not only an outstanding role model for our boys, Andrew has implemented a number of improvements to the rowing programme including an overhaul of the fleet, renovations to facilities, the GAP student programme and introducing Year 7s to rowing. Andrew's skills extend beyond the waterfront, and as inaugural manager of the RED Centre he has helped develop all aspects of health and well-being in our boys.

The rowers may not have always appreciated the early morning starts, but Doc's enthusiasm could always liven up their blurry eyes with his classic motto, 'Sleep when you're dead'. As he glides off into his future, we wish him all the best in his new role at the ACT Academy of Sport and we are confident that his legacy will live on in the many students he has inspired in our community.

Shane Reidy

Shane Reidy commenced his employment at Prince Alfred College in 1991, joining Philip McLaughlin and Richard Bauman in the Technology faculty. Shane was employed due to the retirement of Frank Kitto, who taught at the College for 20 years.

Shane predominantly taught Year 12 Woodwork and introduced Photography at Years 8 to 10 in his early years. Throughout his career he has taught in all Technology areas and has served as the Technology Coordinator, Head of Technology and Senior School Teaching and Learning Leader. Shane was also the Oldham Housemaster in 2003 and then became the Head of Taylor in 2004–2007.

As Shane originated from Port Lincoln, SA, he had an instant connection with the boarding house and its boarders. He tutored in Rushton House for over 10 years and also ran Friday night Boarders Technology classes for his entire 23 years at the College.

Shane's contribution to the Technology faculty and wider school community has been exceptional and will be sorely missed by his colleagues.

We wish Shane and his wife Sandy, all the best in their retirement.

Peter Karamoshos

After more than a decade of service to Prince Alfred College we bid farewell to Peter Karamoshos. Peter has been an inspirational teacher, leader and colleague during his time at Princes.

Peter started at Prince Alfred College in 2002 as a Teacher of Mathematics. Very quickly his ability was recognised and the following year he was appointed as Head of Mathematics, a position he served in until 2006 when he took a leave of absence and moved, with his family, to teach at the Australian International School in Singapore.

Peter returned to Prince Alfred College in 2009 as the foundation Head of the newly formed Middle School. He has been the driving force behind the development of the Middle School, working tirelessly to establish an identity and sense of community. Peter has been instrumental in initiating such successful Middle School Programs as the Wambana experience, the International Baccalaureate Middle Years Program (MYP), eduKART and eduCOOK. These programs will continue in the years to come and are a shining example of his creativity and leadership.

Peter is a man of integrity and commitment. He is been an outstanding role model for the young men of the Middle School as well as the teaching staff.

On behalf of the whole school community I would like to thank Peter for his many years of service to the school. His passion, leadership, patience, sense of humour and collegiality will be missed. We wish him well for the future.

Alex Crawford

Alex was appointed to the position of College Printer in 1996. He came to Princes from the Government Printer where he had accumulated many years of knowledge. Alex has provided loyal and dedicated service to the school and members of the wider community. His expertise has been greatly appreciated and the myriad of material he has produced over the years is astounding.

Alex has had to use patience, humour and ingenuity when called upon to meet deadlines, deal with machinery breakdowns in the middle of important productions, and particularly when unkind comments have been made about his beloved soccer team, Charlton FC. We thank Alex for his contribution to the College over many years, and particularly his warm friendship during that time. We wish him every enjoyment in his life 'after Princes'.

Graham Baird

Graham Baird spent 17 years dedicating his professional life to the students and staff of Prince Alfred College. Graham (or more affectionately known as 'Bairdy'), has made a significant impact on thousands of boys' lives. Arriving in 1997, Graham taught Physical Education and Biology and after a few years took on the Head of Department role in Physical Education.

His co-curricular contribution was immense.

His love of Basketball saw him take over the coordination of the sport. He spent ten years in charge and during this time he enjoyed taking a team of boys away to the USA on two occasions to represent the College. Graham spent eight years as the Coordinator of Swimming and five years as the 2XII Cricket coach. He was a Year 8 Tutor for ten years and during this time enjoyed the annual camps at Scotts Creek and Goolwa. One of his greatest highlights was coordinating the Outreach Camp, a mentor program where Year 11 boys support children with disabilities. But his greatest achievement and contribution has been his time spent at Wambana.

His last five years were dedicated to working with Year 9 boys and guiding them through the physical, social and emotional challenges of the Wambana Program. A man of high integrity and strong Christian faith, Graham has conducted himself at the highest level of professional standards. We will miss Graham's selflessness and compassion and we wish him well in the next chapter of his life, enjoying his grandchildren and travelling the world.

Monica-Liese (Mon) Saunders

Monica-Liese (Mon) Saunders joined Prince Alfred College in October 2005 to take up the position of Marketing and Communications Officer. Mon's background was in marketing and public relations and she brought to PAC skills in media relations and print publications. She was instrumental in the success of the Clipsal 500 project which involved students enjoying the excitement of contact with the racing drivers through visits to Pit Straight. Mon's focus was in getting Princes name 'out there' through advertising, press releases and one-to-one contact with journalists and media personalities. Mon has moved to Seymour College as Director of Marketing and Communications.

From the Chaplain

It has been said community is something we all long for. We long to be a part of something bigger than ourselves, to love and to be loved, to give to others, and to receive that greatest of gifts — friendship. The notion of belonging, of being part of a community, is something that is very real here.

Weekly chapel services in the Preparatory School continue to provide a basis for exploring what it means to be a community. Friendships don't just happen; they have to be worked at and nurtured. To have a friend, one needs to be a friend. To be a friend, one needs to live out values such as respect, patience, honesty, and compassion. Each week, chapel has invited reflection on themes such as

'calling people to do what is right' and 'how should I live?' Throughout the year each class has had the opportunity to lead the chapel service on two occasions, taking a different focus as they unpack the theme.

Elsewhere across the College, time has been spent supporting staff, students and families, including the old scholar community. This has included counselling and general wellbeing support, hospital visits, weddings, baptisms and funerals.

It was a pleasure to represent the Headmaster at the PAOCA annual dinner in Canberra this year. I continue to note the depth of the friendships and networks that have been established amongst the old scholars, arising through one's time at the College as a student. This is particularly evident on occasions such as The Old Old Boys Assembly, the Vintage Reds lunch, and the annual Old Scholars Dinner; events that I have the privilege of attending.

The PAOCA annual service which, this year, included Reverend Brian Polkinghorne (PAC 1953-54) sharing about his work in Tanzania and his ministry. Other special occasion services this year included the Ex-Prisoners of War Association of SA annual memorial service, which we have been pleased to host for the last 14 years.

Early Learning Centre

2013 has been another year with lots of fun filled experiences which are the basis for how our ELC children learn and develop. The children have enjoyed participating in many classroom activities as well as extra curricular lessons in PE, Chinese, Music and Library. We are certainly fortunate to have the resources of the school available to us to be able to offer these experiences. The extensive program we offer is often the reason families place their children on our waitlist from the time they are born!

This year we have commenced with some new initiatives including a collaborative leadership style to manage the centre. The Early Learning Centre Executive Committee was formed with representatives from both the School Executive, the Preparatory School and each year level within the ELC. This has given all staff, both teachers and co-educators, the opportunity to have a voice in centre decisions.

We have also embarked on an expansion to the centre with building works already begun that will add an additional three classes as well as another undercover play area. This has been an interesting time working around builders, classes needing to swap rooms and getting children to sleep to the sound of jackhammers! It will, however, provide an extra 45 places per day that should help to alleviate our extensive wait list and give the two year olds a more extensive play area.

As part of our expansion we are looking at redeveloping our outdoor play space to make it even more challenging and inviting than it is currently. Our staff have attended a variety of professional learning opportunities during the year including several on "Developing Inviting and Engaging Learning Spaces" and are currently working together to achieve this. I am sure 2014 will bring with it many more exciting challenges and changes.

Princesses Tea Party

Every year in the ELC we focus on "Being, Belonging and Becoming" through the Early Years Learning Framework as we explore a unit relating to the most important people we know — our families. This year our unit "Our Family Album" provided the children with the opportunity to talk about their families, learn about the cultures and celebrations of other families and make strong connections between how families help us to grow and shape who we become. This type of unit helps strengthen the important partnerships with families and our wider community. Throughout this unit we also took the time to celebrate and share special events with our families such as Grandies Day, Princesses Tea and the Big Boys Breakfast.

On Thursday 9 May the ELC gathered in the Piper Pavilion in a sea of pink to say a very big thank you to our wonderful Mums for all they do for us. It was a perfect morning to treat our Mums like a Princess with handmade tiaras, gorgeous portraits and even a pamper parlour! The morning was shared with over one hundred very special Mums listening to their children sing a selection of songs before shared a delicious morning tea complete with jam and cream scones and pink milk!

A highlight of the morning was a visit to the Pamper Parlour where the latest designs in nail art were carefully applied to every Princess! It certainly was a wonderful way to say thank you to our Mums. During the morning we also highlighted the wonderful work the Women's and Children's hospital do, to support all South Australian families and raised over $980.

A Mother holds her child's hand for just a short time, but holds their hearts forever. Unknown

My Mummy has legs. Bones and eyes too. My Mummy has spikey hair. I love to play train sets with Mummy. Her name is Talia. Spencer

My Mummy is called Ola. She takes me to the Sellicks house and we go swimming. She helps me make things for show and tell. Mummy tucks me in at night Ammar.

One leg, two legs. Draw a face, eyes and eyebrows. Now her hands and her fingers. Now I've done my Mummy. Mummy to da supermarket Domenic.

Langley Room

Through our unit of inquiry, Paddock to Plate, we have been investigating where different farm produce comes from, how it travels from the farm to the shop or market and then how we make raw ingredients into other food products.

The Langley children have been particularly interested in where milk comes from. Through their small world farm animal play, the children have been exploring the cow figurines and trying to work out where the milk comes from. Patrick discovered something very exciting about the cow this morning. He had turned the cow upside down and brought it over to his teacher, keen to know what the bumps underneath were for.

Lots of other children gathered around as the teacher explained that it was called an udder and the little bumps were called teats. We talked about how the cow's teats are where milk comes from and decided to have a look on the computer to see if we could learn more about how a cow is milked.

The children gathered round the computer, keen to further develop their understanding. We found some fantastic clips of cows being milked manually and by a machine. As the children watched the videos, they began to talk about what was happening.

Toby Noble and Angelina Lindop are preparing to pamper their Mums

Zander Zacharia and Loukas Tsarnas preparing seedlings for the garden

From the sharp bits, Bernie explained to the other children where the milk was coming from.

Milk, Archie observed. Fill the bucket, he continued as he watched the farmer hard at work milking the cow.

Milk, Caitlyn agreed watching intently to see what was going to happen next.

Milk, from the cow Lachlan explained. That's not a pig, he continued with a giggle.

It doesn't come from a pig, it comes from a cow, explained Bernie.

We have also been exploring where different raw ingredients, fruit and vegetables come from and how they are grown. To explore the concept of growing and caring for different raw ingredients, we have developed our own vegetable patch so that we can water and tend to the garden and then eat some of the fresh grown produce. We grew some spinach in our garden and picked it. Sterling suggested that we cook the spinach with some eggs. As we cooked, we discussed what we were doing and where the ingredients come from.

Who knows what these are? Asked the teacher.

Eggs said Knox.

Eggs agreed Jaanav.

Where do eggs come from? Questioned Miss Kerry.

Easter bunny, suggested Jack.

Chickens, disagreed Oscar.

Spinach, agreed Sterling.

Look at that, that's butter! Lachlan shouted out as he pointed to the bowl.

It's from my house, Mummy get it from the shops, explained Jack.

You buy it, then it's yours, continued Lachlan, a farmer brings it to the shop he continued.

Sheep suggested Lachlan.

A cow thought Oscar.

Cow milk Angus R.R. agreed.

Mead and Cooper Rooms

In term two, as part of our PYP unit entitled From Paddock to Plate, the three year old children from the Early Learning Centre excitedly ventured on an excursion to the Animal Farm Barn in the Onkaparinga Hills. Throughout the unit the children explored how food stuffs are grown or made, the journey from farm to market, and using raw products.

We were lucky with the weather, as the forecast of rain was proven incorrect; however the children wore gumboots and raincoats in anticipation. The children spent the morning meeting a variety of farm animals, including goats, guinea pigs, ducks, sheep and geese. The children learnt about feeding and tending the animals, and then had the opportunity to make delicious pig cakes

(with grains, molasses and hay) to feed the pigs. They were gobbled up very quickly! The children also were given the chance to ride on ponies and tractors.

The children had a wonderful time. Here are some of their observations at the farm.

Chickens lay eggs every day, and they hatch, commented Toby.

We get ham from the pigs, Tom added as he fed his pig cake to the pigs.

I think that I don't eat pig cos I celebrate Eid, explained Ammar.

We eat bacon from a pig, said James S.

A cow gives us milk, added Jarrah.

Chapple and Edgerley Rooms

As part of our unit From Paddock to Plate, the children all brought in a plate of their favourite party food and were asked to explain how it was made and where the ingredients came from. We shared the food and our portfolios with our parents. It was a lovely morning.

Sausages rolls, my mum made them with some this (points to pastry). I'm going to have a taste of one. It comes from a cow. Cause (because) it's a roll. Crust, it's crust on the outside. Sugar is the green stuff. It's green sugar Seb M.

It has a hole in it and you push right into it. They are sprinkle cupcakes. We do eat them but at bedtime we don't eat them. Everyone all eat those cupcakes Liam G.

These are my new cupcakes they have tatanas (sultanas) in them. They come from the bakery. Just tatanas. No flour or meat. And eggs, we made the eggs into cupcakes. And if you love it you can eat it! Markis K.

Chippies. They are just plain ones with a bit of salt. Well I got it from a big packet and there is still more. And the packet came from the petrol station. I think they I don't know how they came in. They are like this kind of colour inside and when you eat them they stay in the same colour on the inside. It's not healthy. I don't think these chips have potatoes in them. I don't know where they came from or how they got made Samuel S.

The 4 year old children spent a great deal of time inquiring into Mr Wagenfeller's lunches. After eating his chicken and rice we posed the question, How does this food get onto our plate?

Rice is from a rice farm Sebi R.

Rices comes from a shop then a cooking machine, then a box and a man — he brought it to the rice shop, all the way to the beach Rocco.

But it's from the rice farm — there's water and it's salty. My mum told me Sebi.

Mr Wagenfeller cut all the things up. He got it from the shops. The farmer brought it there. There were dead chickens there. But the peas and carrots are from the fielders Angus K.

But our highlight was cooking, cooking and more cooking! We didn't stop. We made pasta, pizza, Polvoron, bread, jelly, pikelets and lots, lots more.

It is said that there are two ways of dealing with people: one way is to control them, the other is to respect them. By controlling, you weaken the will of the other person. By respecting, you acknowledge the other's personal will. In one case, you make a person a slave, in the other, you make him a partner."

From: The soul of a butterfly — reflections on life's journey
— Muhammad Ali

Each day I am faced with choices, as are we all. As parents my wife and I constantly struggled with the freedoms and allowances we offered our children; how we dealt with their constant demands for all things material and the want for them now! As a school we too have to deal with these same demands.

Social commentator Zig Ziglar once said...The chief cause of failure and unhappiness is trading what you want most for what you want right now."

As a College we are honoured to partner with you in the education of your son. Today, more than any other time, an education is more than books and pencils or even computers.

What a school says and does defines it. Our vision is to inspire excellence. Each of us will have a slightly different version of what inspiring excellence looks like, feels like, sounds like.

Just over 6 years ago I was lucky enough to become the 10th Head of the Preparatory School. It was during my first address to the school in 2007 that I shared Ali's words as a foundation of the partnership we share — one built of respect, tolerance and a common goal.

In that address I spoke of 4 pillars

- Fostering the growth of the whole child — his self esteem, resilience and independence.
- Providing a safe and happy environment with clear boundaries and expectations.
- Ensuring opportunities are available to demonstrate leadership and responsibility, in preparation for a life of service.

- Development of a curriculum that captures the hearts and minds of boys and young men.
- Fostering creativity and challenging the unchallengeable.

These are what I want most for the boys in the Prep School. I also spoke of my belief that our charter for the future is to raise the standard of outcomes for all boys.

Have we done this? How will we know? These are important questions and cannot be simplistically measured by a NAPLAN score. Indeed what we define as outcomes will be different for us all.

Unequivocally, my definition is not one based on one year or one subject or one event. It is not based on whether a boy completed his homework or his spelling assignment on time. This is what we may want now but is it what we want most?

As educated people we (you and me) remember schooling in a system largely reliant on rote learning for tests that apparently set us up for success in high school and lives beyond it. Did it? Was it the spelling or the maths or the chemistry? Yes in part it was. So too were many other unwritten and ungraded lessons. What lessons truly helped you become successful? What successes do you want for your son?

How we measure our success at inspiring excellence here at Princes is somewhat problematic. But in a vain attempt, let me share some parting words of last year's College Vice Captain, Harry Barnes, who incidentally, was the 2007 Waterhouse Captain here in the Preparatory School. At the 2012 Year 12 Valedictory assembly Harry shared with his cohort, (Middle and Senior school students and Year 12 parents) these words...

"I remember that first day, I walked into [our] Year 5 classroom, the emotions swirling and grinding inside of me. I, along with many of the new boys that day, consumed by the whirlwind of excitement and apprehension almost found the experience, overwhelming. Everything was so foreign, yet the comforting, warm exuberance of [the teacher] and the other boys, meant that we instantly felt much more comfortable. We could see ourselves getting used to this place, and as the days turned into months, and months became years, what started with a shy, stuttered step into the school, is ending with a bold, defiant leap into the future.

Whatever moment provides you with the fondest memory, or for you, defines this group as a whole, I would like to suggest this: each aspect of the night's sky carries a unique level of importance. In the full glory of the sky, millions of stars exist. Some are hidden behind the dark clouds. Some are always shining. Some are shooting stars. At Prince Alfred College, each student carries a unique level of importance. In the full flourish of this mighty school, hundreds of students exist. Some overcome challenges. Some lose track of their path. Some excel on the sporting field and some shine in the classroom.

I would like to use some words from an unknown source. To be a star, you must shine your own light, follow your own path, and don't worry about the darkness, for that is when the stars shine brightest." We as individuals in a cohort, have all at some stage in our journey, experienced this darkness. We know that there will be challenges that lie ahead, darkness will again gather around us, yet we, through Princes, have built the courage to give light to a new path.

When I reflect on what made our journey great, it is not just the students and their ability to have risen to various academic or co-curricular challenges. I have previously spoken of opportunity, of guidance, and now, when I think of the staff at Princes, the same words come to mind. The Southern Cross in the sky is powerful in guiding those to their destination, it never leaves, and it is never too dark to make a positive impact, or to guide someone who is lost. That is the essence of the Princes staff. It would be self-indulgent to make special mention of anyone in particular, and to truly list all those who have impacted on this cohort, even in the slightest way, would be impossible. For your unwavering commitment to getting the best out of us, we sincerely thank you. You have empowered this cohort to achieve. Achieve we have, and achieve we will.

Now, eight years later, the churning stomach is back, but the positive emotions remain. The faces are no longer foreign, yet the warmth still exists. All of us in the class of 2012, have gotten so used to this place, that it is with great grief that we now must say goodbye.

As I look across at the boy's faces today, many possess that special twinkle in their eye. The memories of their journey, like a shooting star, flash before their eyes.

But I ask, what inspired these stars? What kept them burning so bright? What shaped their path, across the night sky? What allowed them to exist?

Since 1869, this school has empowered its students to do, to see and to make informed judgments on why. The answers to these questions are written in the proud faces of those old scholars who send their own children, and who continue to return year after year.

Princes Men, do not grow old with regrets. Find the things that make you happy in life and cherish them. This College's greatest satisfaction is not in accolades, but in producing men, that can impact for the betterment of the world".

I suppose this is how we inspire excellence — Helping each boy to become a competent learner, confident to tackle the unknown, compassionate in his attitude and understanding that, as Ziglar suggests, the chief cause of failure and unhappiness is trading what you want most for what you want right now".

A very big thank you to the P&F for continuing to support the Preparatory School and for your friend and fundraising within the College. We continue to strive for new ways to engage all families in school life and despite busy schedules, events such as the picnic, quiz night and sports day stalls were very successful. My thanks are also extended to President, Rachel Walsh and her team.

Again it has been an honour and privilege to be part of such a wonderful community. We have an amazing school, with amazing boys and amazing staff and amazing families.

Preparatory School Academic Report

As an International Baccalaureate school of over twelve years' standing, the factor that impacted most on the Preparatory School curriculum in 2013 was the advent of the Australian Curriculum. The Australian Curriculum has been, and in some subjects, is still being developed by ACARA, the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority.

In 2011, ACARA recognised the IB Primary Years Programme (PYP) as a well-established alternative curriculum framework that allows students to achieve comparable learning outcomes in English, mathematics, science and history, given the assumption that school programming and delivery of the PYP will address the Australian Curriculum content.

After careful analysis, we found that our curricula for maths and English are already closely aligned with the Australian Curriculum. Science, history and geography, however, are viewed as separate subjects in the Australian Curriculum, whereas in the PYP, these subjects are taught in transdisciplinary units of inquiry where they are integrated meaningfully. We have made relevant adjustments to our Programme of Inquiry in order to be in step with the Australian Curriculum in these three learning areas.

ACARA acknowledges the differences between the PYP and the Australian Curriculum, in particular that the PYP sees progression through developmental phases of learning rather than year levels. While we are required to report to parents against year level expectations, in our planning and preparation we find that the IB developmental phases of learning allow us to better differentiate instruction, especially for those students who exceed year level expectations or who struggle to meet them.

An exciting development with clear implications for our boys' learning has been the work across the College around Wellbeing. Brain research is unequivocally pointing to the strong link between wellbeing and learning. Simply put, anxiety or preoccupation with problems depresses the activity of the prefrontal cortex, that region of the brain involved in planning, decision making and learning. Groups of teachers with input from students and parents are developing wellbeing programs to support all boys' learning. It will be exciting to track these developments over the next year or two.

Boys in the Preparatory School continue to perform very well in external competitions. As usual, public speaking inspired excellence across a range of formats. The Kings Speech Award, launched in 2011, was won this year by Blake Cranna, while Thomas Johnson won the Lodge Short Talk competition. A large cohort of boys again nominated to join a debating team, giving the Preparatory School three A-grade and four B-grade teams. All these boys, who committed considerable time to refining their public speaking skills, performed with confidence and debated vigorously.

Preparatory School boys achieved our best results ever in the IPSHA Poetry Recital competition. Edmund Black and Elias Raptis took out First Prize in the Year 5 and 6 competitions respectively, while Rory Rasmussen came a very close second in the Year 4 competition. Poems by Preparatory School boys again featured in 'Shades of Red', the school's creative writing and arts publication.

In advance of 100 boys in Years 3–6 once again chose to take part in the Australian Mathematics Competition and the results were exceptional. For the second year running, Preshaan Thavarajah and Adam Black received prizes. William Finster received a High Distinction. Our boys were further awarded 20 Distinctions and 36 Credits. 42 of our boys also entered the ICAS Science Competition, garnering 1 High Distinction, 8 Distinctions and 21 Credits.

Preparatory School boys once again featured strongly among the prizewinners in the Oliphant Science Awards. Blake Cranna won First Place in the 6-7 Photography category, with Seran Perera third in the same category. Regan Nelson and Charlie Gibbon collaborated on a project that gained Third Prize in the R-2 Models and Inventions category. The Australian Society of Biochemistry & Molecular Biology Prize 3-5 was awarded to Joshua Fedele for Science Writing.

We work hard to continually improve our delivery of curriculum to our boys and help them to aspire to excellence.

Preparatory School Captain

2013 has been a great year for the school, because of the opening of the RED Centre and the swimming carnival in the new pool.

This year I started more nervous than usual because I never expected to become the Preparatory School Captain. However being the Captain has been both exciting and challenging because I got to work with different people such as Mr Tutt, the School Captain Simon Brown and the Vice Captain, Charlie Hall.

One of the best things about being School Captain is being able to have the opportunity to meet and talk to potential new families to the school and to give them my insights to the school such as all the different camps that we go on and what we do on camp, co-curricular sports and what sports

we have to choose from, the music program that Mr Newhouse runs, what runs well and doesn't in the school and how well the teachers know us as individuals.

I would like to share a couple of my highlights. The first is the unforgettable Mother and Son Dinner. It was so good seeing everybody dance with their mothers and even more funny that some of the mums remembered the dance moves to the songs. It was a great night. All of the sporting events made me even more proud to be a Princes Man because it was great to see everybody cheering on everyone else even if they weren't in their House and seeing all of the Year 6 boys take leadership on the day to help the Year 3s to get to their races on time. I would like to give a big thank you to all of the House Captains, Mr Weatherald and Mrs Trengove for helping out and making all of the sporting events possible and most of all, the boys for participating so enthusiastically.

I would like to say a special thank you to Charlie Keeves for helping me with things like the speeches I write, school tours, running the Assemblies and a lot more that I can't name because we would be here all night. A few important people I would like to thank are Mr Andary, Mr Watt, Reverend Dickens and Mr Behan for helping me with my duties throughout the year but most importantly I would like to thank all the boys for this wonderful year.

As the Year 6s graduate and we look forward to the upcoming challenge of the Middle School I would like to wish the Year 5s, soon to become the Year 6s, and the leaders in the Preparatory School all the best for next year...and remember the badge means nothing.

Reception

Play Investigation in the Reception Classes

In Reception at PAC we believe that learning through play is an integral part of a boy's social, emotional, physical and intellectual development.

Play supercharges learning, helps the boys relieve stress and connects them to others and the world around them. When playing in collaborative groups the boys are not only learning social skills and stimulating their creativity and imagination but they also have the opportunity to pose and solve complex problems.

1W IB PYP Learner Profiles and Attitudes Comments by the boys.

Henry Allen I'm good at lots of different things like sport and reading.

Edward Chapple I like being principled because I like to tell the truth.

Francesco Ciampa I know a lot of things from coming to P.A.C. like learning how to make things.

Marlon Condous I would learn from others how to play nicely.

Ethan Eckermann I'm a little bit good at taking care of the environment.

Lucas Jones I'm a risk taker because I try things I haven't tried before.

Hugo Knight I like to think a lot about lots of stuff.

Oliver Kreminski Trying to do new stuff is being a risk-taker.

Alan Lu Looking after others is being a carer.

Marc Milograd Playing sports and playing at home means I'm balanced.

Nicholas Palyaris People trip over and I help them like yesterday when Alan fell over.

Ryan Percival Being knowledgeable and helping people are things I like doing.

Angus Phillips I'm balanced because I like sports and I like writing.

Blake Roberts Inquirers find out new things that they don't know and that's what I do.

Mackenzie Roylett I solve problems for myself by thinking about them.

Thomas Stradwick I'm reflective because I think about things I do.

Reflection is an integral part of the learning process in Year 2, so we invited the boys to reflect on their learning within each Inquiry Unit.

Food, Fun and Fitness

The health expo was fun because it showed what we learnt.

Top Gear

In term one, we built cars to race for race day

The push car race was fun but it was hard to make the cars.

We had so much fun at the Clipsal 500 because we saw a real racer.

We had lots of fun watching the race.

Fables

We made a Dreamtime Story and had to guess the hidden message.

Aesop stories like the Turtle and the Hare have a message.

We were visited by Piluwuk. She explained how she lived and the boys enjoyed her visit.

Survivor Island

We made islands out of foam and wood and sand and sticks.

Every island was great. They had mountains and volcanoes.

We wrote our Island Journal and the sheets were Monday to Friday.

Enjoying some camp down time

Year 3 is a year of enormous growth and development for our boys. From Junior Primary to Middle Primary the transition is a big one. Mrs Martin, Ms Sathurayar, Mrs McKay and Mr Oomens have had the pleasure of teaching and learning alongside the boys and watching them grow. We are extremely proud of the achievements of every boy during the course of the year.

Woodhouse Adventure Camp

As an introduction to Year 3, the boys were taken early in Term 1 to the Woodhouse Adventure campsite. Three days and two nights of outdoor adventure was carefully planned and delivered by the PAC Outdoor Education team. In facing new challenges the boys moved outside their comfort zones and proved to themselves that they were capable of showing independence and the ability to work constructively and positively in teams. All these skills were underpinned by the expectation that the boys took care of basic daily routines. The skills developed at camp would prove a platform for continued success throughout the year.

Machine Mania

V8 supercars, speed, and lots of noise, what more could you ask for? The boys loved the adventure and the excitement of watching the construction of the racetrack outside their classroom to getting up close and personal to the V8 cars and their drivers. We learnt about simple machines and how they work to create more complex machines. We used our skills of construction to design and build our own complex machines, inspired by Rube Goldberg. By the end of the inquiry the boys had gained an understanding of machines, their various components and how they all fit together to perform a function.

What's On Your Plate?

How cool are mushroom farms? Very cool! As part of our inquiry into the human-made systems involved in food production, we were lucky to visit SA Mushrooms and explore the various means of production. The boys then conducted their own inquiries into the foods they found on their dinner plates. It was fascinating to see the variety of processes involved in producing everything from barramundi to butter!

Art Mirrors Life

This year the boys visited Tandanya in order to tune into the concept of place. Uncle John told us lots about the importance of country to Indigenous Australians and we participated in a short play based on a traditional story.

Visiting artists, Niwili White-Forest and Olly Jones, then helped us explore a special place in the school through the use of assemblage — an abstract form of art using found and recycled objects. Our exhibition was held in the McBride Room of the new RED Centre and we all dressed up as our favourite artist.

Team Activities with St Peter's Girls

2013 saw the inaugural Year 4 Wellbeing Sessions between St Peters Girls and Prince Alfred College. It was an exciting opportunity for the boys to develop their risk taking and communication skills with a range of activities. Nerves were tested during the Great Egg Drop, which resulted in many egg fatalities. The excitement levels matched that of the original Masterchef program as they battled together in the Mystery Box Challenge to be crowned champion. Our Wellbeing session culminated in a visit to the Woodhouse Outdoor Scout Activity Centre where Challenge Hill lived up to its name as teams struggled to ensure the safety of water balloons around the obstacle course.

Year 4 Camp at Toc H

We marked the middle of Term 1 with the Year 4 Camp at Toc H, Victor Harbor. Whilst on Camp, we enjoyed a wide variety of activities including a visit to the Urimbirra Wildlife Park, body boarding at Horseshoe Bay and a day at Greenhills Adventure Park. Many tasks were undertaken in small groups and this allowed us to practise our teamwork skills.

Science

Science exploded into Year 4. Two incursions from the CSIRO and a trip to the Senior Science Labs had the boys' heads full of bubbles, bangs and slime. Classroom experiments unravelled the mysteries of solids, liquids and gases. Chocolate melted, candles burnt and mixtures of bi-carb soda and tartaric acid frothed, as they sought to determine just what the matter particles were up to. The unit turned inquirers into enthusiastic scientists.

5B & 5F canoeing at Scotts Creek

Our focus for the first few weeks of term was on Wellbeing, and how the choices we make can influence our wellbeing. This unit continued throughout the year and through the use of literature, discussions and reflections, the boys were able to identify how emotions can impact the way we act, strategies to control emotions, thoughts and actions and roles of bystanders and their impact on bullying situations.

The boys also undertook a unit of inquiry entitled "Journey into the Unknown" in which they looked at some significant explorers. They each chose an explorer whom was of particular interest to them and discovered, through their own research, defining characteristics of the explorer as well as the way exploration impacted on the quality of their lives and the lives of others. One of the highlights of this Unit was a trip to the Maritime Museum at Port Adelaide.

Another major highlight of Term 1 was the Year 5 Cultural Perspectives Camp. Both Year 5 classes headed up to Scotts Creek for four days to participate in activities including canoeing, camping, traversing the rock wall, zip wire, orienteering and lots of other fun and games, and team bonding.

In Term 1 the boys also played host to their Grandparents on Grandies' Day and participated in the annual Prep School Cross Country run.

Term 2 saw the Year 5 boys (including Year 5s from 5/6G) investigate how people, plants, animals and machines all use energy to make things happen. To introduce the topic the boys were treated to a Science show by Mobile Science Education and participated in a number of hands-on experiments and investigations, including a visit from the CSIRO Lab on Legs. Throughout this unit the boys investigated sources of energy, energy chains and energy transfers and transformations.

5B boys at Scotts Creek

5F at the Lighthouse in Port Adelaide

In the second part of the term we looked at how different energy sources are harnessed and the impact that each one has on the environment. Unfortunately, our annual trip to Pelican Point Power Station was cancelled, but instead Mobile Science Education visited us with a presentation to explain how natural gas is used to create electricity here in South Australia. The boys then chose a renewable energy source and created a website detailing how it works and some of the positive and negative effects it has on the environment.

Another highlight of Term 2 was the Opening of the RED Centre.

To buy or not to buy" was our unit of inquiry for Term 3. We looked at how advertising is created in order to persuade us to buy certain products or adopt certain beliefs or behaviours. The boys looked at a range of different advertising strategies through a variety of mediums. The boys then formed their own groups and enthusiastically created their own advertising campaign. They designed and created a new product, conducted market research and produced both print and broadcast commercials.

Also this term, the boys took part in the Poetry Recital Competition. Each boy performed a poem of his choice in class and the two boys from each class were chosen to perform in front of the year level.

Other things to happen this term were House Sports, Book Week and Sports Day.

Our focus for Term 4 was on Global Poverty and how millions around the world are less fortunate than ourselves. One of the highlights, as it is every year, is when the boys (including Year 5s from 5/6G) were introduced to the unit through the 'World Feast Game'. After reflecting on the game, the boys questioned the inequity and injustices in this world. The boys then looked at the various reasons that cause poverty and then turned their attention to what action is being taken in trying to combat poverty. This led to the boys planning and executing the Giant Sale", where they collected old books and toys, made cakes, published their own magazines, and then sold them to boys from the other year levels. All the money raised was donated to Uniting World's 'Everything in Common' appeal, allowing the boys to allocate where they wanted the money to be spent.

Another highlight for the term, was the use of the new pool in the RED Centre for weekly PE swimming lessons and the Swimming Carnival.

Year 6 Exhibition 2013

During Term 3 the Year 6 boys completed their PYP Exhibition, their culminating experience in the Primary Years Programme (PYP). The Exhibition is a collaborative inquiry process that involves students in identifying, investigating and offering solutions to real-life issues or problems. The central idea for this year was 'Human spirit plus action equals change'. This is firmly in keeping with the PYP belief that thoughtful and responsible action is a natural result of the inquiry process. Below the boys have shared the Central Ideas for their groups.

Development Coach Tom Mitton was very popular with the Year 4/5 hockey boys

It has been very pleasing to see nearly every boy in the Preparatory School involved with sport in 2013. It becomes more difficult every year for the boys to juggle commitments with outside sporting groups, but we continue to emphasize the importance of school sport in their education. It is very important for the boys to interact with their school friends in an extra-curricular and a co-curricular environment. As always, the dedication and commitment of the Preparatory School staff members to sport is crucial, and we are blessed to have staff whose passion and experience is second to none. The addition of quality development coaches and keen old scholars enhances the experience for the boys and we continue to source new people in these areas. The Year 3 boys have also enjoyed an introduction to the various school sports on offer. This puts them in good stead for Year 4 and inter-school competition. Parents also play an important part and we take this opportunity to thank everyone for encouraging reliability and responsibility. Having parents there supporting on game day is also a positive influence and one that the boys would no doubt cherish.

Summer Sport

Cricket boasts the highest participation rate, with three combined Year 6/7 teams and three teams from Years 4 and 5. We have enjoyed the involvement of a number of new old scholars who have joined our coaching team. Jack Latchford, Nick Mosey, Jake Weatherald and Harry Barnes have been very enthusiastic junior coaches and the boys have really flourished with their encouragement. The cricket development coach, Russell Thompson, has been working hard, with the help of Peter Williams in the Senior School, to develop a new Cricket Academy in 2013. We look forward to a Development Training Program beginning in Term 3, in which boys from throughout the school are given the opportunity to join special pre-season sessions in all facets of cricket. The new RED Centre will no doubt prove to be a great venue with inside nets, and the purchase of new bowling machines in 2013 is exciting.

Tennis has also flourished in 2013 with the continued development by coaches Dean Schipanski and Paul Baccanello. They have had the added support of a number of very talented old scholars who have been spending quality time with the Year 3, 4 and 5s, helping to develop their skills. Tennis coordinator Sam Barton had great success with his Year 6 Primary AB teams. It will be great to have the supergrasse courts back in full use for Term 4.

Softball and T-ball again attracted many boys and proved a very popular Friday afternoon sport. The improved skill level was evident by the end of Term 1 and we look forward to continuing success in Term 4. For many boys this was their first introduction to inter school sport, and they really enjoyed the challenge. Again we were very lucky to have Year 11 student, Fraser Cramer, helping with umpiring and coaching.

Winter Sport

2013 Winter Sport has had to deal with some very cold and wet fixtures, so the boys have had plenty of practice playing sport in muddy conditions. As expected, football and soccer participation has been a highlight. Development of skills has been a focus in all sports in 2013 and the introduction of new coaching initiatives has been a very positive step forward. The boys have been presented with many opportunities to further develop their skill bases.

School Football has again enjoyed some very strong competition, with two teams of Year 6/7s and two teams of Year 4/5s. The development of football has been further enhanced by the introduction of a Football Academy within the Middle School. Tim Weatherald ran regular sessions in skill development and fitness throughout Terms 2 and 3. This specially selected group of footballers showed great dedication and enthusiasm and no doubt benefited greatly from Tim's extensive coaching experience. The presence of old scholars Will Dalwood and Max Burford at training and game day has been well received by the boys also.

Soccer continues to grow at PAC thanks to the passionate work of Jason Hayhurst — our Soccer Development Coach. Jason has introduced development sessions throughout the school, and it has been wonderful for the younger year levels to have this opportunity to get involved. He has worked hard to encourage the modified form of the game, and we have enjoyed having two teams in the Friday afternoon competition between schools. We must thank fathers David Martin and Steven Benn, who have kindly volunteered their time and experience to help out with the coaching of the Year 5 and 6 teams. These teams have been steadily improving and have had some very good wins this year.

Hockey and Minkey teams have enjoyed success and good competition this winter. Two teams have played in a Friday night competition at the Adelaide Hockey Club and a Year 6 team has played on a Saturday morning. The school has welcomed the coaching skills of Tom Mitton and old scholar James Keeves at training sessions and Tom has been getting great results helping on game day. We are certain that the success of the Senior School First team has been a huge incentive for our boys to get involved in hockey.

Table tennis has proven a popular sport on a Friday afternoon this winter. We have many boys enjoying the development of their skills with the help of experienced Development Coach John Potter. John has lifted the profile of table tennis in the school and we are enjoying some very good wins against quality opposition. It has been pleasing to see so many boys from different year levels working together in the two teams to help and encourage each other.

Basketball

Basketball was again offered as an extra sport all year round, and was very popular with four teams entered in the 'Mars Life be in it' competition. The Red Team coached by Andre Roller made it to the Grand Final with the Year 6 boys playing for the last time. The Year 4 boys then joined in for the winter season and struggled for the first few games. The wins then started coming and to the delight of the whole team, these boys won the Grand Final in Term 3. The Maroon team coached by Neil Andary also did very well and really developed their skills throughout the season. They also had a great win in the Grand Final. The White team coached by Guy Collins improved as the season progressed finishing with a Grand Final win also in Term 3.

Matthew Tothill was determined to enter several SAPSAPA and Knockout competitions with the PAC boys this year, as the Year 6/7 cohort was particularly strong. The boys really enjoyed the competition against some of the best basketball teams in the State and the Year 5/6 team made it to the finals.

All the boys wished to thank their coaches and parents for the great year.

Preparatory House Activities

Preparatory School 'A' Debating

The Preparatory School fielded three A Grade teams this year comprising Thomas Johnson, Blake Lindner and Lachlan Hislop in A1, Elias Raptis, Sparsh Tiwari, Ethan Brewerton and Seran Perera in A2 and Charles Kay, Charles Cameron and Jackson O'Leary in A3.

Each team had three or four debates over Terms 2 and 3. Most of these debaters were experienced in the art of constructing well researched, clearly identified and animated arguments that would prove their case and convince an audience and adjudicator! Without doubt, all of the debaters improved their range of skills considerably.

We were very proud of the way the teams prepared for their debates and the way in which they conducted themselves during the verbal battles. The teams were all commended by the adjudicators who acknowledged the fine construction of arguments and the manner in which they were presented. Overall, the teams had considerable success and these boys have enhanced their public speaking and oral presentation skills, something which we value highly at PAC and which we know will serve them well in the future.

Andre Roller, Jenny Gilchrist and Pam Martin

Preparatory School Chess

Again, the number of boys playing chess in the Prep School increased considerably from the previous year. We were fortunate to have the coaching services of Mr Richard Thorne, who, along with Mr William Wedding, implemented a series of successful structured holiday coaching days and Monday afternoon practices for C Grade and Beginner boys. PAC Prep entered seven teams into the Primary Interschool Competitions.

Captained by Denny Han, the PAC Red team won A Grade in fine style. Both Denny and rapidly improving Preshaan Thavarajah won all their games, ably supported by Axel Heinrich, Seran Perera and Samuel de Dear. PAC will again travel to the National Schools Chess Teams Chess Championships where they were runners-up in 2012.

PAC White won the B Grade competition, narrowly ahead of PAC Red. The White team consisted of George Vagionas, Dinan Perera, Mitchell Whiteman and Blake Lindner.

The four Primary C teams with many new players generally performed well with PAC Red, captained by Max Batt, finishing in 3rd place.

The prestigious Evelyn Koshnitsky Shield was again convincingly won by PAC with 25.5/30, followed by St Peter's College and Magill PS each on 12.5 with Walkerville PS on 9 points.

A high number of boys competed in the City of Adelaide and South Australian Junior Championships held during the April and July holidays. Preshaan Thavarajah again won the Under 12 City of Adelaide Junior Championship and also the State U12 Championships with near perfect scores. He was also the Prep School Champion. It was pleasing many boys made effective use of provided weekly coaching, lunchtime practices, holiday coaching and tournament opportunities.

Thanks must go to Mrs Margit Hosking and Ms Mandy Bell for their invaluable support throughout the season. We are hopeful of further growth in the number of boys playing chess for PAC and continued improvement in next year's competitions.

Oliphant Science Awards 2013

Prince Alfred College figured significantly again this year in these prestigious science awards which attracted nearly 2,000 entries. 71 students entered various categories, most as individuals and others in groups. Perhaps most thrilling was the exceptional quality of each and every entry, displaying thought, planning, research and creative execution. Once again, Max Kirkby was amongst the winners as was Regan Nelson. The prizes were presented by scientists and sponsor representatives who are excited to promote science as a rich and rewarding part of our lives and a career that could be followed in diverse disciplines. Dr Natasha Harvey, a developmental biologist at the Centre for Cancer Biology, noted that two of her laboratory scientists were previous OSA winners. Hopefully our students will find a challenging career using their passion for science.

The following students were presented with these awards this year:

1st	Blake Cranna	6-7	Photography	'Separating Mixtures'
3rd	Seran Perera	6-7	Photography	'Aerodynamics of the Bee'
3rd	Max Kirkby	6-7	Computer Programming & Robotics	'Wireless Patrolling Segway'
3rd	Regan Nelson & Charlie Gibbon	R-2	Models/Inventions	'Oil Rig'
1st	Nicholas Terp	9-10	Crystal Investigation	'Growing Crystals'
1st	Seung Hun (Eddie), Han	9-10	Science Writing	'My Science lab is a Kitchen'
3rd	Joel Lee	9-10	Scientific Inquiry	'The Effect of Music on Short-term Memory'

The Australian Society of Biochemistry & Molecular Biology Prize R — 12 was awarded to:

Joshua Fedele	3-5	Science Writing	'Cycles of Life'
---------------	-----	-----------------	------------------

Joshua also received a Highly Commended Award.

Max was 1st in 2008, 3rd in 2009, 1st in 2010, 1st in 2011 and 1st in 2012. All of these were Computer Programming and Robotics.

Regan received a Highly Commended in 2011, was 1st in 2012 and he also received a Highly Commended this year for another stunning model that he built on his own!

The following students received Highly Commended Awards for their entries:

Aggelos Vlachakis	R-2	Multimedia	'Amazing Volcanoes'
Eric McCauley	R-2	Photography	'Energy in Many Forms'
Henry Grey	3-5	Scientific Inquiry	'Coin Cleaner'
James Walters and Lucas Huxtable	3-5	Models/Inventions	'Hover Board'
Jung Ho (Denny) Han	6-7	Science Writing	'Why Scientists can play better soccer'
Martin Lidums	6-7	Science Writing	'Bacteria-Friend or Foe'

Preparatory School Creative Arts

Reception Photographs

We've had a very busy year in the Preparatory School Creative Art room with the boys participating in both Visual and Dramatic art experiences. This year for the Jack de Vidas art show the boys created photographic pieces inspired by a word from our challenge list. There were twenty-four words from which the boys could choose, ranging from Reflection, or shoes to a smile or something you love. Every photograph is an imaginative and unique take on the boys chosen word.

The Preparatory School Jack de Vidas art show was judged by the Preparatory School Community. Each person who came to view the art display had the opportunity to fill in a voting form to record their favourite pieces from each year level.

Reception — Brodie Clarke

Year 1 — Christian Ding

Year 2 — Philippe Scalzi

Year 3 — James Norton

Year 4 — Mitchell Miller

Year 5 — William Finster

Year 1 — William Cooper, Eddie Chapple and Hugo Evans

Year 2 — Will Benecke, Henry Smart and Eric McCauley

Year 3 — Will McAskill, Christopher Oehler and Ben Webber

Year 4 — Christo Pseudos, Henry Nind and Dylan Holland

Year 5 — Henry Gerard, Harry Ben and Angus Parker

Year 6 — Matthew Penhall, Abdullah El-Youssef and Benson Page

Well done to all of the winners and merit recipients in the Preparatory School Jack de Vidas art prize and to all of the boys in the Preparatory School on a fantastic year in the creative arts room.

Wishing you all a wonderful summer break.

Head of Middle School

“You can’t learn in school what the world is going to do next.”

This observation reflects the changing nature of society and in particular, the exponential impact of technology and communication. And while the quote sounds like a contemporary view, it was coined by Henry Ford over 120 years ago.

It reinforces how schools and school leaders are now faced with greater challenges than ever before. Not only are we expected to prepare students with knowledge to deal with the present but more importantly, are expected to develop in young people the skills to cope with the unknowns of the future.

While this challenge can be daunting, it also makes the education of young people exciting. Providing students with a holistic education which promotes problem solving skills, the confidence to take risks, learning from mistakes and knowing how to find answers rather than knowing all answers, addresses Ford’s concern in worrying about what the world will do next.

This holistic approach is developed in the Middle School through a multi-layered learning experience. Boys are presented with a rigorous and experiential curriculum where boys “learn by doing”. The International Baccalaureate Middle Years Program continues to serve our staff and students well in providing a broad curriculum framework which focuses on communication, holistic learning and intercultural awareness.

The extra-curricular programs; eduCook and Scotts Creek in Years 7 and Year 8 and Wambana in Year 9, complement the curriculum while also developing another layer of life skills for our students. Students learn to work as a team and work independently, problem solve and are tested by physical and mental challenges.

In addition, students choose from a wide range of co-curricular activities including sport, debating, chess, leadership, and community service to broaden their development. Add swimming and athletics carnivals, House competitions, public speaking, single studies music, choir and the like — our boys are very busy.

Overlaying the learning experience is a focus on wellbeing, ensuring our boys are positive, happy and self-assured. Students who are well adjusted are far more likely to achieve their potential than those who are not.

The effectiveness of our vibrant Middle School is due to the imagination and dedication of our terrific staff. Beau Muzik, our Deputy in the Middle School has provided wonderful guidance and support to students, staff and parents. His team of Year Level coordinators; Melissa Brister in Year 7, Paul Balestrin in Year 8 and Phil McLaughlin in Year 9, and the Home Room Teachers, have encouraged personal growth and character in our boys. The wellbeing team has been complemented by the hardworking Student Success Team led by Janice James-Valentine.

Joanna Cardinal has continued to enhance teaching and learning in the classroom through her work with the MYP Teaching and Learning Leaders and staff. Engaging students through concept-based pedagogy has ensured a stimulating and relevant educational experience.

Dale Hobbs and his team continue to provide a unique and life changing Wambana experience for our Year 9 boys while the Scotts Creek outdoor adventure program (under the guidance of Micha Jensen) promotes personal growth in our Year 7 and 8 students. eduKart and eduCook are popular and highly effective programs which owe their success to Anthony Harradine, Paul Balestrin and Phil McLaughlin (among others) for their creation and coordination.

Mark Dickens has continued to guide and support the spiritual development of students, staff and parents in the Middle School and indeed across the College. His work through Chapel services, assemblies and Belief and Values sessions is very much appreciated. Mark always reinforces our College values of care and compassion.

Megan McLaughlin has played a significant role in coordinating events and communications within the Middle School. I thank Megan for her efficiency, commitment and terrific support during the year.

The co-curricular program continues to play an important role in the physical and personal development of our boys. Gary Jenkinson and Deb Trengove are to be congratulated for ensuring our students are presented with these wonderful opportunities. Coaches and managers, in their commitment and dedication, have also played a critical role in making the co-curricular program a success.

We have been well served by our student leaders during 2013. Middle School Captain, Zac Heim and his deputy Alasdair McFarlane, have been positive role models for their peers. Through their proactive contributions during assemblies, meetings, attending external events and in leading school tours, they have proven to be fine ambassadors for our Middle School and for the College. The SRC have also made a substantial contribution with their recommendations for improving the Middle School and through their efforts in fund raising and hosting charity events. The House Captains should also be congratulated for promoting and encouraging House spirit.

Preparing our boys for the future is a team effort and as such, I would like to thank our staff, parents and the College community for their wonderful support of the Middle School during the year.

Teaching and Learning through the Middle Years Programme

In 2013 we continued to design learning experiences for boys to apply their knowledge to new situations, thus honing the skills that have been identified as essential components of a 21st Century Education. Adapting to changing circumstances and having the confidence and competence to successfully participate in new arenas is vital and 2013 saw many opportunities to allow boys to do just that.

As part of the College's STEM initiative Dr Paula Mills arranged for students to participate in the Science & Engineering Challenge where the PAC team achieved first place and went on to the State Finals. Another STEM event saw students attend the South Australian Space School during the July term break. This was an outstanding opportunity for the boys to hear some of the leading researchers, visit university and RAAF research and development centres and engage in hands-on research and development of their own.

Teaching and Learning Leader, Ms Christine Papanicolas arranged for boys in Years 8 and 9 to participate in the Aurecon South Australian Bridge Building competition, another hands-on problem-solving contest which afforded a great introduction to engineering.

Students from the Year 10 French course had the opportunity to take part in the Tertiary Languages Program at Flinders University. The two day event allowed our boys to join other school students for intensive language classes delivered by university lecturers whilst gaining an insight into campus life.

The tradition of competing in the Australian Mathematics Competition and the ICAS Science Competition was maintained. In the former 58% achieved a credit or better; in the latter 23 boys achieved a Distinction with special congratulations going to William Zhang in Year 7 who was awarded a High Distinction.

In summation, another busy and rewarding year for staff and students in the Middle Years, one that has continued strong traditions and seen great innovations.

Middle School Captain

2013 has proved another great year in the Middle School, with students maintaining PAC's high standards and results across all that we have done. Thanks to the enduring support of the teachers, coaches and friends, PAC has continued to provide a prime environment for learning.

The year began with students quickly adjusting to their timetables and eagerly awaiting their chance to participate in the various experiences of eduCook, eduKart and Wambana throughout the year, perhaps amazing even themselves with some of the lessons learnt.

The Scotts Creek camps also allowed students to physically challenge themselves and gain a better understanding of each other and their environment.

The Wambana camp focused on building life-long skills and self-discovery and these two programs have provided many of the boys with experiences that will last a lifetime.

Each one of us can be proud of the tremendous personal effort and individual goals achieved throughout the year which ultimately reflect the high standards of the College. Whether it be academic or co-curricular activities including sport and music, we have marvelled at the relentless pursuit of excellence and successes of individuals and teams alike. We can be proud to wear the red and white.

I will miss the Middle School, but look forward to the next phase of my time here at PAC in the Senior School. A special note of thanks to Mr Karamoshos, Mr Muzik and staff for their tireless effort to make our school the very best it can be. Thanks also to Mr Tutt for his constant support and involvement and our Middle School Vice-Captain, Alasdair McFarlane, who was a tremendous leader and provided invaluable assistance throughout the year. For the boys still in the Middle School, enjoy your time here and don't be afraid to challenge yourselves over and over.

Martin Lidums, Jack Thomas, Emmet Wildman, Eddie Price, Luke D'Ortenzio from 7ASE and Year 11 leader Daniel Gregg at Scotts Creek Outdoor Education Centre

2013 was the inaugural year of our eduCook program. A trial was conducted in 2012 and based on its success each Year 7 home group spent a week at the Central Market with Sprout cooking duo Callum Hann and Themis Chryssidis. eduCook is about much more than just cooking food and boys' experiences included the following; safe food preparation and storage, cooking, shopping, seasonal and healthy food options and budgeting. This week culminates with a gastronomic extravaganza when the boys plan, prepare and produce a three course meal for a guest on the final day of the program. Over the course of the week it was incredible to see the growth in boys' skills, knowledge and confidence and many of the boys are still coming to school and sharing their new cooking successes from home.

Once again, as part of the Humanities curriculum, boys completed their individual Discovery Projects which explored an ancient invention or discovery. Their final works were displayed at an exhibition in the Piper Pavilion late in Term 3. During this evening boys conversed with visitors to their booths about their research and investigation and shared their breadth of knowledge and insight into their chosen topic.

Another highlight in the Year 7 program is a four day camp at Scotts Creek. Each home group class travelled with their home group teacher and spent the time canoeing, rowing, rock-climbing, orienteering and participating in an overnight expedition away from the campsite. Much of the activities during the camp focus on cooperation, collaboration and healthy competition. These experiences often translate back in the classroom with increased awareness and empathy for those around them.

Throughout the course of the year all boys were given the opportunity to participate in programs and events that allowed them to further challenge and extend themselves which included; numerical acumen challenge, St Peter's Decathlon, Lodge Short Talk competition, Kings Speech competition and many more in class subject specific activities.

Year 8

8PBU return from a days surfing at Goolwa

Guided by Miss Sally Wilson, Mr Peter Bubner, Mr Sam Jordan, Mr Craig Smith and Mr Greg Zheng, the boys have enjoyed a multitude of Wellbeing activities in their Home Room groups in Year 8 this year.

Starting with the Goolwa Pastoral Care camps early in the first term, boys used this time to forge new friendships and rekindle old ones. It was also a great opportunity to get to know their Home Room Teacher. The camp is always a valuable start to the Year 8 program with many boys new to the school taking great advantage of the relaxed social activities.

Flowing from the camps came the extra-curricular activities of eduKart and the Scotts Creek Adventure Program. Both programs are designed specifically for Middle School boys, engaging them both physically and mentally to achieve goals which always seem just out of reach. The pride of achievement and growth in self confidence is immeasurable, but ever present. As the Coordinator of the eduKART program, I am always intrigued to watch the five day development of the boys. The task of building and competing in challenges in an electric kart seems impossible on Monday morning, but ever so fulfilling by Friday afternoon.

Added to these programs was Boy's World. A six week set of activities designed to up-skill boys in a variety of traditional and contemporary activities. From ironing a shirt to Tae-Chi, the boys were shown a set of basic life skills to help them in their everyday lives.

The 2013 Year 8 cohort actively engaged in their co-curricular activities, swimming carnival and athletics day, as well as many lunchtime house cup competitions. The Student Representative Council has worked well as a team and I have seen many future leaders of the school emerge from these activities. I look forward to watching this group develop further over their remaining years at PAC.

Year 9 Home Group Competition: boys playing Basketball in the RED CENTRE

As 2013 draws to a close I can reflect on the achievements and successes of the year.

Year 9 is a busy year; each Home Group attends the Extended Stay Program at the Wambana Campus in Point Turton. Their four week stay is challenging and a life changing experience. The dedicated staff at Wambana led by Dale Hobbs, do a wonderful job of engaging these young men and in a wide range of life and outdoor pursuit skills. The boys return to Kent Town as young men; fit, tanned and full of confidence.

Throughout the year there have been many successes from boys in Year 9. I would like to acknowledge several of these. Alex Skrembos (9SRY), Malcolm Sim (9SRY), Jacob Lucey (9CNI), James Nicholas (CNI) and Joel Lee (9CNI) all were awarded first prizes for their Photographic work entered in the Adelaide Royal Show. Another 12 boys received either a second, third or Merit place.

1st Prize Royal Adelaide Show Photographer: James Nicholas

At the Middle School Swimming Carnival, Spencer Ng (9ADI) was the Year 9 Champion swimmer and he also won the 'Champion of Champions' race. This was an outstanding performance for a boy who commenced at the College at the beginning of third term.

I would like to thank Zachary Heim and Alasdair McFarlane (Captain and Vice-Captain of the Middle School) for their work and leadership throughout the year.

Leadership roles in the Middle School the SRC were carried out by Jack Greenslade, Fox Crowley, Sebastian Economos and Robbie Smith. Their contribution is valued by all boys in the year level.

Middle School House Captains also made a valuable contribution to Athletics Day and the Swimming Carnival this year. Rupert Benson and Tom Fisher (Cotton House), James Chalk and Ben Heaslip (Taylor House), James Nicholas and Theo Skrembos (Waterhouse House), Tyson Brazel and Max Meyer (Watsford House).

Finally I wish to acknowledge the work of the dedicated Year 9 Home Room Team, Ms Adele Dickson, Mr Chris Nicholls, Mr Peter Williams and Mr Shane Reidy. Their daily contact with the boys, their intimate knowledge of the boys needs, the advice and guidance during the year has been outstanding. I would also like to wish Mr Reidy all the best as he enters retirement after nearly four decades of outstanding teaching in South Australia and 23 years at Prince Alfred College.

Philip McLaughlin
Year 9 Coordinator

eduKart continues to excite, inspire and grow all Year 8 boys, but why? It provides a unique environment for boys to solve authentic problems:

- that matter to them, right now
- that require them, in the main, to use knowledge with which they are already comfortable
- for which their team is completely responsible,
- that end with them creating.

The majority of the new learning taking place results from the problem solving process they undertake — they get to focus on thinking about how it is they are thinking.

We learn about some of the valuable outcomes achieved by each student through their nightly writing, and what amazing writing it is. Most interestingly, many of the richest outcomes were never imagined at the inception of eduKart.

Snippets of the boy's reflections

Connor Riley

Every day I went home from eduKart like a radio, I just didn't stop talking. And not only that, I was up earlier than ever to ensure I was there on time, all the time. I never realized what I was capable of...

Oliver Bernadi

... the most important thing I have learned is that nothing is hard; it is the individual that makes the task hard.

Jordan Lesicar

When I first arrived today, I almost felt nervous by how excited I was, Monday was one of the first times I had actually become enthusiastic about something like this... and I am unsure why, I feel like this project maybe that has more purpose behind it, ... I think the one key difference that makes it fun for me is that it is challenging, and that I do have to be independent.

Dylan Peisley

... I was really nervous about doing eduKart and didn't really want to do it, but from day one I was hooked. I'm not really an outgoing person but as the week went on I started to feel really confident in myself and what I could achieve because I could see it unfold in front of my eyes; literally, in the kart being built.

Angus Fry

... I thought that it would take more time and the adults would have to keep fixing the karts but they didn't need to do much. Instead we did all the fixing they just checked them before race day...

Close your eyes and imagine...

A long track...

Wide roads...

Nifty, bendy turns

Outlined with colourful tyres

An open area

Adolescence

Screeching around corners

Swiftly, professionally turning steering wheels

Friendly trash talk and endless banter

A colourful crowd;

Everyone reppin' their respective team colours

Discussion and brainstorming of how to use different sized sprockets or wheels

Urgently thinking of every way possible to make the kart faster

Fast enough to beat that one guy who always finishes first

Communication and co-operation is a must

Where do I put this, can you help me with... Where's the toilet...

The day was great

Tomorrow will be better

Ready to rep that orange and go for GOLD!!

Drama

Robin Hood

Year 7 students, with the support of Mr Nick Raimondo and Mr Michael Steer have undertaken a production of "Robin Hood and his Merry Men." The production was staged in the Prince Philip Theatre on the 30 and 31 October with both matinee and evening performances. The production involved students from Prince Alfred College and Seymour College.

The students involved as performers worked extensively during lunch times and also during their weekends and holiday break to develop the skills required to present this engaging and demanding pantomime performance.

Julian Hallworth was a forceful Prince John and showed potential as a singer, giving a rousing performance of a Robbie Williams song. Alex Economos was a sinister Sheriff of Nottingham and was ably supported by his gang of comic guards. Will Economos was a cheerful and engaging Robin Hood, Oliver Trudgian a comic Little John, Jason Charlwood an amusing Will Scarlet and Harrison Cerchez a witty Friar Tuck.

Charlie Anderson had the audience in stitches with his interpretation of the role of "Nurse" and his references to his "womanly powers of persuasion." He showed an admirable level of confidence and also comic timing as he engaged with both adults and children.

The project was approved and supported by Mr Peter Karamoshos (Head of Middle School) and Ms Melissa Brister (Year 7 Level Coordinator). We also received the cheerful assistance of our dedicated and professional Housekeeping staff and of course our terrific parents.

We hope that the Year 7 production of a pantomime can become an annual event so that all students entering the Middle School have the opportunity to enjoy the rewards of theatrical performance. The College remains committed to offering opportunities to boys in the Arts and to our relationship with the local girls' schools. We acknowledge the generous assistance of staff at Seymour in helping us involve their students in our project. Ms Kerry Elliot and Ms Michelle Richter (Arts staff at Seymour) were a great help to us.

The RED Centre is a wonderful addition to Prince Alfred College and its wider community. Not only is the building visually spectacular and practical for our users, it is also proving operationally efficient to organise and maintain. My thanks to Hayden Cleveland (Pool Operations Manager) and Phil Lean (Operations Manager), for their input and work over these past few weeks which has involved developing policy and check sheets for the running of the Centre, and to Alan Daws (Project Manager), who has overseen the planning, construction and commissioning of this significant building.

The gym is attracting record numbers of boys. Attendance climbed steadily through the first four weeks of Term 3, slumped during Intercol Week (week five) but picked up again from weeks six through to nine. There are now almost 250 boys using the facility on a weekly basis.

The indoor cricket nets in the multipurpose stadium have been extremely popular, with boarders and day students heading to the RED Centre for a hit before and after dinner. The main stadium is in almost continuous use before and after school with boys shooting hoops and the rowers are well entrenched in the Rowing Room. The four squash courts are back in continuous use with boys training after school and Old Scholars utilising them each evening. It has been particularly satisfying to note the increasing number of staff (both teaching and support staff) making use of this outstanding facility.

Arguably the happiest group in the College are the PE Department who have incorporated their programs into the new facility seamlessly. They now have their own specialist class room along with all the other facilities the Centre has to offer. It is pleasing to have our own pool back with classes from all year levels using the pool for swimming activities and water polo. During Term 3 we also conducted the first Swimming Carnival on site for many years — a loud but fun filled afternoon.

Kent Town Swim is proving to be a wonderful success, under the guidance of Peter Bishop and Lauren Teal, and is currently servicing over 550 clients within their Learn to Swim and Squad programs. With no signs of a plateau in recruitment they are well on their way to an initial target of 700 patrons.

Old Scholar membership also continues to grow with RED Centre staff inducting over 160 Old Boys on the use of the facilities during the past term.

If you have not yet taken the time to visit the RED Centre you are missing out! The Café is open each afternoon so come down, pick up a coffee and wander around. I am sure you will be impressed with the variety and abundance of activity making up the daily operations of our new RED Centre.

In December 2012, 18 Senior School students and five staff members joined together to participate in the third community service and cultural awareness trip to Cambodia. An appreciation for Cambodia's history stemming from the Pol Pot years was quickly established with visits to the Toul Sleng Genocide Museum and Choeung Ek, one of the Khmer Rouge killing fields outside Phnom Penh.

The primary community service activity was undertaken in conjunction with Habitat for Humanity Cambodia. This entailed splitting into two groups and, over a period of four days, joining with local skilled workers to build two houses. The recipients of our labour were two widows, both of whom have been infected with HIV, and their families.

The long-standing association the College has had with the Sunrise Children's Villages was maintained with visits to the orphanages in both Phnom Penh and Siem Reap. In addition to visiting Sunrise, the group was welcomed by John and Cathy Tucker to the New Hope for Cambodian Children orphanage founded by them. This orphanage stands apart from the many others in Cambodia. It is home to over 240 children, all of whom carry the HIV virus and are, therefore, mostly shunned by others.

A few days in Siem Reap provided the group a chance experience some tourist activities such as exploring the ancient Angkor Temples region, a boat trip through a floating village on Lake Tonle Sap, as well as experiencing the night markets.

Scotts Creek

8B boys getting ready to go body-boarding at Goolwa

2013 has been a busy year at Scotts Creek, which began with our Year 3 program at Woodhouse, in the Adelaide Hills. Over the course of the year we have hosted over 400 PAC students through the various programs that we offer from Years 2 to 8. Each program has been supported by a great group of Year 11 leaders, who not only assist the younger students but build upon their leadership skills. Our programs continue to develop and we are constantly working to ensure that we offer programs that engage boys and develop their outdoor skills, life skills and emotional understanding.

This year, Scotts Creek has once again been the beneficiary of the generosity of the Parents and Friends Association which kindly donated funds towards the Greening Scotts Creek Project. With the assistance of the Year 7 classes, we have rolled out a grand total of 1000m<sup>2</sup> of lush green turf across the property. The results are instant and the boys have voted with their feet using the new grassed areas for a throw of the frisbee or a quiet place to sit and enjoy lunch.

The opening of the RED Centre this year has allowed the Outdoor Education staff to conduct canoe safety training prior to the boys heading up to Scotts Creek. This allows the boys to have more time on the water to develop essential paddling skills and boat awareness while also giving boys an opportunity to capsizes in warmer, clear water.

2014 promises to be yet another busy year in the life of Scotts Creek with many projects planned. Over the next few years we hope to continue to develop the centre and our programs to ensure we are at the forefront of Outdoor Education. Overall the future of Scotts Creek and Outdoor Education at Princes is bright and the Scotts Creek staff are looking forward to what promises to be an action packed year in 2014.

Outdoor Education

Caving 2013

Outdoor Education for 2013 has seen many new aspects to the ever growing program. For the first time we saw the addition of Senior Outdoor Education classes to complement our Scotts Creek and Wambana programs. Our boys now have opportunities to pursue their love of the great outdoors and expedition based learning through to the completion of Year 12.

Boys studying through Year 10 to 12 can extend their learning through regular lessons looking into all aspects of travelling into the great outdoors. Students studying outdoor education fine tune skills taught through Scotts Creek and Wambana, such as menu planning, minimal impact camping and technical skills of expeditions. They also start to look at topics such as leadership, risk assessment, environmental impact, weather and navigation skills.

For our Year 10 boys the Peak Adventure program is one of the most challenging and rewarding experiences for the year. All of our students have the opportunity to select an outdoor activity of their interest and then spend six days in the wilderness trying their skills against nature. This year we had boys riding downhill mountain bikes in the Flinders Ranges, boys crawling through caves down at Naracoorte and boys skiing across the snow covered hills of Falls Creek on the Cross Country skiing trip. All of these programs offer the boys an opportunity to work together with a group of mates in a unique Australian environment.

New Zealand 2012

Andrew, Tom, Ed, Cameron and Angus ready to jump

The journey works to bring balance to their lives allowing them a time to reflect upon their schooling and to overcome some challenge outside of the classroom.

At the end of the year when their schooling is complete a small group of volunteers give up their holiday time to participate in the Outreach program. Boys from our Year 10 and 11 students volunteer their time to support students with intellectual disabilities. This group travels to Scotts Creek every year to provide an opportunity for boys from other schools with no outdoor education, the chance to enjoy the great outdoors like so many of our Princes men. The boys provide support, structure and guidance at first and by the last day are leaving with memories, new friendships and a sense of worth. This program each year is often long and the challenges tough but one thing all our boys come away with is a sense of happiness, a desire to give back to our community and to become more active participants in the world.

The Year 11 Outdoor Education trip to New Zealand again saw a small group of nine boys head off to face some of the more challenging outdoor pursuits that we offer. Starting off the trip with a 35m abseil into a four hour caving experience is a great way to kick start the 10 days of travel. three days of rafting including the 7m drop and a chance to try sledging are all part of the outdoor extension program. Learning about the Maori culture and their love for the outdoors also allows our boys insight into our close neighbour. The final day of activities sums up the adventurous side of New Zealand with a morning jet boat ride, 38m Bungy jump and the 14,000ft Sky dive!

As we approach the end of another year our next group of leaders prepare to assist with the Outreach program looking to share their knowledge, skills and experience with others. We also will see 11 boys heading off to New Zealand to once again challenge themselves with new and exciting outdoor pursuits.

Wambana

Sunset over Spencer Gulf aboard the tall ship The One&All

Wambana continues to build on the success from previous years and 2013 was no exception. Four Year 9 classes attended Wambana (9Dickson, 9Reidy, 9Williams and 9Nicholls).

We welcomed the return of the tall ship The One&All after 18 months in the wilderness. Each class of Year 9 boys enjoyed (and some endured!) this wonderful culmination to the Wambana program. This three day/two night sailing program involved our students sailing from Point Turton to the Australian Maritime Fisheries Academy at Port Adelaide. Students were divided into three watch groups known as Port Watch, Middle Watch and Starboard Watch. Each Watch works as a team to ensure the safe running of the ship.

The most challenging time was in the middle of the night. This required our boys and staff to be on duty between midnight and 4.00am!

The 11km beach run was considered to be the greatest achievement of many boys at Wambana. This involved training early morning fitness training to build up to the 11km run. Many boys surprised themselves with impressive times and many achieved their set goals.

The Grand Master Challenge is always a big hit amongst our boys. This involved completing four set challenges throughout the cycle tour. Day one is 'Heartbreak Hill' in gears 3&8. Day two is the 'Sand Hill', Day three is the 20km 2&8 challenge and day four is Wombats revenge!

Well done to all Year 9 boys for their resilience and effort at Wambana this year.

Learning and Character

One of our three distinct Schools comprising one great College, the Senior School has become the third and final stage of a 'Princes education'. Throughout this 2013 Chronicle, our senior students are showcased demonstrating both their learning and their development of character.

Five years after establishing our Senior School focused upon the distinct learning and developmental needs of older adolescent boys we are meeting or exceeding many performance indicators associated with excellence in twenty-first century senior schooling. Our enrolments increase year on year, our academic results match the best like schools in the nation, the breadth and success of our co-curricular pursuits from sport, to music, public speaking and chess are the envy of our competitors and most significantly, the innate character of our graduates; their confidence, competence and compassion remains our most powerful point of difference.

2013 Captain and Vice-Captain of College Simon Brown and Charlie Hall respectively epitomised the character values towards which we wish senior students to aspire. They are accomplished academically, pursue experiences beyond the classroom whether personal strengths or not, put others before themselves, and role model a tolerant, thoughtful demeanour to their peers and our younger students who observe them so closely.

However, these are not new values or achievements in excellent schools like Princes. Indeed, they are the same values Thomas Arnold, (an oft quoted schoolmaster) introduced to the famous Rugby

School in England when he took the reins in 1828. Until Arnold, the goal of 'character development' in young men was not a formal aim for schools. Before him, the only object of schools was to, 'impart learning'.

Arnold changed that. While 'academic' learning impressed him deeply, for Thomas Arnold the great aim of education was, 'the formation of character'. Henceforth, older adolescent boys at Rugby trained as both 'scholars' and 'gentlemen'.

In our Senior School, student leadership has developed into many roles. College Prefects, Student Representative Council executives, House Leaders, Boarding House Leaders, Sports Team Captains, Music, Co-Curricular, Careers, Library leaders and myriad service opportunities are just more obvious 2013 examples of student leadership articulated by Thomas Arnold nearly 200 years ago.

The education of both, 'the scholar' and 'the gentlemen' continues within Princes Senior School facilitated by our excellent staff. Your sons' teachers are the key drivers of students' educational success (along with their home environment and each boy's innate effort and talents.) I acknowledge and thank the teaching and non-teaching staff of the Senior School for their professionalism and care of your sons.

I especially applaud our Senior School Executive. This team has evolved into the most effective group of educators with which I have been privileged to work so closely. In particular, I acknowledge the Deputy Head of the Senior School, Mr Mark Dell'Oro and my Assistant, Mrs Melissa Dales for their efforts, counsel and inestimable support.

It is important each year that we re-focus upon Thomas Arnold's twin purposes for schools like Princes; the development of 'learning' and of 'character'. Reverend Sydney Buckley a Headmaster in a boys' school for over 30 years expressed it eloquently in 1938 when he wrote,

"The boy is a moral being and the school a human society. The teacher...is required not only to train the intelligence and inform the mind but to touch the springs of character."

During 2013, Prince Alfred College Senior School stayed true to these goals.

Senior School Academic Report

The 2012 SACE and IB Diploma cohorts continued the tradition of outstanding academic achievement.

It was the first Year 12 cohort to complete the new SACE and the outstanding results are a credit to the student's hard work and our inspiring and highly professional teachers.

In total there were 50 Merits achieved (SACE 27 and the IB DP 23) underlining the academic excellence of the students in 2012.

Overall 40.40% students achieved an ATAR of 90.00 or more and the median ATAR of the 2012 cohort was 85.30.

Indeed, there were three Prince Alfred College students who achieved an ATAR of 99.95, Dao Shi Guo and Tenglong Chen in the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program (IBDP) and Shashank Murali in the SACE. While 42 (29 in the SACE and 13 in the IB DP) students achieved an ATAR over 95 and joined the exclusive honour roll of our 'Over Ninety Five' Club.

It is also noteworthy that students in the International Baccalaureate Diploma Program continued to produce outstanding results with the top score of 44 /45 (Dao Shi Guo and Tenglong Chen) and the cohort achieving a median ATAR of 96.30.

On the basis of these results the following prizes were awarded:

Sir Thomas Elder Prize and Dux of School: Tenglong Chen, Dao-Shi Guo and Shashank Murali.

The EB Colton Prize (Proxime Accessit to the Dux of the School): Daniel Foo.

The Malpas Prize for Science: Jack Kelly.

The Longbottom Prize for Mathematics: Ka Kei (Gabriel) Wai.

The Colton Prize for Arts and Languages: Sean Nunan.

Prince Alfred students also continued to display their academic abilities in the wide array of subject competitions. These include the Mathematics Olympiad, South Australian Mathematics Competition, Science Olympiad, Science and Engineering Challenge, Royal Australian Chemical Institute Chemistry Quiz, The Australian History Competition.

The Class of 2013 has demonstrated considerable academic ability and we look forward to reporting on their achievement in early 2014.

Lamatar with local school children after a welcoming ceremony and a donation from our group

It was another busy year at Princes for our students and their involvement in Community Service. Term One saw some of our Year 7s involved in the Clipsal 500 Billy Cart Challenge for the second year running. The students were given the opportunity to build a Billy Cart with their father and race it down pit straight against some of the biggest names in Australian Touring Car Racing. In return for this once in a lifetime opportunity, the boys had to raise awareness and money for The Starlight Foundation. In total, the team of Year 7 students was able to raise an amazing $16,761.

Along with the Billy Cart Challenge, the boys of the Middle School were involved in the World's Greatest Shave in support of the Leukaemia Foundation. The boys were able to raise a staggering $10,801 in a very short time frame and had their heads shaved in front of a special assembly.

A new initiative to the program this year was the Year 10 Breakfast Club which saw the College develop a relationship with Hillcrest Primary School. This led to some of our students attending the school regularly to help provide breakfast for their students and mentor them in their morning classes. This program has been a great success mainly thanks to the support and time given to it by Chris McGuire and Andrew MacGregor.

The Nepal Father/Son Experience was another new event this year which was well received. The idea behind the trip was to take a father and their son to a challenging environment and have them share a once in a lifetime experience together. The inaugural year saw 18 people accompanied by myself and Micha Jensen travel to Kathmandu and then out to the remote Kanchenjunga Region in the east.

The group were immersed in an amazingly beautiful part of the world where they trekked to the village of Amjelesa, spending time in local villages away from the thousands of tourists in other parts of the country.

As part of the experience, the group made a large donation to the Himalayan Children's Education Foundation which was setup by old scholars of Princes, Duncan Chessell and Greg Perks. The group also donated over 20kg of supplies to some very needy schools in the region.

Being able to share this trip with nine fathers and their sons has been one of the highlights of my time teaching at Princes and I hope that this adventure and community trip will continue for many years.

Along with these great highlights we also continued our Year 10 Community Service Week, supported Legacy, The Cancer Council and held fundraising BBQs throughout the year.

The College is proud of its commitment to our students serving the community and is excited about continuing and expanding upon its programs into the future.

Nepal Trip 2013

Our trip to Nepal could, most simply, be described as an 'experience.' It was as much a cultural trip as it was a social and physical one. It was as challenging, unpredictable and surprising as it was rewarding, enjoyable and eye-opening. Our seven days of trekking was certainly all of these things. After a ten hour bus ride on winding road to the Kanchenjunga Range, it was certainly refreshing to start our trek. After a demanding first day's walking, and also extra travel time to arrive in the Kanchenchunga region, we chose to change our trekking destination from Ghunsa to the slightly closer Amjelesa, which, while somewhat disappointing, was the best move and by no means lessened the experience. There were just as many easier days as there were harder ones, but we stood strong and motivated as a group to push through the latter. As well as this, our trekking company provided for us fantastically throughout, giving both moral support and three hearty meals every day. The trek was not just valuable for us physically, either, but personally. The opportunity to bond as fathers and sons was invaluable, as was the chance to forge friendships both in our group and with those we met in Nepal. Just as important was our time with the townsfolk of the region. Many people live in trying conditions in relative poverty, with children who, despite caring greatly about it, undertake schooling with very few resources. Our donations of supplies, money and toys to the local schools were the least we could do to aid these communities, and the experience with them was greatly humbling. Nepal was an experience, to say the least, but it is one that we will never forget. I would go back to Nepal in a heartbeat.

Special thanks to Mr Andrew Stace and Mr Micha Jensen for the inspiration and drive to make the Nepal trip happen, and then expertly supported and lead the group throughout.

Careers Counselling

The Careers Office has been very busy this year running fun careers events, in addition to giving careers counselling and guidance. A Health Science Mega Powerhouse Night was held in March with 220 students attending. Students from PAC, Wilderness, Walford, Seymour and St Peter's Girls Schools heard from a diverse interesting range of industry professionals. The night was sponsored by UniSA and supported by SA Health.

In May, Gap Year Providers, including Camp America spoke at our Gap Year Information Night. The girls schools also attended. Over 200 students heard about programs to Uganda, Scotland, the USA and more. Our opening speaker was Pro-Vice Chancellor Professor Kent Anderson (International) from the University of Adelaide.

Wilderness School and Prince Alfred College united at Wilderness for a memorable Med/Dentistry Night in June, where a significant number of esteemed medical professionals shared their stories and wisdom with the students. The night was opened by the University of Adelaide and Flinders University.

Other events were well attended by our boys

including talks from The University of Melbourne, The University of Warwick (UK) and Nathan Flook who spoke about study in the US, from the US Consulate General Melbourne. The Chartered Accountants Institute of Australia sponsored a fantastic Business Leader's Luncheon for all Year 12s. The focus was "putting your best foot forward for success" and the students certainly enjoyed the schnitzels, chips and ice-cream, not to mention the great speakers.

Our annual Careers Expo was held in August and had 400 people attend. Everyone was treated to Marcellina's pizza and this year, Year 9s were invited to join in. We had 30 exhibitors and 30 guest speaking sessions for the boys to choose from.

Term 4 will include interview coaching for Year 12s who are considering Med/Dentistry pathways and/or scholarships. A Year 10 Careers Pizza Luncheon will be held with guest speakers.

It has been a fantastic year with a real highlight being our wonderful Old Scholars and parents who have contributed to the events we have held. This includes support with Year 11 Work Experience placements.

Wellbeing

The 'Sea Cave' in all its glory

Student Success Team

The Student Success Team (SST) works alongside the boys, recognising individual characteristics, values and beliefs, to enhance and develop the skills that will allow them to meet their particular goals and to celebrate their individual successes.

The Preparatory School SST, led by Marilyn Tregilgas, continues to flourish. In class support, small group support and sometimes individual sessions with boys aim to enhance learning, nurture strengths and maximize potential to succeed academically. This year the team has extended and now includes a Counsellor (Neridah Boraso) who works proactively to support the ongoing development of social and emotional skills required to manage everyday life at school. The 'Sea Cave' is a new space specifically designed as a place to experience 'calm' and to discover ways to increase confidence, friendship and resilience.

This year saw the development of the Student

Success Team within the Middle and Senior Schools. The team has specialized staff and a whole new space called 'The Hub'. In this very comfortable and welcoming space the boys can feel safe to grow emotionally, socially and academically. The Hub is open to boys daily from 7.30–4.30, only closing at recess.

The Wellbeing Coaching Room provides several spaces to use for group work, individual sessions and organized relaxation or mindfulness. The Wellbeing Team includes Janice James-Valentine (Psychologist), Janine Tuffery (Mental Health Practitioner), James Cavanagh and Sue Chisholm (Wellbeing Coaches). Much of the work in this area focuses on skill acquisition using Mindfulness Based Emotional Intelligence Training (MBEIT), which uses individual values to encourage committed action in pursuit of a rich, full and meaningful life — one which will mean experiencing the full range of human emotions. Understanding these emotions and the acquisition of the skills necessary to manage them is crucial to positive mental health. The SST work with Year Level Coordinators to deliver training in various ways including assemblies, year level and class group sessions as well as to those boys accessing the hub.

The Middle and Senior School SST

The Academic Coaching Room is a happy place where the students can gain skills and develop strategies to allow them to feel success as they achieve their individual goals. Sally Wilson, Angela Spitty and Debbie Hulme each epitomise the Academic Coach — positive, encouraging and motivating but appropriately challenging. Many students make use of the space after school (Tuesday–Friday) to work on homework under the watchful eye of staff.

Lunch time in the 'Alfresco Hub' is always busy. Boys from various year levels come together to share conversation, play chess or cards or catch up on a bit of their school work. The atmosphere is friendly and inviting. Supervising staff from the Wellbeing Team are available to casually chat with the boys as required.

Another SST initiative for 2013 was the establishment of our Aboriginal, Torres Strait Islander Team, enthusiastically led by Monica Magann. The team of wonderful boys has worked tirelessly to encourage awareness of indigenouness culture and have, individually, been supported to develop great leadership. Some of the things they have achieved this year include Reconciliation Week in The Hub, Handshake for Harmony Performance, ATSI Team Newsletter, NUNGA YARNZ by Dylan Peisley.

Two Senior School students, Chaise Eade and Shae Haseldine will finish their year of dedication and hard work with the Nation2Nation trip. Along with Tikari Rigney and Bridget Mason, from Seymour College, they will travel to Washington DC and New York and meet with the National Congress of American Indians. They will also engage with Native American youth, policy makers, Elders and educators. They have already met with US Ambassador Bleich and have sent an invitation to President Barack Obama requesting a meeting with him during their stay. On returning to Australia, the team are keen to share their learning experiences with their families, communities and schools.

Student Leadership

Prefects 2013

Back Row: P Russo, L Duffy, J Girvan, C Baker, M Seals, C Burfield, D Sharp, L Janowski, S Fahey-Sparks, S Gerschwitz
Front Row: O Clarke, B Crawford, H Bui, S Brown (Captain of School), Mr K Tutt (Headmaster), C Hall (Vice-Captain of School), H Basedow, H Schievenin, I Smith

Student leadership has again been strongly present throughout the school from all year levels in another wonderful year for the school. This was led by the school Prefects of which sixteen were originally selected at the end of term three, 2012. As part of a new Prefect initiative, two additional Prefects joined the group halfway through term one. Both Brendan Crawford and Paul Russo demonstrated exception leadership qualities prior to their appointment and both were thoroughly deserving of their role. Throughout the year, the group has been working both collectively and individually to realise some of the goals we set in a seminar with 'Rising Generations'. Among many of these goals was to try and promote unity between the three schools. Through various visits to the Preparatory School and working with other year levels in both a classroom and co-curricular setting, this was successfully achieved. Cameron Burfield and Luke Janowski also made a significant contribution to the school through their efforts in creating a feature wall, which adds some great vibrancy to the College. The House Captains and Student Representative Council also formulated an important part of the senior leadership team. Once again, a very successful sports day was organised by the House Captains and their involvement and commitment throughout the day was fantastic. Similarly, the SRC was able to contribute to school life through various acts of fundraising and support of student driven initiatives.

One of the highlights of the year was the Red and White, which was once again superbly organised by the Prefect group, with the boys on the formal committee working particularly tirelessly with the unwavering support of Mrs Dales. The James Bond theme was a hit with both boys and girls and the evening was a great success. As usual, there was some friendly interschool rivalry with netball games against Wilderness and St. Peters Girls providing some great entertainment and dubious final results. The Battle of the Sexes tradition with Walford also continued in strong fashion in what was a classic afternoon.

After an excellent year of leadership from the 2012 Prefects, we took it upon ourselves to continue some of their initiatives they had started to implement. School tours were led frequently by Prefects, whilst the new College victory song 'Cheer, Cheer the Red and the White' was encouraged on multiple occasions. We hope that next year's leaders will continue to uphold these legacies, as well as our own whilst also setting their own path for student leadership in 2014. Finally, I would like to congratulate all school leaders and particularly commend the 2013 Prefects on an excellent year of leadership.

Student Representative Council

Front Row: H Bosi, H Standish, S Ottanelli, Gayen, A Anand, A Heinrich

Absent: S Economos, H Wallace

The role of the SRC is principally to represent the student cohort and advise staff on student matters when necessary.

Throughout the year the SRC met regularly to discuss pertinent issues in the school community and the ongoing purpose of the SRC itself. By introducing a new model of SRC representative selection and appointment, this year's group was more engaged and took to the challenges with great vigour.

Suggestions from the representatives were considered and, where appropriate, put in place, for example in regards to library arrangements and the provision of free cookies. One project was organizing the Middle School social, in association with the Middle School SRC and with the valued support of staff. This took place successfully in term three and proved to be a lively evening of music, dancing and socializing with girls from several other schools.

The SRC also spearheaded fundraising efforts for Legacy, a group which provides support to war widows and the families of soldiers. In addition to raising funds, the SRC engaged the student cohort through selling badges, which promoted greater awareness of the cause. Building on the discussions of this year, the SRC should enter 2014 with clear direction, ready and able to achieve further successes.

Head of Boarding

Since joining the Princes community I have been overwhelmed by the sense of what it is to be "A Princes Man" and the essential role that boarding plays in this.

Boarding is a unique experience and the boys in the Princes boarding community are encouraged to develop an understanding of what it means to be a Princes Man. At the commencement of 2013 I gained a greater appreciation of the depth of history that we have in boarding. The third, fourth and fifth generation of boarders that we have in the current boarding community is significant.

Being a 'Princes Man' is not some modern marketing phenomenon. My conversations with many old boys illustrate through their stories and memories that being a Princes man is a genuine life experience and is worn as badge of honour. Throughout 2013 we have attempted to increase the level of personal understanding of this by the boys through their experiences. This is critical, because whilst the boarding program in its entirety and the professional staff are important contributors to the overall success of the Boarding House in any given year, it is the boys who must engage it what is on offer. Without their support and contributions, our community wouldn't exist and any achievements would be significantly less.

Princes has been a boarding school since its inception in 1869 and boarders continue to be the life blood of the school's community.

Unquestionably, 2013 has been commenced as another remarkable year for the boarding community, with so much achieved by so many boys. Each boy has been challenged to try his absolute best academically and to enjoy the wide array of experiences offered through the Boarding House Activities program. Some have also been active participants in the school's Outdoor Education and extra-curricular programs and have also played important roles as leaders. The outstanding personal and/or team achievements of boarders in some of these areas is evident throughout this newspaper and something of which they can be justifiably be proud. 2013 is also my first year in the boarding community and I am thankful for the kindness and hospitality that I and my family have been greeted with.

Boarders' Day BBQ fundraiser

This year's Boarders' Day, held on Friday 13 September was a highlight of the year for the boarding community. It provided the 135 boarders with a fantastic opportunity to share their life in the Princes boarding community with their peers, teachers and non-teaching staff members of the College. The day provided a catalyst to bring together the many achievements of the boys who are from a wide and diverse background.

A highlight of the Boarders' Day was the early morning distribution of this year's annual Boarders' Herald. The 16-page publication (kindly printed by Michael Ellis and his team at the Yorke Peninsula Country Times) delivered to the boys and other members of the school community early on Friday 13th September, reflects the energy, efforts and achievements of boarding life. The 2013 edition is a further refinement on previous editions, highlighting the diversity of boys and their achievements — from flying aeroplanes to jumping out of them!

The Boarders' Day Assembly is a traditional event and the focus of Boarders' Day. This year's assembly did not disappoint and provided the broader school community with some insights into boarding life. Boys from Year 8 through to Year 12 spoke about aspects of boarding life and their backgrounds. The common thread through the diversity of experiences and backgrounds was that the boys were appreciative of their boarding experience and were proud to be Princes Men. There were some interesting short movies featuring a selection of the Boarding Activities program offerings, while several of the International boarders provided an insight into life as an international boarder at the College. To contrast the international experience, Tom Fulcher (Year 8) provided the assembly with a fantastic overview of station life in the Northern Territory. Ben Heaslip (Captain of Boarding) proved to be a wonderful master of ceremonies, with his opening speech demonstrating the significant impact that boarding has had on Ben's life at Princes.

Following the assembly the whole school was invited to attend the annual Rushton Cup Football match which was played at lunchtime on the back oval in a country football atmosphere for the first time. This was a new idea for Boarders' Day and enabled the boys from Fiddian and Bayly/Hartley to fiercely compete for bragging rights over the Rushton Cup in front of a great crowd. The country feel was also contributed to with a magnificent BBQ which was able to raise over $1,075 for Ronald McDonald House on the day!

I must thank the Catering Manager Mr Darryl Attiwill and his team for providing the essential ingredients for a great BBQ, with the majority of ingredients kindly donated by some of the College's suppliers. Their support with the BBQ preparation and the work of the Housekeeping team in helping us set up on the day was certainly appreciated.

Special thanks must also be extended to Captain of Boarding, Ben Heaslip, and the team of Prefects who oversaw the production of the presentations and videos for the assembly and the cooking of the BBQ. I would also like to extend my appreciation to the Boarding House staff that assisted with general organization of the day and the significant contributions in putting together the Boarders' Herald.

Overall, the day was a memorable occasion, with over $1075, raised for the Boarding House charity, Ronald McDonald House. Just as importantly the day show-cased many of the boarders, the breadth and diversity of the activities they are involved in after school hours and on the weekends and it also allowed members of the school community to gain an insight into the diverse backgrounds of the boys. For many boarders, home is hundreds or even thousands of kilometres from Prince Alfred College, for some boys it is even in another country. Despite some of the challenges that are associated with living so far from home to attend school here at Princes the boarders are a happy, enthusiastic and very supportive group of young men. They share a unique way of life and are part of a community that adds enormous value to the Princes Community.

International Students

PAC international students and teachers at the summit of Mount Lofty

The International Students Transition Program and Intensive English

The ISTP is an established and successful program at PAC. It offers intensive support in academic English language acquisition for international students in Years 8–10 who are new to Australia and whose language skills are not yet sufficient to best facilitate success in mainstream subjects. It is the goal of this program to transition students to the mainstream with English language competence and confidence. Students undertake cultural familiarisation activities as well as developing their subject language skills and some related content abilities in Humanities, Maths and Science. The main focus of their learning is on the integral skills of writing reports, essays and reviews, research and grammar capabilities, reading and listening comprehension, oral presentation, general speaking skills and vocabulary building. As their language skills and confidence improve, these students are gradually integrated into mainstream classes where they have more interaction with native speakers and are better able to communicate with them and in the new subjects.

This year, students in the program have come primarily from China, but have also included boys from Thailand, Korea, Mexico, Afghanistan, Africa and Cambodia. In the second semester, we have once again enjoyed the participation of four newly arrived international girls from Wilderness School who have added a new dimension to our classes as they have worked collaboratively with the boys to improve their English language skills. While both PAC and Wilderness School are committed to educating boys and girls in a single gender setting, we also recognise that international students, new to Australia, benefit from working together to understand the cultural differences they will encounter and to acquire the language skills needed for successful participation in their academic programs. We have had in excess of 25 students involved in the program this year, with more expected to start in Term 4.

Through their involvement in associated outdoor education activities, including the annual four day camp at Scotts Creek and local area excursions, opportunities are provided for participants to interact further with each other, the environment and native language speakers for acculturation purposes and later related discussion and writing activities. Last year's canoeing, tenting, climbing, high ropes and team building activities camp was a highlight for the students, and this year's cohort is eagerly anticipating their turn in November. The boys are strongly encouraged to join College sports teams, and earlier this year were also very proud of their involvement, achievements and friendships made in the International Students' Intercollegiate games with St Peter's College.

One of last year's duxes at PAC, Dao Shi Guo, started at our College two years previously with

Big Band Report

2013 has certainly been a standout year for the PAC music department, especially the Big Bands. We have expanded our number of gigs this year, with our bands playing at many school functions including the Old Scholars' Dinner, Head of the River, and numerous assemblies. We have also played more out-of-school gigs than ever before, with our bands being invited to perform at the Southern Jazz Club, the Capri Theatre, and Norwood Live in addition to our usual competitions down at Mount Gambier and Westminster.

We kicked off our string of successes this year with our top-notch results at Generations in Jazz at Mt Gambier. We brought six bands to compete (more than any other school) over every skill level, including being one of only eleven schools in the nation to compete in Division 1. Big Band 1 cemented its reputation as one of the best school jazz bands in Australia by placing third, our best result ever. In addition, Matthew O'Brien and I were lucky enough to be selected as Future Finalists for the James Morrison Scholarship, placing us as two of the best seven soloists out of over 3,000 students.

We continued our success down at the ABODA State Band Competition at Westminster, with Big

We finished off the year with the massively successful All That Jazz concert where jazz legend James Morrison played alongside our Big Bands; a true honour from a modern musical master. Without a doubt it has been a fantastic year for the Big Band program at PAC, and under the unparalleled leadership and devotion of Mr Andrew Newhouse, we have raised the bar for future generations.

Senior Band Report

In a team environment, success is achieved when each team member plays his or her individual role with excellence. The members achieve this excellence through persistence, hard work and learning from previous experiences.

2013 has been one of the finest years for the Senior Concert Band with many memorable highlights.

This year was the first time the Senior Concert Band won Gold and beat Saint Peter's Boys College at the annual ABODA competition; another tick to the bucket list. Our feature song, Ride, was a highlight. Playing one of the most energetic and technically demanding 'own choice' pieces at the competition gave the Senior Band boys a challenging adventure to be cherished.

Additionally, none will forget the inaugural Senior Concert Band performance of the Prince Alfred College Fanfare played around the balconies of ANZAC Hall. Mr. Newhouse, the conductor, stood on the stage, looking up at a circle of instrumentalists, panning his conducting skills in a circular motion, generating powerful waves of fanfare sound. Later in this concert, Senior Concert Band combined with both the Junior and Intermediate Concert Bands to perform "Camina Burana" — the famous tune from the beer advertisement "It's a big ad." As much fun as this was, the hard work of practicing paid off, and the hundred odd members in this combined band generated an enormous block of sound. It was truly a spectacular experience.

Due to the ambition amongst our motivated band members, playing within the Kent Town campus just wasn't enough for the Senior Concert Band boys. As another experience, we drove up the road to play with the Senior Concert Band from Seymour College. This was very musically fulfilling working with another polished concert band.

The whole year has been very enjoyable and has created valuable memories. I wish the Senior Concert Band luck for the continued success and enjoyment in music that lies ahead of them in 2014.

Choir Report

During 2013, the choir has continued to develop, similar to recent years. We have had a growth in numbers from the Preparatory School which is pleasing for the Princes Choir's future. Within the choir, we have had a large increase in Tenor and Alto voices which has increased the capability and complexity of music that we can perform, adding stronger 3-part harmonies. The Princes Choir and the Jazz Choir have had a few performances that we have looked forward to in anticipation, including the Ex-POW Chapel Service, the Vocal and String Showcase, just to name a few. Whilst still preparing our classical choral pieces, this year we have built on top of the new repertoire from past years with a more rock and pop focus, with signature pieces including Viva La Vida and Pride (In The Name of Love).

Earlier in the year, the Jazz Choir accompanied the Big Bands for the second time to the Generations in Jazz Festival. Competing in Division Two, we sang two songs: It's You and Oh, What a Beautiful Morning, with solos by Krishna Moorthy and myself. In summary, we felt that it was a worthwhile performing experience and good practice for younger members.

Another highlight of the year would have to be performing with jazz legend Mr James Morrison at the "All That Jazz" concert. To sing with the legend at a sold out concert was a memorable experience.

There are five Choristers who received 5 Year Medallions for Service to the Princes Choir, including myself, Jordan Lesicar, Joshua Lesicar, James Saunders, and Thomas Saunders. These students are to be commended for their ongoing work and support with the choir.

In the coming years, we will be continuing to work on strengthening the choir's musical ability and performance. We are also keen to return to Mount Gambier to participate in the Generations in Jazz Festival as it was a clear highlight for the year and a good way to experience an atmosphere jammed full of entertainment and music. Through the extensive effort and guidance of the Choirmaster, Tasso Bouyessis and the assistance of our accompanist, Macarena Zambrano, I believe that 2014 will be, yet again, another year of fun-filled choral experiences and a chance to further develop vocal ability for all students.

Strings Report

It has been a year of variety and promise in the strings department. Evidence of improvement has been reflected in our performances throughout the year, and the foundations have been placed the future generations.

This year, our ensembles: Vigoroso, Orpheus, and Sinfonia have played music of many genres to reach to other audiences. Every year should be as delightful as 2013 has been; honing our craft, the discovery of new opportunities, and immersing ourselves into the privilege of expressing one's self through music. As always, in Term 3 the PAC Sinfonia ensemble (the most senior string orchestra) was honoured to collaborate with the Saint Peters Girl's Senior Orchestra on numerous occasions. A notable performance was our participation at the ABODA Festival, where students are presented with the opportunity to challenge themselves against other string ensembles from across SA and perhaps beyond. This year resulted with us achieving a silver award.

However, the most iconic performance of the year would have to be our attempt play a concert with music featured in computer games. Leaping out of our normal classical regime, we delivered a performance of enjoyment, nostalgia and joy.

A sense of achievement is found in the PAC strings department every year. Determination, hard work and pride are the things that make progress. As always, on behalf of the members of the strings program and community, I thank Mrs Berberyan for her guidance and the amount of time and effort in developing the strings program. Also thanks to the lads who are so proud and passionate in their seeking greater opportunities with their strings.

Senior School Arts Honours winners

It was again inspiring to see the development of our 2013 student leaders in the Arts Community.

Many thanks again to those boys recognized below. Thanks also to those not selected this year including our ensemble leaders, section leaders and all boys who step up to lead as required. The mentoring of younger students by almost all our senior players is one of the key differences in our Department and one of the most significant factors in our success over the last 12 months.

There are two awards. Creative Achievement recognizes a significant level of creative achievement combined with a consistent contribution to the artistic life of the school.

Winners for 2013 in this category were

William Cambell	Alan McInnes
Hugo Chapman	Thomas Miller
Lucas DeGaris	Brandon Reynolds
Harrison Klenk	Anthony Rositano
Thomas Lancione	Paul Russo
Alvin Lee	Matthew Smalls

The other award, Arts Honours requires a student to demonstrate continued artistic excellence, a genuine demonstration of service and commitment to the younger students and a significant contribution to the artistic life of the school beyond their first award.

There were five worthy recipients of this award this year.

Matthew O'Brien — Award with Honours

Matthew has made a significant contribution to music at Prince Alfred College over a number of years. He began studying the trombone in the 2005 Beginners' Band, and was quickly promoted through the ranks. Through his outstanding solo at Generations in Jazz 2009, Matthew was selected for a Division 2 Superband. He was promoted to a full member of both Big Band 1 and the Senior Concert Band in 2010. Matthew is an exceptional jazz soloist, his solo in 'First Circle' at Generations in Jazz this year, required incredible maturity to navigate the constantly changing time signatures. Out of a possible 3,000 students at Generations, Matthew was selected to be one of the six students to receive the Future Finalists award.

He has participated in the Jazz SA Superband program since 2011. After this year's auditions, he won the position of section leader in the 1st band's trombone section. In 2012 he was the first student from this school to be selected for the Juilliard Winter School. Following successful performances at this event, he was selected for an additional scholarship, which includes an opportunity to work with the jazz legend, Mr James Morrison.

Trevor Adelson — Award with Honours

Trevor is a talented performer who has contributed greatly to the artistic life of the school. Starting in the Junior Band, he was soon promoted to Senior Concert Band in 2009. Trevor also has played in a number of Big Bands, being selected for a Division

2 Superband position in the 2010 Generations in Jazz before being promoted to Big Band 1 later that year. He has been selected to play lead trumpet in this ensemble on many occasions and is also an exceptional soloist. Due to his inspired solo and outstanding lead playing at this year's Generations, Trevor was selected as one of the six Future Finalists.

Following auditions at the start of this year, Trevor was selected to perform in the 2nd trumpet chair in the Jazz SA 1st Superband, enabling him to play regularly with Adelaide's best musicians and directors. His participation in the mentoring program shows a genuine dedication to passing on his skills to the younger boys and his leadership has contributed significantly to the success of several band tours. He has also sung with the Jazz Choir memorising his part in near record time. Trevor has also been an inspiring Head of Music. His quiet dedication was evident in the hours of organisation he contributed behind the scenes.

Angus Lawrence — Award with Honours

Angus is an exceptional musician who has contributed to the life of the Music Department over a number of years. He began his percussion studies in 2005 and continued these when he moved to PAC in 2007. He was quickly promoted through the ranks and secured both the Senior Concert Band and Big Band 1 drum chair in 2009. Since then, he was awarded the Generations in Jazz Division 1 Superband award in 2012 and was also chosen for the Division 1 Development Award.

He auditioned successfully for the 2nd Jazz SA Superband and regularly plays with some of Adelaide's best young musicians and directors. Angus has attended workshops with such luminaries as Bernie Dresel, Gordon Goodwin, Ross Irwin, James Morrison and Dusty Cox. He was selected to perform in the Juilliard Winter School in Melbourne earlier this year and spent a week playing in rehearsals and performances with some of the best young jazz soloists from Australia and overseas. Angus has been an outstanding Captain of Percussion, often spending hours before concerts transporting and assembling the required percussion equipment.

Samuel Leeson — Award with Honours

Samuel is a dedicated musician whose hard work has enabled him play at the highest levels. After beginning on violin, he switched to bass lessons after moving to PAC. Due to his late start on this instrument and his relative lack of experience, he was often placed in ensembles with many younger boys. In these bands, Samuel was always punctual, well organised and led his section with quite a purpose. Due to his focused practice routine, he rapidly moved up the rankings, finally achieving the full promotion to both Senior Concert Band and Big Band 1 in 2013, after several stints as a temporary replacement player. In 2013, he was also selected as the second best jazz bass player in the Jazz SA Superband program; bettered only by a player currently studying in the Adelaide University Jazz course.

Samuel has been an exceptional mentor to the younger bass players at PAC, frequently attending extra rehearsals to play along-side the younger bass players in rehearsals and sectionals.

Luke Janowski — Award with Honours

Luke is a versatile musician with an incredibly broad range of talents. Starting in the 2009 Beginners' Band, he was promoted almost at the end of every year, reaching both the Senior Concert Band and Big Band 1 in 2009. At the 2012 Generations in Jazz, he was the first student from this school to be awarded the most prestigious Future Finalist award. As part of this prize, Luke improvised a solo at the closing concert in a band that included the jazz great Mr James Morrison. He is also a talented rapper and beat-boxer, performing at numerous public functions. He has won several talent competitions including one that had an audience of over 1,000. Luke has also produced music in several genres including contemporary dance, hip-hop and dubstep. s part of his classroom music assignments, he has produced three songs this year that were aired on Fresh FM.

Luke has been an exceptional mentor, sharing his knowledge of music freely and enthusiastically with many younger players.

Andrew Newhouse

Shades of Red

Back Row: C Colombo, T Bateman, M R N Iadanza

Front Row: O Clarke, L Duffy, O Collison, L McNamara, Mrs M Marshall, X Warne, B Siebels

2013 will mark the seventh year since the Shades of Red poetry, art and photography journal was first introduced to the College, an annual event that has proved invaluable in harnessing the creativity and talent of our boys. At the beginning of the year, a committee of nine students began work on this year's edition of the journal. Looking back on what was achieved by the committee last year, the task proved to be intimidating as the accomplishment of the outgoing Year 12s would be a difficult act to follow. However, for current Year 12s Lachlan Duffy, Oliver Clarke, Xavier Warne and myself, as well as the enthusiastic and talented Year 11 students Tyson Bateman, Lachlan McNamara, Ben Siebels, Oliver Collison, and Eamonn O'Farrell-White, the challenge was met with eager anticipation.

In the early stages before submissions began, our frequent meetings acted as a great opportunity for everyone to become acquainted with each other and develop a mutual comfort in working as a group. Our primary focus was to ensure that all students of the Middle and Senior Schools were aware of how to submit their works to the committee, with exposure gained through the fantastic work of Mr Iadanza and his video presentations in assembly. Indeed, it is important to acknowledge both Mr Iadanza and Mrs Marshall for their unwavering devotion to the journal, with their efforts going a long way in both the development and publishing process.

Since the inception of Shades of Red, or as it was formerly known, Red Leaves, the prospect of compiling a journal of poetry, art and photography has been met with much hesitation. In today's world where adolescents seemingly prefer to express themselves through tumblr blogs and Facebook walls, it always remains unknown whether the current lot of students would even be interested in submitting poetry to the journal. Yet, every year, we are blown away with just how well the journal is received among the boys; and this year was no exception. What seemed to be countless entries resulted in one of the largest Shades of Red editions thus far; the student response has been simply astounding.

Each one of these unique entries is viewed by our committee members in what is perhaps the most fulfilling aspect of constructing the journal. As a group we strive to ensure that as many students are represented in the journal as possible, and consequently, it reflects a diverse range of works from throughout the College. This year also saw the introduction of an Instagram submission option through which students could upload their photos with a simple tag to ensure submission to the committee. The complexity and sophistication displayed throughout many of these works highlight how poetry still remains both a relevant and effective medium in our Princes community.

In fact, this sense of community is reflected throughout much of what defines Shades of Red. Each edition is a communal celebration of the College; a uniquely collaborative effort fueled by the students that attend the College throughout the year, and sometimes previous years as well. Recently, we were lucky enough to be reunited with past committee members Fraser Goldsworthy and Ross Anderson, who were kind enough to provide their assistance with the design and collation process.

I look forward to the forthcoming years in which I can look back on the Shades of Red editions sitting on my bookshelf, remembering what it was like to attend Prince Alfred College in 2012 and 2013. Each edition truly represents the Princes community of that particular time, each poem or artwork an insight into the personalities and characters that defined that era. It is truly a timestamp of the best sort; not one filled with census or statistic, but rather reflective of creativity and expression.

PAC Senior School chess completed another successful year. Five teams were entered in the Secondary Interschool Competition: two in Division 1, two in Division 2 and one in Division 3.

The Division 1 Red team finished 1st in the competition, narrowly edging out St Peter's College in the final match to clinch victory. The team consisted of Eddie Han, Peter Gregoric, Joel Lee, Jason Huynh and Terence Ang.

Led by Jack O'Brien, PAC Red finished 4th in the Division 2 competition. PAC Gold finishing in 17th place from 26 teams entered.

In the Division 3 competition, PAC Red also fielded one team in Division 3 finished strongly in 6th place from 15 teams entered.

PAC won the secondary Champion School Shield for the fourth consecutive year, ahead of St Peter's College and Glenunga IHS.

We were pleased Peter Gregoric and Joel Lee were selected to participate in the 'Jets' national coaching clinic held in Sydney.

A pleasing number of boys competed in the City of Adelaide and South Australian Junior Championships held during the April and July holidays. Eddie Han (Year 9) continued last year's excellent form, convincingly winning the City of Adelaide Junior Championships and also the State U18 Championship, Peter Gregoric the U16, Joel Lee the U15 and Denny Han the U14 titles.

PAC won the annual intercollegiate Chess match against St Peter's College in a nail-biting match: 5.5 to 4.4. It was a thrilling display after initially being 4-1 down.

Eddie Han was the winner of the Middle School Championship and Danyon White won the Senior School Championship.

Danyon White is to be congratulated on being an excellent role model as Captain of Chess through his dedication and outstanding skills as a Chess player. I am grateful to Mrs Marie Milicevic for her supervision of Friday night matches at the Chess Centre.

Special thanks must go to the coach, Mr Richard Thorne, who generously gave his time and expertise to coach the senior school Chess boys. His immense enthusiasm, passion and love for the game have been invigorating for all involved.

Debating

What a season it was! PAC fielded ten Debating squads in the Senior section of Debating SA in 2013. Our 42 speakers came from across the Middle and Senior Schools — from Junior 6/7s to our talented, plucky Year 11s on that top rung, debating as a Senior team.

Our youngsters formed three teams at 6/7 level — Blue, Green and Red — with each finishing the season among the top six in that division. The Association doesn't hold finals rounds at this level so the lads finished the season triumphant but wishing they could have the excitement of finals debates.

PAC 6/7 Blue — Luke Bardy, Will Zhang, Angus Brosnan and Tom Dobson — debated smoothly as a team, being generous and diligent at all times and finishing second on the ladder. Green particularly shone with their rebuttal technique and the speakers Cormac O'Brien, Max Kirkby and Denny Han, responded to tough competition with poise and skill every single time. Red prepared thoroughly and in an organized manner for each debate, with speakers Alex Economos, William Economos and Edmario Lesi communicating and evaluating practice with a maturity beyond their years. Ethan Lawson gave much-appreciated, unstinting support all season with Chairing and Timing for the Reds.

Similarly, Year 8 speakers were organized across three teams, PAC 8 Blue, Green and Red. Awards for Speaker of the Night were liberally peppered across this talented young cohort. Blue was notable for its good humour and the leadership potential which became apparent when they (William Dodsworth, Peter Mourtzios, Mitchell Moore, Harrison Cal and Ming Li) interacted in rehearsal and performance. The Green squad was made up of Hugo Bosi, James Luke, Seb Walker and Richard Larkin. Their lively enthusiasm was bubbling along and Seb's creativity (bravery?) gained him the year level 'Crazy Hair' Round. Our Red team showed intelligence and focus unstintingly. Brainstorming sessions were a joy to witness; team collaboration was superb. That squad was made up of Doug Gerard, Jordan Lesicar, Zac Mizgalski and Patrick Gayen.

We fielded two squads at Year 9 level — Blue and Green, blending them from time to time when the demands of Wambana or illness dictated flexibility. At these times, the speakers were, to a man, gracious about stepping into unfamiliar speaking roles without their usual team dynamic. A season highlight has to be the way the Nines helped each other and in particular Green's performance under extreme stress on one occasion. The group — Eddie Han, Henry Lock, Chris O'Leary, Aeden Towie, Mason Berlein, Kurt Berlein and Kieran Fitch — exceeded all our expectations. They have been a delight!

Year 10s — Timothy Hobbs, Andy Nguyen and Jack O'Brien — had their share of hard work during the season, but there was a lot of collective laughter too. Veiled Adjudicator references were made about an incredulous Tim's (he is the consummate gentleman) 'overly-aggressive' manner, a team forfeited against us just when our truly desperate case preparation seemed to be going nowhere (yes!) and an Adjudicator of a single-card debate quite failed to appreciate that Andy's use of a single A4 note-sheet was brilliantly creative!

The Senior squad members were fine role models to the more junior teams, showing themselves at all times to be poised, flexible, intelligent, sharply witty and full of humour. John Dongas, William Miller, Tyson Bateman and Timothy Hobbs stunned (almost rendering speechless) one Adjudicator when they prepared a highly incisive, intellectual response to the case "That Father Christmas has a harder job than the Easter Bunny". William won Best Speaker Award no less than three times. These gentlemen came so very close to victory in both the Intercol Debate and the Association Quarter Finals. The future looks bright!

Warm thanks must go to the conscientious Coaches. Sandra Caudal, Deb King, Mani White, Mark Wilde and Greg Zheng have been dedicated guides for our 42 team members and a marvellous support to me as Co-ordinator/Coach. They are nothing short of inspirational in their dedication to the nurturing of young debaters. Debating requires a wide swathe of skills — the ability to approach a case with creativity, cleverness and a sense of fun; to think critically; to communicate with and work easily with others in a team setting and ultimately to perform in a highly articulate, persuasive manner. It requires dedication and lots of practice. Our 2013 coaches deserve high praise for their support and motivation of these boys.

And finally, we acknowledge the importance of our families. Those parents and siblings who venture out on brisk evenings over two terms, including the entire season of winter: the way that you encourage and support the boys and Coaches is deeply appreciated. We thank you for your unwavering support.

Public Speaking students take on the United Nations

This year, the Public Speaking programme at Prince Alfred College has continued to expand and evolve, with some new additions to the range of competitions and training workshops, including new opportunities to become involved in the UN Youth.

Competitions in which students have represented the College this year include: the UN Youth SA Conference, IPSHA Junior Orator, Rostrum Voice of Youth, Plain English Speaking Award, IPSHA Poetry Recital, PAC Lodge Short Talk Competition, UN Evatt Trophy Competition and our annual King's Speech Competition. In addition, students from Years 6 to 12 were also given the opportunity to attend more 'on-campus' training, receiving valuable advice from experts such as Rostrum Freeman (and adjudicator) Patrick Burke, as well as attending workshops run by the UN Youth SA, as part of the Evatt In Schools Programme.

Patrick Gayen (runner up) and Max Kirkby (winner) in the Middle School Division of the 2013 King's Speech Competition

Theo Squires delivering his winning speech in the Senior School Division of the 2013 King's Speech Competition

The King's Speech Competition

At the heart of our Public Speaking programme, the King's Speech Competition was again the highlight of the year, attracting even more competitors than previous years and continuing to inspire excellence in the art of oral communication. In total, 27 boys took the stage this year to deliver their views on a range of social, cultural, environmental or political issues, testing their linguistic prowess before an audience of students, staff, parents and adjudicators. The quality of speeches was noticeably higher this year (especially in the Senior School division) and adjudicators commented on this, whilst also praising the excellent topics, arguments and deliveries of all our competitors.

After a combined total of 54 speeches, with special thanks to our Rostrum adjudicators, the three winners (and runner-ups) for this year's Lionel Logue Award were as follows:

Preparatory School Division:

Lionel Logue Award: Blake Cranna (on the topic of 'Why we shouldn't wear ties')

Runner up: Ethan Brewerton (on the topic of 'How SA's introduced Marine Parks affect recreational use')

Middle School Division:

Lionel Logue Award: Max Kirkby (on the topic of 'Technology's Impact')

Ethan Brewerton (runner up) and Blake Cranna (winner) in the Preparatory School Division of the 2013 King's Speech Competition

Runner up: Patrick Gayen (on the topic of 'Is Solar Energy Really Worth it?')

Senior School Division:

Lionel Logue Award (for the third year in a row): Theodore Squires (on the topic of 'Good Government')

Runner up: Shaun Gerschwitz (on the topic of 'Cambodia — good government')

Beyond the College

The improved quality of speeches during 2013 has clearly testified to the benefits of ongoing participation in Public Speaking activities, and this was also confirmed by the achievements of students participating in various external competitions this year. In particular, after his 'hat-trick' in the Senior School division of the King's Speech Competition, Theodore Squires must be given special mention. Not only has he now set a very formidable benchmark for future King's Speech competitors, but he was also selected as a State Finalist in both the Plain English Speaking Award (in which he placed a very close second) and the Rostrum Voice of Youth — both very prestigious national competitions.

Also of note were the achievements of those Year 10 and 11 boys competing in UN Youth activities this year — working in pairs as representatives of various countries and wheeling, dealing and debating over mock UN Security Council resolutions. In first semester, William Campbell and Cale Amos, both performed so admirably in the SA UN Youth Conference that they were each selected to represent South Australia in the National UN Youth Conference in Sydney. In the second semester, six Prince Alfred College boys (including William Campbell, William Miller, Cale Amos and Ibukun Oloruntoba) were also selected to compete in the State Finals of the UN Youth's Evatt Trophy Competition, with two of these boy (Tim Hobbs and Andy Nguyen — both Year 10 boys) placing 3rd in the State against students from years 11 and 12, and being chosen to represent South Australia in the National Finals in Perth during December.

2013 has certainly been an exciting year for Public Speaking at Prince Alfred College, and the steady rise in talent and student successes bodes very well for the future of our Public Speaking culture. Well done to all boys involved, and again a big thank you to those organisations such as Rostrum and the UN Youth for helping us to inspire excellence in our Public Speaking students.

Director of Sport

Princes students love playing sport for the College

I am delighted by the consistently large number of students participating in the co-curricular and sporting programs here at Prince Alfred College. In both the summer and winter seasons a huge number of boys commit to regular practices and weekend matches across eighteen sport and co-curricular activities. There is a powerful and positive sense of community spirit at venues around the College and at away matches. It is exciting to watch our students passionately representing the College to the best of their abilities and it brings home to me that we have the right balance to inspire excellence in human movement as well as through our academic program. Over five hundred Middle School and Senior School students participate in badminton, cricket, swimming, tennis, rowing, water polo, athletics, basketball, chess, debating, football, hockey, mooting, public speaking, rugby union, soccer, squash, and table tennis. I am proud to proclaim that in an era when many schools are facing a decline in the number of students participating in sport and co-curricular, our enduring sporting tradition is thriving. For me, along with our coaches and parents, sport and co-curricular continues to be a source of enjoyment, friendship and education. Participation in Prince Alfred College sport and co-curricular programs promotes physical fitness, a healthy lifestyle and sometimes challenges young men to face adversity and strive against the odds. These challenges are character building, instilling the qualities of self-discipline, perseverance, selflessness and improved self-esteem in our students. Above all our players strive to demonstrate consistent teamwork and uncompromising sportsmanship. Through sport we enhance our students' well-being and this has been the Princes way for 144 years. It is an integral part of the College's culture. Students develop teamwork, resilience, leadership, courage, self-awareness and self-actualization by representing the College. Our dedicated coaching staff, parental support groups, school management and ground staff, do a magnificent job collectively, enabling our students the best opportunities to enjoy playing sport.

2013 Honours Colours Awards

"True sport is always a duel:

A duel with nature, with one's own fears, with one's own fatigue, a duel in which body and mind are strengthened"

(Yevgeny Yevtushenko Russian poet)

Prince Alfred College acknowledges students who have demonstrated a high level of sporting proficiency with body and mind during the sporting and co-curricular season. They are outstanding young men who have been winning the duel to reach the highest standard within their chosen sport. They have demonstrated strength, skill and other qualities that Princes deems important in a College sportsman.

For exemplary sportsmanship, selfless contribution and individual excellence to Rowing at Prince Alfred College

Nicholas Parletta: Rowing

Nicholas Parletta was appointed Captain of Boats in 2012 a position awarded to him as a result of his enthusiasm and commitment to Rowing at Prince Alfred College. He has led the Boat Shed well and has shared his obvious enjoyment and motivation for the sport with his team mates at all times. Nicholas was a member of the winning 1st VIII in both 2012 and 2013, only the 10th boy in the history of PAC Boat Club to achieve this feat. The 1st VIII was also the RowingSA Schoolboy Crew of the Year in 2013 and placed second at the Australian National Championships in the Under 19 Eight. Nicholas's performance at training, both on and off the water, was second to none and he has been a motivational leader for the Boat Shed. His attitude to training is excellent and his consistency is a trademark in all that he undertakes. In January this year, Nicholas trialled for and gained selection in the South Australian Youth Olympics Squad which competed at the 2013 Youth Olympic Festival held in Sydney. This was the sixth edition of the Festival with 1700 athletes from 30 countries competing in 17 sports at many of the Olympic venues around Sydney. Nicholas was also a member of the PAC Quad which competed successfully at the Henley Royal Regatta in June last year. The crew had an outstanding regatta progressing through to the semi-finals before being eliminated by the eventual winners. Nicholas' determination and persistence in getting the job done make him a worthy role model. He works positively as a team member and possesses the ability to motivate and inspire enthusiasm in others. Nicholas has played an integral part in helping his Boat Club place a close second in the 2013 Rowing SA School Boy Premiership. Nicholas has made a significant contribution to the sport of Rowing and is a most fitting recipient of the highest sporting accolade, Honours Colours.

Tyson Beauchamp: Rowing

Tyson Beauchamp has been a member of the 1st VIII for the past two seasons and is only the 11th boy in the history of the Boat Club to win consecutive 1st VIII races at the Head of the River. He is a wonderful athlete and a valued member of the Prince Alfred College Boat Shed. He possesses a superb 'feel' for the rhythm of a rowing boat and was arguably the best technician in the Shed throughout the past two rowing seasons. The 1st VIII was awarded the RowingSA Schoolboy Crew of the Year in 2013 and placed second at the Australian National Championships in the Under 19 Eight. Tyson's attitude and performance at training, both on and off the water was second to none and his consistency is a trademark in all that he undertakes. At the end of the 2012 season, Tyson was selected into the South Australian Institute of Sport (SASI) Target Squad. This squad is a 'feeder' program for the SASI Rowing squad and aims to identify athletes considered to possess Olympic sporting potential, fast tracking their development. More recently, following several National Camps at the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra, Tyson gained selection into the Australian Junior Development Team and participated in a successful tour of New Zealand racing against the New Zealand National Junior team. Tyson is an excellent team player. He has a quiet demeanour, is serious in all he undertakes and professional in his approach. He has played an integral part in helping his Boat Shed place a close second in the 2013 Rowing SA School Boy Premiership. Tyson has made a significant contribution to the sport of Rowing and is a most fitting recipient of the highest sporting accolade, Honours Colours.

For exemplary sportsmanship, selfless contribution and individual excellence in Tennis at Prince Alfred College

James Ma: Tennis

James was awarded Honours Colours in 2012 for his elite ability in tennis. Since that award James has gained further personal and team distinction. He was a member of the Trinity Gardens Premier League team which won the premiership in the winter competition in 2012 and was runner up in the summer competition in 2013. He scaled back his tournament schedule to focus more on his studies but still maintained a level to compete at the Nationals 18 and under in December 2012. He was appointed Co-Captain of Tennis for the College for the 2012/2013 season and led the Drive Team with distinction. He was awarded the Independent Schools Sports Association Player of the Year for being the player with the most wins in the season at number one. James' continued high performance and contribution to tennis at PAC makes him a worthy recipient of the schools highest sporting accolade, Honours Colours.

Li Tu: Tennis

Li joined PAC in Year 5 in 2006 and showed such talent that he played in the Intercol in Year 6 in 2007. In 2008 he won two consecutive U/12 National tennis titles and he has been consistently ranked in the top 2 nationally as a junior. Li represented Australia in the World Junior U/14 tournament in 2010 and in the Junior Davis Cup in 2012. His tournament record is outstanding. Highlights include winning the doubles title of France's most prestigious tournament for U/14, Les Petits, making the semis of the U/16 Nationals in 2011 and qualifying for the Junior Australian Open in 2012. He was a finalist of the Salisbury Platinum AMT in January 2013 and won the singles and doubles titles in the Mildura Open in April 2013. Li was appointed co-Captain of Tennis for the 2012/2013 season and his contribution to PAC tennis success may never be rivalled. A large part of PAC winning 3 national school titles was due to Li's contribution most recently winning 15 matches out of 15 in the 2012 National schools tournament to put PAC into the World Schools event. He represented PAC at 2 world schools tournaments in France in 2011 and most recently in May 2013 where he incredibly only lost 4 games in 6 best of 3 sets singles matches. Li has also helped contribute to PAC's unbeaten run in intercols since 2007. Li's consistent high performance, good character and contribution to Prince Alfred College tennis make him a worthy recipient of the school's highest sporting accolade, Honours Colours.

Kurtis Willson: Tennis

Kurtis joined PAC in Year 10 in 2012 and made an immediate impact on tennis at Prince Alfred College playing at number three. In April 2012 after helping the team win the intercol and finish second in the Drive Competition he won the 16 and under South Australian Junior Tennis Championship. In November 2012 playing at number 2 he helped PAC win the National Schools Tennis Tournament and he went on to play admirably in the World Schools Tennis Tournament winning 5 of his 6 singles matches. In December 2012 he finished 6th in the U/16 National Championships at Melbourne Park. Following on from that in January 2013 he won the doubles of the Gallipoli Youth Tennis Cup an ITF U/18 Tournament. In March 2013 he made the semis at the Mildura Open in the singles and won the doubles with Li Tu then returned to help PAC to another intercol win. He currently plays number two for Broadview in the Premier League. Kurtis' consistent high performance, good character and contribution to Prince Alfred College tennis make him a worthy recipient of the school's highest sporting accolade, Honours Colours.

Summer Intercols

Outstanding weather prevailed for the 2013 summer intercollegiate matches between Prince Alfred College and St Peter's College, held from 2 to 10 April.

It was a week that highlighted everything good about participation in school sport. Amid the atmosphere of fierce competition, participants from both schools demonstrated sportsmanship, while striving to do their very best and, when the dust of battle settled, a mutual respect and friendship was evident.

PAC values and supports the participation and development of boys in sport and the rich history that participation embraces. As an important part of a young man's education sport is an opportunity to develop teamwork, fitness, leadership, mate-ship and important life-skills. French author, journalist and philosopher Albert Camus, best known for his writing and for winning the Nobel Prize for literature was also, along with Pope John Paul II, Che Guevara and Julio Iglesias, an outstanding soccer goalkeeper. It was often said of him that he "played bravely and with passion" when keeping for his university team. Unfortunately he contracted TB and that put an end to his sporting aspirations. Later in his life, in an interview Camus declared; "For after many years, in which the world has afforded me many experiences, what I most surely know in the long run about morality and the obligations of men, I owe to sport." Albert Camus thought that sport was a big thing, a thing that somehow mattered; and I am sure he knew because Albert, after all, was a clever man! Princes' long standing tradition of intercollegiate matches is likewise a big thing and it too matters!

23rd Intercollegiate Badminton Match

On 10 April at St Peter's College Sport Centre, the Princes team was hoping for a strong performance in the 23rd Badminton intercollegiate match. In-form player Oscar Chapman was a late withdrawal from the starting side due to concussion. However once the doubles got underway it soon became evident as a spectator that Hugo Chapman the Princes Captain and his team, despite its fierce fighting spirit, would have to battle for every point throughout the afternoon. Perhaps the highlight was Yuxing Zhang's marathon 3-set victory to put Princes on the scoreboard. PAC played with determination but succumbed to a more skilful opponent. Congratulations to the talented Saints team for its dominant performance. The final result was PAC 1-rubber lost to SPSC 8-rubbers.

137th Intercollegiate Cricket Match

Inexperience, nerves and a determined St Peter's College team, hungry to atone for intercollegiate cricket losses in 2011 and 2012, was the recipe for one of the most comprehensive Saints victories in intercollegiate cricket history. Captain of the 1st XI, Oliver Clarke, Vice Captain Simon Brown and the team were all newcomers to the pressures of a four day match and Saints made extraordinary use of that fact. On Day 1, 5 April, Saints won the toss and surprisingly elected to field on a near-perfect batting wicket.

Princes opening batsmen William van Dissel (9) and Zachary Richards (6) looked comfortable in the early overs, taking the score along to 18 before the first wicket fell. What occurred next was quite extraordinary; Princes lost 9 wickets for 31 runs and was dismissed for only 49 runs, shortly after lunch. An early Saints wicket (1/4) brought the homeside Captain, Alex Gregory to the crease. Gregory dominated the proceedings for the rest of Day 1 and when he was dismissed caught Cameron Pritchard, bowled Tom Simpson for 191 runs, early on Day 2, Saints were 3/282. Facing the prospect of chasing a possible 400 plus run-deficit, the Princes bowlers rallied to take the last 7 wickets for the addition of 52 runs. Luke Bartlett was the best of the PAC bowling with 3/47 and he was well supported by Harry Ford 2/47 and Lewis Young 2/69. Saints were dismissed for 334 shortly after lunch on Day 2 and Princes required in excess of 285 runs to make Saints bat again. Unfortunately Saints crashed through Princes upper order batting for a second time and by stumps on Day 2 PAC was struggling at 7/108. The shining light with the bat for PAC was Simpson who showed true grit to score 50 out of his team's 129 run second innings total. Saints won the match by an innings and 156 runs just before lunch on Day 3.

2013 Head of the River Regatta

On 10 April, The Prince Alfred College 1st VIII crew crowned what had been a truly amazing rowing season with a convincing victory at the prestigious Head of the River Regatta. Captain of Boats Nicholas Parletta and his crew consisting of Henry Brennan, Alexander Cox, Tim Santin, Thomas Vasileff, William Burfield, Cameron Lowe, Tyson Beauchamp, and cox, Jared Lundy led the other crews from start to finish and covered the 2000 metre course in the time of 6.03.25. It was an emphatic victory as PAC crossed the line a boat length and a half in front of arch rivals Saints. The back to back Head of the River victory was a worthy reward for the hard work and determination of this year's boathouse and an equally fitting accomplishment for Director of Rowing, Dr Andrew Randell and his dedicated team of coaches. The PAC boathouse finished the regatta with four 1st placed crews, five 2nd placed crews and two 3rd placed crews.

41st Intercollegiate Swimming Carnival

Despite an influx of strong swimmers at the U/14 level, Prince Alfred College Swimming Team struggled to have all its swimmers available for Wednesday afternoon meets. Consequently it was unable to gain the points required to swim at the final of the SAAS swimming carnival held at St Peter's College on 3 April. The result of this year's intercollegiate contest therefore was referred back to an earlier meet held at Saints on 3 February, with Saints retaining the shield from its victory on that afternoon. Strong performers in the pool for Princes were Max Kirby, Connor Kioussis, Joshua Cameron, and Co-captains Aaron Gwinnett and Nick Husler. The impressive team spirit among the team and healthy number of competitors this year augurs well for season 2014 and the return of our newly renovated pool and training facility in the RED Centre.

116th Intercollegiate Tennis Match

The annual summer intercollegiate matches between Princes and Saints began on 2 April, with a strong team performance from the cream of our school's tennis players. PAC prevailed 8-rubbers to 4 in a contest that was far closer than the score-line indicated. Tennis Co-captain and number two player Li Tu gave his side a perfect start with a convincing 6-0, 6-0 win. His leadership team-mate and number one player James Ma, continued the side's winning way with a 6-3, 6-1 result. Other singles victories followed from number three Kurtis Willson 6-0, 6-0, number seven Rupert Benson 6-3, 4-6, 6-1 and number eight Andrew Fortunatow 6-4 7-5. By lunchtime Princes was placed strongly at 5-rubbers to 3. Princes consolidated its earlier success after the lunch break with doubles victories to Ma/Tu 6-0, 6-1, Willson/Riley Terrell 6-0, 6-3 and Benson/Fortunatow 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. Victory in the 116th Intercollegiate Tennis Match enabled PAC to retain the Intercollegiate Tennis Cup for the 7th consecutive year. Congratulations to senior coaches Dean Schipanski, Shane Harris, Josh Gregg, MIC Chris Nicholls and the team. The next major challenge was to represent School Sport Australia in the International Schools Sport Federation Tennis Team Championship, at Albury and Wadonga Tennis Centre in April 2013.

3rd Intercollegiate Water Polo Match

Prince Alfred College lost the 3rd Water Polo Intercollegiate Match 23-4 at the Saints pool on 3 April. Princes began strongly and worked hard to negate the many attacking forays the home side developed. At halftime Princes trailed 2-10; both goals scored by centre forward, Sam Jackson. Saints, a well drilled, fast and physical side, dominated the third quarter to extend its lead to 17-2. Jackson scored his third goal for the match in the last quarter and team-mate, Vice Captain Sebastian Higham also scored. Princes were gallant in defeat and never stopped trying against a formidable opposition that boasts a large number of club and state players. Some of the better players for Princes included Cameron Burfield, Henry Basedow, Sam Jackson and Sebastian Higham. With the RED Centre opening, the possibility of regular swimming training and a more dedicated water polo facility, senior coach Mr Scott Parker and his players are optimistic about future water polo intercollegiate matches. Congratulations to centre forward Sam Jackson and driver Sebastian Higham for making the South Australian U/18 Water Polo Team. The pair travelled to the AIS in Canberra to participate in the Nationals in April. Congratulations also to the PAC 1, 7/8 team, for a 7-5 win in it's intercollegiate match.

1st X1 Cricket

A vastly different group from that which played in our previous season faced a baptism of fire in playing against some of the SAAS school cricketing powerhouses in Term 4 of 2012. In our first match, Rostrevor College made a formidable 330 and Will Van Dissel and our most experienced player Campbell Combe both bowled well. Van Dissel (56 no) and wicketkeeper Noah Ramsey (34 no) then combined in a face saving partnership of 70 runs but we fell considerably short of the opposition's score. Our second outing against St Michaels followed a similar pattern unfortunately but young leg spinner Lewis Young showed great promise. Our first win of the season came against a capable Sacred Heart College side that batted first and posted 175 runs. Luke Bartlett bowled impressively. A match winning partnership of 144 runs between Zac Richards (79) and Van Dissel (69 no) proved to be the difference. Another strong win against Trinity College followed with Simon Brown (61), Combe (56 no), Joel Thiele (43) and Captain Oliver Clarke (36) all batting well. A two day fixture against Saints rounded off the term and once again we faced a daunting task when the blues made 285. A defiant innings of 97 runs by Combe, with good support from Tom Simpson (39), were the highlights.

Meanwhile the usual Twenty/20 competition was held and after great wins over Pulteney and Pembroke we played St Michaels in a semifinal. We found the opposition too strong but everyone felt pleased with our efforts to reach this final with Richards named as our T/20 player of the 2012. He was ably assisted by left arm swing bowler Bartlett who claimed a memorable 4 wickets for 2 runs against Pulteney Grammar School.

During the holidays we played matches against St Peter's Lutheran School from Brisbane and Barker College from Sydney, as well as hosting our great English friends Felsted, who visit every three years. Cameron Pritchard made an excellent 89 and Simpson an entertaining 51no against Saints to lead us to victory. Barker proved to be too good for us but Cameron Giles batted well to make 62. Our families hosted Felsted for several days and for the first time we played them in a two-day game which proved to be a fantastic contest, with PAC winning late on the second day and Brown playing a pivotal role with the bat.

A series of one day fixtures as part of the State one day championship was the main focus leading up to the annual 4 day match against Saints College. The first fixture saw a resounding victory over Pembroke with Brown (54) maintaining his strong form and he was ably assisted by Combe (55 no and 4 wickets). A road trip to Gawler to play Trinity College and a comfortable victory was the result. State batsman Thiele, (62 no) made his first half century for the 1st X1 and Brown was also dominant with a fine 80. Young (3/22) and Clarke (3/5) were the best of our bowlers. In what was a nail biting contest we had a narrow victory over Saints, chasing down their modest total of 106. An excellent partnership between Coombe (31) and newcomer Will Andrews (34 no) brought us home. New fast bowler, Harry Ford, bowled impressively as did Young and Brown. This put us into the SAAS one-day final against Rostrevor College. Rostrevor proved to be too strong in the final but the team was pleased to have made so positive progress. Strong one day performances against Mercedes College, in which Young starred taking 6 wickets for 16 runs and Pritchard (79) as an opener, and Immanuel, rounded the season out. The final game against IC came down to the last over with an unlikely batting hero in Bartlett, scoring the winning run. Brown took 4 wickets and Richards returned to form with a defiant 55.

The Senior Squad was smaller than those of the past few years with only the 1st VIII and 1st IV competing at the Head of the River. The Boat Shed was well led by Nicholas Parletta (Captain of Boats) and Michael Wilson (Vice Captain) and despite the small numbers, was very successful with the 1st VIII winning all but one race throughout the local season and the 1st IV placing first or second in most of their races. The 1st VIII won the Messenger Shield (School State Championships) and, at the Australian National Championships held in Sydney, finished a close second in the Under 19 VIII event and made it through to the final of the Schoolboy VIII. The Intermediate Squad comprised three crews and recorded several 'clean sweeps' (winning A, B and C divisions) during the season. The Year 10A Quad won most of their races including the State Championship event and finished 9th and 12th in the U17 Quad and Schoolboy Quad respectively at the National Championships. For the first time in the history of the Boat Shed our Junior rowers comprised a full squad from Year 8 and 9 (9 crews in total). racers and 'clean sweeping' all five divisions at two regattas.

Performances at the 2013 Head of the River were impressive with 11 podium finishes from the 13 starts (4 gold, 5 silver and 2 thirds). The 1st VIII was particularly inspiring with the crew dominating from the start and surging to a clear water lead through the first 500m. They extended this lead throughout the race to win by over 8 seconds. The 1st IV also raced strongly placing second to a fast finishing St Peter's IV. In the Intermediate events, our Y10A and Bs finished second and the Y10Cs third. Eight Junior crews raced at Head of the River with the Y8/9 B/C/D crews winning their events and the Y8/9 A and E crew finishing second. The remaining three crews in the E division finished third, fourth and fifth.

For the second year in succession the academic achievements of the Senior boys in the Boat Club are noteworthy with five members of the 2012 1st VIII attaining an ATAR of over 95. Jack Kelly achieved an ATAR of 99.9 and has recently accepted a Rowing Scholarship to study Engineering at Harvard University in the USA.

Capital purchases over the 2012–13 season included two Wintech Quad Sculls for our Intermediate and Junior Sheds which were christened the Jack Kelly (in honour of our first US Scholarship holder) and the John and Louise Clements (ex-President of the Rowing Parents' Support Group). The Boat Shed also secured six additional Oartech ergometers and completed the second and final stage of the compactor racking system at the West Lakes Boat Shed.

During 2012, old scholar Alex Hill (2010) won his second World Championship medal in two years winning a bronze medal in the U23 Men's VIII (Alex won a gold medal at the World Junior Championships in 2011). A record six PAC current or old boys were selected into the winning South Australian Youth Olympic squad — Alex Hill (2010), Drew Clements (2011), William Brennan (2011), Jack Kelly (2012), Nicholas Parletta (2013) and Jordan Schiller (2012), and five of these boys Hill, Clements, Brennan, Kelly and Schiller, were also selected for the South Australian Youth VIII along with Tax Skrembos (2012) which finished second at the King's Cup Regatta. Matt Bolt (2002) and Aleco Lanfracno (2008) were members of the bronze medal winning South Australia King's Cup VIII.

The 2012–13 rowing season has been a memorable and enjoyable season for our Rowing Club. Term 4 2012 saw the reopening of the Torrens Boat Shed following extensive renovations and the commencement of a long term relationship with our 'sister' club Seymour. For the second year in succession the PAC Boat Club was awarded Champion Schoolboy Shed and Crew at the Rowing SA Awards night. Our membership continues to grow with the introduction of Year 7 boys and our Old Boys continue to excel on the State, National and International stage.

I would like to thank our post graduate GAP Student, Sam Agass for the invaluable contribution he has made to our boatshed during his time with us. Thanks also to the coaches, boys and parents for their ongoing support throughout the past season.

I acknowledge the support of the School, Headmaster (Kevin Tutt), Director of Finance (Steven Bacon) and Director of Sport (Gary Jenkinson) all of whom contributed to the many successes achieved this season at the Boat Shed.

Coming off one of the most successful seasons in the Boat Shed's history, this year's First VIII certainly had a lot to live up to and, with a significantly smaller and younger squad, no one could really predict how the season would unfold. Even during our first camp at Scotts Creek, glimpses of the strength and determination that would be evident in every race began to appear and the crew began changing a few initial impressions.

Following an undefeated fourth term, we spent the week training with Christchurch and Scotch College from Western Australia at our annual Berri December training camp, where we made significant improvements training with the more powerful and experienced WA crews. We furthered these gains through the summer break and did not rest on our previous success, which put us in excellent shape coming into term one.

We began reaping the rewards of this intense training, remaining undefeated in all but one school boy race leading up to the National Championships. At the site of the 2000 Sydney Olympics we won a silver medal in the under 19 VIII and achieved our fastest time of the season (5:53) eclipsing last season's previous best. But more importantly, the racing experience gained over the week in Penrith left us significantly more prepared than our opposition and we were ready to end a fantastic season with a win at Head of the River.

The benefit of a week's taper allowed us to take a significant lead of almost a boat length of the start and this margin proved to be enough to maintain our position as we were able to increase our lead over the next thousand metres and win comfortably by seven seconds, going back to back at Head of the River for the first time in ten years. This year's First VIII had an extremely successful season winning Henley on Torrens, Round the

The mighty First IV, which was technically the top 4 boys after the First VIII in ranking, had an unforgettable experience as a group to say the least. Starting the season as a Second VIII, the boys developed their skills as rowers and improved their fitness with the help of the high quality coaching from star rowers such as Sam Agass and Matt Bolt. However once the second half of the season had started, due to unexpected injuries and boys leaving, only a First IV was left.

Term 1 in the Four started out brilliantly being undefeated in all our races even beating the stern four of the First Eight time wise in a February regatta. However our stroke man, Michael Wilson, was diagnosed with glandular fever. This meant

The Year 10As have had a very successful season winning many regattas and claiming two state titles. We started off a bit shaky but then came back very strong after Berri. The B crew this season had a lot of crew changes with nine rowers all attempting to make the top quad. Despite this we still had a successful middle season, going into the summer holidays with wins as well after the break. Unfortunately we then met Scotch College and Saints crews who had improved their times, winning during the middle of the first term. Eventually we knocked Scotch off but did not manage to beat Saints at Head of the River, but nonetheless, getting our best time of the season, a great note to finish on.

This season of rowing was great fun for all of the boys. At the Head of the River I was glad to see the C crew extremely 'pumped' to race. Sure we all had butterflies, but we all knew how important this was. We were very happy about winning our heat. We raced against Year 8 and 9, B & C crews and although we did not win the final I was very happy to see my team put in the effort. I believe we put in the very best effort we could have.

Year 8D 4x+ Rowing

Crew: Joshua Cranna, Thomas Piccirillo, William Dodsworth, Harrison Francis

Cox: Jake Ledgerd

Coach: Jackson Ellis

Rowing in 2013 was a great experience, for me it was my first year going to the regattas. The atmosphere is wonderful; there is a real community linked to rowing, everything from the race officials managing the event to the parents volunteering to cook bacon and eggs for the boys but the most enjoyable thing is the actual racing. The warm up run is always great and the freezing water wakes you up when you launch the boat. I was stroke of the D Crew and even though at the Head of the River we did not win any races, the sport is exhilarating with the synchronisation of the crew making a real team, as the boat skims across the water. I really enjoyed rowing in 2013.

The 2013 season was a successful one for the PAC swimming team. We were able to build numbers significantly from the previous year with an influx of a number of talented U/14 swimmers whilst retaining the majority of our senior squad members. Due to the strength and depth of the younger group, many swimmers were asked to swim up an age group which demonstrated great team spirit. At a high performance level Max Kirkby and Connor Kioussis had very successful meets at state titles and after a series of very strong results at club and state level, Joshua Cameron was selected in the SA State Development Squad. With the opening of our new pool later this year we look forward to next season with much anticipation.

The Mark Sheppard Trophy for "Swimmer of the Year" went to Joshua Cameron and the Chris Leung

Trophy for "Most Improved and Outstanding Team Person" was shared between co-captains Aaron Gwinnett and Nick Husler.

In recent years the Prince Alfred College tennis team has been extremely successful, coming fourth in the world in the 2011 International Schools Sports Federation tennis championship held in France and winning the 2012 National Schools Sports Tennis Championship again. We therefore won the right to represent Australia again in Albury in April 2013 where, although we finished 12th, we defeated the team that finished 4th in the round robin series so the boys knew they were not far off a medal.

This year the team has once again shown that it is one of the best tennis schools in the state by performing very well across all year levels. One of the major components of PAC's success in recent years is the wide depth throughout all teams, as many of the players who play in the senior A would be competitive in the drive competition. This has been a result of the dedication and hard work from all the players, coaches and team managers.

In the division 1 school competition this year, the Drive team posted strong wins over schools such as Pembroke, Saint Michaels, Westminster, Blackfriars and Immanuel and once again met rival tennis school Marrayatville in the state final. Unfortunately in a great contest against the two best schools in the state, PAC went down 6 matches to 3 which placed us second in the state for the 2013 season.

Along with the Drive competition, a Division 1 lawn team was formed mainly for the team that was travelling to Albury in May to compete in the 2013 International Schools sports federation tennis championship held on grass. Even though the competition is of the highest standard in the state for men, the team still performed extremely well, with star players Li Tu and Kurtis Willson going undefeated.

The 2013 Intercol between Saint Peters College and Prince Alfred College was held at the PAC courts and was a highly anticipated contest as Saints

The senior players looked to have good depth so we added a Division 1 Grass team to the list and 2 A teams. This had the benefit of giving more of our players a chance to play A grade and by diluting the strength of the team the boys were getting a more even match. Our strength was such that a lot of the time the boys were still winning. Unfortunately every now and then our B teams came up against an A team from another school which made it very tough but a good learning experience.

In the Open A and B Intercol matches against St Peters it was the first time we ranked our players from the top down and we ended up sharing the honours winning one of the Open A and one of the Open B matches and losing the others.

The boys were hampered by a lack of courts for practice due to the construction of the RED Centre and therefore the development of the boys wasn't easy to achieve throughout the season. It was pleasing to see Harry Martin and Shae Haseldine make the Intercol team after good seasons in the Open As.

The B and C teams had mixed results depending on who they were playing but throughout the season it was clear that they were playing with their usual good sportsmanship and it was a pleasure to manage the boys during the season.

Middle B: Ayo Oloruntoba, Nicolas Howe, Ned O'Neil-Swan, Don Kieu, Oliver McGrechan, Hugo Bosi, Lewis Smith, Joel Lee, Luke Bardy, Peter Gregoric, Peter Skothos, Ashley Dann, Tom Taylor, William Steinhardt, Henry Wallace, Gian-Luca Stirling, Max Carter, Nathan Duong, Brenton Duong

Middle C: Alex Mills, Marc Luksch, Alec Limmer, Damon Zygouras, Anthony Rositano, Julian Hallworth, Matthew Taddeo, Will Worthley, Mingrang Li, Mitchell Smith, James Luke, Shareef Meah, Eddie Han, Denny Han

The Middle School provided many tennis players of various abilities in 2013 and it was pleasing to see many grow in confidence as the season went along.

The Middle A team was mainly made up of many promising Year 7 players and Year 9 players as the top Year 8 players Jonothan Babich and Joonky Nah were in the Drive team. They held their own against most teams and given that we were fielding 2 A teams when most schools were only fielding one speaks volumes to the depth of tennis at PAC.

The Middle B teams had an up and down season again reflecting the fact that we had deliberately set out to challenge the boys as from past experience the boys tend to get bored winning too easily all the time. We felt that the results during the season indicated that the boys were being extended.

Development of players for the future was our paramount goal and we thank Dean Schipanski and Paul Baccanello for their work with the Middle School development squad.

For exemplary sportsmanship, selfless contribution and individual excellence to Football at Prince Alfred College

Campbell Combe: Football

Campbell Combe has proven himself to be an outstanding player, leader and Captain of the 1st XVIII. Campbell came to PAC from Crystal Brook in 2011. His ability to play his role, impact contests and use the ball was quickly apparent. His trademark ferociousness and ball winning ability became highly respected by all associated with the football program. In 2011, he was the only Year 10 to play every game. Campbell was PAC's only representative in the State U/16 team in 2011 and he had a successful carnival. In the successful Knockout Cup final, Campbell played every minute through the midfield and was instrumental in setting up Princes win. Campbell was awarded the Best First Year Player in 2011. In 2012 Campbell became our most consistent and hardest midfielder. He consistently won the inside ball and fed it out to running players, Campbell's respect amongst the playing group was rewarded with a position in the leadership group. In the latter part of the season, Campbell played some amazing football at the SANFL Reserves level for North Adelaide. In 2013 Campbell continued to achieve highly. His inspiring performances for Princes and North Adelaide saw him selected into the State U/18 side. Campbell had a terrific carnival, often leading his team's possession count and being the leading clearance player from all teams at the championships; a significant achievement. His focus, courage and effort were one of the reasons for South Australia's National Championship victory. Campbell's commitment to the team and his team mates saw him rewarded with captaincy of the 1st XVIII. Campbell had a fantastic 2013 season and he was rewarded with many personal honours. He was awarded the Mervyn Evans Award for outstanding Service to Football, the Mark Schwartz Memorial Cup for the Best and Fairest player at 1st XVIII level and he was the clear winner of the Norman Dowie Award for Most Valued Player in Intercollegiate Football. Campbell has made an outstanding contribution to Prince Alfred College Football and he thoroughly deserves to receive the school's highest sporting accolade, Honours Colours.

Cameron Giles Football

Cameron Giles has proven himself to be a high quality player and leader in the 1st XVIII. He arrived at PAC from Clare in 2011, and quickly became a key player in the 1st team. Cameron's ability to play multiple roles was a genuine strength as was his ability to take the ball skillfully off the ground. On many occasions he took strong marks and kicked long goals, often on the run. In our 2011 Knockout Cup victory Cameron was invaluable. In 2012 Cameron led our ruck division with strength and commitment. His aggression at the contest and his ability to follow-up on ground balls and with chains of possession made him like an extra midfielder, albeit a very tall one. In the latter part of 2012, Cameron suffered a significant hamstring injury prior to the Knockout Cup final and his commitment to his recovery was a testimony of his outstanding character. In 2013 Cameron began the season with best on ground performances against visiting Victorian schools, Wesley College and Melbourne Grammar. He was one of only a few senior players choosing to play in both games, once again demonstrating his commitment to school football. Cameron was selected to play in the South Australian U/18's team in 2013. As a key defender, he was rarely beaten and was one of the reasons that South Australia won its first National Championship. Cameron is a natural leader and this was acknowledged in 2013 with his appointment as Vice-captain of 1st XVIII. He performed this role admirably, often mentoring younger players both on and off the field. Cameron has given outstanding service to PAC 1st XVIII Football and he thoroughly deserves to receive the school's highest sporting accolade, Honours Colours.

George Hewett: Football

George Hewett has been an outstanding contributor to the football program at Princes.

George came to PAC from Port Broughton in 2011 and was immediately recognisable for his ability to compete with much bigger boys. In his very first trial game he displayed a great level of courage and ability to win the contested ball and in his debut season became a consistent performer in roles across half back, half forward and through the midfield. In 2011, our Firsts football team had a magnificent 1 point win over Rostrevor College in the Knockout Cup final and George will be forever remembered for playing the game under significant duress having fractured his arm in the opening minutes. Despite this, he refused to come off the field and was a strong contributor on the night. As a result of the injury he missed the opportunity to play in his first Intercol, yet he had proven himself to be a magnificent performer in big games. In 2012 George's improvement was very evident. His consistency and ability to play multiple roles saw him dominate games. Usually playing through the midfield he revelled in the highly physical nature of schoolboy football. By seasons end he was also playing significantly good football at SANFL reserves level, consistently getting high possession counts and impressing all with his committed and courageous approach. In 2013 George has truly made his mark. Having started the season hoping to make the initial State under 18s list, he was successful in not only making the final squad but also becoming a permanent and highly successful midfielder in the National Championships. In South Australia's first title win, George was a dominant player in the carnival, drawing the interest of almost every AFL club in Australia. Whilst his involvement with the State U/18s is notable, of equal merit is his leadership and commitment to the football program at Princes. In 2013, George was rewarded for this by being made Vice-captain, along with Cameron Giles. He also won the 'Coaches Award' having come second to Campbell Combe in the Best and Fairest award. George has made a significant contribution to Prince Alfred College football and he thoroughly deserves to receive the school's highest sporting accolade Honours Colours.

For exemplary sportsmanship, selfless contribution and individual excellence to Hockey at Prince Alfred College

Simon Brown: Honours Colours for Hockey 2013
Simon joined Princes in 2009 as a Year 8 student and went straight into the first XI. He has played in an amazing era of College hockey, firstly under the watchful eye of Bob Claxton and then old Scholar Jamie Bahnisch. Simon worked hard to develop his game and soon became an integral part of the 1st XI. Simon has an astonishing Intercollegiate Hockey record. He has played in five consecutive intercols, winning all five and scoring at least one goal or more in each game, including a hat-trick in 2012 and two this year. As the 2013 Co-captain of Hockey, Simon has led by example. With a young squad this season, he has played an important part in the development of younger players as well as being an anchor for those who he has played with for some time. Simon currently plays club hockey for Burnside Hockey Club and is in his second season of Premier League, the highest level of hockey played in South Australia. Simon has represented South Australia in every age group from U/13 and is currently in the U/18 State team with two former 'Reds' and a current teammate Dalton Casey. Simon has already started his hockey coaching career through involvement with Preparatory School Hockey teams. Simon has displayed tremendous sportsmanship, fairness towards the opposition, the umpires and his own teammates. Although he has only been involved in a handful of defeats in his five years playing hockey for Princes, he has accepted them with grace and used the losses to learn. It is fitting that Simon receive the highest school accolade for sporting achievement, Honours Colours.

Dalton Casey: Honours Colours for Hockey 2013 Dalton Casey began playing hockey at the age of four and was playing A Grade Hockey for Renmark by the time he was twelve. In 2012 Dalton arrived at Princes to begin Year 10 and he was immediately selected to play in the First XI. Since then he has been involved in two winning intercollegiate matches as well as being a member of the winning State Knockout Cup Team of 2012 and the runner up team of 2013. Dalton is an integral part of the First XI, demonstrating amazing skill, leadership and an ability to make the best defenders look average. Outside of school, Dalton's hockey achievements have been extensive. He has played Premier League Hockey for North East Hockey Club in South Australia since 2011 and in fact was a member of that club's Premiership team in 2011 and the runner-up team in 2012. Currently North East is in the running to take out the 2013 premiership. Dalton held an associate position at the South Australian Institute of Sport in 2008, 2012 and once again in 2013. He has played for his state in the National U/15, U/16 and U/18 teams and is a current member of the U/21 Team. Furthermore, Dalton is the current Captain of the U/16 Australian Shadow Team and is in the State Open Men's Shadow Team. When playing hockey for the College, his state and country, Dalton has demonstrated great determination, sportsmanship and has been gracious in both victory and defeat. PAC is pleased to award Dalton the College's highest sporting accolade, Honours Colours.

Winter Intercols

A game of sport is not worth playing unless you play it as well as you possibly can. It is important to try with all you have to win; for to do less is an insult to your opponent. Nothing however can justify a "win-at-all-costs approach". To play around the rules, or purposefully against them, is an insult to the game, and the game is always bigger than the individual. Furthermore, although trying to win is important, once the game is over, winning or losing becomes irrelevant. If you have tried your hardest as an individual and as a team, that is all that matters. You have done your school and yourself proud.

Congratulations to all who played in the 2013 winter intercollegiate matches. You gave your best efforts, demonstrated sportsmanship, courage and grace in defeat; and modesty in victory. The College is proud of you and the results therefore have become irrelevant. In keeping with the rich history, the ebb and flow of intercollegiate contests, we have relinquished cups that have been secure in our trophy cabinet for many years. Collectively we can look forward to the challenges facing us in the 2014 intercols with renewed optimism and a steely determination to bring those trophies home. Our spectators at intercollegiate matches barracked with gusto. That support provided our players with great encouragement and positive energy and the chants and barracking produced reflected that. I thank you all and especially the prefects and staff who attended intercollegiate matches. Your passionate and enthusiastic support was greatly appreciated.

49th Intercollegiate Basketball Match

A younger and less experienced Prince Alfred College 1st V, consisting of six-Year 11 and four-Year 10 players, was outclassed 83 to 45 by St Peter's College in the Intercollegiate Basketball match on 23 August. Playing for the first time in Princes new RED Centre, our team arrived on the evening well prepared and eager for the contest. However, despite the electric atmosphere and enthusiastic home crowd support, Princes started nervously and soon realized that they would be hard pressed to match the physically stronger, older and more experienced Saints outfit. From a PAC perspective the game never reached any great heights but instead, the players became frustrated by poor decision making and the frequency with which it turned the ball over with wayward passing. All credit to Saints for the constant and consistent pressure that it applied. The Princes team never stopped trying its very best and persisting right through until the final whistle. Sam Sibley top scored with 11, Daniel Fahey-Sparks scored 9 and was also awarded our most valuable player. 1st V Captain Darcy Lord and his young team learnt many lessons from the clash and will benefit from the fact that all team-members are eligible to play again in 2014. In true intercollegiate spirit the team will be keen to atone for its disappointing performance in next year's match.

41st Intercollegiate Chess Match

Princes Intercollegiate Chess team won its fourth consecutive Intercollegiate Chess match on 4 September, in the Piper Pavilion.

Russian Chess grandmaster, Boris Spasky said, "In championship chess, skill is probably less than half the battle. The main element is nervous energy." Three and a half hours of nervous energy elapsed before PAC realized a most memorable victory in the 41st Intercollegiate Chess Match. The 5½ to 4½ win over St Peter's College enabled Princes to retain the Intercollegiate Chess Cup for a fourth year in a row. PAC trailed 4–2 early in the afternoon with losses on boards 6, 7, 9 and 10, before the Reds took the upper-hand. Peter Gregoric (board-2), Joel Lee (board-3), Denny Han (board-4), Jason Huynh (board-5) and Rui Lin (board-8) all won. Finally, in a see-saw battle that lasted 3 ½ hours, Eddie Han (board-1) played out a nail-biting draw that ensured a PAC victory.

23rd Intercollegiate Debate

On 20 August, the 23rd Intercollegiate Debate was held in the Piper Pavilion at Prince Alfred College. PAC and Saint Peter's College went head to head on the topic; "Genetically modified food should be banned" and the result was a debate of very high quality. PAC was allocated the negative proposition and the team argued that GM food should not be banned. Teams were given 90 minutes, without internet connection, to prepare their speeches. In that time they brainstormed strong arguments and prepared for possible counter arguments. During the debate, each speaker spoke for eight minutes. The Princes team consisted of Year 11 students Will Miller (Captain), John Dongas, Tyson Bateman and Year 10 Tim Hobbs. The adjudication resulted in a narrow victory to Saints and in retrospect it was perhaps the quality of the opposition rebuttal that was the deciding factor. The team hopes that it will be able to work on this deficiency in the upcoming year so that hopefully they can realize a debating victory in 2014. Congratulations to our team and thanks to Mr Mark Wilde for coaching the senior debating team throughout the year.

142nd Intercollegiate Football Match

Princes parted ways with the Tennyson Intercollegiate Football Cup for the first time since 2005 when it was out-played by Saints 9–6 (60) to 5–11 (41), on a heavily muddied Main Oval at St Peter's College, on Saturday 24 August. The surprise result was a disappointing end to an otherwise successful season for our 1st XVIII. Princes had come into the match as a clear favourite but the wintery conditions and heavy ground opened a window of opportunity for Saints to cause the upset. Both sides struggled with the slippery conditions early but it was Saints in the latter part of the second quarter that demonstrated the greater intensity and desperation to win the contested ball and by the major break it held a handy lead. Princes improved its work rate at the start of the third quarter and with little separating the two sides at the last change, the scene was set for an exciting finish. Once again it was the Saints team that made the better use of its opportunities in the last quarter and at the final siren it thoroughly deserved a 19-point win. PAC Captain, Campbell Combe was awarded the Norman Dowie Medal for Princes most valuable player in the match. George Hewett kicked 2 goals and was among the better players along with Dylan Foulis and Ben Heaslip.

33rd Intercollegiate Hockey Match

Co-captain of 1st XI hockey Simon Brown, playing in his fifth Intercollegiate Hockey Match lead our side to a convincing 6–1 victory over St Peter's College on 22 August, at PAC. The result, Princes 7th consecutive Intercollegiate Hockey win, was played in pouring rain, on a water-logged pitch but despite that, the high skill level displayed was remarkable.

Brown made his debut in the 1st XI team as a Year 8 in 2009 and he had played in every intercollegiate match since, scoring one or more goals in each, eight in total and with 3 goals in 2012. He scored the opening goal of this year's match and Jake Mill-Garland hammered another into the back of the net to see PAC lead 2–0 at half-time. Once again Brown was the first to score in the second half and the other goals came from Co-captain, Cameron Lowe, Kurtis Willson and a second to Jake Mill-Garland. The victory was the perfect ending to a season that saw PAC runners up in the Secondary Schools Sport of South Australia Knock Out Hockey Grand Final at the State Hockey Centre, Gepps Cross, on 6 August.

26th Intercollegiate Rugby Match

On Wednesday 21st August, on the Front Oval at PAC, our 1st XV and Saints 1st XV collided in what was an intense end of season battle. Everything about this clash was heavy. Heavy rain pelted down, the pitch was heavy with mud and heavy tackles were the order of the day. In fact at times the contest was somewhat like a medieval battle. That being said the skills on display were remarkable. Saints, the red-hot favourites for the match, did not anticipate the intensity demonstrated from Matt Seals our Captain and our side from the kick-off. Saints eventually found a way through Princes' defense to score the opening try and conversion of the game. PAC pressed hard in an attempt to score late in the half but on the half-time whistle was a metre short of the try-line and trailing Saints 7–0. Princes began the second half full of determination and run. Brilliant line-work from the Reds allowed Edward Boyd to break through Saints defenses for a try and when Sean Meredith converted, scores were level at 7–7. With emotions running high a melee erupted and the resultant awarding of cards saw players sent to the bench. The loss of key player James Cornish increased the workload across the PAC team and Saints took advantage of that situation. It scored a second try but failed to convert. At 12–7 Princes rallied yet again and the last grueling minutes of the game were spent just metres away the Saints try-line. On the final whistle Saints had prevailed; Princes had given its all, and both sides had put on a wonderful display of collegiate rugby. Among the better players for PAC were Brenden Crawford, Angus Gmeinder, Xavier Warne and Seals.

36th Intercollegiate Soccer Match

Saints claimed the P.P. Simpson Intercollegiate Soccer Cup for the first time since 2007 with a 3–1 victory over Princes, on the Front Oval at PAC, on 19 August. Wintery weather leading up to the match meant that the pitch was heavy, slippery and that was exacerbated by continuous rain throughout the match. Saints started well and scored the opening goal despite some wonderful defense from PAC Captain Lachlan Duffy and goalkeeper Tyson Bateman. Just prior to halftime, a brilliant goal from John Dongas kept Princes in the match. In general play the second half was fairly even however Saints forwards had the ability to make the most of its shots on goal and although Princes had many scoring opportunities, it failed to find the back of the net. Princes persisted right to the final whistle but St Peter's deservedly won the contest 3–1.

3rd Intercollegiate Table Tennis Match

On Tuesday 20th August, Princes hosted the Intercollegiate Table Tennis match in the RED Centre for the very first time. Under the guidance of our new development coach Mr John Potter, PAC performed with distinction and the 16–8 loss was not a true indication of the improvement our players have made. In fact many of the matches were 5-sets in duration and with further development of a very young squad, that augurs well for PAC's Table Tennis future. Our best players in the match included Tom Williamson, George Guo and Fergus Willsmore (Captain).

Princes 1st XVIII Football SSSSA State Knock-out Cup

Prince Alfred College 1st XVIII Football Team travelled to Norwood Oval on Tuesday 20th August to compete in the final of the SSSSA/SANFL Open Schools Knockout Cup against Sacred Heart College. This was the sixth occasion in eight years that the PAC 1st XVIII had made the final. The Reds had previously won the Knockout Cup in 2008, 2010, 2011 and had been runner-up in 2006 and 2012. Sacred Heart started the match strongly and by half-time had a commanding lead, 5–5 (35) to 0–1 (1). However in an outstanding third term, Princes narrowed the margin to just 15–points; 5–2 (32) to 7–5 (47). The momentum swing came about because Princes was able to lift its intensity and in particular Cameron Giles began to dominate the rucking contests; and George Hewett and Campbell Combe took control of the midfield. Harry Viney began to mark the ball inside PAC's forward fifty, kicking two goals, and Vincent Rocca, Giles and Combe also booted goals. Viney goaled again in the opening minute of the last quarter and hope sprang eternal from the hearts of every Princes supporter in the crowd. Sacred Heart responded with renewed energy and run however, to kick away once again, despite a fourth goal from Viney and another from Micah Van Loon. At the final siren PAC 8–3 (51) lost by a margin of 20–points to SHC 11–5 (71).

Princes 1st XI Hockey Gerry Phillips SSSSA Knockout Cup

Our 1st XI hockey team, the 2012 Secondary Schools Sport of South Australia Knock-Out Hockey Champions, fell short of back-to-back Gerry Phillips Cup knock-out titles when it lost the state final to Henley High School 2–1, at the State Hockey Centre, Gepps Cross, on 6 August. Princes began the day of round robin matches with a convincing 4–1 victory over Grant High School. Cameron Scheepers opened the scoring with a goal in the 5th minute of the game and the other goals came from Ed Worrell, Simon Brown and Kurtis Willson. In its second match Princes triumphed 2–0 over St Mark's College. The goals from Dalton Casey and Kurtis Willson both came in the final two minutes of the match. In Round 3, Princes defeated St Peter's College 2–1 to ensure a place in the Grand Final. Simon Brown and Kurtis Willson scored first half goals. In the last of the preliminary matches, PAC lost 4-0 to Henley High School however the result had no impact on the final placing. The Grand Final began at 3.20pm and Henley scored first. Princes through Kurtis Willson equalized in the 9th minute of the first half. Henley regained the lead from a short corner with two minutes remaining in the match and despite finishing strongly with two short corners Princes had to be content with the runner-up certificates. Congratulations to the Co-Captains Simon Brown and Cameron Lowe, the team, old scholar coach Michael Staak and the MIC of Hockey Andrew Stace for guiding PAC through another outstanding season.

Finally congratulations to St Peter's for raising the bar in relation to the 2013 senior intercollegiate contests. Across all Middle School and Senior School winter intercollegiate matches however, the ratio of wins to losses was; 16-matches won by PAC and 16-matches won by SPSC. The healthy rivalry lives on and augurs well for many closely fought battles to come.

Badminton

The 2012/13 season was a successful one for the 1st Badminton team. Captain Hugo Chapman and Vice-captain Shuai Li lead the team to a series of convincing wins, netting all but a handful of victories over the two terms. The team wrapped up the season with a nail-biting win against Blackfriar's College, 6 sets, 16 games to 6 sets, 14 games. The addition of two new development coaches helped the team to sharpen its skills in preparation for the annual intercollegiate match against St Peter's College. Unfortunately the team played bravely but was outclassed to lose by a margin of 8-1. However with talented players in Years 8, 9 and 10 further developing their skills during the off-season, PAC can look forward with optimism to future success in Badminton.

Basketball

2013 has been a very successful year for Basketball at Prince Alfred College. Ten teams were fielded across the Middle and Senior School competitions which is the College's largest number on record. Each team achieved consistently good results throughout the season. The Middle School teams were particularly impressive across all grades, recording comprehensive wins against many schools in the competition. The Middle School teams also completed a clean sweep in the intercollegiate matches against Saint Peter's College, winning all four contests and capping off a fantastic season. The six Senior School basketball teams comprised many new, young and enthusiastic players and after a slow start, ultimately had a successful year across the board. Prince Alfred College therefore has many exciting basketball prospects in both its Middle and Senior teams which augur well for greater success and stronger results for all teams in 2014.

Football

The First XVIII team was, without dispute, the second best schoolboy team in the state this year, just behind the undefeated SHC. A very talented squad finished second in the Messenger Cup and second in the Statewide Knockout competition. Needless to say other Princes teams also experienced great success and we congratulate all players, coaches and support staff involved in Season 2013.

Senior coach, Mr Troy McKinnon initiated the training program back in November 2012 with some technical and conditioning work followed by full scale pre-season training early in Term 1. Trial games realized significant victories in the traditional games against Melbourne Grammar and Wesley College. Pre-season culminated in the Melbourne trip where we were hosted by Caulfield Grammar and the Melbourne Football club respectively. Old scholars; Jack Trengove, Luke Tapscott and Jack Viney offered their valued support and encouragement as the boys toured Melbourne's impressive facilities.

Early victories over Rostrevor, St Michaels, Pembroke and Saints were balanced by two close losses to Immanuel and Sacred Heart College amid a series of injuries and state commitments. The season saw many individual achievements such as Captain Campbell Combe, George Hewett and Cameron Giles all selected in the victorious South Australian State U-18 team. Aaron Francis, Will Combe and Vincent Rocca were selected in the State U16 team as well, with Aaron chosen for the AIS Academy. A demanding final week saw the group play off for the State Knockout championship under lights at Norwood Oval before facing Saints a few days later in the most arduous of Intercollegiate matches.

In addition to Campbell Combe (Mark Schwartz Memorial Cup winner), Cameron Giles (Peter

We would also like to recognize the support group that assisted the boys — Matt Rohde, Ben Noblett and Dave de Lacy in addition to a strong parental volunteer group ably led by Helen Burfield and David Richards.

The Second XVIII was an inspirational team which lost only two games — to Blackfriars First XVIII and SHC. Major scalps included First XVIII teams from Pulteney Grammar, Westminster, St Pauls and CBC plus a hard fought Intercol victory. Talent wise this team had it all from some immensely skilled on-ballers and midfielders such as Micah Van Loon, Jack Scaife, Ollie Clarke, Jed Castree, Jack Daly, Ben Glover and Luke Bartlett to reliable key position players, Hugh Murdoch, Nelson Ellis, Jack Lang, Joe Daniel and Cameron Burfield. The ruck-division was ably led by Will Altmann. Certainly the leadership displayed by this team was outstanding, and exemplified by Hugh Murdoch, Cameron Burfield and Henry Basedow.

The Third XVIII team was enthusiastically coached by Gary Jenkinson and it also enjoyed many successes. The season's win/loss ratio was; 8-wins, 3-losses and a draw. Charlie Hall was the 3rd XVIII's best and fairest medal winner, Todd Alexander the best team-man, Nick Oag the most improved player and Sam Alexander the leading goal kicker. The Intercollegiate match against St Peter's College was played on the Front Oval at PAC and resulted in a comfortable victory for Princes 12-15 (87) to 1-2 (8). Four-goals to Sam Alexander and Charlie Hall's best on ground performance were the match highlights.

The 4th XVIII were made up of some real football enthusiasts ably led by Captain Tom Szumski and astutely coached by Sam and Neil Andary. The highlight would have been their tremendous win over Blackfriars Seconds!

Although a number of Year 10 footballers were elevated to First XVIII level this year, both Year 10 Football teams played some excellent football under the tutelage of coach, Martin McKinnon who was ably assisted by old scholar, George Hannaford. The versatile Ashley Giles was adjudged most valuable player with Jordan Ackland awarded the Best Team Man medal. The 10Bs approached the season with good spirit and managed some good wins too with Stuart Harris and Tim Branford both having outstanding seasons.

The Year 9A Football team coached by old scholar, Matt Altmann had mixed success but saw some real development take place. Bryce Campbell, Will Jenner, Ben Jeffrey and Rupert Johnson were outstanding players all season.

The Year 8 Football squad began the season with endeavour and coach Craig Smith made sure this did not wane throughout a long, demanding season. Despite some early setbacks, both teams persisted with many players undergoing significant improvement. Hugo Barry was impressive all year and deserved the Most Valuable Player award with Chris de Dear a worthy recipient of the Best Team Man award. Special thanks to old scholars, Harry Barnes and Nick Mosey for his excellent work with the Year 8B team.

Chris McGuire, Max Burford and Tim Weatherald coached and mentored the Year 6/7 squads with great skill and expertise. Both teams experienced many highlights. Jack Heard, Harvey Bernardi, and Jack Read impressed with their respective leadership and team spirit.

After such a superb season we should extend our appreciation to all players, parents, coaches and officials for their tireless work throughout the year.

Hockey

The number of senior hockey players at Princes was down in 2013 mainly due to the large number of players who finished at the College last year which presented the squad with some challenges early. Although this was the case, those who pulled on the shirt played with passion and intensity throughout the season. The Middle School Team was again ably coached by Mark Dell'Oro this year with the assistance of the 1st XI Co-Captain, Cameron Lowe. The number of players available each week to play in the team was excellent and they recorded some great results against rival schools. Patrick Gayen was awarded the Best and Fairest for 2013 and William Dodsworth received the Coaches Award. Our First XI, coached for the first time by old scholar Michael Staak, played against St Peters, Concordia College, Pembroke School and Trinity College on a number of occasions throughout the year, with strong performances against all of them. With more players than we could fit into one team, we split the squad and joined forces with St Peters College to form a composite 2nd XI team which was coached by Princes Old Scholar and former 1st XI Captain, James Keeves. This amalgamation was positive for both Colleges and helped to form a stronger bond between the two hockey communities. William Rudd was awarded the Coaches Award for the composite team and was rewarded with a spot in the First XI for the intercollegiate match.

First XI Hockey

The 1st XI team realized another outstanding season. An influx of younger players was required to replace the departure of last year's large group of Year 12 players, so initially new coach Michael Staak would have hoped for a steady season where he could help the team to develop its skill and game play. However the opening match was an awesome 8-0 victory over Trinity College, which no doubt, laid the foundations for the season ahead. The closest contest for the regular competition was a 4-3 win over St Peter's College. Remarkably for such a young side they completed the SAAS season undefeated. The team again played in the SSSSA Knockout Hockey Competition and was confident that it could repeat its championship success of 2012. Unfortunately that was not to be. Despite really strong performances in the round robin format Princes lost the final 2-1 to a talented Henley High School side. This year's intercollegiate match was played in the most trying of wintery conditions, torrential rain and howling winds persisted throughout the match. The first half was close with the Princes taking a 2-0 lead but after the main break PAC was dominant and at the final whistle thoroughly deserved its 6-1 victory. The 1st XI demonstrated improvement with each and every match and the team leaders Co-Captains Simon Brown and Cameron Lowe can certainly take some of the credit for that. They led by example from the front and provided amazing support to their younger team-mates both on and off the field. The Brian Leach Award for Service to Hockey in 2013 was awarded to Simon Brown, along with the PAOC Hockey Best and Fairest Player Award. Kurtis Willson had a strong season and received the Best Intercollegiate Players Medal and the Coaches Award for all his hard work.

Rugby

PAC once again put forward a team in every age group of the schools competition and had a high number of boys nominating to play Rugby; some boys returning for a second or third season and some trying the game for the first time. The enthusiasm with which all boys trained and played was fantastic. We had a successful season, with the U16s just being pipped in an extremely exciting Grand Final. The 2013 season was split into 2 formats with Term 2 being the traditional 15-a-side competition and Term 3 providing the boys a chance to compete in a Sevens tournament. Sevens is rapidly growing in popularity around the world, with its fast-paced, high scoring games. It is also included in the Olympic Games from 2016.

U14 Rugby 2013

Back Row: D Peisley, J Harris, B Henderson

Middle Row: M Yantchev, G Read, S Munn, O Bernardi, E Price

Front Row: C Young, J Duncan, C Frost, S Meredith, Mr D Roylett (Coach) W Sumner, N Terp, J Clarke, M Hood

The U14 team was managed once again by Mr Paul Balestrin, in his second season as manager-coach. The team was comprised of a number of players new to the game who were enthusiastic about their Rugby and enjoyed the season. They unfortunately did not repeat the success of the 2012 season, but performed admirably in both competitions

U14 Season Awards:

Best & Fairest — Oskars Lidums

Best Back — Cormac O'Brien

Best Forward — Angus Chalk

Most Improved — Dylan Piesley

The U16 team was coached and managed by Mr Darren Roylett in his first season at PAC. The boys had considerable success, just losing in agonising fashion in the Grand Final in the 15-a-side competition and performing admirably in the Sevens. There are some real Rugby talents developing in this team and all of the boys who played are to be congratulated for their courage and passion in representing their College.

1st XV Rugby 2013

Front Row: S Meredith, H Page, A Smith, M Seals (Captain) Mr A MacGregor (Coach), A Gmeinder, B Crawford, X Warne, M Dennis

U16 Season Awards:

The Gates Family Trophy for Best & Fairest — Sean Meredith

Best Back — James Chalk

Best Forward — George Jaensch

Most Improved — Rupert Johnston

The First XV's season began poorly with a significant loss to Pembroke in the opening round. However, under the guidance of this year's Leadership group the side began to find its feet, recording strong victories over Rostrevor College, Saints Second XV and Sacred Heart. The side's third round loss to Saints First XV saw the boys slide out of the top two with one round remaining, but an emphatic win over St Peters Second XV, 53-0 saw us draw level with Pembroke in second position. Alas, our lower points aggregate meant that Pembroke and Saints faced off in the SASRU Grand-Final, the first final not contested by PAC in five seasons. Next season will provide many of our current Year 11 boys the opportunity to take senior positions in the sides challenge for the 2014 premiership cup.

1st XV Season Awards:

The Peter Layton Memorial Trophy for Best & Fairest — Eamonn O'Farrell-White

Best Back — Angus Gmeinder

Best Forward — James Cornish

Most Improved — Jayden Miell

Player's Player — James Cornish

The Philpot Cup for Best on Field at Intercol — Brenden Crawford

I would like to finish off the season report by thanking all of the parents who came to support their sons and the teams. It is often cold, wet and windy on the sidelines, but I'm sure that the boys appreciate the support even if they don't say it.

Soccer

The 2013 soccer season began with a great deal of optimism. While we had lost a large number of starters from the previous year, many new players were able to make their debuts in the First XI in the competitive Wednesday Twilight Competition.

Pre-season training began late March. 1st XI coach Jason Hayhurst and his assistant William Katsambis put the boys through a vigorous program designed to improve mental toughness and aerobic capacity.

The team travelled to Melbourne and took part in a pre-season trial games against Wesley College and St Kevin's College. The trip provided a valuable life experience for our players, allowed further opportunity to further develop as a team and enabled Prince Alfred College to forge ties with those Victorian Colleges.

With so many debutants and younger players, season 2013 was always going to be challenging. However, after a number of early losses, the team, under the guidance of Jason, gelled together and became a tight cohesive, unit. Hard work on the training track was rewarded when the team began to produce more consistent efforts and on the field success against strong opposition.

Individually, Lachlan Duffy was judged as the best and fairest player, John Dongas was the most consistent player in this year's intercollegiate match and Tyson Bateman was the recipient of the coach's award.

Award winners in other teams included:

Year 8A: Ashley Dann

Year 8B: William Edmonds

Fourth XI: Charles Marshall

Third XI: Alex Cox

Second XI: William Macdonald

Jack Doney, Lachlan Duffy, Finley Hayhurst, Jordon Hayhurst and Angus Smart received Colours for Soccer.

Squash

2013 has been a great year for squash with PAC producing 3 strong teams with 2 of these making finals at the end of the season. It has been fantastic this season to have the opportunity to not only train, but play all of our matches at the brand new PAC RED Centre courts. Thanks go to Will Gray and Adam Colman who made sure that every Monday to Thursday there was training for the boys to come out and improve their play.

With matches on Friday afternoons, it was convenient for our three senior teams to be playing in the RED Centre. Throughout the season PAC and Pembroke were the 2 clear leaders in the competition with strong performance every week. With knowledgeable coaching the boys could bring home some incredible comeback wins and finish strongly against most opponents, this led to great success and a great season for all players.

The boys however were sadly disappointed this year with Saints failing to matchup to us in what would have been Squash's first Intercollegiate match. Hopefully next year Saint Peters can put together a strong team and join in battle against the Reds.

With 2 of our Senior teams in the finals our Division 2 team won the Grand Final with Sean Meredith, Stuart Harris, Jack O'Brien and Lucas DeGaris all playing strongly. However, sadly Division 1 Shae Haseldine, James Nicholas, Matt Georgiadis, and I, lost 1–3 to Pembroke in 4 tight matches. An overall great season for the boys and they are all revved up and ready to go next year, hopefully to bring home a Div 1 Grand Final win.

Our other teams all performed well. Our Year 9 team made the grand final, only to lose on a countback after the rubbers were shared 2–2. Alasdair McFarlane and Seb Economos won tight games, while Daniel and Jayden Subramaniam lost. Had we been able to field our strongest team without Wambana drawing on our talents, perhaps we might have won, but the best team won on the night. Will Cooke, Tim Lok & Joseph Bralic all played well throughout the season, with Will notable for being undefeated.

One of our Year 8 teams also won their final. The PAC 1 team of Connor Riley, Jack Emmett, Stephan Ottanelli & Tom Dodsworth won their final 3 rubbers to 1. Our second team was unlucky not to make the finals.

As a school, we have much strength in our current Year 9 players, which gives us much confidence over the coming years for our prospects. We also have a beautiful new set of squash courts which hopefully will encourage more boys to try squash and appreciate its value as a skillful and athletic game.

Open A/B Table Tennis

This year's Table Tennis season definitely marks the start of dramatic improvement in the table tennis program. The continuous effort displayed by all members of the team in training sessions and matches alike has reinforced how quickly we are able to improve when we face a challenge with a determined attitude. With the introduction of our new coach, Mr John Potter, the team is learning the correct techniques and mental strategies required to be competitive in the sport of Table Tennis. Notably, the team's successes against Mercedes, Rostrevor, St Paul's, Maryattville and Blackfriars stand out as the rewards for our efforts this season.

Considering that all players in the Table Tennis team, with the exception of Anthony Lai, are not currently doing Year 12, the team has a strong foundation with which to build upon in the upcoming years. Tom Williamson, George Guo, Fergus Willsmore, Scott Song, Xin Rong and Cale Amos have shown significant improvement over this season and display the exceptional promise for the future of Table Tennis at Prince Alfred College.

Special thanks must go to Mr Tang and Mr Potter for their assistance and dedication in developing the Table Tennis program this year. Personally, I have thoroughly enjoyed both the training sessions and the matches.

Middle School Table Tennis

The boys efforts and commitment was very impressive during the season, they should be very proud of their achievements. The boys played some very good matches during this season, Mr Muzik was a great Manager and was always excited when we won.

During the season we had some wins and losses, but the majority were wins.

We trained after school on Wednesday and before school on Friday. The purpose of training is to become a confident player, use strategy thinking, on the spot thinking, working as a team in doubles and to allow players to challenge each other.

1st Table Tennis 2013

C Amos, A Lai, G Guo, W Miller, F Willsmore (Captain), X Rong, S Song, J George, T Williamson

The highlights of Table Tennis this season were: Angus Marshall winning his first game representing the school. Angus played with a strong backhand. Ayodimeji Oloruntoba always arrived on time to the games and had a powerful forehand. Gian-Luca Stirling's enthusiasm meant that our games were never boring. Max Kirkby was a strong doubles player. Although Patrick Lowe only played for half the season he was a great player with a good spirit. Fergus Teh loved scoring peoples games, and he always helped pack away the tables after training. Jarrod Marshall was a very honest player with a good attitude while playing. Mingrang Li was a happy player who could produce a lot of back spin on the ball. Shareef Meah was very good at putting spin on the balls, and he was also an excellent strategy player. Nathan Duong was a quite player with an excellent attitude; he did very well in his games.

Student House Leaders 2013

T Alexander, R Terrell, M Wilson, R M Kossatz, N Parletta, H Treloar, C Lowe, S Johnston

At the time of writing this report, the curtain has just come down on the House Activities Program for the 2012/2013 season. The challenge to be the holder of the much sought after Wesley Cup has been run and won for 2013 and the thank you speeches have been shared with the College community at the recent Year 12 Valedictory service. However, the House Program at Prince Alfred College never sleeps, continuing to be an ever-present ingredient in College life.

The House Activities Program is made up of a range of activities such as Athletics Day, Swimming Carnival, House Chess, House Rowing, Academic Effort Grades and House Rowing. This year we have welcomed lunchtime competitions in the RED Centre on Fridays, which have been well supported by both participants and spectators. The support of near 300 Middle and Senior School boys in Stadium One of the RED Centre some weeks was exceptional and nearly raised the roof.

Our Athletics Carnival took place at SANTOS Stadium in Term 1 this year. As has been an ever-increasing trend, the boys and staff brilliantly supported the day. A significant number of our boys got themselves involved in the day, whether they were competing for the Year Level Champion Award, giving their best in the House Novelty Events or simply by assisting in a role as an official or timekeeper in order to earn valuable point for their House.

The final results for the day were :

House Athletics Cup: 1st Cotton, 2nd Taylor, 3rd Waterhouse, 4th Watsford

Under 16: 1st Riley Bonner, 2nd Ashley Giles

Open: 1st Luke O'Connor, 2nd Henry Basedow

Champion of Champions Winner: Jack Doney 11.24 seconds

At the other end of the year, in late Term 3 and early Term 4, we held our House Swimming Carnivals in the impressive surrounds of the Arrowcrest Aquatic Centre, which is situated in the RED Centre. This is the first time in a significant number of years that we have been able to hold a carnival such as these in our own pool. Not only did we witness fast times, mass participation and outstanding sportsmanship in the pool, we experienced a new high in regards to House Spirit. It was an extremely tough task in trying to decide on the winner of the House Spirit Cup at both the Middle and Senior School Carnivals. All House teams brought a lot of fun and camaraderie to the day and should all be proud of their accomplishments. As always, we shared in a lot of fun, the much revered 'Big Splash' competition and of course some exceptional performances in the pool. The final results were:

During the first week of Term 4, the students were called upon to vote in their next House Leaders who will work in the role from the beginning of Term 4 2013, until the end of Term 3 in 2014. I am pleased to announce the following boys were successful in winning the right to represent their house as a Leader and congratulate them on their fine leadership to date:

Cotton House: Nelson Ellis (Captain), William Goode and Mitchell Clarke (Co-Vice Captains)

Watsford House: Digby Bowring (Captain), Zac Richards and Aaron Gwinnett (Co-Vice Captains)

Waterhouse House: Angus Smart (Captain), Sebastian Higham and Bryce Woolard (Co-Vice Captains)

Taylor House: Edward Thomas (Captain), William Altmann and Micah van Loon (Co-Vice Captains)

As the new House Leaders move into their roles seamlessly and with great enthusiasm, I must take this opportunity to thank the House Leaders of 2012-2013. Their contribution to their House and the College have been appreciated and have been pivotal in building stronger traditions with the Wesley Cup and all that it stands for. I give thanks to Nic Parletta, Henry Treloar, Michael Kossatz, Michael Wilson, Cameron Lowe, Riley Terrell, Todd Alexander and Samuel Johnston for their effort and drive. In the Middle School, I extend my appreciation to our Middle School Leaders who have carried out their duties with maturity. They are Ben Heaslip, James Chalk, James Nicholas, Theo Skrembos, Max Meyer, Tyson Brazel, Rupert Benson and Tom Fisher.

As we begin to direct our focus to the House Program of 2014, I would like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank all of the staff and boys who have engaged in the program with enthusiasm, spirit and sportsmanship. Your efforts and accomplishments in adding to the House culture of Prince Alfred College have been appreciated and in turn, sets a solid platform from which to work from next year.

Parents' & Friends' Association

Preparatory School

2013 has seen the Preparatory School Parents and Friends continue to build activities to support our school community and bring people together with the help of a very dedicated committee.

Social activities on the school calendar that were hosted by the Preparatory School P&F were the Welcome Morning Tea on the first day of school and again in Term 4 and the Bottle & Plate Night in Term 1. These events were all very well attended we would like to extend our thanks Kirsten Worthley, Katrina Davies and Jo O'Leary for their hard work in organising these events.

Special mention must be made of other events held by the Preparatory School P&F this year. The Family Fun Night in March was attended by over 500 people and thank you to Louisa Scalzi, Rachel Burfield, Sinead Bernardi, Kirsten Worthley, Agnes Skothos, Meredith McAveney and Jo O'Leary and their helpers, in making this a wonderful social event that will become part of the school calendar. In August the 'Spicks & Specks' themed Quiz Night brought 300 people together and raised more than $13,000 for the school community. Thank you to Lorraine Ottanelli, Agnes Skothos and Sharon Reynolds and Charmaine Jackson from the Middle & Senior School P&F for their very hard work in organising this very successful event.

This year the P&F committee voted to support the Cancer Council's Biggest Morning Tea with a sit-down champagne morning tea and fashion parade. More than $3,000 was raised and donated to the Cancer Council. We would especially like to thank Tania Bierlein and Julie Watson for their wonderful organisation of this special event.

We continued to sell the Entertainment Books as part of our fundraising efforts under the guidance of Katrina Davies who once again assumed the role of co-ordinator and I thank her for her efforts. Other fundraising efforts in 2013 included the very popular Easter Egg Raffle. We were again able to make a substantial donation of Easter baskets to Uniting Care Wesley Adelaide. Thank you to Jo O'Leary for her outstanding effort in organising this event. The school community continues to support the boys in the Cake & Lollie Stall at both sports days and I extend my thanks to everyone who assisted with this and also the Sausage Sizzle lunch. In particular I would like to thank Jo O'Leary, Louisa Scalzi and Agnes Skothos for their efforts.

The P&F is very proud to be able to support the school with the purchase of resources and facilities improvements for all of the boys to enjoy. This year we have contributed $10,000 towards the fit-out and set up of 'The Shed' in the Preparatory School, $2,000 towards replacing the soccer nets and $2,000 towards installing the new turf at Scotts Creek.

I would like to personally thank the entire Preparatory School P&F committee members for their outstanding work and dedication this year and in particular extend my appreciation to Agnes Skothos as Vice-President, Lorraine Ottanelli as Treasurer and Jo O'Leary as Secretary.

We look forward to another full and successful year in 2014 and extend an invitation to any parents wishing to be part of the P&F and join in supporting the school community.

Rachel Walsh

Middle & Senior School

The Middle and Senior School's Parents' and Friends' Association always appreciates the time and effort that Mr Tutt provides in his attendance of our meeting and his reports on the current events and future direction of the College. This year, we especially enjoyed his presentation of the new Strategic Plan for Prince Alfred College 2013-15.

We were delighted to hear that the Strategic Plan's direction moves in the direction of amalgamating the Preparatory Parents' and Friends' Association with our P&F. We believe that this provides us with the best possible way to obtain cohesion, co-operation and communication within the school's support base of our members.

Dare I say that the Preparatory School's Association's organisation of large and successful events at the College, enjoys the support that we can provide and that a new whole school P&F will mean that we can participate on an even greater level.

I would like to thank the Preparatory P&F, and our members who were able to help, for staging a fabulous Quiz Night again this year. All their hard work certainly seems to be worth it when the following meetings are buzzing with the stories of catching up with other school families and enjoying the antics and laughter which inevitably evolve in a fun night of games and challenges.

Our Association is still planning a programme to best ensure the protection, awareness and appreciation of the College's amazing art collection. This involves firstly determining the condition of all the works, determining which works require restoration, costing the restorations and planning how to fund this work.

We hope that once we have completed this, we will also have developed a strategy for presenting them to the school in a format which will not endanger their safety or compromise their insurance protection.

The P&F hopes that, when this body of artwork is prepared for presentation, we will have an beautiful, interesting, informative and educational vehicle for the students, staff, Old Scholars, friends and families of the College to learn about some of the amazing people who have been involved with the school in the past.

I would like to quickly finish with a big thank you to the Book Sale Committee, the office bearers and all those involved in our most enjoyable school life.

Lisa Rasheed

Foundation

Grandies with Jarrod Cross

The official opening of the RED Centre was a significant day in the lives of both the College and the Foundation. For the College it was the opening of the largest building project in the history of Princes and for the Foundation it was the opportunity to acknowledge the generosity of our community and to present an additional $500,000 gift. The Foundation Building Fund has paid $3,000,000 to the College for the RED Centre and more will be provided in the near future.

With the support of the Princes community the Foundation has also been able to help finance other aspects of the life of the College. Nine students are privileged to have the support of the Prince Alfred College Foundation Scholarship Fund and as become an annual event were able to meet supporters of the Fund at a morning hosted by the Foundation President and the Headmaster.

The Foundation Library Fund has provided $50,000 for a radio frequency identification system for streamlining the borrowing and returning of all library resources. This project is the first in a series identified through a review of the College's library operations and the Library Fund will be called upon to support new initiatives in 2014.

In conjunction with the Australian Sports Foundation the Foundation offers the Rowing Equipment Fund which helps resource the College's Rowing program. Recent donations to the fund have helped with the provision of racking for boats and the purchase of 16 sculls and one quad boat.

The Foundation has once again been generously supported by its gold sponsor Westpac, and thanks Westpac for the many ways over the years it has supported the activities of the Foundation . A highlight of the year was a luncheon at Westpac

RED Centre Cheque presentation

Peter McBride at the opening of RED Centre

Murray and Grace Olsson with Dr Janet Young

where guests were privileged to have the company of Elaine Benger, CEO of Zoos SA.

During the year the Foundation was saddened by the death of John Michell, a prime mover in the early 1970s of the establishment of the Foundation and its second President. John maintained an active interest in the affairs of the Foundation and last visited the College to attend the Annual General Meeting in April. The Foundation gives thanks for the life and contribution of John Michell AM.

At the Foundation's AGM two board members were thanked for their participation. Current parent Sue Aretzis has strongly supported Foundation functions such as the Martini Ball and her enthusiasm and drive contributed to the success of these events. Murray Olsson is one of the great faces of the College and has participated in the PAOCA, the PAOCA Cricket Club and as a member of the Foundation board for some twenty years. Murray's wide circle, love of the school and commitment to the aims of the Foundation has been greatly valued over the years of his service.

Once again the Grandies Club has made the most of opportunities to visit the College. Grandies were treated to a tour of parts of the secondary school they were unfamiliar with in the Gerard Innovation Centre, arts faculty and technical studies where they were made most welcome by staff and students. The Grandies Club Christmas lunch in the Piper Pavilion was a highlight of 2013.

2014 is the fortieth anniversary of the establishment of the Foundation. An exciting program of events to celebrate the Ruby Anniversary is being planned and will culminate with the biennial ball in August.

Fullbright Scholarship

The College is proud of the achievements of its seven Fulbright recipients and an honour roll was unveiled in ANZAC Hall following this year's Old Old Boys Assembly, and which was attended by three past recipients and former Headmaster, Fulbright Scholar (1966) and past chair of the SA Branch of the Fulbright Association, Dr Brian Webber.

Old Scholars

President's Annual Report

I would like to thank the Members and Committee of the Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Association (PAOCA) for the opportunity and privilege to serve as President for 2013. I wish to extend my appreciation to the entire Committee, the Headmaster Mr Kevin Tutt and our Executive Officer Mrs Mary-Ann Standish, for all of their hard work and dedication throughout the year.

2013 has been a very busy and productive year for the PAOCA with a number of new initiatives and projects launched with the aim of further enhancing the services being offered to our Old Scholars community.

Given our membership is increasingly being spread across the globe, we now host multiple PAOCA functions across the UK, Asia and for the first time, the United States. This presents in itself, further challenges in ensuring our Members are continually engaged and provided with the opportunity to remain connected with Old Reds wherever they are located around the world.

Most notably, the following significant initiatives and projects were undertaken by the Committee this year:

- The successful introduction of an Old Scholars' event held in the United States. This was held in New York in July this year, and we are aiming to make this event a permanent annual fixture on our future events calendar.
- We held an Old Scholars' function for the first time at the Naracoorte races in March this year for our Members located in the South East region of South Australia. This is another event we are aiming to make a permanent fixture on our events calendar.
- The implementation of SMS texting facilities to communicate with our Members. This service was first used to advertise our July Annual Dinner held at the Convention Centre.

- The introduction of a Finance & Audit Sub-Committee to oversee the financial affairs and investments of the Association, and to provide recommendations to the Executive and Management Committee for consideration on financial matters.
- The implementation of a Foundation Investment Fund which is to be managed by the Management Committee with the aim of financially assisting our Old Scholars Sporting Clubs with future infrastructure replacement and upgrade needs so that our Clubs can offer high quality facilities and services to our Members.

The first large infrastructure project being supported by the PAOCA is the redevelopment of the Park 9 cricket pitch which is being undertaken in partnership with the College and the PAOC Cricket Club. This work is due to commence in the 2013/14 summer and will be available for use by the PAOC Cricket Club in the 2014/15 season. The redevelopment of the Park 9 cricket pitch will be a significant investment in ensuring that our Cricket Club is able to offer the best available playing facilities for years to come.

The Annual Dinner held in July was well attended with over 400 Old Reds converging on the Adelaide Convention Centre for what was a fun and highly entertaining evening. We were fortunate to have The Hon. Alexander Downer AC as our guest speaker who gave a unique insight and opinion on the topic of 'modern leadership' given his year of experience as Foreign Minister and subsequent professional working life. An impromptu 'presentation' by Rick Davies (AFL Hall of Fame Legend and Old Red) was also a highlight of the evening.

I was fortunate to attend many more Old Red functions and reunions both locally and interstate throughout the year and behind all of our events are hardworking and dedicated Members who are the backbone to the continued success of these events being held year after year. I would like to extend to these gentlemen, the appreciation of the entire Committee for their hard work and support.

It has been a very busy year for the PAOCA and I would like to again thank the Committee and Mary-Ann Standish for all their hard work and dedication this year. I encourage all of our Members to get along to an Old Scholars' function next year if you haven't in the past and remain connected to what I believe is a truly unique and special College community.

John Jovicevic

Prince Alfred Collegians' Lodge No. 51

The Prince Alfred Collegians' Lodge is a Freemasons' Lodge with a history over a century, making it the oldest School lodge in Australasia. It serves not only to promote community service and charity, but it also places a great deal of emphasis on the continuing self-development of the individual.

The two signature activities of the Lodge in respect of furthering education are a Senior School Scholarship and a Preparatory School Short Talk Competition.

On Saturday, 27th July 2013 in the Colton Room at Prince Alfred College, two Year 10 students were given awards to assist them in their schooling. Harrison Lindner was awarded the PAC Lodge Scholarship and received a cheque and certificate, and Ethan Smith was awarded a Special Assistance Grant for the year ending December 2013. The Headmaster, together with Harrison Lindner's immediate family and Ethan Smith's relatives, were present and were delighted that the boys had won the awards. There was strong competition from the students in the Senior School for the award and the Interview Panel commented on the high quality of all the applicants.

The Preparatory School Short Talk Competition was won this year by Thomas Johnson in Year 6. Thomas was a stand-out winner, showing not only great confidence in public speaking, but also an impressive depth of imagination. The adjudicators remarked that there was a future world class fantasy author there in the making! The Brethren continue to be amazed by the quality of public speaking engendered in Princes boys by the School, something of which Prince Alfred College may be justly proud.

The Brethren of Prince Alfred Collegians' Lodge have met regularly throughout the 2012–2013 Masonic Year. This year we welcomed John Irvine as a new brother. John lives in Canberra, but wished to join Freemasonry through his School Lodge. John has made a few trips from Canberra especially for Lodge meetings — a sterling commitment!

The Brethren were saddened this year by the death of our much beloved Very Worshipful Brother Kevin Parkinson. Kevin had a distinguished Masonic career and thoroughly deserved his Sprig of Acacia.

Digby McNeil, Sam Duffield and Jackson Myhill

The Lodge continues its proud history, serving the Princes community in particular and the wider community in general. All members of the Princes family are encouraged to visit our website: www.pac-lodge.org

New Old Boys' Drinks

At the commencement of each year it is customary for New Old Reds to be welcomed into the PAOCA, and this year 55 New Old Reds from the 2012 cohort attended their first official old scholars' function on Friday 22 February 2013 at The Cumberland Arms in Waymouth Street. President John Jovicevic welcomed the group and asked them to sign up to the PAOCA Facebook page and also the PAOC Sporting Clubs.

Under 35s Event

On Saturday, 22 September 2013 the PAOCA hosted the Under 35 Old Scholar McLaren Vale Ale beer tasting event at the Seven Stars Hotel, which is managed by Old Red Thomas Ricketts (1994–2004). The purpose of the event was to encourage the younger generation of Old Reds to actively participate in the old scholar events and socialise with fellow peers.

Over 30 "young" Old Reds attended the event, all of whom happily participated in the tasting of the Vale Ale beer and cider range which was accompanied by matching food. Head of Brewing, Jeff Wright, and Head of Sales, Tom Becker, from Vale Ale lead a very thorough and funny afternoon of tasting explaining, in amusing detail, the history and process behind each of their six labels we tried.

All in all the event received fantastic feedback from those involved and is certainly something the PAOCA hopes to run again next year. Thank you to all who attended the event.

2013 Yorke Peninsula Field Days

At the conclusion of Day 2 of this year's Yorke Peninsula Field Days, the PAOCA hosted drinks in the PAC Tent. Andrew Clarkson, PAOCA Vice-President and Mary-Ann Standish, PAOCA Executive Officer, welcomed approximately 30 Old Reds their partners, and members of the PAC community.

It was the perfect opportunity for Old Reds on the Peninsula to come together in a relaxed atmosphere and enjoy a glass of champagne and a Coopers' beer or two! It was a very successful afternoon, and one that will be replicated in two years' time!

Vintage Reds

The 14th Annual Vintage Reds Luncheon was held in the new RED Centre on Thursday 31 October 2013.

A new record was set with 329 Old Reds in attendance. Guests undertook a tour of the College with the recently inducted 2014 Prefects and were then entertained by the College's Big Band. The Vintage Reds were then welcomed to the luncheon by Old Red and PAOCA Committee member Rex Wilson (1960–66) who explained the meaning of 'Vintage Red', and introduced the Guest Speaker, Bob Snewin (1960–63).

This day just gets bigger and better each year!

2013 Joint Committee Dinner — Wednesday 24 July

This year's 2013 Wine Intercol was a very eagerly awaited contest.

A very solid 12 months of intensive training and more training, was undertaken by all of the 23 finely honed athletic imbibers of both teams, in preparation for this very important Intercol.

The Joint Committee Dinner was hosted by the honourable Rex Wilson and we thank him for allowing us to host the dinner at The Adelaide Club.

Our team was led by Craig Moffat, ably supported by senior team imbibers Rob Hall, Andrew Clarkson and Peter Crouch. A number of first year recruits were subjected to the intense competition, with Tom Huxtable, Sam Richardson, Tom Lambert and Michael Garry acquitting themselves most admirably.

Solid performances were put in at various stages of the tasting by Graham Burfield, John Jovicevic, Simon Miller and Nick Blanch, but they need to do a much more solid pre-season. Rex selected a menu that complemented the wine selection to perfection. Fred Hamood and Craig Moffat selected the dinner wines and the competition wines, even including an American beer.

The camaraderie of the Saints and Princes Committees was, as always, of the highest gentlemanly standards during the competition, and the game was played in true collegiate traditions, until the competition winning team was announced. Once announced, the winning team let the other team know all about it, and all civilised protocols went by the wayside!

Congratulations to Saints on their victory, by the smallest of margins ... a short half glass ... but we will return a stronger team next year.

Fred Hamood

Annual Service — Thursday 25 July

On Thursday 25 July 2013, the 109th PAOCA Service was held in the Eric Freak Memorial Chapel conducted by College Chaplain, Rev Mark Dickens. This year we were honoured to have Old Scholar Rev Brian Polkinghorne (PAC 1953–54) as our guest preacher.

Captain of the School, Simon Brown, conducted the lighting of the candle and opening prayer. Deputy Headmaster, Neil Andary welcomed the 50 Old Reds and the Princes community, and PAOCA Vice-President, Andrew Clarkson gave the Bible reading from John 1: 1–5, 10–14. The congregation reflected on the presentation of Old Reds who had passed away during the year.

The congregation sang Lord of Creation and Princes Men, accompanied by the Chapel Choir who also sang You are Mine and an Amen under the direction of Choirmaster, Tasso Bouyessis.

his many years working in Tanzania between the 1970s–1990s, in particular helping the Tanzanian people develop programs of self-sufficiency, one of which was the cultivating of chickens!

Old Scholars and members of the Princes community were welcomed to the Piper Pavilion for morning tea at the conclusion of the service.

Old Old Boys' Assembly — Friday 26 July 2013

For more than 70 years the Old Old Boys Assembly has seen the coming together of the school and the oldest old boys for an occasion steeped in tradition and meaning from the youngest boys to the eldest of men. This assembly is the proudest moment in the life of Prince Alfred College, and is eagerly anticipated by those who commenced at the College sixty or more years ago.

Traditions by their nature evolve and grow. Nearly fifty years ago, Old Old Boys was held in the College's new Assembly Hall. At the time it easily managed the group of men who attended however over the years school numbers grew and in recent years the logistics of staging the event in the hall became increasingly difficult. This year the Assembly was held for the first time in the RED

Centre and the new venue was an outstanding success, setting the scene for many years to come for the Assembly to be held comfortably and safely.

190 Old Old Boys attended the Assembly and the 24 New Old Old Boys of 1953 were reminded by the Director of Teaching & Learning Kelvin Sparks of the life of the College in that year and of the times in which they lived.

The traditional roll call was read by the Headmaster and the Oldest Old Boys were greeted with overwhelming enthusiasm by their fellow Old Old Boys and the school in one of the greatest moments of Princes life.

2013 PAOCA Annual Dinner

The Annual Dinner is always the highlight of the Association's calendar, and this year it was attended by 413 Old Reds at the Adelaide Convention Centre on Friday, 26 July.

As always, it was great to see so many Old Reds enjoying themselves and supporting the Association. Our guest speaker for the evening was former politician, The Hon Alexander Downer AC, which was timely given this year's election! Before Mr Downer could take to the stage, Sturt Football Club CEO, Matt Benson, congratulated our very own Rick Davies on his induction into the Australian Football Hall of Fame, and then invited Rick to speak to the contingent of Old Reds. Rick concluded his impromptu speech with a reference to the quality of the friendships he still has today despite finishing at the College over 40 years ago.

Daniel Orken, Wesley Hall, Wesley Legrand, Andrew Carracher and John Marsh (1996)

Bill Andary (1970), Neil Richardson (1969) and Phil Burford (1970)

The audience of Old Reds was 'all ears' when Mr Downer took to the stage to speak about "Modern Leadership" giving examples in his career of business, political and/or general leadership and its relevance today. Mr Downer was entertaining and engaging, and made references to overseas negotiations with global leaders, including a dinner with former US President, George W Bush. Interestingly, Mr Downer's speech included very few Australian political stories and when question time came around, many Old Reds probably expected the conversation to turn to politics, but instead centred around the Australian Cricket Team!

The event was a great success and would not have been possible without the support of our Corporate Sponsor, Alfred James, and event sponsors MGA

Intercol Sports

Bowls

The bowling was fierce at the 2013 Intercol Bowls night, played on Thursday 21 February at the Adelaide Bowling Club.

Unfortunately the shield was returned to our foe, SPOC, who won magnificently 124–113. The Saints and Princes Committees' contingent played brilliantly, and enjoyed a great night of camaraderie.

Thanks must be extended to our stalwart convenor, Peter Broadbent (1944–45), who has convened this event for 20 years.

Any Old Reds who play bowls or Night Owls, and would like to play in this annual event, are asked to contact Peter, Tel: 8356 4780.

Tennis

PAOC hosted the 2013 ET Rowe Cup contest on Wednesday, 1 May 2013, at the Kensington Lawn Tennis Club.

The PAOC tennis community was again well-represented, with a mix of youth and experience, some Intercol "old hands", and some old scholars playing in their first Intercol clash.

The crisp and clear evening saw some spectacular and competitive tennis — momentum see-sawed, but despite some hard-fought matches, and in no small part due to some very close losses, the Saints team came out ahead on the scoreboard, defeating the Reds 8–4.

Pairs Ian Gray and Jasper Wolfe, and Michael Brown and Jock Clarnette, each carried the load of the "top bracket" pairings, and each had close losses in very high quality matches.

Steve Sanders and Tim Nicholls won their first match in a tight tie-break encounter, and then accelerated to a resounding win (to love) in their second.

Nick Wong and Beckett Wolfe played with endeavour but little luck, losing their first match in a narrow tie break, and their second by a slightly wider margin.

The pairs of Tim Sanders and Nick Sanders, and John Brealey and Justin Venning, each acquitted themselves well, each taking a win and a narrow loss (and in John and Justin's case, an extremely narrow tie-break loss).

The PAOC players once again played the match in the best of spirits, and took full advantage of the barbecue and drinks, and the opportunity to catch up with new and old acquaintances. The team looks forward to the chance to win back the Cup at next year's event, to be held on Wednesday, 19 February 2014 at the Kensington Gardens Lawn Tennis Club, from 6:00 pm.

Intercol Golf Day

A cold wet windy day greeted all 54 and a half players for the annual Old Scholars Week Golf Competition at Royal Adelaide Golf Club.

Numbers were down considerably from past events, the unfavourable conditions caused a number of cancellations on the morning, but those who did attend had a most magnificent day.

A number of country golfers attended to help prop up the city players, but alas their good country form did not transfer to the city course on the day.

Princes lost the tournament 8–6, and many of the matches went to the 18th hole for a decision.

The Saints team tried to fool us with player numbers. One of Saints players forgot his golf shoes and had to purchase new ones of the day. The only size available was a pair of ladies shoes, which he duly purchased! He came to the first tee and tried to play off the ladies tee but Tony Newman was alert to this manoeuvre and forced him to play off the white tees, hence we really had 54 and a half players, the other half being the ladies shoes shod player!

Kym Bartel won a nearest the pin, Nick Blanch scored two longest drives, Tony Newman was resplendent with his day glo balls, and Simon Greenslade was a picture of sartorial elegance in plus fours sans the socks, and Graham Vasileff had his best game ever, according to him!

Next year we need to have more players for the game and the lunch afterwards, which has as many highlights as the actual game.

Special thanks to the Royal Adelaide Golf Club for allowing us the day, and in particular to Paul Stuchbery for his organisation of the event.

Badminton

The 2013 contest was held at the new RED Centre on Thursday 25 July 2013. This year the match was very close and unfortunately the Old Reds team narrowly lost 5 rubbers to 4 rubbers.

PAOC: 4 Rubbers, 10 games, 368 points

SPOC: 5 Rubbers, 10 games, 358 points

The 2013 PAOC team comprised of David Olsson, Ben Jenson, Kevin Khaw (capt), Darren Chan, Meng Ling and Jayden Lim.

The team results were:

Mens Singles

1st Teng Wei Khoo defeated Ben Jenson 21/11; 21/15

2nd Michael Foo defeated Kevin Khaw 21/18; 21/17

3rd Andy Lo defeated Meng Ling 19/21; 21/9, 21/18

4th Darren Chan defeated Qi Ren 21/4; 21/16

5th Jayden Lim defeated Qi Zheng 22/20, 21/11

6th David Olsson defeated Michael Crisp 21/12, 21/14

Mens Doubles

1st Khoo & Crisp defeated Ling & Jenson 17/21, 22/20, 21/12

2nd Foo & Lo defeated Khaw & Chan 21/14; 24/22

3rd Olsson & Lim defeated Ren & Zheng 22/17; 21/14

At the conclusion of the contest the Bunday Cup was presented to the winning SPOC Old Scholars representative Mr Tony Keynes.

Mr David Olsson on behalf of the PAOCA thanked all players and guests.

Basketball

The 2013 intercol night was our first in the school's new gym, and all three of our teams were focussed on marking the occasion with a win. A photoblog of the 2013 intercol night can be found at: http://oldredsbasketball.blogspot.com.au/2013/07/cs-intercol-game-started-bit-scrappy\_24.html

In the C game we were confident that our vastly greater depth would see us get the win. Saints jumped out in a scrappy opening, but we settled fairly quickly to get the lead back and hold it for the duration. It wasn't the prettiest match but good foul shooting against a team that is incredibly frustrating to play against was important and ensured we got the 33–26 win. Our hustle was our best quality and everyone contributed. The Trim Cup stays Red!

The B's also started slowly but so did Saints. Mike Hill and James Davey got some good scores early and slowly we pulled away to a 21–13 halftime lead. Saints jumped back early in the second but we were always able to get the score when we needed it. Defensively we were very solid and this fed our offence allowing us to win 41–28. Mike Hill was exceptional throughout and was clearly the best Red on the night winning the Sean Heylen Medal for his efforts.

The A's came out strong and throughout a tight first half remained even with Saints. Great defence had the scores tied at 17 at the half. A great start in the second half saw us build a lead but Saints ability to consistently get scores from their mid-height players saw us go down 36–41.

Our thanks to the school and all involved in building a brilliant new stadium that was a pleasure to play a big game in, and to the Seven Stars for providing a post-match venue. If you want to play basketball, PAOCBC provides a fun and social club environment and a large range of teams. Please visit <http://oldredsbasketball.blogspot.com.au/> for more information.

Bridge

What a superb show the Prince Alfred Old Collegians' put on for this year's Intercol Bridge evening on Thursday 25 July, 2013. Thanks to Rex Wilson and the staff at the College's impressive RED Centre, for setting up the room, six tables with PAC badges adorning the cloths, and wine and supper! It will be a hard act for SPSC to follow, but let's make it even more difficult next year with more tables.

Thanks to those able to play including several new faces. The result for the evening was 3 all, with a win to SPSC after a count back (see below). But there was a consensus view that we should add the game played last week in anticipation of overseas travel. So here it is:

- Paul Black and Michael Nugent v Ian Sando and Tom Playford: PAC by 310 (Michael needed 3NT on the last hand);
- Bruce DeBelle and Rob Searcy v David Motteram and Evan Jenkins; PAC by 240 (another contract needed on the last hand);
- Robert and Andrew Black v Max Lemon and Brian North; SPSC by 2080 (despite minus 800 for 6NT doubled vul. 3 off!);
- Peter Wilson and Bill Fowler v Paul Heywood-Smith and Richard Krantz; PAC by 2000;
- William Morgan and Mike Robertson v Rob Motteram and Simon Drew; SPSC by 3360;
- Tony Wilkinon and Rob Chattaway v Ivan Morris and Duncan Clarke; SPSC by 1280.

Total scores were: SPSC 7260: PAC 2550.

The "home game" the week prior resulted in a very narrow win to SPSC by Barry Black and Bob Brummitt v Peter Warnecke and Gerald Cox playing "Doop", by less than 1%.

The score line therefore was SPSC by 4:3.

Chess

Historic Win To Princes!

After a significant amount of effort from the PAOC and SPOC Associations, I am pleased to confirm that we managed to have six boards of high-calibre chess enthusiasts competing in another enthralling encounter between the combatants held at the magnificent Princes RED Centre on Thursday, 25 July 2013.

Our team had an added incentive to do well this year — I was delighted and very proud to present a new Old Scholars' Week Chess Trophy, an impressive piece of silverware that is worthy of many great mental confrontations that will be intensely contested during the future of this annual event.

Given that last year's disappointing drawn result was of adequate effort to retain the bragging rights (as Princes had previously won this battle against our old enemy two years ago), another draw would have been sufficient for the Princes chess fraternity to continue cheering. However, this was certainly not in the script as far as the Old Reds were concerned — we wanted to mercilessly beat our opponents and clearly be crowned the undisputed best Old Scholars Chess Team.

Once the competitors were seated and the chess clocks began ticking, the three senior members of this Red and White brigade (Michael Hihimanis, Michael Hoff and Wesley Legrand) flung their chess pieces across the chess boards with military precision and lead a memorable unbridled performance by destroying their "shell-shocked" adversaries in blistering speed, even before finishing off their first bottle of red!

The three newer members of our contingent (Fabian Ivancic, Anthony Milton and Luke Dollman) were not to be overshadowed for too long, also revelling in this complete one-sided onslaught, each winning their more evenly contested (and, at times, complex) matches that ensured a devastating blow to the Blue team's collective ego.

In summary, once the war was over, our invincible team (comprising a powerful combination of distinguished veterans and recent school leavers) scored a crushing victory against our old foe — 6-0!

I am very proud of each and every one of my team-mates for their high level of concentration and intellectual prowess over the chequerboard.

By the way, for the statistically minded, the results of these generally highly-contested battles since 1972 are as follows:

Played : 41 (2009 — Not Contested) Princes : 32
Saints : 7 Drawn : 2

It just goes to show what's never been in doubt: Princes men not only continually do brave deeds and endure they also have superior grey matter!

Thank you to all of our players — their strong fighting spirit ensured an enjoyable and very successful Old Scholars' Week function, albeit amidst the historic fiercely competitive rivalry between our great schools!

Particular gratitude is extended to Princes for hosting this event with a fantastic new venue which provided an appropriate competitive setting for such a "serious" contest as well as organizing the catering for the supper and to Princes for generously supplying liquid refreshments throughout the night as well as to Rex Wilson (Convenor); Mary-Ann Standish (PAOCA Executive Officer); and Peter Serwan (PAC School Chess Co-ordinator). Well done to the almighty Princes team!

Michael Hihimanis

Cricket

The 2012 Chester Bennett Cup match between PAOCA and SPCA to be played at St Peters College was unfortunately washed out with no play possible. Next year's fixture, at Prince Alfred College, will be played on Wednesday, 26 February 2014.

Brad Weidenhofer

Squash

This year the Old Reds v Saints Squash Tournament was held at our new RED Centre and despite some hard fought matches the Old Reds performed particularly well winning five rubbers to nil.

The results are as follows:

PAOC			SPOC
Brenton Hicks	55 pt	3 games	1 rubber v Mark Esau	42 pt	1 game
Will Gray	45 pt	3 games	1 rubber v Ben Esau	18 pt
Dean Humphray	45 pt	3 games	1 rubber v Callum Anderson-Stanford	25 pt
Tom Hicks	60 pt	3 games	1 rubber v Chris Plummer	52 pt	1 game
Christian McIntosh	45 pt	3 games	1 rubber v Ren Papillon	31 pt

At the conclusion of the competition all Old Scholars retired to the McBride Room for some well earned refreshments.

Rex Wilson

Hockey — Geoffrey Bean Cup

The annual hockey game between PAOC and SPOC was played on the PAC hockey pitch on the evening of Wednesday 14 August 2013. The match had been delayed from its usual date in Old Scholars' Week in July to wait for the PAC hockey pitch reinstatement to be completed as part of the gym construction works.

Both teams had fairly strong line ups, with players from Premier League hockey clubs making up the bulk of both teams with some players from the respective Collegians' clubs rounding out the numbers. The match was one of the more low scoring results of recent seasons. The Reds dominated much of the play in the first half but failed to capitalise on their opportunities, only being able to convert once to take a 1-0 lead into half time.

In the second half, it was Saints that came out firing. They managed to put on back to back goals to take the lead 2-1, halfway through the second half. The intensity lifted as a result and the match was tightly fought out. Thankfully, the Reds managed to score a goal with about five minutes left to draw level at 2-2. We had an opportunity to clinch the game in the dying seconds, but a back-stick shot on goal went just wide of the post.

The final score remained a 2-2 draw. PAOC won the game the previous year, so the Reds retained the Geoffrey Bean Cup on the back of this year's draw result.

Class of 1963 Fifty Year Reunion

On 20 September 2013, nearly 50 Old Reds and 3 Old Masters attended a 50 year reunion lunch held at the National Wine Centre for those who left PAC in 1963. Many took part in a tour of the school preceding the lunch, and were exceedingly impressed with the changes the School has undergone in the last half-century.

A large number of apologies were received, partly due to the tendency of the grey generation heading overseas at this time of year!

We were privileged to have David Mattingley, Ian Houston and Geoff Woollard join us.

The Headmaster, Kevin Tutt addressed the gathering with the latest update on School progress and achievements, and Rex Wilson spoke on behalf of the PAOCA with a reminder of many of the events the country and world experienced in 1963.

A video presentation was shown comprising photos gleaned from the PAC archives (thanks to Archivist Tony Aldous) and various year members, encompassing Years 1 (1952) to 12. The musical accompaniment included stirring renditions of the school songs. Particularly nostalgic were the individual photos of all our teachers, younger then than we are now!

Rob Hunwick proposed the Toast to the School and Andrew Binns responded. They both commenced in Grade 1 (as did three others present) and were close friends throughout their school life, despite, as commented by MC David Johnston, their vertical discrepancy. Both had come from interstate for the lunch.

Rob reflected with humour on baby boomer life as a youngster and teenager in the 50's and early 60's, and the value of our schooling at PAC, punctuated with many anecdotes.

Andrew responded with some of his own reminiscences then passed around the roving microphone, resulting in a hilarious series of stories. Needless to say, most of them involved teachers. The masters present also contributed.

Many of us are now grandfathers, but in meeting schoolmates from 50 plus years ago we still recognise in them the cheeky lads we knew then — and perhaps like them even better!

As one person commented: "the day seemed to go in a flash", and indeed it did, full of warmth, camaraderie and bonhomie (to make some use of Argus Dennis' French).

The organising committee comprising David Johnston (a sterling MC), Rob Byrne and David Close especially thank Mary-Ann Standish whose organisation of and enthusiasm for the event deserve high praise.

David Close

Class of 1973 Forty Year Reunion

The men of 1973 gathered together once again on Friday, 13 September on the hallow grounds of Princes to celebrate their years of schooling at their Forty Year reunion. Sixty one past students who had travelled far and wide, along with our Headmaster Geoffrey Bean and past Masters, Messrs Milton Haseloff, Neil Jackson, David Mattingley, Bern Basedow and Malcolm Gray attended this special occasion.

The day commenced with a tour of the school, assembling outside the Headmaster's Office under the ancient Moreton Bay fig tree, attempting to put names to faces. With an escorted walk around the grounds and class rooms, one realised how good the current students have it at school. With new modernised facilities including the RED Centre and science buildings we just hoped that the current students appreciate what they have and we didn't — although we thought we had things pretty good in our day!

Then off to the National Wine Centre where Tim Moffat opened the luncheon by welcoming all those attending, whilst Mark Waters (Co-School Captain) provided the "In Memorium Valete" of those no longer with us, and apologies. Headmaster Kevin Tutt provided an update on the current enrolments and future developments of the school. Peter Crouch addressed the gathering on behalf of the PAOCA President and provided his own comments on what this day meant to him personally. Mike De Garis (Co-School Captain) gave the Toast to the School.

Grant Dalwood, Colin Trengove and Michael Bratchell each provided the gathering with their accounts of times spent at Princes, the impact that continues to have on them in their family and business lives, the everlasting friendships and the common bonds that bring us together on such occasions as this.

Anthony May added his personal touch to the event by auctioning a Craig Bowyer print titled "Home Game in the Field" marked with the appropriate print number 73/100, which was snapped up by Simon Harvey.

Afterwards, the group gathered at The Royal Hotel to continue the day's fellowship and to recount their school days and their achievements since leaving. It was good to see that the Boarders were still supporting the local well into the evening.

If one closed their eyes and listened, you would still pick out the same blokes that we all grew up with during our years at Princes; the only difference is the age. Special mention must go to Mary-Ann Standish for organising this year's event, a bit like herding wild cats but we got there in the end.

Michael Bratchell

Class of 1983 Thirty Year Reunion

The 30 Year reunion was held at the National Wine Centre with more than 50 lads in attendance, some having travelled from interstate and overseas including Canada and France. Whilst the venue was more than adequate, the company was outstanding, filled with spontaneous laughter, at times crying with laughter, it was truly fantastic to see so many old friends recollecting fondly of days gone by.

The day was a resounding success, hosted by John Stewart and attended by our former Headmaster, Geoffrey Bean, Deputy Headmaster, Milton Haseloff and several prominent Masters past and present.

Ken Watson delivered the message on behalf of Headmaster Kevin Tutt, who was unable to attend due to the commitments of the Year 12 Valedictory.

The Toast to the School was delivered by Bill Greenslade and the Response by Mark McKenzie both in true boarder fashion, entertaining with flash backs into school life.

Our "On the Couch" interviewees (Richard Cox, Newton Crawford, Simon Fry and Jonathan "Beetle" Shaw) continued in true form of old friends reunited after 30 years, both extremely entertaining and informative, and included a confessional of incidents at school — an opportunity to clear the conscience of the middle aged Princes Man!

A huge thanks to Mary-Ann Standish, PAOCA Executive Officer for putting the event together and the patient assistance in locating old friends. Thank you also to my fellow committee members, Andrew Aitken, Miles Cockington, John Stewart and Alister Willcox.

"I can't remember a better day in many years", was heard many times throughout the day and into the evening.

Class of 1993 Twenty Year Reunion

On a perfect Adelaide spring day (Friday 11 October), almost 70 of the Class of 1993 met at the Old Lion for the 20 year reunion. Many had toured the school beforehand, witnessing the significant differences to the campus we knew two decades before.

We were lucky to have many Old Reds travel from around the country to attend, and to have a number of past staff join us — Messrs Webber, Brown, Watson, Dollman, Thompson, Reidy, Murphy, Morris and Bowyer.

There were many more Reds who were keen to be there but couldn't due to distance or family and work commitments. Ben Palk provided an entertaining delivery of some apologies and messages.

As President of the PAOCA, John Jovicevic spoke on the activities of the Old Scholars including great events like the reunions. As well as representing the Headmaster, Ken Watson spoke with particular affection as both a teacher throughout our time at school, as well as a parent of a '93 school leaver. With his involvement in sporting and boarding house life, a couple of boys (against their wishes) featured in his stories.

The group was in great spirits and moved to the sunshine of the beer garden to continue reminiscing for the afternoon and well into the evening.

Our thanks go to organisers Mark De Garis and Ben Palk along with Mary-Ann Standish of the PAOCA for such a well-run event. Looking forward to the 30 year reunion already.

Ben Palk

Class of 2003 Ten Year Reunion

This year's Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Association 10 Year Reunion was held at The Hackney Hotel on Friday 25 October 2013, and attended by over 60 Old Reds and a number of current and former Masters. Prior to the dinner, David Cornish conducted a tour of the school for our benefit and it was interesting to see the significant changes to the College's infrastructure that have occurred since we left in 2003. It was a fantastic turn-out of Old Reds and a great opportunity to catch up and share our experiences for the last 10 years and discuss some stories from our school days.

Two Old Reds made an astounding effort to join us with Stuart Floyd flying in from Canada and Rowan Tape from Hong Kong! Our thanks go to Ben Heritage, Mark Virgin and Mary-Ann Standish for their help in organising the event. See you at the 20 Year Reunion!

Melbourne Dinner

Friday 1 March 2013

After the absence of an Old Collegians dinner in 2012, Melbourne welcomed an early dinner this year, proving popular with 42 Old Reds in attendance.

The evening was hosted at The Australian Club and with Melbourne turning on the weather it was a great opportunity to start the evening on the outside balcony reminiscing with pre-dinner drinks and canapés.

Once seated, we welcomed the AFL's Melbourne Co-Captain, Jack 'Trenny' Trengove (2006–09) as our guest speaker. Jack shared great insight into his time at Melbourne thus far, from earning the honours of the youngest Captain in the AFL's history, to his transition from College football to the AFL, and provided his thoughts on the recent performance enhancing drugs outrage that has hit the AFL. Jack left many a man in the room to muse over what might have been.

Thank you to Headmaster Kevin Tutt, PAOCA President John Jovicevic, Ike Kutlaca and Robert Hetzel for all attending and taking care of the formalities, as well as The Australian Club for providing an ideal venue for everyone to enjoy.

A great night was had by all and we are looking forward to the next Melbourne event.

Brisbane Dinner

Friday 9 August 2013

On Friday 9 August, 2013 The Brisbane Club played host to the Brisbane Prince Alfred Old Collegians' 30th Annual Dinner.

The night was a wonderful opportunity for the 19 Old Reds in attendance to share a laugh while regaling one another with anecdotes from their time at the school.

The evening's festivities took place under the stewardship of Brisbane newcomer, Todd Brown (1982–86). The Old Boys were entertained by Ben Whitwell (1974–85) who proposed the Toast to the School, expounding the subjects of family and the 1st XVIII. Headmaster Kevin Tutt, having made the journey from Adelaide for this auspicious occasion, delivered his reply to the toast, which was warmly received by all.

Attendees included Ralph Parsons (1936–42) and Robert McNeil (1957–61), who were present at the inaugural Brisbane dinner in 1984. Further illustrating their commitment to the Old Scholars community, the pair has only missed a handful of Brisbane dinners over the last 30 years between them. Other notable attendees included recent Member of the Order of Australia recipient, Dr Peter Woodruff AM (1952–59), and father and son duos Stan (1939–43) and Rob Nicholls (1959–65), and Ronald (1951–55) and Brenton Gibbs (1980–84).

We thank the Headmaster, John Jovicevic (PAOCA President) and Ronald Gibbs for making the journey in order to attend the dinner.

Sydney Dinner

Friday 16 August 2013

It is 6:00 pm on Friday 16 August 2013, and the 49 Old Reds that answered the call to gather for the Sydney annual dinner at Wolfies Restaurant at The Rocks start arriving. The PAOCA flag is hung above the registration table, located conveniently alongside the bar. The name tags start to be collected at an increasing rate as they are attached to jackets and shirts and then taken to the bar for a drink. The bar has been open for half an hour and the bar staff are busily opening Crownies, topping up champagnes and refilling wine glasses. The banter and laughter is increasing by the minute. The photographer is wandering around snapping away. A few of the Old Reds form a small group and pose for the camera...smile!

We have reached 7:00 pm and start to move into the dining room. We still have three hours of enjoyment ahead of us. Sitting politely, as we used to in assembly awaiting the arrival of the Headmaster and others, I sound the wine glass and the enthusiastic chatter drops to a low hush. It's my turn to welcome everyone to the dinner, mention a bit of housekeeping and read out the 23 apologies received. Our database of old boys in NSW is over 500. We have approximately 150 effective email addresses. So to have almost half the old boys from this list attending or sending their apology is encouraging.

Entrée is served, the Brioche or the Salmon! As the entrée is cleared we start the annual round of each old boy giving us a thirty-second run down on when they were at PAC and what they have been doing over the past year. It's always an enlightening and good humoured experience. Main Course is served sir, the NY Sirloin or a Salmon Fillet. A few plates were traded or anonymously swapped at this stage!

I am back up to present our guest speaker, Col David Smith AM, DSM (1983–87). David joined the Australian Regular Army in 1991. He has spent operational time in East Timor, Solomon Islands and Afghanistan. He was appointed a Member in the Military Division of the Order of Australia in 2012. In David's presentation he discussed how his time at PAC shaped his values and life skills which he has seamlessly applied in his successful military career. An excellent speech with quite a few "politically challenging" questions all handled very diplomatically by David. A comment I took away from David's speech is that "leadership is a verb not a noun."

around the room at a feverish pace and volume. All positive signs of a good night! Professor Graham Vimpani AM (1956–60) proposed the Toast to the School. It was a lovely toast in which we remembered all old boys including those who have passed. The response, in the absence of our Headmaster, was made by PAOCA Immediate Past President, Graham Burfield (1968–80). Graham updated us on the recent College news and intercol events. It seems we have come off second best with many of our clashes with Saints and we are all hopeful for next year!

The drinks are starting to slow down as our dinner begins to wind up an hour over schedule. A school tie was presented to our oldest attending old boy, Graham Gann (1951) and our youngest attending old boy Oliver Brecht (2008). I would like to make special mention to Alan Jacobs (1937) who was one of the first to RSVP with his apologies! Also, Malcolm McLachlan (1955) attended with his son Alistair (1986) travelling from Adelaide to join him. A History of the School was presented to David Smith for his efforts to prepare and present his speech.

Next year's dinner is booked for Friday 22 August 2014 and all Old Reds far and wide are welcome to attend.

Darwin Dinner

Friday 23 August 2013

The Princes & Saints Combined Old Scholars Dinner was held at Crocosaurus Cove, Darwin on Friday 23 August with four partners of Old Scholars attending for the first time. Guests were treated to an impromptu tour of the complex through the crocodile ponds and reptile displays hosted by PAOC old scholar Shaun Gamble (1984–86) and then given the opportunity to hold some restrained crocs, handle some snakes and lizards, then feed some two year old jumping crocs from the safety of a reinforced fence and lengthy fishing poles!

Michael Bratchell (1969–74) provided the opening address with a special welcome to Elias Anictomatis (Old Blue) and his wife Rosie who represented St Peter's and to the three partners of the Old Reds. He also thanked Shaun for providing such a grand venue, hospitality and experience for this year's Dinner. Apologies from both schools were acknowledged. A wrap up of sporting events, reunions, dinners and school developments was also provided.

Tom Fawcett (1956–60) from Adelaide River was deemed to be the most elderly gentleman in attendance while Andrew Gardner (2001–05) was the youngest. Robert Hudson (1959–67) was acknowledged for delaying his return to Melbourne to attend the dinner. Another successful dinner was enjoyed by all that attended, and it was agreed that future events should continue as a combined function with partners ensure that our traditions continue.

Next year's Combined Dinner, with partners, will be held during August, so watch the PAOCA website for further details.

Mike Bratchell

Canberra Dinner

Friday 20 September 2013

Held this year at the ANU, the combined Princes and Saints dinner was attended by 30 people, although down on numbers, it was high in characters.

Hosted by Edward Jackson (1986–93), soon to depart Canberra with Sarah and their family for Pretoria with the Australian Embassy, the dinner was most enjoyable. Rev David Thiem said Grace, and the School Chaplain Rev Mark Dickens spoke on behalf of Prince Alfred College.

Fred Hamood, representing the PAOCA, regaled what had been happening with the PAOCA, and many of the stories did raise a laugh or two. To get to the ANU venue, Reverend Mark used his "DGPS" * on his phone to get there in time, but somehow we got slightly lost, so much for his Divine Global Positioning System* !

The guest speaker Dr David Headon spoke (for approximately 25 minutes) on the topic of "The Origin of Canberra", and held the audience totally captivated, so much so that nobody ate their dessert for the entirety of the speech. His speech was to be for about 15 minutes, but so good were his oratory skills that his mantra of " ...and finally let me end my talk tonight ..." was repeated nearly 10 times!

Other Old Reds in attendance were Hamish Arthur (1989–91), Nick Broadbridge (2005–12), Ian Denton (1964–69), Steve Gower (1956–57), Ian Hone (1954–65) and Roger Wainwright (1957–61). A special thanks to the lovely ladies who attended and put up with all the old, very embellished and exaggerated stories of our youthful exploits at PAC.

Fred Hamood

Perth Dinner

Friday 1 November 2013

The Perth Old Collegians had a great dinner this year at the Royal Freshwater Bay Yacht Club at Peppermint Grove, and with a growing number of blokes attending.

Through the dinner there were many recollections of times spent at Princes with Jack Ashby (1957–60) speaking of the more historical and Ben Collette (1998–2002) reminiscing the more current. It seems that you can change the school but not the memories that shaped us all. There was even a very vocal rendition of the school song lead by Bill Tasker (1956–64) that must have taken the West Aussies by surprise!!

All 17 Old Reds had a great night, and commitment has been made to try and expand our event with a social event being planned for April 2014.

Naracoorte Race Day

Sunday 10 February 2013

Dwindling numbers at the South East Old Collegians' dinners prompted a new approach to get Old Reds together. It was there the idea of changing the format from a more formal evening meal to a less formal daytime event, mainly to encourage a few of the younger Old Reds, was formed. And an event it was..... a marquee at the Naracoorte Races .... the attendance of horses was optional!

Beautiful weather, a great meal and good times were enjoyed. The day started off at 11:00 am when members and their partners rolled up at will, and after many introductions due to a large cross section of ages it was time to settle in for the day. The bubbles started to flow, chatter began to fly and bets were laid! Attendance exceeded 80.

Although the marquee didn't have a direct view to the racecourse it was well set up. A sit down buffet lunch was served around Race 2 catered by Finn's Fine Foods, a lovely spread of fish, chicken, steak and salad, followed by a selection of amazing desserts!

The choice of this particular race meeting was due to the central location for our South East members and the time of year — nowhere near Christmas, not in the School Holidays, just before Vintage .... These reasons will not phase some or the time may not suit others but there were many comments made that it was a good time for most. In fact, next year's event has been booked for Sunday 9 February 2014!

Fleurieu Peninsula Dinner

Friday 17 May

Alistair Day (1990), Andrew Mosey (1981), Jack Hassell (1964) and Peter Vile (1962) at the Naracoorte Race Day

The McDonald Family: Wendy & Mark, and Douglas with his parents Tim & Margot

Immediate Past-President Graham Burfield, Vice-Presidents Andrew Clarkson and Tom Huxtable, and Committee Member Tom Lambert.

Convenor Andrew Jeffery welcomed guests, read a very long list of apologies, and proposed the Loyal Toast. Rev Rodney James (1959–63) pronounced the Grace. Grantley Sims (1949–54) proposed the Toast to The School and Andrew Jeffery proposed the Toast to the Association to which President John responded.

It was wonderful to see Bill McKenzie (1949–52) with his grandsons, Brad (2003–05) and Duncan (2005–08), John Clements (1969–74) from Normanville, Bob Babidge (1949–55) from Finnis, Bryan Kelly (1950–55) from Kangaroo Island, and Charlie Rowe and Jonathon Bray from the 2008 alumni. Guests also included Scott Bray (1976–77, and father of Jonathon), Tom Chapman (1948–58), David Hassell (1953–62), Rob Heaslip (1970–74), Lester James (1935–36), Jack McLean (1939–41), Peter Michelmore (1968–74), Stan and John Schofield (1943–52 and 1943–53 respectively), Bill Toop (1967), Jon Wiese (1964–69) and Peter Williamson (1956–65).

The 2014 dinner will be held on Friday 14 March.

Eyre Peninsula Dinner Friday 31 May 2013

The Eyre Peninsula Old Scholars Dinner was held in Port Lincoln on Friday 31 May. Chairman for the evening was Peter Treloar who warmly welcomed the thirty seven guests who had travelled from across Eyre Peninsula as well as the guests from Adelaide, Headmaster Kevin Tutt, Foundation Executive Officer David Cornish, and PAOCA Immediate Past President Graham Burfield.

The Toast to the School was made by Joe Tapley (1992–2001) who remembered fondly his time as a boarder. Joe spoke of the lifelong friendships he had made at school, and finished his speech with a memorable piece of poetry!

The Headmaster responded and spoke of current activities and events occurring at the school. He made mention of the new RED Centre, the high achievements on the sporting field, in the class room and in the community. He highlighted the popularity of boarding at Princes with the boarding house virtually full and the exciting plans of a brand new boarding house which will offer boys a first class boarding facility once complete.

The Toast to The Association was made by Michael Treloar who spoke of the value the old scholars offers to its members. He made particular reference to the POAC Football Club which currently has four teams in the Amateur League. There has been a big influx of young men who have recently left school which enables them to continue their association with Princes.

Graham Burfield responded and spoke of the many sporting clubs the old scholars have, and how we had performed very well against the arch rivals from up the road in the annual events. He spoke of the importance of the 'Old Scholars' to the school community and ever growing list of dinners that are occurring around the world. The annual dinner in Adelaide is a highlight on the calendar and he encouraged anyone interested to attend.

Ties were awarded to Mark and Tim McDonald for their many years of support they have given to the school and the Association.

London News

The London Old Reds group has continued to grow and flourish during another fine year of combined events with Saints, and featuring several casual pub meets, more formal dinners, and of course the Intercol.

New Year Drinks

A reliable cohort attended our first drinks for 2013 on Thursday 28 February held at the Mitre Tavern in Hatton Garden. Whilst unfortunately there were some notable apologies including that of our Dear Mr Turner, and Mr Kneebone, we were delighted to welcome back an Old Red of some vintage, Mr Michael "Mitch" Martin, (1951–55), and Club Legend David "The Great and the Good" Gray (1954–62).

With many, many beers, scotch eggs, pork pies and toasted sandwiches under the belt, Andrew Hough MT (1994–98) had the attention of all with his delivery of the Toast to Red and Blue. Conversation topics ranged from the usual sport and business fodder to recent parenthood, and Mr Patrick Khoo's (1994–98) patriotic sartorial coordination in the form of red chinos, red scarf, and red shirt. It was fantastic to have the opportunity on the one hand to discuss with Mr Martin his history here in London, including his medical practice and recent role as an educator, and on the other, to join Colin "Super Cat" Frearson (1986–89) for what can only be described as an incendiary escalation of proceedings in the Royal Borough of Chelsea.

On this note it is confirmed that Messrs Pontt, Khoo, Lim, Chong and Frearson boarded the Venga Bus from the Mitre to the infamous 151 Bar in Chelsea, where all covered themselves in glory on the dancefloor. Had anyone needed to wash their clothes, they needed only throw them at the flailing Princes arms and Saints legs and add a dash of water and a pinch of powder to ensure a comprehensive spin cycle!

The club stanza of the evening came to a close after Super Cat's disappearance in circumstances not unlike those of the late Prime Minister Harold Holt. In fact, one might venture that the phrase for a speedy and discreet exit, "doing a ninja" might appropriately now be replaced with, "doing a Super Cat".

To top it all off, the remaining foursome had a full dinner at 4am in China Town after settling what threatened to be a heated scuffle with the usual Haymarket urchins outside the chosen restaurant.

In summary: for God and for Country, we did brave deeds and endured.

2013 Annual Dinner

The 107th PAOCA London Annual Dinner saw twenty-five Old Collegians in the fine surrounds of the Canadian Room of the East India Club.

The evening heralded a return to the formality of times past, with a packed Agenda, including several toasts by the incoming Master of Toasts, one Colin "Super Cat" Frearson, a black tie dress code, and the attendance of the Headmaster, Mr Kevin Tutt, and the Agent-General for South Australia, Mr Bill Muirhead AM.

Highlights included:

1. Terrific speeches on the part of the Headmaster, taking in a history of Prince Alfred himself, and the Agent-General.
2. Hilarious State of the Nation Addresses given by Patrick Khoo and Leigh "Big Bird" Schelvis.
3. An impromptu rendition of "The Princes First XVIII" by all in attendance during the group photo, led by the Headmaster, belting out our favourite tune with obvious passion.
4. Toasts to and gifts for our Living Patron Saint Mr David Gray, and seasoned Red Mr Doug Charlton, unable to attend due to illness, but so generous as to have bought the group 4 bottles of champagne, which was duly toasted and swilled in his honour. A toast was given in Mr Charlton's honour, to be delivered at all future significant PAOCA London gatherings – the Toast to the Inner Ratbag:

"The Inner Ratbag

Gentlemen, please fill and raise your glasses once more. We drink to a man of our Community who, despite what life has thrown at him, serves as a model for our School's motto, fac fortia et patere. A committed London Chapter member possessing that elusive and alchemic mix of scholar and troublemaker. A man who retains a courageous sense of humour. A man who wears with pride the true irreverent spirit of the digger. May we all retain a modicum of this spirit and humour in our own lives, and draw together close when life's challenges warrant. Gentlemen we drink to Mr Doug Charlton, and his and our own Inner Ratbag."

Best afield after the dinner went to John "Churchill" Walkley (the Oldest Old Red in attendance, PAC 1960), who exhibited extraordinary charm with the ladies, and fortitude and energy at his vintage, and posed for several photographs in front of St Paul's Cathedral, at the behest of various young admirers.

The next day, in sweltering English conditions, and under the duress of the previous evening's tectonic rinse, the Princes First XI made the train journey to Thundridge, Herts, sweating bullets, and ready for sharpeners.

Upon reaching the venue, the men were overwhelmed by the incredible ground and surrounds of Thundridge. Idyllic, and henceforth the Home of London Intercol.

New York News

New York Christmas Drinks

On Thursday 20 December 2012, five Old Reds residing in and around New York City were brought together for the Inaugural Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Association Christmas Drinks at The Australian bar in midtown Manhattan.

There were a wide selection of Old Reds at the event, including Barry Rice (1970–72), Dan Jenson (1988–92), Ed Brockhoff (1997–2001), Hamish Smyth (2000–04) and Jordan Walsh (2005–09). Although the group was only small, having such a wide range of Old Reds made the conversation very interesting, including discussing the various teachers which everyone at the event had had during their time at PAC!

We are hoping that we can continue the Christmas Drinks for many years to come, and that next year other Old Reds from around the USA and Canada will be able to venture to NYC for what was proven to be a very enjoyable night with fellow Old Reds.

Many thanks to Mary-Ann Standish and Ed

Brockhoff for making the inaugural PAOCA Christmas Drinks in NYC possible. To everyone who attended the night, thank you and I look forward to sharing the experience with you in 2013!

Inaugural New York Dinner

Friday 28 June 2013

144 years after Prince Alfred College opened its doors, New York City hosted its first PAOCA dinner (or so we believe!). It was an impressive roll call with honoured guests including the Headmaster, Kevin Tutt, and the Director of Rowing, Dr Andrew Randell. Eighteen Old Scholars attended the dinner at Betel Restaurant in the West Village, along with partners and friends.

We were fortunate to have Professor Brian Skinner (1943–46), make the journey from Yale University to deliver the Toast to the School and to the Association. He provided a fascinating insight into studying at PAC under the shadow of World War II, and how his early experiences influenced his subsequent personal and professional development. The Headmaster was able to provide a more recent update on positive developments at the school — useful indeed for those who would have to travel to the other side of the world to see the iconic green gates in person!

We look forward to regular future events in the Big Apple — to strengthen friendships between Old Scholars in the USA, and to solidify our ongoing bond to the school.

Achievements in 2013

Junior League: Congratulations to our Division 1 team which won silver in the first Junior League season for 2013, and to James Grounds, who was voted best player for Division 2. As always, we very much appreciate the efforts of the players and their parents who assist as team managers during the competition, as well as coaches Andrew Harvey, Jim Leaney and Kelvin Ching who put the juniors through their paces every Sunday morning.

State Representatives: The club is pleased to acknowledge the achievements of the following club players who have represented the state at junior and senior level in 2013: Josephine Liu, Jessica Wu, Malvika Hemanth, Cindy Cheung, Talia Saunders, Stuart Rowlands, Lionel Seah and Andrew Surman. We also acknowledge Chris Thirlwell who volunteers as state coach at Under 19 and Senior level, Chad Whitehead who coached the Under 17 team this year, and Senior team manager Kevin Khaw. Congratulations and thanks to all for your hard work.

Club News: After two years of playing at Norwood-Morialta High School on Sundays the club was finally able to move back to its home venue of Prince Alfred College in May 2013. During this time the old sports centre was completely re-fitted and extended with a second brand new sports hall, giving us two halls for badminton practice on Sundays, each with six courts. While the purple lines and lighting have taken some getting used to, overall the club is very happy with the venue. Thanks to the PAOCA and staff at PAC for assisting with the negotiations on the lease agreement with the RED Centre.

Team News

State League finished third in the winter competition.

A Grade finished third in the winter competition

C grade finished third in the winter competition.

Social Events/Tournaments

In November 2012 the club held its annual Junior Singles tournament with the Liz Ashforth trophy going to Malvika Hemanth, who defeated Hugo Chapman in the Open Division final. Oscar Chapman defeated Callan Bubner to win Division 1 and in Division 2 Mael Favre defeated Angel Cheung in a close-fought match.

In November 2012 the club mixed doubles championship (the Brian Semple Trophy) was won by Shiyao Yu and Angelique Roebbers who defeated Jane Olsson and Alex Hanyasz in the final.

The club's annual presentation night was held on 11 October 2013 at The Kensington Hotel after the conclusion of the winter season. The club's MVP awards were presented on the night.

The club's annual trip to the Southern Vales wineries took place in November 2013, with members enjoying some good food and wine at Coriole Winery.

Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Basketball Club

Let me start at the end. The 2013 season ended with the greatest day in the Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Basketball Club's 21 year history. For the first time the Club had four teams playing on Grand Final day and all four were victorious.

Our G team crushed Saints D team to win a Premiership in their first year. Our F team were undefeated winning by two on a buzzer beater from Jay Nguyen. The C team took out C grade with a gutsy win and in our A team won their 6th consecutive A-Grade Premiership.

These reports over recent years have started to sound repetitive. We continue to win premierships and we continue to have a great time!

2013 once again delivered a brilliant year of basketball, social events and hilarious match reports. Every team competed strongly in their grade and our players grew in their ability and as individuals.

Our Saturday men's teams grew once again to a new record of seven teams. Our rookie class was particularly strong and our talented youngsters have a great future ahead of them.

In NE2 Grade our F's and G's took out the A and B Grade premierships. Both these teams showed great heart and gelled extremely well. The enjoyment of the youngsters and veterans alike was great to watch.

NE1 Grade saw our D's and E's finish third and fourth (both above Saints B team) meaning one would knock out the other in the finals. After the E's emerged victorious, they would sadly fall at the next hurdle, but both teams had years inspiring pride.

In C Grade our C's would emerge victorious in what was a great year for a really fun and inspiring team to watch. They were probably the fifth or sixth best team in the whole Association, but we can't have three teams in the A/B grade.

In the A/B Grade for the second year in a row our A's would finish top, our B team would finish knocking Saints A team out of the finals and our A's would beat our B's in the prelim before taking out the flag. We have a way we like to do things.

Our Lady Reds team played their third season and in spite of a significant turnover of players, continue to get closer to the Women's A-grade premiership.

Player's Player award winners for best player in each Saturday team as voted by teammates were Jack Harford (A), Mike Hill (B), Nathan Graham (C), Jono Self (D), Josh Moorfoot (E) Brad Hughes (F) and Reid Amos (G).

Returning from injury Stu MacDonald's ability to lead the social aspects of the Club were recognised with the award as the Best Club Man. Stu is a great person who is liked by everyone he meets and he adds so much to the social fabric of our club. Nathan Graham in his tenth season received Life Membership of the Club and won the Club Champion Award after delivering an outstanding season. There were games where his scoring was unstoppable and after being so close on a handful of previous occasions it is great that Nathan has finally won the Award.

The season was not without its downside. Tim Purgacz has been such a key part of building the winning culture of the Club. Unfortunately he suffered a likely career ending knee injury early in the season and his on court influence will be greatly missed. It is great to see that he wants to remain a strong part of the off court part of the Club and is already finding new ways to contribute.

Finally, a special mention to Ben Palk who played his 500th recorded match for the Club this season. Ben's contribution to the Club continues to dwarf that of those around him. His efforts particularly, as well as those of many others, over many years have led to this prolonged period of success for the Club.

The Club strives to provide a welcoming, strong and competitive atmosphere for old scholars and their friends to play basketball. We are always looking for new players of any level to join in the fun and add to our Club and we have one of the lowest membership fees and student discounts available. So if you're an Old Red looking for a basketball club, come join us. Check our website at <http://oldredsbasketball.blogspot.com.au/> for more information.

Liam Golding

Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Cricket Club

With three teams coming into this season as reigning premiers (and one as runners up), season 2012-13 was always going to be a challenge for the club. Despite this the club performed admirably and going into the final minor round game, all teams were in finals contention. Unfortunately only the A and D-Grade qualified for the major round, with the C-Grade missing finals qualification by less than four runs.

The A-Grade was once again the club's most successful team and qualified for its third grand final in the past four seasons. The grand final went down as one for the record books with a first innings tie which, in the absence of a result on second innings, would have resulted in a joint premiership. Unfortunately the team couldn't hold on with Grange securing the outright win late on day two. Sam Tyler is to be commended once again for his outstanding leadership. Sam Hurburgh was the winner of the Ted Norman Cup for A-Grade Batting (458 runs at 32.71) whilst the Murray M Wellington Shield for A-Grade Bowling was won by Tim Boucaut for the second year running (40 wickets at 8.08). A-Grade wicket keeper, Michael Richardson, had a strong year with the gloves and won the Olsson Family Trophy for A-Grade Fielding.

The D-Grade, having been promoted this year, was narrowly defeated by Walkerville in their Semi-Final. Will Thomas once again lead from the front, taking out the batting trophy (217 runs at 21.70). The bowling trophy was won by Jackson Southcott (17 wickets at 8.88).

The B-Grade was once again very competitive but unable to deliver at key moments throughout the season. Dave Gerner won the batting trophy (224 runs at 32.00) while Max Burford won the bowling trophy for the second year in a row (25 wickets at 17.40) and also secured the Mark Schwartz Award for Best 21 and Under Player.

The C-Grade, having been promoted this year, was up against strong competition and in many cases was playing against B-Grade opposition. Captain Antony 'Jack' Brabham ably led the C-Grade bowling attack once again, taking out the bowling trophy for the second year in a row (26 wickets at 13.88). Ben Lobban was the leading batsman (224 runs at 37.33) and after more than a decade at the club, scored his first ever century. Ben's season culminated in winning the club's most coveted award, the Redman Trophy.

The E-Grade, under the leadership of Alex Marantos and Charlie Aust, finished fifth. Alex easily won the batting trophy (327 runs at 54.50) while club veteran Andrew Heitmann won the bowling trophy (23 wickets at 14.57).

Matthew Kildea won the Moffat Family Trophy for Best Club Man for his two years as Treasurer which resulted in over $20,000 being generated. Some of these funds were set aside to contribute to the Park 9 pitch redevelopment which is currently underway (see below).

We would like to thank both Prince Alfred College and the Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Association for their support in relation to this project to date.

PAOCCC trains on Tuesday and Thursday nights on the PAC Front Oval, and all new players are welcome. The Club also enters three T20 teams in the ATCA competition and has an active social program based at The Hackney Hotel.

Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Football Club

The 2013 season was another step forward for the Reds with so much young talent sprinkled across the grades leading all four sides to finals action. The A Grade was the side that showed the most improvement, finishing 4th in the minor round. The highlight of the season was a six game winning streak in the middle of the year where the side showed its potential. This winning streak included a strong victory over eventual premier Portland. The side unfortunately lost to Flinders Park in the Elimination Final but has set itself up for success in the coming years.

Matt Jackman capped off a great year in the middle of the ground by winning the Ross C Johnston Trophy for Best and Fairest. Will Hugo was runner up and also had a strong showing in the League Best and Fairest medal count. A number of other players had impressive seasons including Karl Siebels up forward, Cameron Graetz (Rookie of the Year) and Will Curyer.

The B Grade experienced the ultimate heartbreak losing their elimination final to a kick after the siren. Coach Tom Martin did a great job developing his young playing group and the manner in which the side went out was very disappointing. Youngster Lachlan Wilson won the Best and Fairest in an impressive first season. Special mention to Scot Tyndall who collected the Division 2 Reserves Leading Goalkicker Award.

The C Grade was vastly different to the experienced side that had collected four premierships and a preliminary final over the previous five years. The older heads were replaced by a large group of recent school leavers including Will McPhee, Jack McPhee, Lachlan Burns, Angus Parkinson and many more. The side had an impressive minor round finishing 4th on the ladder with the highlight being a victory over minor premier SMOSH West Lakes. Their season ended in the first week of the finals with a seven point loss to Adelaide University. Tim Sanders once again took out the Best and Fairest as well as the Ron Carter Award and was runner-up for the League medal. Nick Brooks had a very impressive minor round finishing with 91 goals taking out the Club Leading Goalkicker Award and the Division 8 Leading Goalkicker Award.

The D Grade surprised everyone by making the finals in 5th position and then progressing all the way through to the Preliminary Final. Coach Antony Brabham was extremely proud of how his side stood up throughout the finals series which included impressive wins over Modbury and Salisbury. James Hill won the Best and Fairest for the side.

Other highlights from the end of season awards night included the presentation of Best Club Man to James Parkinson, the Headmasters Award to Joseph Du Rieu and Most Improved to Max Clarke.

The Club is now looking forward to the 2014 season with Coach Peter Walsh already signed for the upcoming season. Any players interested in playing should contact Michael Siciliano (michael@branomiimports.com.au).

Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Hockey Club

PACHC fielded one team for the 2013 season, playing in the Metro 3's division of the Hockey SA metropolitan competition. Enthusiasm was high during the pre-season trainings with turnout numbers being higher than previous seasons.

The Club had to deal with playing mostly away games this year with the delay in availability of the PAC hockey pitch due to the completion of the construction of the gym and reinstatement of the supergrass taking longer than expected. The pitch had been expected to be available from mid to late April, but the surface wasn't ready until August.

The team had a fairly good year in terms of results on the pitch, improving on previous seasons. We had wins against top 4 teams, showing we have the ability to beat quality opposition. Unfortunately we had some losses against teams that finished below us on the ladder, which ultimately cost us a spot in finals. The team had quite a solid defensive unit, anchored by new goalkeeping recruit Matthew Hood. We lacked some hunger and some composure in front of goal on occasions during the season which would have converted some losses into draws or wins.

The season ended with eight wins, three draws and seven losses. The team finished fifth on the ladder with 27 points (one position out of finals, being five points behind the fourth placed team). Despite the disappointment of missing out on finals, it was good to see some improvement in results this season, with the team's highest ladder finish since last making the finals in 2007. The team managed to score 43 goals this year, while conceding 34. David Pascoe was the leading goal scorer with 11 goals, followed by Hamish Eske and Marcus Staker with 8 goals each. The award winners for this year were: Best and Fairest — James McGregor; and Most Improved — James Risby.

I'd like to thank Andrew Baillie for his assistance and support again this season in the administration and running of the Club both on and off the field. Thank you to Sam Tyler who umpired again for us in a majority of our games. The Club also thanks Tom Ricketts and the Seven Stars Hotel for its ongoing support.

The Club will again be fielding one team next season in the Metro 3's division, with the season getting underway in April 2014. We'll be looking to take the next step and break back into the finals after falling just short this year. Both new and old players are always welcome to come out for a run. If you are interested in either returning to hockey or continuing hockey after finishing school, please contact Alex Chapman (M: 0418 313 630 and E: chappy14@gmail.com).

Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Soccer Club

The 2013 season saw the Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Soccer Club continue to make progress in the rebuilding of the club.

The current board of the soccer club took charge of the club at the end of 2011 with nine players and a severe shortage of funds. Over the past two seasons the club has grown to three teams comprising a total of 44 registered players. The club's financial position has also improved.

The onfield performance of the club is also improving. The A team managed to accrue a precious number of wins after a winless 2012 season. The results for the B and C teams were even more encouraging. The B team had a slow start to the season but managed to string together a strong run of victories mid-season to eventually settle mid table.

The C team sat top of ladder mid-season but couple of draws and narrow losses towards the end of the season saw them fall out of contention and finish a very respectable fourth.

The Club is well positioned for further growth and is looking forward to a prosperous 2014 season.

The Club is looking for a major sponsor for 2014 and beyond, and is willing to offer very competitive rates. If you are able to assist please contact me at Michael.chrisohou@gmail.com

Prince Alfred Old Collegians' Squash Club

Thanks to our former secretary Will Gray over the past few years our Old Collegians Squash Club has been one of the strongest in this state even though we have been scattered throughout metropolitan Adelaide with teams competing from South Adelaide, Norwood, YMCA at Walkerville, Karadinda at Modbury North and Ingle Farm. Yet, despite the fragmentation, the Club has been very successful in competition recording successes this year in the autumn pennant at the very top Premier League, Division 1 and Division 2.

However in part, due to the unavailability of our courts at the Red centre until this current spring pennant, the majority of players decided to remain at those venues they have been playing at over the last few years.

This has drastically reduced our Club's numbers resulting in only two pennant teams competing; one in the top Premier League and the other in Division 1. However, while our numbers are small we are building a strong social group of Old Reds at all ages and levels. I invite old scholars interested in playing for the Old Reds either in pennant or at a social level to contact either myself Rex Wilson on 0412 813 415 or our Club Secretary Mark Esau on 0418 852 606.

Rex Wilson
